LOCAL NEWS

—Communion services will be held in the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning.

—A social was held on Dr. W. T. Butler's lawn on Thursday evening and a very good time is reported by all who attended.

—The contract for erecting the porch on the parochial residence of St. Mary Magdalen's church has been let to Edward Pierce, of Carbondale.

—The employees of the Durland-Weston Shoe factory are enjoying their annual summer vacation. The factory will start operations on Monday next.

—The St. John's Catholic Total Abstinence Society held a Temperance Rally at the church on Sunday evening. A special sermon on "Temperance" was delivered by the pastor, Father John O'Toole and a large attendance was present.

—Think of the thousands of unfortunate children in crowded New York City who do not know what it is to enjoy the liberties of country and town life! Surely your heart is not so hard that you will not entertain one or more of these little ones sometime during the coming few weeks.

—Honesdale met defeat at the hands of the Jermyn team at that place on Saturday last by a score of 5 to 2. It was a good game throughout and the locals got three scratch hits off Watkins. The batteries for Honesdale were Gregor and Jacobs; Watkins and Miller for Jermyn. The latter got only four hits off Gregor.

—The ladies of the Presbyterian church of Prompton will observe July 4 by giving a supper at the home of Henry Mohr. Chicken pie and hot cake will be served at 12 o'clock. Ice cream and cake will be served throughout the day. Many fancy articles, such as quilts, aprons, etc., will be on sale. Everybody is invited. Dinner, 35 cents.

—An item in Friday's issue of The Citizen found under the Tyler Hill notes, read as follows: "Kennedy Johnston has been painting his house with a buttermilk formula." Mr. Johnston objects to the statement as given and wishes it to read: "Kennedy Johnston has been painting his house with white lead and linseed oil." As Mr. Johnston says: "There is a vast difference between buttermilk and linseed oil" and all our readers will agree with him.

—Honesdale people are maintaining their well-known reputation for generous hospitality by entering heartily into a proposal to entertain a party of New York children, who will be sent to the town by the New York Tribune, which continues its splendid work of humanity, the Fresh Air society. In the course of 20 years many thousands of poor children from the metropolis have been given a new lease on life through the opportunity to spend a few weeks in the country in the hot season.—Pittston Gazette.

—Two men of Dyberry were arrested Thursday evening by Officer Canivan for being drunk and disorderly and he took them before Justice of the Peace W. H. Ham who conducted a preliminary hearing. One of the men had over one hundred dollars on his person. He told the justice that he had had more but that the rest went for booze. The two men were lodged in the county jail over night and on Friday morning they were released after paying a small fine and costs. Mr. Ham said he had let them off easy for the offense had taken place outside the borough.

—Don't forget to swat the flies. —The T. B. Clark cut glass factory closed down Saturday for a week's suspension. The shop will reopen July 8. —On July 4th the Delaware and Hudson will run special trains from Honesdale to Lake Lodore, leaving at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. —Company E have added five more recruits to their already large company. Election of officers will be held this (Tuesday) evening. —The dance given by the Seelyville Fire company in their hall on Saturday evening was a big success both financially and socially and everybody had a good time.

—Miss Florence Warren will open a choral class for the study of vocal music Friday night, July 6, at the Damascus Baptist church. All are invited. —The Wayne County Savings Bank declared a quarterly dividend of 4 per cent. on Monday and all stockholders received the bank's check for the interest on their stock. —Paul Frederic's store in the Brady building has been treated to a coat of green paint, which sets it off distinctly from the stores on either side. —J. J. Canivan moved his household goods from the rooms in the city hall recently occupied by him to his new quarters in the Mrs. Tilleu house on Eleventh street on Monday.

Burns journeyed to Beachlake from Honesdale the same day where the distinguished surgeon performed an operation upon Prower Budd. —If you want to have a good time go to Pleasant Mount to spend your Fourth of July vacation. There will be a ball game in the morning at 10 o'clock. Dinner will be served by the ladies at noon and again at night. The Vandling Glee club of twelve male voices will furnish the music during the day and evening. Mrs. Augusta Friedewald will entertain in the evening at 7:30 o'clock after which a social time will follow.

—A farmer gives this simple method of ridding farms of rats: "On a large number of pieces of old shingles I put about half a teaspoonful of molasses, and on that sprinkled a small amount of concentrated lye, then placed the shingles around under the cribs. The next morning I found forty dead rats, and the rest left the place. I have tried several farms and have never failed to rid them of these pests." —One thousand three hundred and fifty-three school children of Williamsport deposited more than $6,000 in pennies, nickels and dimes in the school savings bank during the term just closed. The total now on deposit is $31,276.08.—Wellsboro Gazette. A good suggestion for any school to take up, as there never was a time when it was harder for the youth of America to save than at present, some attraction being present on every hand to get the pennies and nickels.

—The Herald Press Association stockholders met on Friday last and elected the following directors: N. A. Hulbert, Scranton; J. G. Hill, P. A. Clark, C. A. McCarty, Fred Saunders, C. E. Sandercock and Bernard Rellley. The latter and former were elected in place of F. P. Kimble and R. M. Stocker. The directors elected the following officers: President, P. A. Clark; N. A. Hulbert, treasurer, and C. A. McCarty, secretary. C. E. Sandercock was retained as editor and manager.

—The use of chloroform, ether and cocaine, as anaesthetics, is strongly discouraged by a report of prominent surgeons to the American Medical Association, which met in Atlantic City recently. These surgeons have carefully analyzed and prepared clinical data on the subject of anaesthesia and they have come to the conclusion that chloroform, ether and cocaine are no longer safe, and they have asked the association to go on record as opposed to their use. The association is asked to place itself on record in favor of nitrous oxide. This, they say, is not only absolutely safe, but there is no shock or bad after-effects.

—Dr. E. L. Kemp has been re-elected principal of the East Stroudsburg State Normal School. As was to be expected Dr. E. L. Kemp, the principal for so many years and under whose guidance and direction the school has grown to such wonderful proportions, was re-elected unanimously. There is no harder worker in the country than is this well known educator, says the Monroe Record, and he has raised the standard of the school to such an extent that there is none better in the state. And the discipline of the school is also something to conjure about. All this is due to the work of Dr. Kemp. Miss Laverne Goodnough has been elected teacher of kindergarten work.

—Lackawanna county conclave of Heptasophs will conduct an excursion to Lake Lodore on July 17, and already members of the order are looking forward to the occasion as a jolly event for themselves, wives and sweethearts. The arrangement committee is preparing a program of sports and have secured a beautiful cut glass water set for a prize. The Heptasophs are strong in numbers in Lackawanna county and a big turnout is expected at the excursion. Wayne county order of Heptasophs will be represented there on that day when a large number from Honesdale and Hawley will be there to take their part in the festivities of the day. A ball game between two local teams will be part of the afternoon program.

RECENT INSURANCE DECISION.

if Husband Dies First Heirs of Wife Entitled to Policy. Where a husband takes out a life insurance policy for the benefit of his wife and she dies before him, the heirs of his wife are entitled to the proceeds of the policy as against the executors of the husband, according to the decision of the New York court of appeals in the case of Bradshaw et al., executors, vs. Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York. In this case it appeared that the insured paid premiums on the policy after the death of his wife on the mistaken statement by an officer of the insurance company that the policy would be payable to the husband's estate, if he continued to pay premiums.
