Over in Carbondale they have two moving picture houses that occupy the same block. The competition has become so great between these two places of amusement that one of the proprietors advertised recently that he would give lemonade and lolly pops to each patron. Y. Mr. R. B. Derry, of Scranton, the agent, conducted the demonstration and it was judged a success. Frank Wasman has a barber's equipment which is claimed to be nearly 200 years old. It was presented to him by Peter Manger and was formerly the property of the latter's great-grandfather who lived in Germany. The outfit consists of a box for soap, another apartment for instruments used in bleeding persons and a looking glass. There is five different straps for holding razors, in which is still an old time razor. It is crude in its design and looks more like a meat cleaver than a razor. A lather brush in those days was like a tooth brush. Barbers in the early ages, and it is claimed the custom is still followed, travel from place to place and carry their folding barber shop under their arm.

M. C. Spangenberg, of Pink, lost about $1,000 as the result of his barn and contents burning last Friday afternoon. The barn was struck by lightning during a thunder storm and if it had not been for the shifting of the wind his house would have also burned. As it was his barn, several tons of hay and rye, farming implements and tools were all burned. Mr. Spangenberg carried $150 on his barn and the same amount on contents.

The accident was caused by a broken rail. The Port Jervis wreckers were called as also were the Delaware and Hudson crew of Carbondale. Both crews worked all day and did not succeed in clearing up the debris until about 7 o'clock that night. Nearly 100 feet of track was torn up. No one was injured.

Now that the state supreme court has decided that townships are responsible for damages caused by "thank-yo-marms," as the humps in country roads are termed, it is quite liable that these nuisances will be abated, at least after some of the townships settle damage claims. True, some speed maniacs deserve what they get at these places, but careful drivers, who come suddenly on these obstructions often suffer. Not even a township supervisor has the right to put obstructions in the road, the court held.

The distribution will begin in October and fish able to take care of themselves will be planted. A number of fishing clubs have offered assistance to Commissioner Buller in this work.

Last Wednesday the auto stage running between Callicoon Depot and Callicoon Centre, operated by Wesley Dorrer, had a collision with a rig driven by George Schlemmer, of Tennanah Lake, both conveyances locking wheels and going over a 20-foot embankment. Several men in the auto were more or less seriously injured and George Schlemmer was killed by his horse and received a fracture of the skull. He was taken to the Port Jervis Hospital and lies in a critical condition. The other injured parties had their wounds dressed by Dr. Shonger, of North Branch, and are getting along nicely. It is almost a miracle the accident did not result more seriously and with the loss of several lives.

He was lodged in the county jail to await a hearing. On Monday afternoon he was arraigned before Squire R. A. Smith and the charges read to him. He pleaded guilty and said he intended to reform. The complaint is the outcome of several "sprees" indulged in by Gillet but the one in particular happened on June 29 when he got into a scrape on lower Church street and proceeded to disturb the neighborhood. The warrant was not served at that time as it is said that Gillet left, but he was arrested on Saturday and put in jail. Squire Smith gave the man his choice between a term in jail and a fine of $10 and costs. Gillet took the latter.

Conductor Frank Geraghty, Newburgh branch of the Erie, was greeted by a passenger in Port Jervis on Friday morning with the remark, "Conductor, I am on a hunting trip, but I am not hunting game." It seems he was looking for some relatives he had left in Orange county, when a lad of 12 years. He had left home to see the world, journeying to Missouri. Facial resemblance was so strong that Geraghty said he guessed it wouldn't be such a hard job and advised the stranger to get off at Salisbury Mills and he would find his brother, Mr. Seaman, superintendent of the out door work of the paper mill. The two brothers had not seen each other in over half a century.

She was born July 27, 1814. Mrs. Monroe retains her mental faculties to a remarkable degree and reads the daily and weekly papers with as much interest as any of the family. She partakes of three meals daily at the family table, walks out and in at will, and seems contented and happy.

Postoffice Inspector J. N. Sharpstein has been busy the past week in Susquehanna on a case of using the mails for the purpose of trouble making. An investigation into the anonymous mail parcels resulted in the arrest of Mrs. Dolan, a prominent society woman of that place. She was arrested by Reputy United States Marshal Hugh Evans, of Scranton, and a hearing of her case will probably be held on Wednesday. She is held under $400 bail. It is charged that about two years ago anonymous post cards and letters began to go to the homes of people in Susquehanna telling wives of the misconduct of their husbands and warning the husbands of the conduct of their wives. For the past two years the town has been thrown into a ferment. Although Mrs. Dolan denies the charge, Inspector Sharpstein says that the handwriting of the woman and the letters have been compared and they are identical.

SEPTEMBER IS THE LAST MONTH FOR SWATTING FLIES IN THE CITIZEN CONTEST So Please Kill That Fly! HOUSEHOLDERS PLEASE READ BECAUSE

- 1. The fly is the most dangerous wild animal in America. 2. Flies breed in manure and other filth. Filth is the flies' food. Flies carry filth to our food. 3. Flies walk and feed on excreta and sputa from people ill with typhoid fever, tuberculosis, diarrhoeal affections and many other diseases. 4. One fly can carry and may deposit on our food 6,000,000 germs. 5. One fly in one summer may produce normally 195,312,500,000,000,000 descendants. Therefore kill the flies before they begin to breed. 6. A fly is an enemy to health, the health of our children, the health of our community! A fly cannot develop from the egg in less than eight days. Therefore if we clean up everything thoroughly every week and keep all manure screened there need be no flies. Will you help in the campaign against the pest?

RULES FOR DEALING WITH THE FLY NUISANCE Keep the flies away from the sick, especially those ill with contagious diseases. Kill every fly that strays into the sickroom. His body is covered with disease germs. Do not allow decaying material of any sort to accumulate on or near your premises. Screen all food and insist that your grocer, butcher, baker and every one from whom you buy foodstuffs does the same. Don't buy foodstuffs where flies are tolerated. Don't eat where flies have access to food. Keep all receptacles for garbage carefully covered and the cans cleaned or sprinkled with oil or lime. Keep all stable manure in vault or pit, screened or sprinkled with lime, oil or other cheap preparations, as 98 per cent. of the flies come from stable manure and 2 per cent. from garbage and other filth. Keep the streets and alleys clean. See that your sewage system is in good order; that it does not leak, is up to date and not exposed to flies. Pour kerosene into the drains. Burn pyrethrum powder in the house to kill the flies or use a mixture of formaldehyde and water, one spoonful to a quart of water. This exposed in the room will kill all the flies. Burn or bury all table refuse. Screen all windows and doors, especially in the kitchen and dining room. If you see flies you may be sure that their breeding place is in nearby filth. It may be behind the door, under the table or in the cuspidor. Remove all refuse and filth from house, yard and outhouses and thus prevent flies from breeding on your premises. If there is no dirt and filth there will be no flies. IF THERE IS A NUISANCE IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD WRITE AT ONCE TO THE HONESDALE BOARD OF HEALTH. "Health is wealth," and "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure." There is more health in a house well screened than in many a doctor's visit. The only safe way is to keep out the flies.
