LOCAL NEWS

—Some persons are more successful when looking for trouble than others.

—Remember the dates of the celebration. All roads will lead to Honesdale.

—The newly organized Eagle orchestra will furnish music at the Labor day picnic on Monday, Sept. 2, at Bellevue park.

—Mrs. Charles Penwarden, of New York City, played the organ at the Methodist church Sunday evening. Mr. Charles Penwarden, violinist, also assisted with the music the same evening.

—Nicholas B. Spencer, chairman of the privilege committee of the Wayne County celebration, reports that the Delaware and Hudson company has offered the committee the use of the lawns adjoining their station on Main street.

—The following letters remain uncalled for at the Honesdale postoffice: A. C. Brannen, Mrs. Robert Broomfield, James H. Fowler, Carrie Furkerson, Edna Groat, Mrs. John Loed, Miss E. H. Mott, Price Howard, Antonio Rigyo, Tlatlko Touyka.

—The street committee of the town council met on Monday evening and it was decided to place an incandescent lamp in Riverside park, near East street, as asked for by the Improvement Association. The bridge will also be provided with an additional lamp.

—A slight wreck occurred in the Delaware and Hudson yard on Saturday afternoon last. The freight locomotive became derailed near the Erie pockets, on a siding, and the crew being unable to replace the engine upon the tracks, the Carbondale wrecking crew was called. The freight was four hours late leaving Honesdale.

—Members of the "500" card club entertained about fifty of the friends at Lyric hall last Thursday evening. First and second prizes were secured by Miss Bessie Lawyer and Miss Madeline O'Connell and Masey Truscott and Leon Brewer, in order mentioned. Fruit punch and wafers were served during the evening. The affair closed with dancing, Miss Helen Beck, pianist.

—F. X. Soete has purchased of W. F. Suydam, of Paterson, the latter's former home, including three parcels of land, 130x150 feet. The lots are located on Ninth and Court streets and is one of the most desirable locations in Honesdale. Mr. Soete took possession on Monday and commenced moving his household effects from his home on Fourth street Tuesday. Consideration private.

—Work is progressing rapidly at the Borden milk shipping establishment at East Honesdale. The concrete roadway is about completed and operations upon the building will commence in a few days. The equipment will be one of the most modern and up-to-date used by this large concern. The Borden company employ their own carpenters and other mechanics in erecting their building.

—The Pecks and Alexanders unite with the Kennedys for their annual reunion, at Uniondale, Friday, August 30, 1912.

—Lightning killed a colt Saturday afternoon belonging to a foreigner at Prompton, whose name, it is stated, is George Cabbage.

—Girls who desire a complexion should eat apples. They will make cheeks rosy and beautiful. Many prefer the "son kissed" variety.

—The engagement of Miss Helen Murrifield, of Scranton, to Bruce, son of Rev. H. C. McDermott, of Kingston, formerly of Honesdale, is announced.

—A barn in DuBois was recently fired in an unusual manner. It was struck by a large-sized meteor and immediately following being hit, the structure burst out into flames.

—The ladies who will assist in the floral parade and display are requested to meet in the parlors of Engine Company No. 3, at the town hall, on Tuesday evening (to-night) at 7:30.

—The local base ball team have signed a new infielder by the name of Weiss. He is employed in the construction of Borden's new milk station and it is said has played some professional ball.

—President S. T. Ham of the Business Men's Association desires all members to be present at the regular monthly meeting which will be held this Wednesday evening at the town hall. Business of importance will be transacted.

—A cent a word ad in The Citizen brought so many replies to the advertiser that he telephoned us to take out the ad. The advertiser knew where to place his advertisement. Try The Citizen's lost and found column, only a penny a word.

—Judge Staples in Monroe county is considering when slot machines are gambling affairs, and two lately seized by a local constable are under the ban. They were chewing gum machines with a stamp attachment by which a player might win from one to twenty stamps good for five cents each in such goods as the store sold.

—Smull's Legislative Handbook for 1912 is up to the printers. The final proofs of the books are being gone over and it is hoped to get out the first copies within a month. The book appeared late last year, largely because of the rush of legislation and the census figures, and, although there is considerable new matter in the publication this year, efforts to get it out early are being made.

—The Board of Trade is in correspondence with Prof. H. A. Surface relative to apparent dying of the maple trees. Specimen of the leaves and twigs cut from various affected trees in different parts of Honesdale have been expressed to Prof. Surface, hoping that he may be able to recommend something that by following his directions the beautiful and spreading maples of the Maple City may be saved from destruction.

—Sayre borough council was unable to raise $10,000 immediately to make payments on a pavement contract, and ten citizens of the town, including the burgess and three of the councilmen, came forward and agreed to each become personally responsible for $1,000 each, in order that the work might proceed without delay. There is public spirit for you, coupled with confidence in the borough administration! Nobody ever heard of such a thing occurring in this neck of woods.

—Among the marriage licenses granted by Prothonotary Barnes on Saturday last was one to Miss Rose Ruth Kennedy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Kennedy, of Pleasant Mount, and George Everett Sands, an electrical engineer, now of Lao Paulo, Brazil. Miss Kennedy is well known in Wayne county, having for several terms taught school. She has also entertained large and varied audiences by readings and impersonations. Miss Kennedy is one of Pleasant Mount's estimable young women and her many friends wish her bon voyage on the matrimonial sea of life.

—W. H. Mitchell, four men and a team of horses have accomplished excellent results in moving the dwellings, recently purchased by Martin E. Galvin, from Lower Main street to Sixth street, where they will remain until the other houses are well up the street. Owing to disabling two busy factories, which necessarily would have had to been done, Mr. Mitchell and helpers worked all day Sunday. The main electric and telephone wires had to be cut to enable the buildings to be moved up town. The men moved the houses in pairs, and worked all day Saturday in the heavy downpour of rain.

—The first sign posts to mark the highways of Pennsylvania will probably be erected the latter part of this month along some recently improved highways which are crossed by others and which have been frequently mentioned in complaints about lack of guide boards. The contract for furnishing 1,000 sign posts to the State Highway Department was let by Commissioner E. M. Heselov a few weeks ago and the first installment of the posts is expected soon. Commissioner Bigelow has approved the recommendations for the locations and given directions that the posts shall be hurried up. Automobile travel through the State is becoming very heavy and numerous complaints about the difficulties of finding ways are being made.

—The many friends of George S. Bourket, of this place, will be elated to learn that he has received an appointment as cadet of the United States Military Academy at West Point. George has been notified to appear before a board of examiners at Port Jervis, N. Y., on April 24, next to take an examination. The appointment came through Hon. William D. B. Alney, congressman of this district and to whom George's relatives and friends are very grateful. It is rare for an honor of this kind to come to Honesdale and is highly appreciated by all concerned. George is one of Honesdale's most promising young men. He possesses an excellent character which qualifies him for the position to which he has been appointed.

What Bobbie Wanted to Know.

He asked so many questions that day that he finally wore out his mother's patience.

"Robert," she cried, "if you ask me another question I shall put you to bed without your supper."

Robert promptly asked another and was packed off to bed.

Later his mother repented. After all, asking questions was the only way he could acquire knowledge; so she tiptoed upstairs, knelt beside his bed and told him she was sorry.

"Now, dear," she said, "if you want to ask one more question before you go to sleep, ask it now and I will try to answer."

Robert thought for a moment and then said, "Mother, how far can a cat spit?"

Menner & Co. for one month will close out at half price their remaining stock of black silk jackets and long coats. 61eltf

Mrs. Brown—Haven't you found personally that history always repeats itself? Mrs. Bliss—Not always. The neighbors repeat most of my history.—New York Times.

BOARD OF TRADE BULLETIN

No. 7.

HONESDALE, PA., AUGUST 14, 1912.

Vol. 1

[Published in the interest of Honesdale and vicinity.]

F. W. Kreitner, President.
R. J. Murray, 1st Vice-President.
S. T. Ham, 2nd Vice-President.
Edward Deitzer, Treasurer.
E. B. Callaway, Secretary.

E. B. Callaway, Editor.

The Board of Trade desires every business man and individual to use Board of Trade envelopes. It advertises Honesdale throughout the United States and may possibly interest some outsider to come to Honesdale to manufacture his wares.

The four banks of Honesdale and their directors have received praise from former Honesdaleans, now living in Scranton, for the manner in which the officers and banks subscribed for the Gurney Electric Elevator bond issue. They do not want to stop here, continued the speakers.

If by any legitimate way, or in any manner this department can attract out-of-town parties to Honesdale by the publication of different articles that deal directly with Honesdale in presenting its industrial advantages in an intelligent manner, the Board of Trade will have felt repaid for the efforts put forth in publishing the weekly Bulletin.

Look for Honesdale-made goods wherever you go. If the storekeeper does not keep what you have been in the habit of buying, insist upon him getting "Honesdale made goods." Create a demand for them. You can do so whether you live in New York, Wilkes-Barre, Scranton, Carbondale or any other city or town. Show true patriotism for your former and home town. Honesdale goods are quality goods.

The Board of Trade bulletin is widely read, not only by local parties, but city investors and men on the alert to take advantage of opportunities that may appear in the Bulletin from week to week. This goes to demonstrate that out-of-town men are watching Honesdale and are manifesting an interest in its welfare. Several gentlemen recently said to the secretary that they enjoyed reading the Board of Trade Bulletin in The Citizen.
