LOCAL NEWS

—Get vaccinated. —Next week—the big celebration and a big crowd will be here.

—An Otisville, N. Y., farmer shot a crane a few days ago and it cost him $24.05.

—Married, by Rev. Will H. Hiller at the Methodist parsonage, Honesdale, Pa., Friday, August 16, Herbert C. Curtis and Rachel Shaffer, both of Gravity.

—The Citizen received an order for 250 Spelling Contest books on Monday. Sent to any address upon receipt of 6c or 5c if called for at this office.

—The following unclaimed letters remain in the Honesdale postoffice for the week ending August 19: Master Fred Bauernfreund, William Hick, Mrs. Della Seamer, F. C. White.

—The old gravity railroad workers will hold their annual outing at Nay Aug park on September 7. The outing will include representatives from almost every community between Pittston and Hawley.

—The 39th annual Grangers picnic will be held at Mechanicburg, August 26-31. At this exhibition the greatest display of farm machinery, household and agricultural implements in the world will be made.

—Seymour Newkirk, a Schuyler Lake, Otsego county, farmer, died last week from an injury sustained to his finger which was mutilated by a hay fork. He did not realize how seriously he was injured and continued to work about the farm after he was hurt.

—Two children of Rev. J. J. Rankin, Carl and Marjorie Rankin, of Scranton, will leave soon for China, where they will enter the mission field. Rev. Mr. Rankin formerly lived in Hawley and upon several occasions has occupied the Presbyterian church pulpit in Honesdale.

—The Tunkhannock borough council has passed strict measures against the noisy automobile. No horn of the siren or screaming type will be tolerated and drivers must keep their mufflers closed while within the borough limits. We wonder who woke Tunkhannock up so that they found out there was such noise producing instruments.

—Bernard Rifkin, of Wilkes-Barre, landscape gardener and tree expert, who visited Honesdale last year and introduced improved methods in tree surgery, is gaining national recognition. Last Monday he was elected a member of the National Park superintendents Association which was in session in Boston. The organization is composed of park superintendents from different parts of the United States. Mr. Rifkin is an ardent worker and gives considerable of his attention to the preservation of park and shade trees. His work in Honesdale last year undoubtedly saved many of our beautiful maple trees from an untimely death and was highly commendable.

—In order to make the Wayne county celebration the success that the executive committee hope, all parties, grangers, fraternal organizations and others are requested to do what is asked of them. Prizes have been offered and will be given to the participants, hoping that by doing so it would have a tendency to bring out a large number of societies. It is especially desired that the Grangers turn out in good number. The special prize offered outside of the grand cash prize ought to be an incentive for every progressive grange in Wayne county to turn out. Grangers who have not expressed their willingness to parade on Civic Day would confer it a favor if they would correspond with Chairman C. E. Bates regarding the matter. Time is getting short. Better act quick.

—Philip Ikehosor, of Forest City, a cousin of Mrs. W. A. Sluman, of this place, has smallpox.

—Frank Wasman has placed a shoe shining stand in front of his Main street barber shop.

—The Wayne county teachers' annual institute will be held the week of November 5th to 11th inclusive.

—The gross receipts of St. Mary Magdalen's annual picnic amounted to $950. The net receipts will be about $700.

—The Illinois Food Commission would limit the bacteria in a spoonful of ice cream to 10,000,000. How many heedless people will stop to count the danger.

—The celebration executive committee request the merchants and others having stores on Main street to keep them lighted until midnight during the celebration.

—Henry Wasman, of Carbondale, contractor and builder, is lying critically ill at his home. He fell from a building about two months ago and received injuries that may prove fatal.

—The Honesdale base ball team journeyed to White Mills on Sunday but rain prevented a game. The G. C. C. went to Hawley at the same time but Jupiter Pivius also won that game.

—St. Mary Magdalen's congregation expect soon to remodel the basement of their church. Partitions will divide it into various rooms, which will be used by the societies of the church.

—Telegrapher L. F. Bishop and family are enjoying a two weeks' vacation. Jeffrey Lord, of Waymart, has charge of the Honesdale Western Union and Delaware & Hudson dispatch office during the former's absence.

—Chester Holgate, of Girdland, son of Commissioner Neville Holgate, of this place, passed through a delicate operation upon his ear on Saturday last in the Moses Taylor Hospital, Scranton. Mr. Holgate is improving as well as can be expected.

—Several of the school directors of the different schools of Wayne county have made no provision to place Small's legislative hand books in their respective schools. They are still in the office of Superintendent J. J. Koehler, where they may be obtained free of cost.

—There may be some newspapers that can run without money, but from our own experience we doubt it. Our bills have to be met promptly, and in order to do this it is necessary for those that owe us to pay promptly. We only have a few delinquents on our list at present, and to such we urge the necessity of an early settlement.

—The following death notice appeared in Monday's Brooklyn Eagle: Hand—On Monday, Aug. 19, 1912, Julia Ellmayer Waller, wife of Chas. W. Hand, and daughter of the late Rev. David Jewitt and Julia Ellmayer Waller. Funeral services will be held at her late residence, 457 Clinton avenue, Brooklyn, Wednesday afternoon, at 4 o'clock. Mr. Hand is a nephew of W. H. Stone of this place. He and Mrs. Stone will attend the funeral.

—Mrs. William B. Holmes entertained a number of her friends at a porch party Thursday morning in honor of Mrs. Augustus P. Thompson of Andover, Mass. A dainty luncheon was served. Among those present were Mrs. Charles Bentley, Mrs. John T. Fuller, Mrs. W. Judson Yerkes, Mrs. Charles Brady, Misses Harriet Sutton, Florence Wood, Bessie Swift, Clara Torrey and Grace Salmon. From out of town: Mrs. Harry Rowley, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mrs. Arthur Hull, Rahway, N. J.; Mrs. Charles Noble, Denver, Colorado; Mrs. Amelia J. Conklin, Binghamton, N. Y.; and Mrs. A. P. Thompson, Andover, Mass.

—Mr. and Mrs. Mark Creasy left town on Wednesday of last week for Lightstreet, Pa., the home of Mr. Creasy's parents, where they will spend several weeks before going to Chestertown, Md., where Mr. Creasy will teach the coming term. In the departure of Mr. Creasy from our town we lose a good citizen, a gentleman of excellent character and a man that any community would be most fortunate in securing. Mr. Creasy has lived here twenty-one years, was well known and very highly regarded and he and Mrs. Creasy will be greatly missed by a large circle of acquaintances.—Hawley Times.

Don't Be Too Easy Girls.

Here is a chance for some young woman of Honesdale to obtain an excellent husband and a roll of $3,999 as a premium. The following advertisement appeared in a recent issue of the Binghamton Press and tells the story:

Young man, strictly temperate, worth three thousand ($3,000); age (25) twenty-five, wishes to correspond with lady between 18 and 25; object matrimony. Address I. X. L., Lanesboro, Pa.

SPORTING NOTES.

It was "some game" on Saturday when Hawley came to town with the avowed intention of taking the second straight game of the series between Honesdale and Hawley.

It was 3:30 when the Hawleyites roamed onto the field in their neat new purple and grey uniforms and 4 o'clock when "King" Brader said "get into the box" to Pop Hessling; the old reliable didn't intend to pitch and said he wouldn't but when he saw the game about to start he couldn't withstand the "call of the game."

Then umpire Balles got behind the windbag, and his face in the cage and called "play" in real big league style and the game was on. Walter Wood umpiring the bases. Brown, the Hawley pitcher, started the game with a rush, striking out six men in the first three innings, and in the first struck out two men with the bases loaded. Hawley scored first in the third on two batters by Switzer and A. Gilpin, and Sandy's wild throw of McCloskey's bunt; they scored two more in the sixth on a base on balls, a hit, a wild throw by Sandy, a sacrifice fly and another hit.

Honesdale made one in the fifth on an error by Gifford, a stolen base and a single by Brader. Two more in the lucky seventh, when Mangan was safe on a player's choice and Brader was hit by a pitched ball, and Sandy swatted a nice two-bagger which got away from Doherty. We made another in the ninth after two were out, when Brader got a walk and L. Doherty let Weaver's beautiful drive go through his legs for two bases. Sandy ended the agony by fanning out, leaving the score a tie, as the Hawley boys had to catch a train.

In the ninth when it looked as though Honesdale would win out, a gang of thoughtless boys and some young men who should know better, nearly caused a row, and delayed the game by lining up along the first base line in the usual manner in a close game, and while perhaps did no real damage it gave the Hawley people a chance to kick, and does not look very sportsmanlike.

The Honesdale team plays like a new bunch of men with Brader back in the game, and Hessling's curves seemed to be working in their old time form. Hawley has a fine team of young players, and with a man like "Old King Brader" to lead them would in time make a formidable organization.

Table with columns for HONESDALE, R, H, O, A, E. listing statistics for Mangan, Brader, Weaver, etc.

Score by innings— Honesdale 0 0 0 1 0 2 0 1—4 Hawley 0 0 0 2 0 2 0 0—4 Earned runs—Hawley 2; Honesdale 1. Struck out, by Brown, 11; by Hessling, 9. Bases on balls, off Hessling, 1; off Brown 3. Hit by pitcher—Brown 1. Two-base hits—Switzer, Gilpin, Weaver and Sandy.

Challenge.

The St. John's Cadets challenge any team under 17 years of age in Wayne county to a game to be played any Sunday afternoon during August. Answer to Raymond Bried, Honesdale, Pa.

CARD OF THANKS.

The relatives of Miss Cornelia Beetz desire to thank the neighbors and friends for kindness shown during her illness and death; also for the many beautiful floral tributes. JOHN BEETZ.

EQUINUNK.

The Hancock and Equinunk base ball teams played an excellent game on Saturday on the Equinunk grounds. The score was 10 to 8 in favor of Equinunk. The teams were very evenly matched. Our boys are certainly playing well and deserve the encouragement our townspeople are giving them. There was a large crowd in attendance.

DECLARED UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

The court of Chester county recently handed down an important decision in the case of David Jones, Sheriff, vs. the county of Chester, which has been on for several weeks, involving the important question of mileage of said official in making trips with prisoners, etc. His Honor in his decision gives the opinion that the new law enacted by the Legislature, June 20, 1911, is unconstitutional and void and the old law governing the mileage of sheriffs, enacted in 1911, is still operative, and the County Commissioners shall pay ten cents for each mile traveled instead of six cents, as stipulated in the new Act of Assembly. The court's ruling is that the new act comes under the head of special legislation and is therefore at variance with the Constitution. The decision if sustained, will effect fifty-one other counties in Pennsylvania.

UNION AND BRAMAN.

(Special to The Citizen.)

Our community was saddened by the death of Thomas Caffrey of Braman which occurred Tuesday morning. Mr. Caffrey had been suffering with stomach trouble for some time and a few weeks previous to his death had been confined to his bed and had been pronounced by his physicians as suffering from a cancer of the stomach.

The funeral was held in the Union church Thursday at two o'clock, and largely attended by his friends and neighbors who loved and respected him. Rev. Franklin Bowen conducted the services and Mrs. Earl Lord of Equinunk sweetly rendered some appropriate selections. Those who attended the funeral from out of town and relatives of the deceased were: Mr. and Mrs. John Caffrey, of Lanesboro; Fred Caffrey, Rev. and Mrs. William Schenck, of West Nicholas, N. Y.; Mr. John Newman and two sons, Port Jervis, N. Y.; Mrs. Harriet Schenk, Port Jervis; Mrs. Minnie Youngs, Hancock, N. Y., and Luke Mogridge from Milanville. Among the beautiful floral tributes was a beautiful piece from the Odd Fellows of Carthage, N. Y. Mr. Caffrey leaves to mourn his loss of a loving husband and father, his wife, formerly Ketta Cole, and two sons, Grant, of Braman, and Fred, of Carthage, N. Y., and one brother, John, of Lanesboro, and sister, Mrs. Martin Moran of Hancock, N. Y. He also will be greatly missed in the community where he was always ready to do some kindness for his neighbors. He had been employed for a number of years in the saw mill at Braman, now owned by Karl Jora.

Rev. and Mrs. Bowen, of Look-out, and son, Wesley, spent Friday at John F. Blake's.

Mrs. Stephen Kemp and daughter Florence, who have spent the past month at her former home here, returned to Binghamton, N. Y., Friday.

Miss M. Isabelle Hagaman has returned from an extended visit with relatives in Newton, N. J., and vicinity.

MAPLEWOOD.

Maplewood, Aug. 19.

The Black reunion was a great success considering the inclement weather. It was a very rainy day yet a goodly number from the surrounding neighborhoods gathered, also Hon. King Black and daughter, of Selo, N. Y., John Black and wife and three children of Washington, D. C., were present. This was a very pleasant feature of the day. After the dinner was disposed of, Hon. King S. Black gave an interesting talk, sang a solo and offered a very appropriate prayer. There was a business meeting and it was decided to hold the next reunion at Maplewood Aug. 28, 1913.

—Of course you are coming to the celebration. Oh, you!
