GENERAL SLAUGHTER ORDERED

Chief of Police Has Shot and Killed Seventy-four-Animals Declared to Have Had Distinct and Pronounced Cases of Rabies.

Royersford, Pa., Aug. 22.-This place is being practically terrorized by mad cats-felines afflicted with hydrophobia. Within four weeks a dozen persons have been bitten by the rabid animals. Chief of Police H. H. Beideman has shot and killed seventy-four cats, and Burgess Fred Keeley determined that every cat in the borough would have to be killed.

The list of victims includes to date: Mrs. Olayton Isett, John Sheeler, Kathryn Grater, the six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grater; John Boyle, Jr., aged five years; John Nettles, an eight-year-old boy; Mrs. A. Spare, John Rosenberger, Jeannette Newborn, daughter of John Newborn, and a little grandson of Atmore Loomis

All of these with the exception of two have been sent to either the Pasteur institute in New York or to an institution at Marietta, Pa. At these places and at other institutions where the heads of a number of cats that were killed were sent it has been declared that the cats had distinct and Ex-Judge Flack of Abilene, Kan., pronounced cases of rables.

The unusual epidemic started in July. Johnny Boyle and Johnny Nettles. night Mrs. Spare was a victim and Tuesan hour after the report of the case the authorities were told that Atmore Loomis' grandson had been bitten.

been a pet in the family; in other cases the animals have jumped at whomever was nearest to them, biting and scratching them fiercely.

Two Prisoners at Northeast, Pa., Make Their Escape.

Erie, Pa., Aug. 22.-William Alexander, marshal of fortheast, was beaten into insensibility and left for dead in front of the town jail by two well dressed men who have the names of Hatfield and Wilson and their home as Trenton, N. J.

Alexander had arrested two other young men who were loitering about the Nickel Plate railroad yards. He years old. had handcuffed them together and started for the jail, when he saw Hatfield and Wilson. Alexander arrested them, too. As he reached the jail Hatfield grappled with the marshal, throwing him down. Then both men jumped upon the officer and kicked him, Finally one took an iron bar and struck Alexander over the head, rendering him unconscious. Both then made their escape on a freight train bound for Buf. a hospital here.
