Henry Murrman read a fine paper on the care and feeding of pullets for winter layers. Mr. Martin has now about 1200 birds, while LeRoy E. Sands has in the neighborhood of 1500. Mr. Martin is the possessor of one of the best gardens in Wayne county. He raises on his farm Hubbard squash, musk melons, water-melons, fodder corn ten feet high and blackberries. The Association will announce later where the lecture will be held during the Wayne County Fair, and it is hoped that a number of fanciers who come to Honesdale during the fair will make it a point to be present.

—Contractor Edward Pearce, while on his way to Carbondale, Tuesday night met with an accident near Inspector John Sharpsteen's home that put his machine out of commission. Pearce says that he was met by a team that was on the wrong side of the road and instead of running into it he turned his car to the left and crashed into a concrete sluice way. The automobile as a result was wrecked, but Mr. Pearce remained in the machine. The right wheel had three spokes broken and the wheel left at an angle of 45 degrees. The axle was bent and the springs badly twisted out of shape. The hood over the machine was dislodged, separating it from the main part of the machine. The wind shield and a small lamp were broken, while the two headlights located in front of the machine were undisturbed. The part of the machine that joins the front of the running board was also badly broken. When Mr. Pearce crashed into the concrete sluiceway he removed nearly all of that part above ground. It is fortunate that he was not killed, as the machine is evidence that he was traveling "some."

Irving's Windows Smashed.

Three windows of the Irving Cut Glass shop were found broken Friday morning. Three large stones were lying on the floor inside the building. One landed among some cut glassware and demolished it. This is going too far with having a "good time" as it is termed by the thoughtless and unconcerned. When a man deliberately destroys property it becomes a misdemeanor and he places himself liable to law.

CELEBRATION NOTES.

Auto Scorcher Wanted.

Chief Canivan secured the number of a Pennsylvania car whose owner was going about 25 miles per hour, Thursday night.

Dogs Went Fast.

Both the woolly and hot-dog men made small fortunes at their respective stands. The woolly dog barker disposed of nearly 100 dozen canines, while the hot dog man sold endless chains of this meat.

STEVE REPORTED DEAD.

Word was received here this morning that Steve, the colored man, died last night in Scranton as the result of injuries received while in Honesdale.

Chief J. J. Canivan put a gambler out of business Wednesday night.

He was taking advantage of a number of young boys and taking their money illegally. The chief watched operations for awhile and then put a stop to it.

Methodist Lunch Counter.

The Whatsoever Circle of the Methodist church conducted a lunch counter in the Foster block. It proved a necessity, hundreds of people being served by the ladies. The gross receipts were $225.

Expenditures of Celebration $1200.

The total expenses for running the Wayne county celebration will amount to about $1200. Secretary N. B. Spencer claims that there is enough money to pay all bills and there will be some left in the treasury.

Hose Laying Exhibition.

An exhibition run of 500 feet was made by Columbia Hose company, of Carbondale, Wednesday, on Main street in front of the City Hall. The team in charge laid hose, attached it to the hydrant and had water running through the hose in 30 seconds afterwards.

Young Lady Injured.

A young lady, whose name we are unable to obtain, fell on the sidewalk, Thursday evening and received lacerations over the nose and forehead. She was escorted to Dr. F. W. Powell's office where several stitches were taken to close the wound.

Honesdale Band Reinforced.

The Honesdale Cornet band discoursed excellent music during the celebration, and is deserving of considerable credit. It has been recently reinforced by three new players, namely, Thos. and H. Seaman of Hawley. Thomas Walker is the new leader. Henry Wagner having resigned owing to a press of other business, but he still holds his membership.

MUNNICH BROS.' FIFE, DRUM AND BUGLE CORPS.

The Munnich Brothers' Fife, Drum and Bugle Corps of Port Jervis, was organized ten years ago as the Deer-park Fife and Drum Corps. It was reorganized several years ago with its present title, and it became a member of the New York State Fife and Drummers' Association.

The Munnich Brothers, Charles L. and Willis H. came to the relief of the former organization when it was in distress and by their financial aid, business acumen and hearty co-operation encouraged the disheartened members that today it ranks in ability, equipment and street appearance with the very best Fife, Drum and Bugle Corps in the State of New York. Because of the merited prominence of this organization the annual convention for the year 1912 was assigned to the City of Port Jervis. This was an undreamed of honor five years ago.

It is an old and true saying that ability, joined with perseverance, always win success and this is notably true of this organization, as shown by their success at Paterson, Newburgh, Kingston and other cities when they were in competition with the best organizations in the state. At Middletown the corps was awarded the Modern Combination prize, which is very highly appreciated.

Another False Fire Alarm.

Another false fire alarm was sounded at 8:30 Wednesday evening. The signal was for uptown. It occurred when the streets were crowded and many children were nearly trodden under foot. The report was circulated about town that it was the new armory, which, however, was not true. If the party is known he ought to be fined, as there is a penalty of $10 for sending in a false alarm. One or two arrests would soon put a stop to the violators.

LIVED TOGETHER SIXTY-TWO YEARS

Wife of Rev. S. F. Wright Called Home, an Eventful Life in the Master's Vineyard—Husband Passed—Four Score Mark.

Mrs. Eliza E. Wright, wife of Rev. S. F. Wright, of Sherman, passed to her heavenly rest August 16. The subject of this memoir was the only daughter of Samuel and Eunice (Benson) Bryant, born in New Hampshire December 2, 1830. In 1837 she came with her parents and two elder brothers, and settled in Jackson township, Susquehanna county, Pa., on a farm. Little Eliza attended the public school, making great proficiency in her studies so that before she was sixteen years of age she was licensed to teach, and taught twelve successful terms of school. Towards the last of her teaching, Mr. Able Marcy, the county superintendent of Luzerne county, gave her a permanent certificate to teach in the State. On the 25th day of August, 1850, she was married to S. F. Wright. On the 14th day of April, 1862, she with her husband, entered the ministry of the Wyoming annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church. She was very successful and acceptable as a worker in the church and Sunday schools through all those years. Many hundreds of people in Wayne, Susquehanna, Lackawanna, Monroe and Bradford counties, Pa., Broome and Tioga counties, N. Y., will rise up and call her blessed. She and her husband lived and labored in loving harmony for sixty-two years lacking ninety days. The lonely husband, eighty-four years of age in October next, is feeble in body, but active in mind with remarkable memory, and he is waiting with patience for the reunion "in the sweet by and bye."

Spencer, general secretary and posted around town warning people of the offense. As a result it was better on Wednesday night.

TO OPEN OCTOBER 15.

It is expected that the new State Hospital for the Criminal Inmate will be prepared to accept patients by October 15. It was not believed that the hospital would be ready for occupancy before Jan. 1, 1913, but work has been rushed on the building and the institution is now almost completed.

Following the opening, it is believed that no further work will be done until the next legislature makes another appropriation. The appropriation of 1911 for $225,000 has been practically exhausted.

Chief J. J. Canivan, of Carbondale, is expected to be promoted to the rank of sergeant by the State Police.

CHIEF J. J. CANIVAN.

Chief J. J. Canivan and corps of deputy police are to be congratulated upon the good order that was maintained during the celebration. There were very few drunken men seen upon the streets. No arrests were made, which is remarkable when it is taken into consideration how many people were here. Everybody came for a good time and they had it.

CARD OF THANKS.

I desire to thank all neighbors and friends, the members of the Masonic order, Red Men and Seelyville Fire Company for the kind assistance rendered at time of death of my beloved husband.

MRS. GEO. MEYER.

"MADAME SHERRY."

Not very much of the story of "Madame Sherry" is revealed in the advance announcements. Mainly the thread of musical and other incidents of this big musical success concern a young unmarried New York man-about-town, sowing his wild oats on money sent him by an uncle, who believes his nephew married and the father of two children. The uncle, unexpectedly pays a visit to the studio of the nephew who, to support his story of domesticity, is forced to gather unto himself a family. He presses his very unpatrician housekeeper into service to pass as his wife, and gets his own sweetheart to pose as one of his children, and an adult guest in his home to answer as his son. The main love interest is introduced at the very outset, with the arrival of the uncle, who brings with him a relative, Yvonne Sherry, a young maid just out of a convent. Incidentally, it is the love of the convent girl and the nephew that introduces in the play, as a love theme, the air of the production, "Ev'ry Little Movement Has A Meaning All Its Own," that is now fast becoming a popular number all over the world. At the Lyric on Wednesday evening, September 4.

Rough House Stopped.

Tuesday night the amusement-makers carried things a little too far by using slapjacks, paddies and other hard substances. Several persons and especially women were crying from bruises received by being struck in undesirable places and upon their backs and hands. A ban prohibiting the use of slapjacks was issued by N. B. Spencer, general secretary and posted around town warning people of the offense. As a result it was better on Wednesday night.
