

GIVE SPEECH TO BOY

Wonderful Series of Operations Cure Dumb Child.

BURNS DISFIGURED LAD OF SEVEN

Chin Was Fixed to His Neck When Burns Healed— Lips Replaced and Patient is Now Rapidly Learning to Talk— Surgery Performed in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Sept. 3.—By a marvelous series of intricate surgical operations, Dr. John B. Roberts of this city has given the power of speech to Carl Kolosky, a seven-year-old boy who was burned and horribly disfigured when a child of two.

The boy's burns healed so that his chin grew fast to his neck by a bridge of flesh and his lower lip was deformed. His movements were hampered so that he could not turn his head without revolving his whole body. The only sounds he could utter were like the whimpering of an infant.

The boy, whose home is in Nonesuch, near Pittsburgh, will soon leave the Polytechnic hospital. He has been there four months.

Dr. Roberts performed many intricate operations on the boy's chin and finally restored its free movement. He had to graft skin from other parts of his body upon his face. Finally the lip was replaced by surgery.

The last of the operations was finished a month ago, and the wounds are now healed. The boy is being taught to speak. He repeats words he hears readily. When he leaves the hospital in a few weeks it is expected that he will be a normal child in all respects, although he will bear many scars.

20,000 IN LABOR PARADE.

Pittsburghers Observe Greatest Day in Several Years—Big Plants Closed.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 3.—Pittsburgh's workmen observed Labor day with a greater demonstration than ever before marked the advent of this day in the Pittsburgh district. For the first time in a decade there was a monster street procession in which 20,000 marched from the Labor temple through the downtown streets.

During the afternoon and in the evening there were great gatherings of workmen at Kennywood and Westview parks.

Bill Haywood and Emil Seldel, Socialist candidate for vice president, were the principal speakers.

All the big industrial plants in the Pittsburgh district were closed down.

RAT ATTACKS CHILDREN.

Father Kills Rodent After Little Ones Were Badly Wounded.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 3.—Cries of his two little girls, Mary and Anna, aged five and seven years, awakened Arthur Gettling at his home in Nanticoke. Rushing to their bed he found them bleeding from wounds on the face and arms and fighting desperately the attacks of a large rat which was gnawing their flesh.

The father lifted the little girls from the bed and ran with them to another room, closing the door after him. He returned and with the aid of a shoe finally killed the rat, but not until it had a battle with him.

The faces of the little girls are chewed, and they will no doubt be disfigured for life.

PHILADELPHIA MAIL PROTEST

Hotel Men Write to Hitchcock—May Seek Legal Advice.

Philadelphia, Sept. 3.—Swamped with complaints from their guests because no mail was received Sunday, the Philadelphia hotel managers, through the Hotel association, are protesting to Postmaster Hitchcock against the new Sunday postal order.

David B. Provan, treasurer of the association, wrote to Mr. Hitchcock. It is said that if informal talks avail nothing the local association will seek legal advice to ascertain whether the government has the right to abolish Sunday service.

FIRES SHOT AT POLICEMAN.

Suspect is Captured and Held Under $1,000 Bail.

Philadelphia, Sept. 3.—Told he was under arrest a man giving the name of Flick Lucknow of Clifton Heights fired a shot at Nelson, a policeman.

Nelson saw two men acting suspiciously near a vacant house and ordered them to halt and Lucknow fired. Nelson returned the shot, and Lucknow surrendered. Magistrate Boyle placed him under $1,000 bail for assault and battery with intent to kill.

VERMONT IS VOTING

Election Today Is Most Exciting in Years.

BALLOTING UNUSUALLY HEAVY

Fight Centers on Governorship—Believe That 70,000 Votes Will Be Polled. Progressives Claim They Will Make Fine Showing—Old Guard Confident.

Burlington, Vt., Sept. 3.—Rallies in scores of towns and cities brought to an end a political campaign for the governorship of Vermont unprecedented by the interest aroused and of bitterness engendered. Today a vote approaching 70,000 is prophesied, of which State Chairman of the Progressive Party C. D. Thompson of Brattleboro claims 20,000. That this is the high water mark is evidenced by the more conservative claims of other bull moose leaders.

Twelve thousand and upward will be a virtual victory for the third party movement, and to keep this figure down is the desperate endeavor of the old guard Republicans. They will make no statement other than the claim that their ticket will be elected.

For a quarter of a century the average vote in Vermont on a presidential year has been 63,000. Giving the Prohibitionists and Socialists 3,000, 60,000 voters are left to be divided between Allen M. Fletcher of Cavendish, Republican; Harland B. Howe of St. Johnsbury, Democrat, and the Rev. Frazer Metzger of Randolph, Progressive. Two years ago the Democratic nominee for governor polled 17,000 votes. Mr. Howe is expected to exceed this number because of the strong Wilson sentiment in many parts of the state.

Legislature May Decide.

That the Democrats went to the polls today with unbroken ranks is virtually conceded. If they succeed in bringing their vote up to 20,000 the 40,000 left for the regular Republicans and Progressives will likely be split in 25,000 for Fletcher and 15,000 for Metzger, and the election will be thrown into the legislature.

Vermont has not been so shaken up in years and a surprising vote either way will not upset the knowing politicians. The Prohibition candidate for governor is the master of the state grange, Clement F. Smith. The Socialist candidate for governor, Fred W. Sutor of Barre, has not made an active campaign.

The alleged tremendous dodging record of Mr. Fletcher, whose millions have been paraded before the voters by both Progressives and Democrats, and the continued statements that he came to Vermont from Indianapolis with the purpose of becoming governor, are the most vulnerable points in his political armor. The rest of his ticket bids fair to be elected.

It was the wish of the Republicans to conduct the campaign on state issues, of which there are practically none that interest the Progressive party. The latter stand for wide open primaries and it is this that the old guard fears. The rank and file wish to have something to say about who is nominated for the governorship, which they have never had heretofore. The Progressive movement has been greatly aided by the brilliant array of bull moose orators who have covered the state.

WILL NOT TRY BEACH.

Long Postponement May Mean Society Scandal is Hushed.

Alken, S. C., Sept. 3.—Frederick O. Beach, indicted for assault and battery with intent to kill his pretty wife, will not stand trial on the charge brought against him by the city authorities of Alken at the September term of court, as has been expected. Not until next February a year will Mr. Beach be tried.

Colonel Daniel S. Henderson, chief of Beach's counsel, has just returned from a sojourn of several months in Europe and upon his arrival he called upon Solicitor Robert L. Gunter, who, after a conference, agreed to postpone the trial until that time.

By many people this action is taken in Alken to mean that Beach will never come to trial. It is freely predicted that the matter that stirred this resort to fever heat last April, when the warrant for Beach was issued, will be allowed to die a natural death.

DOUGLAS I. M'KAY.
Deputy Police Commissioner Prevented From Trying Capt. Hayes.

The trial of Police Captain Cornelius G. Hayes, who was reduced and suspended from the force by Commissioner Waldo, was to have gone on at police headquarters, but was adjourned until Friday. When the case was called counsel for Hayes objected to Deputy Commissioner McKay sitting as the trial judge. McKay, he said, had been subpoenaed as a witness by Hayes.

BRITISH TO APPEAL TO HAGUE

Understood Instructions Are Now on Way to Washington.

London, Sept. 3.—It was officially announced that the British government would make a formal demand upon the United States government for arbitration of the British claim that the Panama canal toll act, as passed recently by the United States congress and signed by President Taft, violates the Hay-Pauncefote treaty.

Nothing definite is known here beyond the brief official announcement that the formal demand for arbitration will be made, but it is believed that instructions are already en route to the British embassy at Washington concerning the situation.

The British demand will be made under the arbitration convention of 1908. Great Britain's contention will be that the question at issue does not affect the vital interests, independence or honor of the United States and that therefore it is clearly within the scope of the 1908 convention, since the matter to be arbitrated is not an act of congress, but an interpretation of article 3 of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty.

$10,000 TO SAVE CHILDREN.

Losing Daughter, St. Louis Physician Offers Big Sum For Cure of Others.

St. Louis, Sept. 3.—Following the death of his daughter, Virginia, seven years old, from infantile paralysis, Dr. Robert Edward Wilson of 4,205 Lindell boulevard declared in his grief that he would give $10,000 to any physician who would save the lives of his other three children, who are ill of the same disease at his country home, The Oaks, Pattonville, Mo.

"I will give $10,000 to the man who can save my children," was Dr. Wilson's cry after his daughter's death. The pathetic scene in the little girl's room just before her death caused Dr. Wilson to go frantic, while two other physicians who had been in attendance were so affected that they had to leave the room.

TAFT GIVES $200 TO CHURCH.

Enriches Congregation in Millbury as Memorial to His Mother.

Worcester, Mass., Sept. 3.—The Unitarian church in the little town of Millbury, the home of Miss Della C. Torrey, aunt of President Taft, received through its pastor, the Rev. W. T. Hutchins, a $200 contribution from the president as a memorial to his mother's interest in church work. Mrs. Louisa Taft, the president's mother and sister of Miss Torrey, lived in Millbury for a long time, during which period the present head of the nation also attended the little brick church on the common.

His Future Plans.

She was a lady visitor to the prison, kindly and well meaning, and she chatted with a burglar who had been sentenced to six months' imprisonment she thought she detected signs of reform in him.

"And now," she said, "have you any plans for the future, on the expiration of your sentence?"

"Oh, yes, ma'am," he said, hopefully. "I've got the plans of two banks and a postoffice."
