WHEN THERE IS ILLNESS

in your family you of course call a reliable physician. Don't stop at that; have his prescriptions put up at a reliable pharmacy, even if it is a little farther from your home than some other store.

You can find no more reliable store than ours. It would be impossible for more care to be taken in the selection of drugs, etc., or in the compounding. Prescriptions brought here, either night or day, will be promptly and accurately compounded by a competent registered pharmacist and the prices will be most reasonable.

Greek Dress.

A lecturer on Greek dress said that a type of costume in early Hellenic times had been found which bore a distinct resemblance to the modern coat and skirt.

First Ohio Canal.

The opening of the first Ohio canal was accomplished July 4, 1827. On that day the first boat descended from Akron to Cleveland. She was cheered on her passage by thousands of people, who assembled from the adjacent country to witness the novel and interesting sight.

MAY RAISE PERRY'S FLAGSHIP.

Niagara In Good Condition After Century Under Water.

The flagship Niagara that led the American fleet under Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry to victory in the battle of Lake Erie, Sept. 10, 1813, after the first flagship, Lawrence, had been shot to pieces and abandoned, will be raised and rebuilt.

The hull of the vessel, lying in twenty feet of water in Misery bay, an arm of Presque Isle bay, better known as the Erie (Pa.) harbor, was thoroughly examined by Dan Claffin, a diver from Toledo, O., under the supervision of A. Q. Thatcher of the Thatcher Contracting company of Toledo and Milton W. Shreve, speaker of the house of representatives of the Pennsylvania state legislature.

Diver Claffin spent about three hours going over every part of the abandoned hull. He reported that the flagship was in good condition. He brought up spikes, made of hand hammered iron, that had been under the water almost a century.

REFUSED ROCKEFELLER JOB.

But the Cleveland Boy Who Took It Is Now Rich.

When Jeff W. Hayes, a pioneer telegraph operator, who lost his sight fourteen years ago and who returned recently to Cleveland after thirty-seven years' absence, was a boy of twelve, employed as a messenger by the Western Union Telegraph company, he refused a job offered him by John D. Rockefeller. The boy who took it is now a prominent Cleveland citizen. Hayes used to carry messages to the old firm of Rockefeller, Andrew & Flaggler. There he often saw Mr. Rockefeller.

"Mr. Rockefeller stopped me one day and asked me if I would take a job as office boy with his firm," related Hayes. "He said that he would give me $3 a week. I was making $4 a week then, and I wouldn't take the place."

"The boy who took the job was Dan Leslie," added Hayes. Mr. Leslie, who is rich now, was a member of the constitutional convention and a former director of public service.

Swat the Fly.

If you make this Yankee nation Best and greatest on the earth, If you look for commendation And would show the world your worth, If you seek for fame and glory And a halo by and by, When your locks are thin and hoary— Swat the fly, oh, swat the fly!

Hist'ry tells on all its pages Of great persons and their deeds— Warriors, authors, statesmen, sages, Men of dogmas, men of creeds, Men who guarded castle portals, Men who did not fear to die— But the greatest of all mortals Are the ones who swat the fly.

Let us then be up and doing, Swatting early, swatting late, Still achieving, still pursuing, Drive the fly pest to his fate. Swat in season, out of season— Let that be your battlecry. To do otherwise were treason. Hoist the standard—swat the fly!

KILLED BY MANIAC.

James M. Wintersteen Shoots Rival In Hotel.

EDITED STORY OF CRIME.

When Arrested Accused Man Was Correcting Newspaper Account of His Death—Accuses Dead Man of Slander Him.

Philadelphia, Sept. 10.—The police found James M. Wintersteen, who was wanted for shooting to death Harry Tyson, seated at headquarters in city hall editing an account of the murder in a newspaper. Sergeant McBride asked him why he was so interested in the case.

"I am the one who shot the man," said Wintersteen. Then he reached for his revolver from his hip pocket, but McBride wrested it from him and placed him in a cell.

The prisoner said he was forty-five years old, a brother of A. H. Wintersteen, a well known lawyer, now at York Harbor, Me. He is believed to be of unsound mind.

"I am the one who shot the man," said Wintersteen. Then he reached for his revolver from his hip pocket, but McBride wrested it from him and placed him in a cell.
