-The reason that The Citizen is so cheerfully welcomed is because it in every way is designed for EVERY home, no matter where that home may be. Because it leaves out and does not recognize as news all of the dismal shocks in the daily round of happenings, because it passes over the unimportant, the disastrous and the offensive items, which are looked upon as news by the press generally, because it carefully censors all of its advertising to see that its adey and Palmyra township, commonly vertising columns are just as clean and wholesome as its news pages, because its features for the children and its appeal to the homemaker and housewife are so strong and helpful—these things make The Citizen so well liked by and desirable for the home circle.

Country Clothing House Converted Into City Emporium—Revolving Cabinets Installed.

Bregstein Brothers, who for tweny years, have conducted a urnishing and clothing store in Honesdale, now have one of the most modern equipped emporiums northeastern Pennsylvana. The firm has just installed a series of en-closed cabinets, equipped with revolving racks for suits, overcoats and hats. There are seven sections, in the center of which is an elegant three-panel glass mirror, seven feet high. The cabinets are neatly finished in oak and have large swinging doors which keep the dust from the clothing. The suitings are plac-ed on a rack, which can be taken out of the cabinet and then turned around, giving a nice display and ley about 72 years ago.
