Mr. Cummings worked for P. R. Collum on the latter's farm at Long Ridge during the summer of 1882. The two men had not met since that time and great was their surprise and pleasure when Mr. Cummings recognized Mr. Collum on Tuesday as they happened to meet in the Honesdale postoffice. —Such a tremendously favorable statement as that of the Reading for August is seldom made by any railroad. The gain of $735,000 gross transportation earnings meant 20 per cent. more business than in August, 1911, while the gain in net earnings, $670,000, was no less than 65 per cent. In plain English, Philadelphia and Reading railway earned half again as great a profit in August of this year as it did last year. This gain in net earnings was considerably better than the July gain, good as that was.

—On account of his advanced age of 77 years, P. R. Collum, sexton of the Honesdale Presbyterian church, tendered his resignation on Tuesday, the same to take effect November 1. Mr. Collum has held the position since May 1, 1896, sixteen and one-half years.

TURKS DEVASTATE TOWN.

Million or More Troops Are Assembling on Balkan Peninsula. London, Oct. 3.—Actual violence in the Balkan imbroglio has begun, according to word received here from Belgrade. A Turkish patrol of fifty soldiers devastated the Servian frontier town of Ruskka, after firing volley after volley into the town. The inhabitants fled. The dispatch does not state whether any one was killed or not. With the curt refusal by the Turkish cabinet, after an all night session, to surrender the shipment of Servian war ammunition which was seized by Turkey while passing through, the impression here that it will take the united efforts of the powers to prevent war is growing in strength. Turkey added to the list of injuries which Greece, Montenegro, Bulgaria and Servia have sustained by detaining fifty-two Greek ships which were in her ports. These vessels are being held so that in case war is declared the Turkish government can use them as Turkish transports. M. Gryparis, the Greek minister to Turkey, handed to the Turkish minister of foreign affairs an urgent formal protest against the detention of these vessels. He characterized the act as "illegal, arbitrary and unfriendly," as the relations between his country and Turkey are supposed to be friendly, although the unofficial feeling is abnormal. The foreign minister promised a speedy investigation of the matter. Meantime fifty more Greek vessels are bottled up in the Black sea and about 100 more in the Sea of Marmora. Turkey has also detained the steamer Manonassis, which left Constantinople for Piraus. The entire Balkan peninsula is being turned into a war camp and a million or more troops are rapidly assembling there.

U. S. VICE CONSUL SAFE.

Mexican Rebels Kill a Ranch Manager, but Owner Escapes. Mexico City, Oct. 3.—That Hubert L. Russell, ranch manager for Allen MacCaughen, the American vice consul in Durango, was murdered by Mexican rebels Sunday night was officially reported here. An earlier cipher message to the American embassy had led to the belief that MacCaughen and another American by the name of Cliff had also been slain. This was later denied.

INFORMATION WANTED.

A LIBERAL REWARD will be paid for reliable information on any of the following subjects: 1. What are the politics of Congressman Alney of this district? 2. Is he a Keystoner, Bull Mooser or Standpatter, or a mixture of all three, or neither? 3. How does he stand on the tariff question? 4. How does he stand on the trust question? 5. Is he a reactionary or a progressive? 6. Is he a Roosevelt man or a Taft man, or neither? 7. How many votes has he "dodged" since being in congress? 8. After promising to nominate his friend and neighbor, C. Fred Wright, for state treasurer at Harboursburg, why did he "funk" and leave his friend and neighbor in the lurch about 20 minutes before the convention? 9. How many speeches has he written and sent out for publication in the district, which were never delivered, and why did he try to fool the people of the district by publishing these pretended speeches which were never delivered? 10. What single act has he done since being in congress to benefit the people of his district; or to benefit anybody else except himself? The people of this district are anxious to know the politics of their congressman, and they have a right to know. Nobody has yet been able to find out where Mr. Alney stands on any single question of public interest. On nearly every question of public interest which has been before congress since he has been a member Mr. Alney has "funked" or "dodged" a vote. When he is asked where he stands on the presidential question he funks and dodges, and refuses to commit himself. Does Mr. Alney expect the people of this district to buy a "pig in a poke," by electing a congressman who refuses to define his position? About a year ago Mr. Alney was anxious to be nominated by the Keystoners, and his friends then claimed that he was a Keystoner. A few weeks later he was brought out by Boss Lilley and Tom Kilrow as a stand-pat candidate and then he claimed to be a Stand-patter. Within the past few weeks he has solicited the nomination of the Bull Moosers, the inference being that he is now a Bull Mooser. But when inquired of as to where he stands, or what party he belongs to, he squirms and wiggles and gives an evasive and non-committal answer. Do the people of this district want to send a man to congress who refuses to state what party he belongs to? Do they want to elect a man who has not the courage to stand up and be counted on either side? Do they want to elect a "trimmer," who is "good Lord and good devil," who does not dare to vote on any important measure in congress, and does not have the courage or honesty to define his position on any important question? If there is any one thing needed in the halls of congress today it is men of honesty and courage, who dare to stand up and be counted, on one side or the other. The people respect a man of honesty and courage, who dares to do what he believes to be right, even though they may disagree with him. But few men respect a political "trimmer," and no one ought to respect him, or vote for him.—Bradford Star. Adv.
