A COMPARISON.

What Prof. Wilson said in his "History of the American People": "The Chinese were more to be desired as workmen, if not as citizens, than most of the course crew that came crowding in every year at the eastern ports." On February 26, 1905, Mr. Wilson said: "Labor unions reward the shiftless and incompetent at the expense of the able and industrious." Are you a member of a union, "Shiftless and Incompetent"? Do you want Mr. Wilson for President?

The withdrawal of the twenty-seven Roosevelt presidential candidates on the Republican ticket, has clarified the situation and drawn together the various Republican forces in a way that has inspired the utmost confidence in those who are fighting for Taft and Sherman and the full Republican ticket.

Heretofore there has been such a confusion of interests and of parties, that the campaign in spite of the vital issues at stake and the tremendous public interest manifested in platforms and candidates, has languished for the reason that the political fighters hardly knew whom they were fighting.

Now that the Republican ticket is a Republican ticket, and the danger of its becoming a Lincoln party ticket or some other eleventh hour ticket has been averted, the general apathy in the Republican camp has been suddenly dispelled.

Congressman J. Hampton Moore, of the National Republican Congressional Committee of Pennsylvania, made his first excursion into the State outside of Philadelphia, recently, addressing enthusiastic meetings at Birdsboro and Bethlehem. Ex-Governor Wilson of Kentucky and Secretary of Commerce and Labor Nagel, are among the "headliners" on the Congressional Committee's list of Speakers.

Mr. Moore is laying great stress on the southern control of national affairs and he insists that a Democratic victory in November will mean the turning over of Washington to the planters and ranchmen of the south and southwest.

The Congressional Committee and its speakers expect to make very good use of a statement prepared for them by Horace A. Dean, President of the West End Trust Company of Philadelphia, which shows that whatever may be the cause of the "high cost of living," there never was a time in the history of the country when there was such a large surplus of earnings in the savings banks.

The last published statistics on the subject end with 1911, when there were 1,884 savings banks in the country, with 9,597,185 depositors and deposits aggregating $4,212,583,598. Ten years ago when there was not so much complaint about having no money left when the high cost of living had been settled for, there were 1,030 savings banks, 6,686,672 depositors and deposits amounting to $2,750,177,290, or a little less than one-half the deposits owned by something more than two-thirds the number of depositors.

ALL DENOUNCE THE DEED.

Men in Public Life Express Regret for Schenck's Act.

Utica, Oct. 17.—Vice-President Sherman said to-day with reference to the attack on Colonel Roosevelt: "I am pleased that God in His wisdom saw fit to so retard and deflect the bullet intended to end Colonel Roosevelt's life that its mission was without avail. It is a horrible thought that any mind could be so disordered as to desire to murder any human being, and most horrible that the effort was directed toward the destruction of a life so much of which has been devoted to public service.

Seattle, Oct. 17.—Secretary Knox said today:

After reading the dispatches I am very glad to see that the act of the maniac did not result in serious injury to Colonel Roosevelt.

Yosemite, Cal., Oct. 17.—Secretary Fisher of the Interior Department, who is here attending a conference of National Park superintendents, said, when informed of the shooting of Colonel Roosevelt:

Naturally, I was shocked to learn of this attempt upon the life of Col. Roosevelt. It is a matter of great gratification to me that he escaped death or serious injury.

Benton Harbor, Mich., Oct. 17.—"The news is a shock to me. I regret it very deeply. All good Americans, whether they differ or agree with Colonel Roosevelt, will condemn such a deed," said ex-Vice-President Charles W. Fairbanks today, with reference to the attempt made on Colonel Roosevelt's life.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—William J. Bryan's first word on arriving in Chicago was an anxious inquiry as to the condition of Theodore Roosevelt.

"I am greatly relieved to learn that the injury is not dangerous," said Mr. Bryan. "The attack upon Mr. Roosevelt is most deplorable. Every American citizen will extend him heartfelt sympathy and sincerest wishes for his early recovery."

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 17.—Unless Colonel Roosevelt recovers sufficiently to take part again in the campaign, Governor Wilson, at the end of his speaking engagements on Thursday and Friday in West Virginia, Delaware and Pennsylvania, will make no further speeches in the present campaign.

Following the reading of a telegram on the condition of Colonel Roosevelt at 11 o'clock last night Governor Wilson announced his intention of cancelling every campaign engagement from which he could possibly withdraw until Colonel Roosevelt was again able to take to the stump.

"I cannot," he said, "cancel the engagements which are immediately ahead of me without subjecting those who have arranged them to very serious embarrassment and great unnecessary expense, but I shall cut the series at the earliest possible point. Mr. Taft has at no time taken an active part in the campaign, and I have no desire to be the single candidate on the stump engaged against no active antagonist."

Governor Wilson was asked if his active speechmaking would end on his return on Saturday from Delaware, West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

"Yes," he said, "I have asked my managers to arrange to cancel the engagements in New York and Brooklyn for next Saturday night."

Before issuing his statement, Gov. Wilson talked over the long distance telephone to Democratic National headquarters in New York and to his secretary, Joseph P. Tumulty. The Governor will leave here at 11 o'clock tomorrow night, and, after speaking at Wilmington and Wheeling tonight and Friday, will end his trip with a speech at Pittsburg on Friday night.

A bulletin was given the Governor which stated that Mr. Roosevelt's condition was much improved.

"That's fine," was the Governor's comment.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE

HON. H. C. JACKSON.

A Man That Can Be Depended Upon.

That is the principal thing. Hon. H. C. Jackson, the subject of this brief sketch, has once been elected to the office of Representative in general assembly at Harrisburg and owing to his good record established his friends have renominated him to that office and on November 5 propose to again elect him to this high office. Hon. H. C. Jackson favors local option, he favors home rule and in fact anything that will in any way benefit the people of his home county, who by their votes will return him to the Legislature. A man who votes for Mr. Jackson votes for himself and his own best interests.
