

FOR SALE.

ALL THE POPULAR MUSIC OF the day, 10c a copy, Saturday only. F. A. Jenkins Music House, 441.

FOR SALE—ONE DRAFT HORSE, color black. Apply to Gurney Electric Elevator Company 8417

FOR SALE—DESIRABLE DWELLING house and lot on East Street Extension; all improvements. Bar-tain, J. B. Robinson, Agent, Jad-win Building. 5812

HORSE FOR SALE—THREE GOOD legs and one good eye. Work any-where. $25.00. McIntyre. 8412

FINE OLD VIOLIN FOR SALE, first $20.00 takes it; one fiddle, 3.00, another one $1.50. Address by call evenings, between 6 and 8:30. H. A. Wagner, 827 Main St. 79e12

SECOND HAND ESTEY ORGAN—Will exchange for potatoes, butter, wheat, hay or money. McIn-ire. 84e12

FOR SALE OR RENT A GOOD farm 1/2 mile from Erie Railroad and Milk station at Milanville. Ap-ply to "Buyahom" Realty Co., Honesdale, Pa., Box 524. 734f

AGRICULTURAL LIME—GET our prices on Agricultural Lime F. B. your nearest station in carload lots. Martin Hermann, Callicoon, N. Y. 8314

MISCELLANEOUS.

WANTED 50 GIRLS TO LEARN glass cutting. Wages $6 per week to start. Krantz-Smith & Co.

SWIS, THE PIANO TUNER, WILL be in Honesdale about November 8412

FOUND—GOLD MESH FOB WITH Initials F. E. G. Owner can have me by applying to Adam Brien-cker and paying for this advertise-ment.

OST AT HONSDALE FAIR, OCT. 2, black fur robe. $5.00 reward offered for same. Mrs. Downton, Arrecca, Pa. 11

WANTED—FIFTY CAR REPAIR-ers or men to learn car repairing. Apply to D. & H. Company car shop, Arrecca, Pa., or G. W. Penwar-ter, yardmaster, Honesdale, for in-formation. 81e13

HONSDALE THIS WEEK—Will be here again week of Oct. 14, at Hotel Wayne. Sam. S. int, Piano Tuner.

ET THE LACKAWANNA DO your laundry. Thomas F. Bracy, Honesdale, agent. Lock for our sign with the sign "Lackawanna Laundry Co." 574f

RL WANTED FOR GENERAL house work. Apply at 1114 Court street. 84e17

Table with columns for DELAWARE & HUDSON, ERIE, and HONSDALE. Rows show daily and Sunday services with times and rates.

LOCAL NEWS

The mercury registered 28 de-ees above zero Thursday morning.

Since operations began at the w electric elevator works over .000 has been paid out to Hones-ale parties.

The office of the Wyoming de-mocrat, a weekly paper published Tunkhannock, was badly damag-ed by fire on Monday last.

There will be an Initiatory deg-ree by the Odd Fellows on Mon-ey evening next. Installation of a newly elected officers will fol-ew.

Officer DeGroat arrested An-ew Bowan, who said his home was Forest City, Sunday night, for be-ing intoxicated on the street and he is lodged in the county jail.

The town council is erecting an randescent lamp in the center of e state bridge on the western side-k. This is much needed as it s always been very dark on that rt of the bridge.

Many of the Honesdale and wley friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wil-a Bone, of Binghamton, will be ased to learn that their youngest ughter, Miss Clara Bone recently ased through a successful operat-ion for appendicitis in a St. Louis pital.

All of the many characters in-duced in the book have been re-ined in the dramatization of "Freckles." Of course, the principal racters in the play, as in the vel, are the keen witted, self-re-nt and lovable boy, Freckles; The gel; McLean, the manager of the and Rapids Lumber Company; e Bird Woman; Mr. and Mrs. Dun-; The Man of Affairs; Lord and dy O'Moore and Black Jack and essner, the timber thieves.

The Honesdale Dime Bank has eased its capital stock from $75,0 to $100,000, the increase being de by the sale of 250 shares of e bank stock at $200 a share, eeing $25,000 to the capital account d the same amount to surplus ac-unt. As the consent and necessary roval by the commonwealth has ly just been obtained the stock has et yet been offered for sale but any stock subscriptions have been eived at the bank. Under the nking act stockholders may sub-ribe pro rata for any increase in e capital.

Protection Engine Co. No. 3 hold their annual concert and ball in the armory this Friday evening. Give the boys a helping hand.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church cleared $110 from their annual chicken pie supper held last Thursday evening. The gross proceeds were $123.

Mrs. Margaret McGrath Kane died at her home in Rock Lake on Tuesday, October 15, at the age of sixty-seven years. The funeral was held there Wednesday afternoon.

The Wayne County Teachers' Institute will be held in the High school auditorium the week follow-ing election, beginning November 11 and continuing until the 15th inclu-sive.

The county commissioners have awarded the printing of the ballots for November election to the Hawley Times. Their bid was $325. There will be 14,000 ballots printed for Wayne county, which includes spec-imen and official.

Expectorating on the floor is a filthy habit. Parties who practice it undoubtedly do it unconsciously, but it should be stopped. In Wilkes-Barre the town authorities will not tolerate it and have imposed a fine of $1 on the person who violates that city's ordinance.

The concert of Protection En-gine Co. No. 3 at their annual ball this year will be given by the Key-stone Quartet of Scranton. This quartet has never appeared here but come highly recommended and will doubtless make this part of the evening more pleasing than ever before.

The Citizen is receiving orders for its spelling books in every mail. Many come from out-of-the-county and from towns and cities in Penn-sylvania and other states. For 12 cents in coin or stamps The Citizen will mail postpaid to any address the two books containing 1,500 words.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Antonian arrived in Honesdale Monday and are now living at the Alien House. Mr. Antonian is holding the same posi-tion as that when he left Honesdale, a year ago that of porter while at his home town, Shoumea, Bulgaria. Mr. Antonian was united in marriage with Miss Anna Jakerial. The trip to America from Bulgaria took a month.

At the Democratic meeting the other evening Mr. Palmer tried to convince his audience that a reduc-tion of the tariff would mean less profits to the manufacturers, but more wages for the employees. Ye gods! That is amazing. Manufact-urers claim their profits are hardly enough to pay the present wages, and if the profit is reduced to that how are they going to pay more?

The district school spelling con-test will take place on Saturday, October 26, in the different districts. Pupils who have not availed them-selves of the opportunity of securing the spelling words printed in book form by The Citizen Publishing Com-pany, of Honesdale, should do so at once, as the contest will be held a week from the coming Saturday. Two books postpaid for 12c, stamps or coin.

Earl Rockwell is completing a large modern stock barn for B. H. Throop of Scranton, at Elmhurst. The barn has a concrete floor and is plastered throughout, making it warm and comfortable. The cow barn is 160 feet, and forms a T of the main barn, which is 180 feet. Mr. Throop will breed blooded cat-tle, horses and Belgian Police dogs. He recently purchased a pair of par-tent Belgian dogs for $1,800.

Sunday's New York Herald con-tained an account of the aviation flights at the new aviation field at Oakwood Heights on Saturday after-noon last, when the Curtiss model bi-plane, built by the Scranton avi-ator, O. E. Williams, and in charge of Elling Weeks, came near winning the big honors at the meet. Weeks, who it will be remembered attempt-ed to make flights at the Wayne county fair, succeeded in reaching an altitude of 2,000 feet. The machine made a continuous flight for about twenty minutes, which is some bet-ter than he did in Honesdale.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brook cele-brated their silver wedding anniver-sary at their home in White Mills on Saturday. There were about thirty guests and among them were Rev. A. L. Whittaker, of Honesdale; Mrs. Kate Brink, of Honesdale, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Atkinson, the latter couple having been present on the day of the couple's marriage. During the evening the company were entertained by piano selections by Miss Haden and Miss Carlotta Brock. Refreshments were served at nine o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Brock were the recipients of many beautif-ful gifts including silver, cut glass and linen.

The Conservatory Concert Quar-tet of Ithaca appeared at the Presby-terian chapel last Monday evening before a fair sized and appreciative audience. The quartet consists of Miss Betty Clifford, contralto; Miss Louise Santorelli, pianist; Hiram Posner, violinist, and George Fuller reader. Every number was well re-ceived and heartily enjoyed. It is the opinion of those who have followed the concert sent out by the Ithaca Conservatory that this company is by far the strongest ever appearing here. The concert was given under the auspices of the Christian Endeav-er Association and netted the society about twenty-five dollars.

Paul Sonner was tendered a sur-prise party by his wife at his home on Park street on Wednesday even-ing, the event being the sixth an-iversary of their marriage. Cards were indulged in the early part of the evening, prizes being awarded to J. A. Fisch and H. G. Rowland. Cov-ers were laid for twelve and the fol-lowing sat down to a delicious din-ner: Dr. J. W. Balta, Jos. A. Fisch, J. A. Bodle, Jr., F. A. Jenkins, Leon Katz, Charles Truscott, Richard Hartnett, John Sonner, Robert Mur-ray, Frank Vetter, Paul Sonner and H. G. Rowland. The latter part of the evening was enjoyed by instru-mental music by Messrs. Jenkins, Bodle, Sonner and Katz, and vocal solos by Messrs. Sonner and Truscott. At the departure of the guests Mr. and Mrs. Sonner were voted royal entertainers.

Election November 5.

Grand jury meets next week.

The Ladies' Aid society of Seely-ville held their annual chicken pie supper in the chapel Thursday even-ing.

The Durland-Weston Shoe com-pany are installing a new large boil-er. A fire escape has just been built on the south end of their factory.

Joseph B. Spafford, who for 57 years has been a resident of Scrant-on, going to that city from Hones-dale, was a pleasant caller at the Citizen office Thursday.

Miss Crescentia O'Connell was pleasantly surprised at her home on Church street on Friday evening of last week by a number of her friends who gathered at her home.

On Wednesday information was lodged against Emil Hines, of South Canaan, who is charged with viola-tion of the liquor laws. A warrant has been issued for his arrest.

The Seelyville Fire Company will hold a masquerade ball in their all on Wednesday evening, October 9. Pumpkin pie and sweet cider will be on sale. Tickets, 25 cents.

A cent-a-word in The Citizen will sell your horse, buy a home, rent a house or secure a girl. Cast your votes over today's classified ads. There is something there for you.

Contributions to the Needle-work Guild please remember to send the articles to their director by October 25. The date for collect-ing and distributing will be on Friday, November 1.

Large quantities of coal was in-covered on the site of the Gurney Elevator site this week. The coal was in the old tow path which has been graded down. The boys struck a rich find. Several of the pieces were as large as one's fist.

From the numerous inquiries for help wanted it is evident that times are prosperous in Honesdale and Wayne county. The Citizen to-day contains want advertisements which ask for help, both male and female. One concern wants 50 girls at once to learn glasscutting.

There will be a concert, consist-ing of vocal and instrumental music held at the Beach Grove Grange hall on Monday evening next, Oct. 23. There will be a large choir from Honesdale. Jenkins' Boy band will be present. Riggs will be stationed at the Wayne Hotel on that evening to convey those who wish to attend.

The funeral of the late W. J. Van Keuren, jeweler, was largely at-tended from his late home on Court street, Wednesday afternoon. Among out-of-town relatives and friends present were: Mr. and Mrs. George H. Birdsall, of Scranton; Eugene M. Barnes and family, of Philadelphia; George Barnes and family, of Carbon-alle; Milton Skinner and daughter, Mrs. Beagle, of Milanville; Mrs. H. W. Drury, of Englewood, N. J.; Mrs. Margaret Guinnip, of Wilkes-Barre; Mrs. Walter R. Burrows, of Brook-lyn, N. Y.

PERSONAL MENTION.

C. J. Smith spent a few days this week in New York city.

James Miller was attending to business in Lackawaxen on Wednes-day.

Abaz Pierce and daughter, of Carbondale, was a visitor in town on Tuesday.

B. H. Dittrich has returned from a few days' fishing on the lakes of Sul-livan county.

Leslie Brader was called to Wilkes-Barre on Wednesday by the death of an uncle.

O. R. Leeds of the Tribune-Rep-ublican-Truth was a business caller in town last week.

Mrs. S. N. Cross, of Sterling, is pending a week with her daughter, Mrs. W. B. Leshar.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Lybolt, of Fallsdale, were business callers in Honesdale on Thursday.

Isaac Garrett and family moved into the Haywood house on Four-teenth street, Wednesday.

Henry M. Noble, of Milanville, was a pleasant caller at The Citizen of-ice on Wednesday while in town.

Mrs. Edward Lindsay and daughter, Elizabeth, returned Wednesday from a week's visit with relatives at Tunkhannock.

Mrs. G. G. Johns returned to New York Wednesday after a pleasant visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Chambers.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Swingle, of Corning, N. Y., are the guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. Joseph J. Murphy, at East Honesdale.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Varcoe went to Carbondale Wednesday afternoon to attend the funeral of Thomas F. Pierce of 161 Belmont street.

Rev. and Mrs. G. S. Wendell and family will leave on Friday to at-tend the golden anniversary of the marriage of Mrs. Wendell's parents, Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Cordo, in Had-don Heights, N. J. The celebration will take place on Tuesday, the 22nd. Rev. Cordo is well known in Honesdale, having preached here on several occasions.

Duncan McTavish left Thursday morning for Martinsburg, West Vir-ginia, where he has accepted a posi-tion as linotype operator on the Daily World of that city. Duncan learned the art preservative in The Citizen office, later taking a course in the Brooklyn Mergenthaler Linotype fac-tory, where he qualified himself as an operator. His many friends hope that he will "make good."

Church Notes

St. John's Lutheran church: 10:30 German, Betet fur Elnander; 11:45 a. m. Sunday school; 7:30 p. m., "Im-provement Not the Same to Good and Bad." Service at White Mills at 2 p. m.

An Italian clergyman, the Rev. Domenico A. Rocca, a former Roman Catholic priest in Italy, now doing an extremely interesting and im-portant work among the Italians of Easton, Bethlehem and other places, will speak at Grace Episcopal church Sunday, October 20, at 7:30 p. m. Mr. Rocca is an unusually bright and entertaining speaker, who thoroughly knows his subject. While speaking with a decided Italian accent, he enunciates so clearly and thinks so clearly that not a word is lost. His subject, "What to Do With the Ital-ian in the United States" is one on which all serious citizens should inform themselves. There will also be a Holy Communion service at 8 a. m. and morning service at 10:30; Sunday school at 12 M.

The Right Reverend Ethelbert Talbot, LL. D., Bishop of Bethlehem, will speak in the White Mills church next Monday evening, Oct. 21, at 7:30. Other speakers will be the Reverend D. Wester Coxie, D. D., Archdeacon of Scranton, and the Reverend H. G. Hartman of Wilkes-Barre. This will be the opening service of a two-day meeting of the Archdeaconry of Scranton. The Tuesday service and sessions will be held in Christ church, Indian Or-ehard. They will be as follows: Holy Communion and sermon by the Rev. Ernest W. Wood of Montrose, 10 a. m.; business meeting at 11:30; afternoon session, 2:30—Exegesis, Review of Roush White's "Call of the Carpenter"; address, "The Stranger Within our Gates," which will be an interesting account of work among Italians by an Italian clergyman; and a conference on Sunday school by the Rev. Howard W. Diller, a Sunday school specialist from Pottsville. At the evening ser-vice the speakers will be the Rev-erend Mr. Diller, the Reverend J. Talbot Ward of Wilkes-Barre and the Reverend Domenico A. Rocca, of Easton. All are good speakers and their subjects are important. Mr. Rocca's subject in the evening is "A Menace to our Country, and How to Meet It." As an Italian himself he will speak from first hand experi-ence on the Italian problem. The public generally is invited.

John Simons, who lived on the Grabow farm, has rented the Ryan farm and will move thereon in the near future.

The L. A. S. held at Mrs. E. Maines on Tuesday last netted $2.50. Wm. Reinfurt has the best crop of potatoes we have heard of this year, the yield being about 200 bu-shels from fifteen planted.

Mrs. Grabow sold her farm here recently to Mr. Page of Scranton. Consideration $200.

John Simons, who lived on the Grabow farm, has rented the Ryan farm and will move thereon in the near future.

Death of S. H. Brown.

Samuel H. Brown, for many years the well known boss carpenter of the D. & H. Canal Co., died at his home in East Honesdale Tuesday evening, Oct. 15, 1912. The funeral will be held at the residence Friday at 2 p. m. Deceased was born in Corn-wall, England, Dec. 22, 1835, and he came to America in 1851. He learned his carpenter and millwright trade of his brother Thomas and D. W. Church. In 1856 he began for himself and after a trip south and west in 1858 he married Hanna L. Gerow of Newberg, N. Y. Returning to England he worked with his father eight years then came back to America, working at the mill-wright trade for Coe F. Young and others until 1879 when he became boss carpenter for the D. & H., con-tinuing in that capacity until the canal was abandoned. When he re-turned to his farm at East Hones-dale. He was school director two terms. Supervisor and township treasurer of Texas. He leaves a wife and seven children, Sarah, wife of Arthur Howell, of Point Richmond, Cal.; Millie A., Martha B., wife of R. M. Stocker, William T., Samuel R., Frederick H. and Raymond J. of Honesdale.

ARLINGTON.

A harvest home supper will be held at the home of Gilbert Pennell on Friday evening, Oct. 18, for the benefit of the pastor's salary.

Mrs. John Binkman, of Welcome Lake, and sister, Christena Reinfurt of Ridgewood, N. J., visited their brothers, William and Henry Reinfurt last week.

Because of the very bad condition of the roads there has been several horses lamed lately. It seems that the high taxes ought to pay for more stones to be thrown out of the road, and to our knowledge stones have been thrown out only once this sum-mer.

Mrs. Bennett spent Sunday with Mrs. J. Zimmerman.

Eri Trivelpiece is again running his mill.

Miles C. Rowland is going to cut his lumber on the Zimmerman prop-erty this winter.

The people around here have some grand hogs to kill this fall.

Corn is very plentiful.

During the thunder shower Sat-urday night a tree standing between C. Williams' and H. Fowler's was struck.

Asher Killam is doing some car-penter work for J. Zimmerman.

Henry Fowler expects to have the new roof on part of his house in a few days.

PAUPACK.

A small crowd attended the "nut social" and a large sum was clear-ed—$9.20.

Isaac Ludwig, wife and daughter, Ruth, spent Saturday and Sunday at Trivelpiece's.

John Zimmerman is spending this week in New York.

F. Quick has moved into one of the buildings on the Sheridan place.

B. F. Killam and wife moved to Camden, N. J., last week.

Ralph Williams has a "game" foot.

E. K. Singer spent Saturday and Sunday at Tafton with her cousins.

Supt. Westbrook visited the schools in Pike county last week.

General Von Gulder, who is doing his own cooking, baking and fry-ing, accidentally spilled some hot lard on his little daughter's head last week. She was not very seriously burned as she attended school a few days afterwards.

Udeniable Facts

- 1. When a retail business house is successful there must be a good reason for it.
2. Their goods must have merit.
3. Their prices must be reasonable.
4. Their treatment of customers must be fair.
5. Rowland's is one of the fastest growing retail stores in Honesdale.
6. Their success is admitted by all competitors.
7. Their success is based on well known laws.
8. Their standard of quality is unusually high.
9. Their prices are exceptionally low.
10. Their dealings have always been fair.
11. The only way goods will sell themselves is through high quality at reasonably low prices.
12. There are enough good jewelry buyers in Honesdale and vicinity to make a concern of this kind grow from a small house to one of enviable position.
13. This they are accomplishing.
14. Rowland's is the sort of a jewelry store you should be acquainted with.
15. Drop us a post card for one of our fall jewelry catalogs which will be mailed you free of charge.

ROWLAND, Jeweler of Quality.

Chestnut parties are beginning to explore the woods.

Don Smith and Frank Harris are very busy picking and drawing apples out of the Bennett orchard.

Institute week will be the last week in October.

Dorothea Gumble spent Saturday and Sunday with her aunt, Mrs. Slo-um.

August Singer is enlarging and raising his house at Gumble's.

J. Zimmerman is running his cider mill every Thursday.

Church will be at 7:30 Sunday night, Sunday school at 10 a. m.

E. Dapper spent Sunday in Haw-ley with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Straub and daugh-ers, Minnie and Louise, who have been spending the summer with Wm. Benhler, returned to New York Monday.

Mrs. Bennett spent Sunday with Mrs. J. Zimmerman.

Eri Trivelpiece is again running his mill.

Miles C. Rowland is going to cut his lumber on the Zimmerman prop-erty this winter.

The people around here have some grand hogs to kill this fall.

Corn is very plentiful.

During the thunder shower Sat-urday night a tree standing between C. Williams' and H. Fowler's was struck.

Asher Killam is doing some car-penter work for J. Zimmerman.

Henry Fowler expects to have the new roof on part of his house in a few days.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of J. C. Watson

McCall's Magazine and McCall Patterns

For Women. Have More Friends than any other magazine or patterns.

Save Money and Keep in Style by sub-scribing for McCall's Magazine at once. Costs only 50 cents a year, including any one of the celebrated McCall Patterns free.

McCall Patterns Lead all others in style, fit, simplicity, economy and number sold. More dealers sell McCall Patterns than any other two makes combined. None higher than uscuts. Buy from your dealer, or by mail from us.

McCALL'S MAGAZINE 256-246 W. 37th St., New York City

If you want fine job printing just give The Citizen a trial order. We can do GOOD work.

Removal Notice

On and after Nov. 1st

BRADY'S DRUG STORE

Located at No. 620 South Main St., where we hope to see all our old friends and many new ones.

Respectfully, J. T. BRADY,

MURRAY CO. Everything for the Farm. Honesdale, Pa.