

FOOTBALL HAS BEEN REBORN

New Rules Bring the Game Up to Highest Standard.

HEAVY FORWARDS ESSENTIAL.

The Days of Line Plunging Are Brought Back, but the Deadly Mass Play is Missing—Punting is Less in Favor.

Football has been rejuvenated. A study of the games played so far this season compared with those of last year will convince any one that the diron sport has been reborn. It has been taken back to the days of line plunging, and the team with the most powerful line, the strongest line back and the best end runners will win this year.

Yale and Princeton. Last year Red and Blue barely defeated Pennsylvania college, 5-3. This year was comparatively easy for Coach Smith's proteges to pile up a 35-0 score. In 1911 Princeton downed Stevens 20-0. The last game resulted in a 65-0 victory for the Tigers.

At Lafayette, Lehigh, the Indians, Dartmouth, Trinity and other powerful teams have easily shown their superiority. Yale and Harvard alone have had trouble. But probably the Red and Crimson teams have decided on slow advancement under the new code, being satisfied to win while they discover the possibilities for the year contests. Cornell was the only team to meet defeat, but that was at the hands of Colgate, a team which is said to be adapted to the new code.

There is one rule which has brought about this change. It is providing for downs to gain ten yards instead of three, which prevailed last season. These rules have helped, but so long as a team can gain ground and score means of end runs and line plunges resort to the forward pass or a punting game? The team should have a most successful season. It has that brilliant runner, Captain Mercer, and it has Marshall, Marshall and Harton, backs who are able to hit the line or skirt the ends. There is no question about the power of the Quakettack.

Whether the defense will do its duty when the stronger teams are met remains to be seen, for Gettysburg woefully weak on offense and did give the Red and Blue forwards a fine test.

But we may rest assured that there will be few small scores when the big teams attain their full power under the new rules. There will also be games won on a fluke. And there will be few injuries, for there will be no mass plays which made the old line plunging game so dangerous.

WEISLER UNLUCKY PLAYER

His Star End Hurt More Than Any Other Gridiron Warrior. Douglas Bomeisler, Yale's star end, having another attack of hard luck, as was the case last year. The big as a shoulder is said to be in such condition.

White Sox Grab Class D Star. Harry C. Wolfe, who was the star batsman in the Missouri-Illinois league last year, will be taken south next spring tried out by the Chicago Americans. He batted .374 last season and is expected of him in the majors. He is the only player drafted this year in the Class D division.

Carisch an Old Timer. Carisch, the new backstop of the Grand Naps, is referred to as a playing youngster, but he has been in the big league before and was once a star.

MATTY TELLS OF HORACE FOGEL'S BIGGEST "BULL."

Christy Mathewson says he thinks the best joke ever pulled by Horace Fogel as manager of the Giants was not when he tried to make a first baseman out of Matty, but when he released Jack Doyle, then the Giants' first sacker, "for purposefully hitting into a triple play."

Mathewson thus tells of it: "We were playing in Boston. Jack lined to the Boston second baseman with runners on first and second. Fogel wired to Andy Freedman, president of the club, that Jack had purposefully hit into a triple play. Freedman wired, 'Release him if that's the way he's playing.' The joke was on Freedman and Fogel. Washington signed Doyle at the same salary New York was paying him and gave him $500 bonus."

JAP IN BILLIARD TOURNEY.

Yamada May Be Only Foreign Entrant in 1922 Champs.

Kodji Yamada is coming over from Berlin to take part in the 1922 balk line championship billiard tourney which will be held in New York about the middle of November. It looks as if the Jap will be the only foreign entry. Cassagnol, the Frenchman, is making so much money in the continental academies that he doesn't want to leave. William Hoppe, George Slosson, Harry Cline, Ora Morningstar, George Sutton, Calvin Demarest and Albert Outler are probable entries; also Al Taylor of Milwaukee and Maurice Daly, on whom the years sit lightly and who is now reeling off the caroms in practice as in the days of his youth. The latest plan is to have a qualifying tourney, eliminating all but three, who will meet in the final.

Daly is to have a metropolitan handicap tourney at 182 balk line for amateurs in his room beginning the last part of this month. Poggenburg, Gardner, Conway, Gershel and Thompson are among those who are expected to play. No sanction will be asked for from the N. A. A. B. P. for this tourney. Gardner and Conway are at present on the N. A. A. B. P.'s disqualified list for having played in a club without permission, but it appears that many of the amateurs are not enamored with the N. A. A. B. P.'s methods and that Daly is going ahead with his tourney regardless. It may result in a wider split between the room keepers and players and the national association.

PUT ONE OVER ON CLARKE.

Chicago Catcher Batted Out of Turn and Won Game For Cubs.

Manager Clarke of the Pirates allowed Cotter, catcher for Chicago, to bat out of his turn in the tenth inning of a recent game without protesting, although Cotter's single won the game for Chance's men. Umpire Owens doffed his mask and waited patiently for Clarke to put in his protest, for the rules read that a batsman hitting out of regular order shall be called out when such protest is lodged. Clarke, instead, grasped his sweater coat and raced for the clubhouse. Owens watched the retreating manager for a few paces and then turned and left the field.

Later Clarke got on to himself and telegraphed a protest to President Lynch. Clarke said that he had reread the 1912 rules and that the umpire was required to call attention to any infraction of the rules.

TO HONOR THE HORSE.

National Show Will Begin in New York Nov. 16.

The prize list for the twenty-eighth annual exhibition of the National Horse Show Association of America, to be held in Madison Square Garden, New York, Nov. 16 to 23, has been issued, and those horsemen and horsewomen who have been winning prizes at summer shows can now make plans for national honors and championships. This show is the most important of the year in the horse world, and this year prizes are offered in 146 different classes, while the total amount will reach $46,000. In addition, there will be many pieces of plate, cups and challenge trophies, which are offered by horsemen.

NEW CORNELL STAR.

Bates, Crew Commodore, Expected to Grab Halfback Position.

Coach Sharpe of Cornell is sizing up his second and third elevens, on which now are playing a number of promising men who may make the varsity later.

One of these is Bates, the crew commodore, who played football two years ago, but did not come out last fall because of fear of overtraining. Bates played right halfback on the second team and astonished the onlookers by his speed, sure footed running, picking of holes and general fine condition, and it was obvious that Coach Sharpe was much pleased with his showing.

Royalty Goes in For Tennis.

Ex-King Manuel of Portugal has been playing lawn tennis in England at Felixstowe, and partnered by A. E. Beamish, one of the players selected to represent Great Britain in the Davis cup matches, acquitted himself creditably against two powerful opponents. The feature of Manuel's play was his skill in placing.

LIPTON WANTS TO LIFT THE CUP

Famous Irishman Will Race If Rules Are Changed.

HE WILL BUILD TWO YACHTS.

Nine Years Since Last Tussle Between America and England Took Place—Present Rules Are Unfair to Foreign Contenders, He Says.

Sir Thomas Lipton, who has again challenged America to race for the international cup, says: "I have a feeling that the New York Yacht club will meet me in regard to the racing rules. No man can possibly win the cup under the old conditions. If the New York Yacht club adheres to the old rules it might as well bury the cup. If my challenge is accepted I shall build two yachts. Fyfe probably will be the designer of one, and the other will be designed by the best possible man in England."

"These two boats will race, and the better of the two will cross the Atlantic as the challenger." So far as any disinterested yachtsman knows, there is not the slightest reason why the New York Yacht club should not change its rules and give Sir Thomas Lipton another chance to lift the cup unless it be that the powers in the club do not wish to race for the cup or, for some reason known only to themselves, object to the challenger. It is now nine years since the last race was sailed, and owing to the objections which foreign yachtsmen make to the present rules it is doubtful if another race will be sailed until they are altered.

These rules could be altered under the so called "mutual agreement clause" if the New York Yacht club should be willing, but it insists that foreign challengers must race under the old rules or not at all. Under the original rules, for instance, the challengers had to race

ROW OVER MARTY O'TOOLE.

Dreyfuss Paid Only $12,500—Thinks Spittballer is a Lemon.

Barney Dreyfuss, president of the Pittsburgh baseball club, is said to be involved in a row with George Lennon, owner of the St. Paul club of the American association, and the national commission may be called upon to take a hand. The whole trouble had its inception in the now famous deal whereby Dreyfuss got Picher Martin O'Toole from the St. Paul club and the failure of that player to make even a fair showing in the National league.

Instead of paying $22,500 cash for the supposed master of the spittball, Dreyfuss gave St. Paul $12,500 cash and was to have turned over to St. Paul players to the value of $10,000. Among these was to be a catcher, this part of the transaction being agreed upon when Pittsburgh got Catcher Kelley from St. Paul as part of the deal.

During the middle of the present season St. Paul is said to have made a demand for the immediate delivery of a catcher, when to Lennon's surprise, as the story goes, Dreyfuss flatly informed him that he thought that he had already given more than O'Toole was worth, as the latter had proved the biggest sort of a lemon.

NEW HOCKEY LEAGUE MEETS.

Syracuse, Toronto, Hamilton, Detroit and Cleveland to Have Teams.

Hockey promoters who are interested in the proposed International Hockey league will meet in Buffalo to lay definite plans for the organization. At this meeting the promoters declare a schedule will be adopted and officers elected. The cities which will found the league are Syracuse, Toronto, Hamilton, Detroit and Cleveland. Toronto will be represented by two teams in the league.

The promoters plan to give the cities named four months of hockey. It is the intention of the magnates to arrange for each thirty-two games for club, sixteen being played in the home rink and a similar number abroad. The magnates state that they intend to corral the star players in the game and give the enthusiasts the fastest hockey possible.

CLEVELAND TOO SLOW.

Birmingham Tells Why Davis and Stovall Failed.

Joe Birmingham, who succeeded Harry Davis as manager of the Naps, declares that no man could have made a pennant winner out of the club either last year or this. "No manager could have made the men faster than nature made them, and there has been a lack of speed all the year," he said.

"The critics have been too quick to claim that Davis could only finish sixth with a club that Stovall finished third with. They forget that only two games separated third and sixth place in 1911."

M'LEAN IN THE RING.

Reds' Giant Catcher to Fight Charlie Schmidt.

Two new white hopes have appeared on the pugilistic horizon. They are no less personages than Larry McLean, the Cincinnati Reds' star catcher, and Charlie Schmidt, formerly of the Detroit Tigers and now of the Providence Grays of the International league.

The pair are to meet in a ten round bout in New York some time next

Don't Get Up in a Hurry.

Don't jump up the first thing your eyes are open. Remember that while you sleep the vital organs are at rest. The vitality is lowered and the circulation not so strong.

A sudden spring out of bed is a shock to these organs, especially to the heart, as it starts pumping the blood suddenly. Don't be in such a hurry. Stretch and yawn and stretch. Stretch the arms and legs, stretch the whole body. A good yawn and stretch are better even than a cold bath. Take time. It will keep you young and add years to your life.—Family Doctor.

Golf.

A writer in an English paper has this to say regarding the game of golf: "Golf is a great game, but shiver me nibbles! If I think it comes up to tidily-didly-winks. It is played with a couple of farms, a river or so, two or three sand hills, a number of implements resembling dentist's tools, a strange language much like Hindustani, any old clothes and a large assortment of oaths."
