

AUTO KILLS WOMAN

Motor Truck Runs Down Schoolteacher.

SAID TO HAVE BEEN SPEEDING

While on Her Way to School Woman Is Struck by Heavy Coal Vehicle In Philadelphia—Driver and Assistant Held Without Bail For Coroner.

Philadelphia, Oct. 22.—A five ton truck, said to have been speeding, struck and killed Miss Margaret Roper, thirty-five years old, 251 West Rittenhouse street, Germantown, a teacher, at Broad street and Montgomery avenue as she was on her way to the James Lynd public school, Twelfth street and Montgomery avenue.

When the woman was struck she was crossing Broad street from the west side to the east. The heavy truck, loaded with coal, having gained momentum on the incline on Broad street near Montgomery avenue, could not be stopped by the driver, and the wheels passed over the woman's body.

A motor car owned by Mrs. A. A. Koch of 5327 Baynton street, Germantown, was impressed by Stiles, a policeman of the Twentieth and Berks streets station, and in it the body of the woman was rushed to the hospital. There it was said that death had been instant.

Harry C. Lodge, who was driving Mrs. Koch's car, was ordered by the policeman to disregard the speed laws on the trip to the hospital. Papers in the dead woman's purse gave the clue to her identity.

Michael Lavelle, 2109 North Clarion street, driver of the truck, and his assistant, Michael Kenny, 2021 Salmon street, were arrested by Hill, a policeman. They were taken to city hall, arraigned before Magistrate Eisenrow and both held without bail to await the action of the coroner.

An attorney representing Kenny declared the latter should not be held without bail because he had nothing to do with the accident. The magistrate said he was compelled to hold the man because he was on the truck at the time of the accident. Hill said he did not see the accident. He was a block away.

Witnesses of the accident say the truck was going at high speed. Residents on Broad street above Montgomery avenue declare no policeman is stationed at the corner at which the accident occurred. Among those who insist a policeman be detailed there is the Rev. Russell H. Conwell, pastor of the Baptist temple, Broad and Berks streets.

Miss Roper lived with a sister and a niece. A brother, Dr. William F. Roper, lives in Olney.

NINE STITCHES IN HIS HEART

Philadelphia Colored Man Able to Leave Hospital After Operation.

Philadelphia, Oct. 22.—After a successful operation on his heart, in which nine stitches were placed in that organ, John Thompson, colored, Tenth and Waverly streets, was discharged from the Pennsylvania hospital and will appear against the man accused of having inflicted the injury.

Thompson has been in the hospital seventy-seven days. When brought to the institution he was suffering from a stab wound in the left breast, inflicted during a fight by Albert Shore, also colored, the police declare. The blade of the knife penetrated the heart. Shore, who has been under arrest since the night of the fight, will be given a hearing before Magistrate Hagerly at the Twelfth and Pine streets police station tomorrow.

MET YEGGMEN WITH GUNS.

Citizens Shoot After Attempt to Rob Postoffice at Birdsboro, Pa.

Reading, Pa., Oct. 22.—Four robbers blew open the postoffice safe at Birdsboro. They escaped without any plunder after an exchange of shots with citizens armed with shotguns.

Mrs. E. F. Mohr, who lives near the postoffice, was awakened by a crash of glass. Her husband, on going downstairs to investigate, heard a loud explosion. They gave the alarm. Neighbors were summoned and arrived with guns. As they assembled four men leaped from the postoffice window and ran away.

The citizens then opened fire. The yeggmens returned the fire with their revolvers till every resident in the borough had been awakened by the rattle of the conflict.

ENGINEER KILLED IN WRECK.

Pennsylvania Express Train Struck Freight Car in Fog.

Williamsport, Pa., Oct. 22.—Because of a dense fog the Pennsylvania railroad express, bound south, sideswiped a freight car just east of this city.

Davis Gelkin, engineer, whose home was at Harrisburg, Pa., was killed in his cab. Two passengers were hurt by flying wreckage.

Colonel Hugh Young Dead.

Wellsville, Pa., Oct. 22.—Colonel Hugh Young is dead at his home here, aged eighty-one. He was prominent in banking circles.

THOMAS F. RYAN.

Testifies He Gave About $500,000 to the Parker Campaign Fund.

Thomas Fortune Ryan testified before the Clapp committee in Washington that he gave about $500,000 to the Parker campaign fund, and this after he knew Judge Parker could not be elected president. This is the largest sum, so far as known, ever given by one individual to a campaign fund. "Ryan was no piker," said George W. Perkins, as he followed him on the witness stand. Ryan is said to be worth about $150,000,000.

DIAZ ABSOLUTE IN MEXICO.

Now Thought He Will Have Little Trouble in Ousting Madero.

Washington, Oct. 22.—If General Felix Diaz has the strength and the genius to follow up the advantage he has already gained from the blow struck at Vera Cruz all Mexico is his. This was the conclusion reached here after a day of official dispatches from all points within the present zone of the insurrection being led by the nephew of the former president.

Dispatches to the state department from Mexico City indicate that the capital is ready to flop to the new leader the moment he shows signs of increasing strength. Reports from other points in Mexico indicate that it rests only with Diaz himself as to when he shall receive the avowed support of individuals, the military, cities and states.

The citizens of Tampico are reported to be waiting for Diaz to send forces to take the city in his name. Diaz sympathizers have captured a government gunboat, the Progresso, at Puerto Mexico, and the taking of the town is expected at any moment. In Vera Cruz absolute order prevails. General Diaz has the city absolutely under his control. The state department, through its representatives in Mexico, is continuing its efforts toward assuring the safety of American lives and property in Mexico in the event of the situation taking a serious turn for the worse.

The present indications are that General Diaz is likely to succeed in ousting Madero without serious hostilities.

Mrs. L. J. Dorflinger and father, Dr. Reed, of Honesdale, called on relatives in town on Thursday. The ladies of the Lutheran Guild will hold an apron sale on the afternoon of October 29, at Uterner's store. There will be no soliciting for aprons, but all who wish to kindly help the ladies will leave all aprons at the store on or before the date mentioned.

Charles Dorflinger is spending a few days in New York city. Mrs. Floyd Bross, of Honesdale, spent Thursday as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Elmore.

Mrs. Barney Partridge of Cochecon Center, was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Mary Elmore, this week.

Mrs. Amiel Larson entertained a few friends at luncheon on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Dorflinger have returned from Cape Cod, Mass. Miss Amanda Daniels is the guest of out of town friends.

The many friends of Mr. Bellman will be glad to know that he is constantly improving.

BEACH LAKE.

No reasons the farmers should not have their fall work all done in fine shape this fall. Crops are fine with the exception of apples, but there does not seem to be much sale for them.

Mrs. Rhodes of New York, will spend some time with Mrs. Hannah Brown.

R. Davis has moved his family to Wilkes-Barre where he has secured a steady job.

Wm. P. Budd is treating his house to a new coat of paint. It seems wonderful that a man of his age can go through such a critical operation as he did such a short time ago, and be able to do such manual labor again.

Charles Weber made his home a short visit yesterday.

Mr. Lazo and Charlie Bayly are painting Minnie Barnes' house.

Mrs. R. B. Davey and Mrs. Elery Crosby were summoned to Scranton last Saturday, their sister, Mrs. H. Lathrop, being critically ill. We learn later there is now some hopes for her recovery.

Rev. D. C. McKellar and wife visited at Wm. F. Wood's yesterday.

Hiram Wood, wife and daughter, are making a trip through the valley and as far as Hazleton in their auto.

Mr. Dunn sold one of his horses last week. It is reported he found a man that wanted it bad enough to leave three hundred and fifty dollars in the place of the horse.

C. A. Budd and family visited at the home of William Colwell last Sunday.

Wm. F. Wood and wife, accompanied by his son, Harry and wife, are making the former's brother, Alonzo Wood, a visit.

Mr. Ives is rushing material on the ground and will start men to work this week on the foundation of his new bowling alley.

The next W. C. T. U. meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. P. Budd.

(From Another Correspondent.) Several visitors in town and quite a few of our people visiting elsewhere.

Fred Spry is spending some time with his brother, Charles.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dunn are taking their vacation; will visit his sister at Owego, and from there will go to Syracuse.

Mrs. Wilson and daughter, Sadie, are spending some weeks in Brookly.

Mr. Davis has taken his family to Wilkes-Barre where he has a position.

John Wilmarth has procured work in Honesdale, and will move there for the winter, or an indefinite time as he has rented his farm to Wesley Spry.

There has been an effort to reorganize the Beachlake band. Much interest is taken just now at the meetings. R. B. Davey is leader.

There will be a Halloween party in Wood's hall to be gotten up by the L. T. L. society.

For the first time in several states women will vote for President. It is estimated that there are 1,667,000 women voters this year.

HAMLIN.

The Ministerial Association of the Scranton district met in the M. E. church at Hamlin Oct. 14 and 15. The first session was held on the evening of Monday, Oct. 14, when the association sermon was preached by Rev. Benninger of Simpson church of Scranton. The Tuesday morning session consisted of papers and addresses by Rev. Godshall, Scranton, Rev. Jonas Underwood, South Canaan and Rev. D. S. McKellar, Hawley. All the ministers present took part in discussing the subjects by these speakers. The Tuesday afternoon session consisted of an explanation concerning the financial system of the church, by Rev. Murdock, district superintendent, an address by E. A. Martin, Dunmore, and also an address by Rev. Gilbert, of Berwick. These sessions were decidedly interesting to the people of the community as well as to the ministers, although the attendance was not as large as could be wished. The people of this place were particularly glad of the opportunity to see and hear Rev. Jonas Underwood, he having been pastor here some thirty years ago.

H. F. Nicholson's new house is progressing famously.

The members of the Book Club enjoyed a progressive dinner of the courses served at their several homes on the evening of Thursday, Oct. 17.

Mrs. C. R. Spangenberg left on Friday for Hawley where she will spend Sunday with friends, going on Monday to Deposit, N. Y., for a two weeks' visit with her son George.

GOULDSBORO.

Owing to the fire in Moscow last Tuesday evening that destroyed the I. O. O. F. hall and all contents, including the paraphernalia, records, supplies, etc., of the several societies that met there including the W. C. T. U. in honor of Mrs. Greenwood's visit and the number of candidates that were to have been initiated, preparations had been made for one of the very best of the many delightful meetings that No. 17 has held during the last year but owing to the serious condition of Mrs. Augusta Van Brunt, one of the Corps most active members and the injuries received by Mrs. Kobb, both ladies were attending a meeting of the Rebekahs on the second floor of the hall and jumped a distance of twenty-six feet to the ground.

George Patrick, an employe at No. 1 Gouldsboro ice plant, met with a very bad accident on Saturday. A heavy beam hit him on the head cutting a deep gash in which it was necessary to put a number of stitches.

Mrs. O'Brien and Miss Fanny O'Brien of Scranton, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Dutot last week. Mrs. Dutot accompanied them home for a couple of days.
