THOUGHT FOR TO-DAY.

Get up right in the morning. Go to bed right at night. Start with joy in your heart, hope in the future, kindness in your purpose. If it is a dark day, never mind; you will lighten it up. If it is a bright day, you will add to the brightness. Give a word of cheer, a kindly greeting and a warm handshake to your friends. If you have enemies, look up, pass them by, forget and try to forgive. If all of us would only think how much of human happiness is made by ourselves, there would be less of human misery.—John A. Schleicher.

The candidate's favorite song is, "Oh Promise Me."

"Anything that makes capital idle, or which reduces it or destroys it, must reduce both wages and the opportunity to earn wages."—William Howard Taft.

Gov. Tener has been asked to decide what veterans should be sent to Gettysburg next July at the expense of the state. He has promised to recommend action by the next legislature.

Several Philadelphia newspapermen have been subpoenaed to appear at the congressional campaign fund committee meeting this week to tell about Flinn activities in other days.

Arizona will vote next month on recalling the Governor who a year ago was the most ardent supporter of the recall movement. He believes in the principle, but is against its enforcement.

The ballot will not be difficult to vote, no matter what the citizen's political affiliations may be. A moment's study of a sample ballot will make it clear to any voter, and all will have a chance to study it before election day.

After all is said and done, the real issue of this campaign is whether the country is going to have prosperity, with work and opportunity for everybody. A change from the known prosperity of the Taft administration would be a change to the unknown.

President Taft, on board the yacht Mayflower Tuesday at New York, signed an executive order putting $5,000 fourth-class postmasters in the classified service. The execution of the order will put over four thousand postmaster in the United States under the civil service, 25,000 having previously been put in the classified list by the president.

LEST YOU FORGET.

$71,338,879. Big sum of money, isn't it? Nevertheless, it's exactly that much more paid to the railroad employees of the United States, under the administration of President Taft in 1910, than was paid in 1907, the year before Mr. Taft became President. Remember! "It's only a step from the pay car to the kitchen," and the election of either Wilson or Roosevelt means empty freight cars on the sidings, short pay and hard times. Don't forget 1894 and 1907 and also that a vote for Roosevelt is a vote for Wilson, and think well before you vote on November 5.

MADE GOOD IN CONGRESS.

Wyoming county is apparently well satisfied with the work done and the record made by Hon. W. D. B. Ainey in Congress during the past term and will give him hearty support for reelection. Mr. Ainey is intelligent and aggressive, as well as progressive, and few men have secured the recognition and attained the prominence in the House of Representatives during a first term that he has. This will enable him to be of service during the next term, while the best a stranger might hope to do would be to get "broken in." By all means let Mr. Ainey have a good vote this fall from this end of the district.—Republican and New Age.

I do not believe in low wages or cheap men. When wages are high and when farm products command profitable figures, the merchant finds his business increasing, the factory finds its orders enlarged and everybody is happy. It is little less than a crime under such conditions for teachers of the gospel of unrest to go about the country telling the people why they should be unhappy, asking them to bust the trusts and smash the railroads, in order to reduce the cost of living, as if there was any other way to reduce the cost of living than by reducing wages and the prices of the necessities of life, which are mostly raised by the farmer. I am against this policy, and, therefore, I am against the demagogue.—Jasper, in Leslie's.

DODGING FREE TRADE.

There is no better indication of the growth of "Taft and prosperity" sentiment than the recent efforts of Dr. Wilson and other Democratic orators to evade the free trade issue. They are soft-peddling hard on the tariff, declaring that they want a change, but they hasten to assure us that they won't change much and that it will be a perfectly harmless change—a sort of "change is rest" kind of change.

"Our changes won't hurt a flea," they say reassuringly. "Don't let them scare you with that."

In his recent Pittsburg speech, Dr. Wilson said:
The Democratic party does not propose free trade or anything approaching free trade. It proposes a reconstruction of the tariff schedules such as will adjust them to the actual business conditions and interests of the country.

What sophistry for a scholar like Dr. Wilson! He knows as well as anybody that his party and he himself by his earlier declarations are unalterably committed to the policy of tariff-for-revenue-only.

"We declare it to be a fundamental principal of the Democratic party," says the Baltimore platform of 1912, "that the Federal government under the Constitution has no right to impose or collect tariff duties except for the purpose of revenue."

Dr. Wilson knows, too, that this is free trade in so far as it is possible for any government to have free trade. He knows that it is this condition, and not some mythical theory heretofore untried by the governments of the world, that we have in mind when we speak of the evils of free trade. He knows that England is called "the great free trade nation" of the world, in spite of the fact that she has a tariff for revenue only.

Dr. Wilson is hedging. He sees the hand writing on the wall.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

JACKSON APPROVES REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

Tyler Hill, July 16, 1912.
H. G. Wasson, Esq., Pittsburg, Pa.
My Dear Sir:—
Yours of recent date with the platform and resolutions adopted by the Republican Party on May 1st, 1912, received. Thanks. I have given this new platform and also the resolutions much thought and study, and I find nothing in it or them that does not meet with my hearty approval and endorsement.

Sincerely yours,
H. C. JACKSON,
Tyler Hills, Pa.

Troy in Throes of Typhoid.

Troy, the half-shire of Bradford county, with a population of 1,288, now has 125 cases of typhoid fever, and the situation is becoming more alarming each day. In addition to the 125 fully developed cases, there are a number of cases which have not been diagnosed as yet. It is feared that the number will reach 200 before all danger is past.

HOW TAFT AIDS WORKERS.

Should be Re-elected to Continue Prosperity, Labor Journal Says.

What has President Taft done for the workers during his administration? Ask the railroad brotherhoods interested in the passage of safety appliance laws and employers' liability and workmen's compensation legislation on interstate railroads. Ask the thousands who are benefited by the passage of the eight-hour law amendments. Ask the reform associations which for years have urged the creation of a children's bureau to study child life in the country, and which bureau is now in operation. Ask the coal miners of the country who have suffered so terribly from mine disasters and who are now, thanks to President Taft, protected by a federal bureau of mining.

Do we want to see all the splendid work done by President Taft undone in the next four years? We most assuredly do not, and that is why the thinking workmen of the country are with President Taft for re-election. It is not the loud, blatant shouters who accomplish real work in this world.—The Steam Shovel and Dredge.

If every style suited every woman, well-dressed women wouldn't be as rare as they really are.

The tastefully gowned woman is so because she has selected particular style that suits her age, build, complexion and carriage. She has not selected a style simply because it looked well in a picture or somebody else.

But you can't do any "selecting" unless you have a variety from which to select. Therefore, the first step toward being tastefully dressed is to go to a store that offers a wide and a carefully chosen variety. And that is just what we give you here.

Wooltex garments lead.

You can get here not merely style but the style that suits you. Come and choose.
