

FOR SALE.

R SALE—DESIRABLE DWELLING house and lot on East Street tension; all improvements. Barron, J. B. Robinson, Agent, Jadem Building. 58self

R SALE OR RENT A GOOD farm  $\frac{1}{4}$  mile from Erie Railroad and Milk station at Milaville. Apply to "Buyahom" Realty Co., Honesdale, Pa., Box 524. 73tf

CONGE EHRT'S FAMOUS BOTTLING beer at Loris' Silver Cafe. 88tf

MISCELLANEOUS.

OST—A SMALL TAN POCKET book, containing small sum of money, between Hessler's Bakery and Lower Grist Mill. Finder leave at citizen office. Reward. It

ANTED 50 GIRLS TO LEARN glass cutting. Wages $6 per week to start. Krantz-Smith & Co.

ANTED—GIRLS IN WASHROOM. T. B. Clark & Co. 88self

ET THE LACKAWANNA DO your laundry. Thomas F. Brady, Honesdale, agent. Look for our wagon with the sign "Lackawanna Laundry Co." 57tf

RLS WANTED AT THE HONESDALE Footwear Co. 88el4

LOCAL NEWS

—Ice formed on Park Lake Sunday night.

—Born to Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Petich of Hawley, formerly of this place, a daughter, on Friday last.

—Mrs. F. W. Powell entertained about 20 neighbors and friends on Saturday evening last at Five Hun-dred.

—Last Monday at the Presby-terian manse in Hancock, N. Y., Horace T. Wayman and Miss Selena L. Williams, both of Starucca, were united in marriage by Rev. E. P. Peterson, of that place.

—W. S. Taylor, Esq., of Wilkes-barre, will give temperance addresses on Sunday, November 10, as follows: at Carley Brook, 11 o'clock a. m.; at Girdland at 2:30 p. m.; at West Ammascus at 7:30 p. m.

—Judge Searle made an order on Tuesday to have the docket read on the Monday next following the term at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Before it has been the custom to go over the docket on Thursday of court week and it was found that it took too much time.

—A special Delaware & Hudson train, consisting of the combination engine, Saratoga, and private car visited Honesdale last Thursday. James Mac-Martin, chief engineer of construction, of Albany, and two assistants, were in the car. The party was here on a tour of inspection.

—Robert Priem, who on May 31, hot and killed his father, Herman Priem, in the latter's hardware store in Dunmore, was sentenced Monday in the Lackawanna court by Justice R. A. Smith, who imposed a fine and costs amounting to $3.25 on Wright.

—New fixtures arrived on Monday morning for the Freeman Store company and are now being installed. When all the improvements are completed this establishment will be one of the most up-to-date in Honesdale. Cabinets are being arranged along the walls for the clothing. A mirror alcove has also been added.

—A receivership for the Rohn McHenry Distilling Company, of Benton, Columbia county, was applied for in the federal court Monday. The company's affairs have been more or less muddled for some time. Its liabilities approximate $600,000. It is understood that John E. Long of Benton, and Charles F. Cochran of Williamson, have been agreed upon as receivers.

—A party of six hunters left Honesdale Saturday morning and many more followed the first of the week. The hunting season officially opened November 1 and the reports so far are that there is likely to be some good hunting within ten days. Squirrel, quail, grouse, turkey, woodcock and all other species of wild game found in the state, except bear, can now be shot. The deer season does not open until November 15.

—Salem has two cases of small-pox, the patients being Eugene and Nellie Boland, children of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Boland. Dr. H. C. White, of Lake Ariel, who was called to attend the sick children, notified the health authorities. It is said one of the Boland daughters has been taking music lessons in Scranton recently. Where, or how, the disease was contracted, is not known. Boland's home is about six miles from South Canaan where there are four cases of the disease under quarantine.

—Miss Estella Wicks, of Scranton, who for the past few months has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. John Loercher, on Church street, and John B. Stegner, of the firm of Stegner and Sons, grocers, were married at six o'clock Tuesday morning by Rev. Father J. O'Toole. After a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. John Loercher, the bridal couple left on the morning Erie train for New York City. Niagara Falls, Binghamton, Scranton and other points will be included while on the honeymoon. The bride was attended by Miss Irene Newmann, of Scranton, and Leo MacGowan was best man. Mrs. Stegner was becomingly attired in a white embroidered velvet gown with white beaver hat. Her traveling suit consisted of navy blue material with hat to match. The bride is a daughter of George Wicks, of Scranton. Mr. and Mrs. Stegner have a number of warm friends who wish them a prosperous and happy wedded life. The Citizen extends congratulations.

—The masquerade dance given by Mrs. Ida F. Richenbacker at the Lyric on Friday evening was well attended and was a very enjoyable affair. There were many spectators who came to see the grotesque costumes of the dancers. There was a large number of masquers and at 10 o'clock the grand march was formed under the direction of Mrs. Richenbacker. Favors were received. Soon after ten o'clock the masks were removed and everybody was allowed to dance. The hall was decorated to suit the occasion.

—While excavating for the footings of the new Gurney Electric Elevator factory, a few days ago, at a distance of 15 feet, four inches below the surface, twigs, leaves and grass blades were uncovered. They were apparently in good state of preservation, and had commenced to disolor, taking on a blackish appearance. Under heavy pressure coal is found, and undoubtedly the above were undisturbed for a certain length of time it might have formed into coal. Directly underneath this blackened substance hard pan was found.

The new model corsets, kid gloves in long and regular lengths, underwear and real furs in coats, muffs and collars at Menner & Co. 88t3

—Miss Frances McKenna has secured employment as saleslady in Katz Bros. store.

—Charles H. Dyert was appointed constable of Damascus township on Monday to fill the vacancy of M. R. Blackwell, resigned.

—The L. T. L. Hallowe'en social held at Calkins on Thursday evening of last week was well attended. The net receipts were about $40.

—Edward Taylor, foreman in the Borden milk shipping station, sprained his left ankle on Thursday by stepping on a piece of concrete block.

—The Ladies of the Damascus M. E. church will hold a chicken pie supper at the parsonage on Thursday evening, Nov. 7. Supper served until nine o'clock.

—Masden A. Hubbard, who was acquitted of murdering Thomas Dolphin at Keens on July 28, left Honesdale Thursday afternoon for Carbondale to visit his aunt, Mrs. Hubbard.

—Mrs. John Driscoll, who was operated upon last Thursday for acute appendicitis by Dr. Thompson, of Scranton, is rapidly improving. Miss Margaret McGgettigan is professional nurse in charge.

—A petition was filed on Monday by the people of Oregon township to vacate a road and lay a new one in that township. A. V. Tyler, W. A. Gaylord and U. G. Hanan were app-pointed viewers.

—The clam chowder sale which was held in the Methodist church parlors last Friday was well attended and a neat sum realized. Chowder, sandwiches, pumpkin pie, crullers, and coffee were sold.

—The Murphy hotel at White Mills, on the Cherry Ridge road, owned by Chas. H. Dorflinger, has been purchased by John Edward Murphy, son of the present proprietor. The consideration was $6,250.

—The Lambert Lumber Company of Scranton, have closed a deal with the Reilly Bros., of Cochecon, paying $1,350 for all the timber on the eighteen hundred-acre tract of land known as the "Big Island and Tammar Swamp Tract."

—The opening of the new basement in St. Mary Magdalene's church will take place on Wednesday evening, November 5th, at which time a chicken supper will be served by the ladies of the Altar Society. Home-made candy will also be on sale.

—On Sunday evening a lady and gentleman put up their horse and buggy in the livery barn connected with the Hotel Wayne and when they returned later in the evening for the rig a fur robe was missing. Detective N. B. Spencer was called and found the robe for the couple.

—The first fatal hunting accident in this section occurred on Sunday at Washington Lake, Sullivan county, when a young man named A. J. Sofe, from Brooklyn, was almost instantly killed by his own gun. The gun was accidentally discharged when the father was handing the gun to him.

—Earl Wright was arrested by N. B. Spencer on complaint made by B. H. Dittrich of the Lyric theatre on Friday last, for misbehavior at the theatre the night "Freckles" played here. The hearing was before Justice R. A. Smith, who imposed a fine and costs amounting to $3.25 on Wright.

—New fixtures arrived on Monday morning for the Freeman Store company and are now being installed. When all the improvements are completed this establishment will be one of the most up-to-date in Honesdale. Cabinets are being arranged along the walls for the clothing. A mirror alcove has also been added.

—A receivership for the Rohn McHenry Distilling Company, of Benton, Columbia county, was applied for in the federal court Monday. The company's affairs have been more or less muddled for some time. Its liabilities approximate $600,000. It is understood that John E. Long of Benton, and Charles F. Cochran of Williamson, have been agreed upon as receivers.

—A party of six hunters left Honesdale Saturday morning and many more followed the first of the week. The hunting season officially opened November 1 and the reports so far are that there is likely to be some good hunting within ten days. Squirrel, quail, grouse, turkey, woodcock and all other species of wild game found in the state, except bear, can now be shot. The deer season does not open until November 15.

—Salem has two cases of small-pox, the patients being Eugene and Nellie Boland, children of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Boland. Dr. H. C. White, of Lake Ariel, who was called to attend the sick children, notified the health authorities. It is said one of the Boland daughters has been taking music lessons in Scranton recently. Where, or how, the disease was contracted, is not known. Boland's home is about six miles from South Canaan where there are four cases of the disease under quarantine.

—Miss Estella Wicks, of Scranton, who for the past few months has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. John Loercher, on Church street, and John B. Stegner, of the firm of Stegner and Sons, grocers, were married at six o'clock Tuesday morning by Rev. Father J. O'Toole. After a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. John Loercher, the bridal couple left on the morning Erie train for New York City. Niagara Falls, Binghamton, Scranton and other points will be included while on the honeymoon. The bride was attended by Miss Irene Newmann, of Scranton, and Leo MacGowan was best man. Mrs. Stegner was becomingly attired in a white embroidered velvet gown with white beaver hat. Her traveling suit consisted of navy blue material with hat to match. The bride is a daughter of George Wicks, of Scranton. Mr. and Mrs. Stegner have a number of warm friends who wish them a prosperous and happy wedded life. The Citizen extends congratulations.

—The masquerade dance given by Mrs. Ida F. Richenbacker at the Lyric on Friday evening was well attended and was a very enjoyable affair. There were many spectators who came to see the grotesque costumes of the dancers. There was a large number of masquers and at 10 o'clock the grand march was formed under the direction of Mrs. Richenbacker. Favors were received. Soon after ten o'clock the masks were removed and everybody was allowed to dance. The hall was decorated to suit the occasion.

—While excavating for the footings of the new Gurney Electric Elevator factory, a few days ago, at a distance of 15 feet, four inches below the surface, twigs, leaves and grass blades were uncovered. They were apparently in good state of preservation, and had commenced to disolor, taking on a blackish appearance. Under heavy pressure coal is found, and undoubtedly the above were undisturbed for a certain length of time it might have formed into coal. Directly underneath this blackened substance hard pan was found.

The new model corsets, kid gloves in long and regular lengths, underwear and real furs in coats, muffs and collars at Menner & Co. 88t3

—Miss Frances McKenna has secured employment as saleslady in Katz Bros. store.

—Charles H. Dyert was appointed constable of Damascus township on Monday to fill the vacancy of M. R. Blackwell, resigned.

—The L. T. L. Hallowe'en social held at Calkins on Thursday evening of last week was well attended. The net receipts were about $40.

—Edward Taylor, foreman in the Borden milk shipping station, sprained his left ankle on Thursday by stepping on a piece of concrete block.

—The Ladies of the Damascus M. E. church will hold a chicken pie supper at the parsonage on Thursday evening, Nov. 7. Supper served until nine o'clock.

—Masden A. Hubbard, who was acquit-ted of murdering Thomas Dolphin at Keens on July 28, left Honesdale Thursday afternoon for Carbondale to visit his aunt, Mrs. Hubbard.

—Mrs. John Driscoll, who was operated upon last Thursday for acute appendicitis by Dr. Thompson, of Scranton, is rapidly improving. Miss Margaret McGgettigan is professional nurse in charge.

—A petition was filed on Monday by the people of Oregon township to vacate a road and lay a new one in that township. A. V. Tyler, W. A. Gaylord and U. G. Hanan were app-pointed viewers.

—The Lambert Lumber Company of Scranton, have closed a deal with the Reilly Bros., of Cochecon, paying $1,350 for all the timber on the eighteen hundred-acre tract of land known as the "Big Island and Tammar Swamp Tract."

—The opening of the new basement in St. Mary Magdalene's church will take place on Wednesday evening, November 5th, at which time a chicken supper will be served by the ladies of the Altar Society. Home-made candy will also be on sale.

—On Sunday evening a lady and gentleman put up their horse and buggy in the livery barn connected with the Hotel Wayne and when they returned later in the evening for the rig a fur robe was missing. Detective N. B. Spencer was called and found the robe for the couple.

—The Murphy hotel at White Mills, on the Cherry Ridge road, owned by Chas. H. Dorflinger, has been purchased by John Edward Murphy, son of the present proprietor. The consideration was $6,250.

—The Lambert Lumber Company of Scranton, have closed a deal with the Reilly Bros., of Cochecon, paying $1,350 for all the timber on the eighteen hundred-acre tract of land known as the "Big Island and Tammar Swamp Tract."

—The opening of the new basement in St. Mary Magdalene's church will take place on Wednesday evening, November 5th, at which time a chicken supper will be served by the ladies of the Altar Society. Home-made candy will also be on sale.

—On Sunday evening a lady and gentleman put up their horse and buggy in the livery barn connected with the Hotel Wayne and when they returned later in the evening for the rig a fur robe was missing. Detective N. B. Spencer was called and found the robe for the couple.

—The Murphy hotel at White Mills, on the Cherry Ridge road, owned by Chas. H. Dorflinger, has been purchased by John Edward Murphy, son of the present proprietor. The consideration was $6,250.

—The Lambert Lumber Company of Scranton, have closed a deal with the Reilly Bros., of Cochecon, paying $1,350 for all the timber on the eighteen hundred-acre tract of land known as the "Big Island and Tammar Swamp Tract."

—The opening of the new basement in St. Mary Magdalene's church will take place on Wednesday evening, November 5th, at which time a chicken supper will be served by the ladies of the Altar Society. Home-made candy will also be on sale.

—On Sunday evening a lady and gentleman put up their horse and buggy in the livery barn connected with the Hotel Wayne and when they returned later in the evening for the rig a fur robe was missing. Detective N. B. Spencer was called and found the robe for the couple.

—The Murphy hotel at White Mills, on the Cherry Ridge road, owned by Chas. H. Dorflinger, has been purchased by John Edward Murphy, son of the present proprietor. The consideration was $6,250.

—The Lambert Lumber Company of Scranton, have closed a deal with the Reilly Bros., of Cochecon, paying $1,350 for all the timber on the eighteen hundred-acre tract of land known as the "Big Island and Tammar Swamp Tract."

—The opening of the new basement in St. Mary Magdalene's church will take place on Wednesday evening, November 5th, at which time a chicken supper will be served by the ladies of the Altar Society. Home-made candy will also be on sale.

—On Sunday evening a lady and gentleman put up their horse and buggy in the livery barn connected with the Hotel Wayne and when they returned later in the evening for the rig a fur robe was missing. Detective N. B. Spencer was called and found the robe for the couple.

—The Murphy hotel at White Mills, on the Cherry Ridge road, owned by Chas. H. Dorflinger, has been purchased by John Edward Murphy, son of the present proprietor. The consideration was $6,250.

—The Lambert Lumber Company of Scranton, have closed a deal with the Reilly Bros., of Cochecon, paying $1,350 for all the timber on the eighteen hundred-acre tract of land known as the "Big Island and Tammar Swamp Tract."

—The opening of the new basement in St. Mary Magdalene's church will take place on Wednesday evening, November 5th, at which time a chicken supper will be served by the ladies of the Altar Society. Home-made candy will also be on sale.

—On Sunday evening a lady and gentleman put up their horse and buggy in the livery barn connected with the Hotel Wayne and when they returned later in the evening for the rig a fur robe was missing. Detective N. B. Spencer was called and found the robe for the couple.

—The Murphy hotel at White Mills, on the Cherry Ridge road, owned by Chas. H. Dorflinger, has been purchased by John Edward Murphy, son of the present proprietor. The consideration was $6,250.

—The Lambert Lumber Company of Scranton, have closed a deal with the Reilly Bros., of Cochecon, paying $1,350 for all the timber on the eighteen hundred-acre tract of land known as the "Big Island and Tammar Swamp Tract."

—The opening of the new basement in St. Mary Magdalene's church will take place on Wednesday evening, November 5th, at which time a chicken supper will be served by the ladies of the Altar Society. Home-made candy will also be on sale.

—On Sunday evening a lady and gentleman put up their horse and buggy in the livery barn connected with the Hotel Wayne and when they returned later in the evening for the rig a fur robe was missing. Detective N. B. Spencer was called and found the robe for the couple.

—The Murphy hotel at White Mills, on the Cherry Ridge road, owned by Chas. H. Dorflinger, has been purchased by John Edward Murphy, son of the present proprietor. The consideration was $6,250.

—The Lambert Lumber Company of Scranton, have closed a deal with the Reilly Bros., of Cochecon, paying $1,350 for all the timber on the eighteen hundred-acre tract of land known as the "Big Island and Tammar Swamp Tract."

—The opening of the new basement in St. Mary Magdalene's church will take place on Wednesday evening, November 5th, at which time a chicken supper will be served by the ladies of the Altar Society. Home-made candy will also be on sale.

—On Sunday evening a lady and gentleman put up their horse and buggy in the livery barn connected with the Hotel Wayne and when they returned later in the evening for the rig a fur robe was missing. Detective N. B. Spencer was called and found the robe for the couple.

—The Murphy hotel at White Mills, on the Cherry Ridge road, owned by Chas. H. Dorflinger, has been purchased by John Edward Murphy, son of the present proprietor. The consideration was $6,250.

—The Lambert Lumber Company of Scranton, have closed a deal with the Re