BETHANY.

Born, on Saturday, to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Blake, a daughter.

Mrs. N. W. Bass gave a very interesting talk in the M. E. church Wednesday evening to an appreciative audience. She spoke on the same lines as in Honesdale churches, especially mentioning Mormonism and the study of it for this year in the Home Missionary Society. A Union Reading class of ten members was formed with Mrs. James Johns as president, to take up the study of Mormonism this winter, beginning in January. Mrs. Bass, while here, was entertained by Mrs. James Johns.

Harry Pethick, of Hawley, was here Thursday looking after the Pethick property.

Mrs. Edward Woodward left Sunday for New York to join her husband and daughter there.

Isa Monnington is helping Mrs. Harry Blake with her household duties.

John Gummo, who is employed at the Crystal Spring Farm, moved his family from Carley Brook Friday, to the home of the late Mrs. Lavina Pethick.

On Christmas eve the Union tree and exercises will be held in the Presbyterian church. Practicing began last week under a committee of ladies. The children will meet at the church Tuesday and Friday of this week.

Rev. Pritchard will have the usual Bible study class on Tuesday evening at 7:30 followed by choir practice.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Gammell leave this week for the State Grange meeting in Clearfield county. They also expect to visit State College before returning.

Rev. and Mrs. Pritchard and baby Margaret spent Thursday in Waymart and attended the dinner at Mrs. Seipel's.

MILANVILLE.

Milanville, Dec. 12.

Mrs. L. D. Tyler returned to her home at Middletown, N. Y., on Thursday last after a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Tyler.

Mrs. Rockwell Brigham visited her sister, Mrs. Horace Tutchell, of Port Jervis, this week.

Mrs. John Canfield of Galilee, Pa., spent part of last week with her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Tegeler.

Miss May Boucher returned to Port Jervis on Thursday last.

Miss Bessie E. Skinner spent the week-end with Mrs. W. D. Yerkes at Milanville Heights.

Mrs. L. B. Price entertained Mr. and Mrs. Fred Price and Marion Price of Tyler Hill, Mrs. F. W. Tegeler, Vernon Tegeler, of Milanville, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Valentine of Damascus, and Claire Tegeler of Scranton, on Thanksgiving Day.

A supper will be held on Friday evening of this week at the church basement. Proceeds for Rev. Oliver.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Deighton are happy over the arrival of a son. Miss Florence Price was a caller at Milanville Heights on Saturday last.

Ella Lee Reilly Snyder, daughter of the late Martin Reilly, and widow of the late John Snyder, of Cochecon, was buried Sunday from her Damascus home. Mrs. Snyder had been a semi-invalid for many years and some weeks ago Mrs. Snyder became helpless from paralysis, which caused her death. Mrs. Snyder had been living for some time with her sister, Mrs. William Bonesteel, of Brooklyn. Mrs. Snyder had many friends who regret that she was taken from their midst while yet in the prime of life.

Miss Myrtle Lassley has arrived in Chicago where she will pursue a musical course at the conservatory. Miss Lassley is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Lassley of Vairview Farm. Miss Lassley will be missed in the home and church and we wish her a pleasant winter.

Orrin Noble, of Binghamton, had the misfortune to have his eye shot by some one hunting recently. The doctor has been unable to find the shot and thinks Mr. Noble will probably lose the sight of the eye. Mr. Noble is well known through this vicinity and is a brother to Mrs. W. B. Yerkes of this town.

Mrs. D. H. Beach and Mrs. R. B. Carpenter spent Tuesday in Port Jervis.

Mrs. C. H. Valentine will entertain the Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church on Thursday of this week.

—Trade at home.

HAWLEY.

Hawley, Dec. 12.

Patrick Shea, of Scranton, spent Sunday in town with friends.

Erasimus Ames and son, of Scranton, spent Sunday in town.

Mrs. D. S. Finkelstein was visiting friends and relatives in Scranton on Monday.

Mrs. M. McAndrew visited in Scranton on Monday.

The High School students are busy preparing an excellent program for the Christmas exercises.

Emmet Asher, of Jersey City, visited friends here on Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Truax visited the latter's parents at Hoadleys on Sunday.

THE RHODE ISLAND RED CUP.

Messrs. Burch and Silverman, of Scranton, have donated through their friend, Mr. L. W. Moxson, also of Scranton, a beautiful silver cup to be competed for at the coming Scranton Show. This cup is especially donated for Rhode Island Reds. The cup is valued at $25 and will prove to be a mark of distinction that will be valued by any breeder of this beautiful fowl and one who can win such a cup must have a large demand for fowl for exhibition and hatching eggs as well.

There is considerable rivalry throughout this locality not only as to who shall have the best Rhode Island Reds, but that this variety shall win in the show the championship over all other prizes.

Championship cups have added greatly to the world-wide fame of the Quality Poultry Show at Scranton. No other fowl has become more popular throughout all countries than the Rhode Island Reds. More than two hundred of them were exhibited in October at the Dairy Show in England, and double this number were exhibited at the Crystal Palace Show in England and large classes of them have been entered at both the Palace Show in New York and the show in Philadelphia. The winners from both of these shows are apt to come to Scranton to win the cups and other prizes offered here.

One of the reasons that the Rhode Island Reds have become so famous, is that they lay so many eggs, one of this variety having laid the largest number of eggs of any hen in the Philadelphia North American egg-laying contest, held at Storrs, Connecticut. A White Plymouth Rock hen won in the Missouri egg-laying contest; a Rhode Island Red in the Storrs, Connecticut, contest; a White Leghorn at Storrs, won the first prize for the largest number of eggs laid of any five hens in the contest. This brings the Rhode Island Reds, White Plymouth Rocks and White Leghorns into active competition for being the best egg producers, the best market poultry and the most beautiful fowls for exhibition.

All breeders of Rhode Island Reds should send to Mr. A. W. Close, of Scranton, for the premium list of the show, so as to be fully informed of the many regular and special prizes offered this winter.

TIT FOR TAT.

One morning Mr. Stone was going to his office when he met Mr. Wood, a particular friend of his. "Good morning, Mr. Stone," said Mr. Wood, "how is Mrs. Stone and all the little pebbles?"

"Very well, thank you, but how is Mrs. Wood and all the little splinters?" was the reply.

GROWING WAYMART BIDS YOU WELCOME

The bustling little borough of Waymart, located on the Honesdale branch of the Delaware and Hudson railroad, at the base of the Moosic mountains, is growing rapidly. There is only one house vacant in that village and it is one of the best built houses, there, too. It contains eight rooms and is a store and dwelling combined. Can be used for two families. The property is located in the center of the town and is directly opposite the postoffice. It would make an ideal place for almost any kind of business. The lot is 60x160 feet and can be bought on easy terms of the Buy-U-A-Home Realty Company, Honesdale, Pa., Jadwin building. If you cannot come to Honesdale use the telephone or write and further description will be cheerfully given. 99tf.

BURNHAM, SR., DIES

Locomotive Manufacturer Succumbs at Ninety-five.

DEATH CAUSED BY OLD AGE.

Was Partner of Baldwin in Locomotive Company—He Retired From Active Business Life About Twenty Years Ago—Many Years Member of Firm.

Philadelphia, Dec. 12.—James Burnham, Sr., partner of Matthias Baldwin and the first financial genius of the present Baldwin Locomotive works, died at his home, 3401 Powelton avenue. He was ninety-five years old. Death was due to a general breakdown caused by his advanced age.

Mr. Burnham retired from active business life about twenty years ago, but he continued in fair health until last year. For about twelve months he had the constant attention of a physician and nurse.

In the commercial history of America no name stands out more prominently than that of the veteran manufacturer, who was for many years the directing head of the great plant which has done more than any other to furnish the motive power for building up the world's transportation facilities.

His early life was closely identified with the successes of that great inventor and builder of locomotives, Matthias W. Baldwin.

He entered Mr. Baldwin's little office in Minor street as a clerk when seventeen years old, and that gentleman, "being of an inventive turn of mind," left the details of the business to Mr. Burnham. It was largely due to his efforts that the firm was able to continue in business during those antebellum panics when the contract for one engine was a great undertaking in a plant so small that the engine could hardly be got out of the building after it was constructed.

Mr. Burnham had been for many years the senior member of the firm, the amount of whose annual business had reached the $50,000,000 mark. He was closely associated with the development of the locomotive from the old "John Bulls" to the distance destroying giants of today and had been the mainstay of the great plant which had sent the mighty progeny of the historic "Old Ironsides" to all parts of the civilized world.

WRECKERS CAUGHT IN ACT.

Detectives Prevent Eighth Attempt to Derail Pennsylvania Trains.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Dec. 12.—Pennsylvania railroad detectives brought to this city from Hazleton Michael Miller and Ellis Sherman, charged with attempting to wreck a passenger train at Rock Glen by placing heavy stones on the track.

This was the eighth attempt to wreck passenger trains in the vicinity within the past three months. The railroad officers had concealed themselves in the woods at night in the hope of catching the would be wreckers. Their vigilance was rewarded when they saw Miller and Sherman in the act of placing the stones between the rail and the guard rail.

The prisoners, it is alleged, have implicated a third party at Rock Glen, who is said to have a grievance against the railroad company and employed the men to wreck trains. Miller and Sherman were held in $5,000 bail.

DRINKS BAY RUM AND DIES.

Prisoner in Norristown Jail Succumbs Suddenly to Unusual Beverage.

Norristown, Pa., Dec. 12.—Douglass Ward of Scranton died in the county jail here, the result, it is believed, of drinking bay rum.

Ward is said to have spent an inheritance of $20,000 and was heir to considerable more, but he died without a cent in his pocket.

Ward was committed to jail by Magistrate Harry for being intoxicated in the barber shop of Alexander Jansen. Dr. R. Kulp, the prison physician, said Ward was taken violently ill and was nearly dead when the doctor arrived. Coroner Neville learned from Jansen that Ward drank a tumbler half full of bay rum.

MEDIA JURY IRREGULAR.

Delaware County's Panel Improperly Drawn, Says Judge Johnson.

Media, Pa., Dec. 12.—J. Watts Mercer, defeated Washington party candidate for the state senate from this district, and his attorney, V. Glipin Robinson, appeared before Judge Johnson and informed the court that the grand jury had been improperly drawn.

They assert that twelve of the twenty-four grand jurors drawn by Sheriff S. Everett Sproul and Jury Commissioners James T. Stewart, Republican, of Lansdowne and Jacob Wise, Democrat, of Clifton Heights did not appear on the list of names that had been placed in the jury wheel at the beginning of the year.

Alleged Counterfeiter Arrested.

Pittsburgh, Dec. 12.—With the melting pot at white heat Giacinto de Carrio and his wife were arrested at their home in Braddock by secret service operatives, who confiscated a hundred counterfeit half dollars.

GETTYSBURG VETERANS ADDRESSES WANTED.

Adjutant General Thomas J. Stewart is compiling information relative to the fiftieth anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg, to be held next year, and desires the name and address of every veteran who served in a Pennsylvania organization that participated in the battle.

General Stewart asks all to communicate with him at once and wants them to give their name, command (state company and regiment, or battery), date of enlistment, date of discharge, postoffice address (give name of county, and give street number in city or town), railroad station nearest to residence.

The following Pennsylvania organizations participated in the battle of Gettysburg, viz. Regiments of infantry: 11th, 23rd, 26th, 28th, 29th, 30th (1st Reserves), 31st (2nd Reserves), 34th (5th Reserves), 34th (5th Reserves), 35th (6th Reserves), 38th (9th Reserves), 39th (10th Reserves), 40th (11th Reserves), 41st, (12th Reserves), 42nd (13th Reserves), 46th, 49th, 53rd, 56th, 57th, 61st, 62nd, 63rd, 68th, 69th, 71st, 72nd, 73rd, 74th, 75th, 81st, 82nd, 83rd, 84th, 88th, 90th, 91st, 93rd, 95th, 96th, 95th, 96th, 98th, 99th, 102nd, 105th, 106th, 107th, 109th, 110th, 111th, 114th, 115th, 116th, 118th, 119th, 121st, 139th, 140th, 142nd, 143rd, 145th, 147th, 149th, 150th, 151st, 153rd, 155th and 26th (Emergency).

Regiments of cavalry: 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 6th, 8th, 16th, 17th, 18th and 21st.

Batteries of artillery: Battery "B," 1st artillery; battery "F," 1st artillery; "C," Independent; battery "E," Independent; battery "P," Independent, and battery "H," 3rd heavy artillery.

CHRISTMAS APHORISMS.

Never look a gift in the cost mark. Mistletoe makes the heart grow fonder. All that glitters is not a diamond. Belief in Santa Claus is the best policy. The gift deferred maketh the heart sick. Invitation is the sincerest flattery. Christmas bills are stubborn things. Buy gifts in haste and repent at leisure. And thereby hangs a stocking. Gifts are seldom what they seem. Every Christmas tree must stand on its own bottom. Uneasy lies the head that's planning gifts. Santa Claus is not as red as he is painted. One Christmas bargain sale makes the whole of womankind spin. Gifts make the men, the want of them the fellow. To give hideous gifts is human, to forgive impossible. What is sauce for the goose is not sauce for the plum pudding.—Harvey Peake, in Judge's Library.
