FRESH CANDIES-LOOSE AND IN boxes. Best in town at M. A. Igo's phia.

vaded the rural districts?

trust that it will be read.

NOTIONS OF ALL KINDS at IGO'S. Sei2.

FOR THE FINEST LINE OF sleighs at bottom prices call on E. T. Smith, Henesdale 97eitf

CIGARS-WE HAVE ALL THE choice brands. Try the tract." M. A. Igo sells them. 'Con-

MISCELLANEOUS.

WANTED-SITUATION AS CAR-penter. Inquire Citizen office. Sel2.

SKATING RINK FOR RENT FOR balls, parties, bazaars, fairs, etc. See N. B. Spencer, Manager, for leoitf. terms.

DIRECTORY.

Honesdale Free Library: Tuesday's-2 to 5, 7 to 9 P. M. Friday's-2 to 5, 7 to 9 P. M.

Hours for Receiving Freight on Railroads D. & H. Daily, to 10 A. M.; afternoon, 3:00. Erie-10:30 A. M.

Mail Closing Hours: A.M. P.M. Sui 6:30 12 M.-4.15 8.00 2.25-5.30 Sun. P.M. D. & H. 6.45 Erie R. D. Route 9.45 Star Routes, Stage, 2.50; Tyler Hill

2:25.

Condensed Timetable.
Leave
Honesdale A.M.	P.M.
D. & H. 6.55	12.25-4.40
Erie 8.22	2.53-6.00
Arrive A.M.	P.M.
D. & H. 10.00	3.15-7.36
Erie	1.30-3.50-6.55
Leave
Honesdale A.M.	P.M.
D. & H. 10.15	7.15
Erie	2.53
Arrive-Sunday	r.
D. & H. 9.55	-6.50
Erie	7.10

LOCAL NEWS -

-The late F. E. Lawyer carried $3,000 insurance with the Knights of Maccabees.

-The family of the late F. E. Lawyer returned from their sad journey to Albany on Sunday.

-Jesse Ham, of Indian Orchard, purchased a 17 h, p. Maxwell run-about from E. W. Gammell on Friday last

-The many friends of Hon. F. P. Kimble were pleased to see him on the street Saturday following a prolonged illness.

-The German Catholic club's first basket ball team defeated the Comets in a very interesting game at the high school on Friday evening last. Score 11 to 7.

.....There are several cases of la-grippe in Honesdale and vicinity. Two of The Citizen force have been confined to their homes with this malady the past few days.

-The jury in the case of H. H. Wilcox against Andrew Hanas arrived at a verdict in favor of the defendant about five o'clock on Thursday afternoon after being out about two hours.

-There will be Noodle soup and other good things will be served. Price 25c each. Everybody invited.

-Among out-of-the-county marriage licenses issued, the New Mil

-Permission to play Sunday base ball between the hours of 3 p. m. and 6 p. m. is provided in a bill presented in the House last week by James H. Wiltbank, of Philadel-State commerce before March 1. Officie of the commerce before March 1. Officials of the operating department of the Delaware & Hudson company -If potatoes have been frozen are preparing to carry out the orlay them in a perfectly dark place has ders. for some days after the thaw has commenced. If thawed in the dark -The Pennsylvania electors who they do not rot and lose very little of their natural properties, but if thawed in open daylight, they will rot. should not be quite so thin skinned. It is all a part of the game. If they stay in politics long enough they will learn that they will get -The children of Seelyville attending the Hurd school have been frightened of late by a young man who chases them. The teacher, also, we have been informed has a guard-ian to take her to and from the school. Has 'Jack the Hugger' incursed if they do, and cursed if -The particular objection urged against American pianos in the tropics is that they are not adapted to the climatic conditions there and -To compete with the parcels post and to bring the people closer rapidly deteriorate. Commercial sta-tistics of the United States show to them, the express companies are planning on a nation wide advertisthe newspapers will be used, and the features of the express business, the rates and the service will be made as public as possible. In this way the express companies hope to re-gain much of the business which is gain much of the business which is now being handled by parcels post. a miner employed at Eagle Hill col-llery, met a strange fate on Friday, his life being crushed out by a two -In Tuesday's issue we gave an ton boulder which hung on the roof of the mine chamber. After firing a account of the good and charitable work that has been accomplished by blast. Yodus tried several times to our local Needlework Guild. To-day we present to our readers an article written by Frederic J. Haskin on the return to work, but was prevented by clouds of smoke. When he did return, the boulder, which had been subject of "Society That Does Its Work Quietly," which appeared in a recent issue of the Scranton Trib-une-Republican. Owing to changing loosened by the blast, dropped upon him.

-The committee having our publication day we were unable charge the raising of money for the to print it in Tuesday's paper. We brary have decided that February 9 to 15 is to be known as Library -A special from Hornell to Port During that time solicitors week. Jervis states that the talk there is that the Erie Railroad company is to will call at every home in Greater Honesdale and it is desired that move its car repair shops from Buf-falo to Hornell. This report is neith-er denied nor confirmed and the mat-ter lacks the official stamp. The are time-Library Week, Febru-ber the time-Library Week, Februrumor has it that the company will ary 9th to 15th.

rumor has it that the company will use the old ice houses along Depot street, Hornell, which will be empty within a few months. The reason that the re-Dolsen, by R. M. Stocker, attorney for the change is given that the re-bolsen, by R. M. Stocker, attorney would do away with the long hauls case gave a verdict in favor of the which are now necessary to get the broken cars to Buffalo and return. Stocker gave six reasons why a new trial should be granted among them being that the verdict was against -It is charmingly frank of Miss Marjorie Murry, the winsome "Bunty" in "Bunty Pulls the Strings" which comes to the Lyric on Wednesday, January 29, in the manner in which she admits what the fourth of the court. A rule was granted by Judge Searle to show cause why a new trial should not be granted and was made returnable Jan. 30th the female sex as a whole guards so carefully-her age-during the cor-at 2 o'clock.

respondence between William A. Brady, who was in New York, and Miss Murry, who was in her home in Edinburgh, Scotland, in writing of the parts she had played. Miss the men helping Freas to butcher Murry is one of the great actresses and the Lyric should be crowded on Wednesday night. Order your seats in advance for this high class pro-duction passed right in front of the point of --'Will it come to pass in Penn-sylvania that men may not say to each other, in the classic language of the governors of the Carolinas, 'Have one on me?'.' This question sprang the barrel. That the gun was loadfrom rust and decay, but the gun was kept to stir the fire. The heat caused the load to go off. It is be-lieved the gun must have been in to the lips of the state house of representatives yesterday when Horace B. Dunn, of Huntingdon county, ofthe ground at least fifty years.

fered a bill which would make it a -A special from New Haven crime for any person holding a liq-or license to treat another to a cocktail or even a plain "short beer." According to the terms of this bill it would cost a man a fine of from $500 to $5,000 should he in a moment of liquid generosity "buy for a companion before the bar or around the cafe table. But bar or around the cafe table. But limits of the town, which includes the fine is not the only thing. Oh. West Haven, bank books, with a dol-West Haven, bank books, with a dolno! A nice little sojourn from ninety no! A nice little sojourn from ninety days to twelve months in jall would go right along with the other "fine." The annual statement of the -The annual statement of the a director opposed it. George M. finances of the poor district of Texas township and Honesdale borough for use the official return of births as ed more than some things. The numerous patients that have been taken over the Moosic to Scranton of late is evidence of this.

-Company E will undergo anoth-er spring inspection on February 26. Major Rutherford, of Scranton, of the Third Brigade staff, N. G. P., will be the inspecting officer.

-The Honesdale Consolidated Water company have installed water meters in some of the business houses and hotels on Main street. If it proves satisfactory (to the company) it is claimed that the entire town will be metered.

-Some ice has been received here from the lakes in the vicinity of Poyntelle, this week. It is rumored that the ice on Bunnell's pond, about seven inches thick, is being harvested.

-Esquire R. A. Smith, who will celebrate his 91st birthday on Thurs-day of this week, told a Citizen repsentative that he never saw such winter as the present one. Why. we are having spring weather in January. I never saw the beat."

-Sheriff F. C. Kimble accompanied Ben Michels to the hospital for the criminal insane at Farview this morning where the latter will enter that instituion as a patient, being the first inmate from Wayne county.

-We are in receipt of the Mans field Normal Quarterly for Novmber, 1912, it being the semi-centennial number of that school. It contains many interesting facts concerning the school and the school work, il-lustrated by photos. It is a very interesting book.

-The teachers of Berlin, Beth-any, Dyberry, Cherry Ridge, Leban-on, Seelyville, Texas, Honesdale, will meet at the Honesdale high school Saturday morning, Feb. 8, at 10 o'clock, for the purpose of holding an institute. Full program will be published later. H. A. Oday, Chair-

-Miss Nellie Hulsizer was operated upon for appendicitis at her home West street, Monday morning, Dr. Russell Wall, of Moses Tayon by lor Hospital, Scranton. Miss Mar garet McGettigan is nurse. Wall was assisted by Drs. F. Dr. W. Powell and L. B. Nielsen. The patient is Dr. Powell's.

-Last Friday night nearly 1,000 people attended the High school concert in Dunmore. Next Friday concert in Dunmore. Next Friday night the people of Honesdale will have the opportunity to show their loyalty to their High school. At that time the senior class will produce a laughable comedy and the girls' chorus will sing many new and charming songs.

-Anthony R. Little, assistant su-perintendent of the Gurney Electric Elevator works, spent Saturday in Newark, N. J., where he inspected the installation of a high speed fivepassenger elevator in the Kinney building in that city. This is the first elevator of that class made by the local plant to be placed in Newark.

-The weekly athletic meet was held in the high school gymnasium Friday evening. The results were Eagles 4, Hawks 2; Tigers 10, Lions 6; Young Stars 3, Junior Ca-dets 6; Cadets 9, Picked Team 15; Comets 7, G. C. C. 11; Indian Club race resulted in a tie between Wil-liam Miller and Cecil Brooks. The liam Miller and Cecil Brooks. The Landmesser, Wayne Bond being second. The one-half relay race was won by Loyal Brooks, Wayne Bond, William Spencer and Paul Landmesser.

forgot all about Hoboken, Scranton other places along the Road of

NO ALUM, NO LIME PHOSPHATE

M. Lee Braman was a business caller in Carbondale on Saturday. Samuel Found, of Prompton, was business caller in town Monday. Leonard Simpkins, of Hawley, was in Honesdale on business Saturday.

James, little son of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Morrison, of Dyberry Place, is seriously ill of pneumonia.

Miss Phebe Robbins spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Arnold, near Waymart.

John Carmichael is assisting at Peil's drug store during the absence of Howard Miller who is still confined to his home by illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Thompson departed Friday morning to spend a few days with relatives in Andover, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Frank Ham re-turned to their Scranton home on Saturday. Mr. Ham has just recov-ered from an attack of typhoid caller on Honesdale friends on Saturday.

Miss Elizabeth Burger, who some tion on Sunday.

Rev. J. H. Boyce, of Carley Brook, Miss Kathryn Brown, Hoadleys, left on the early train Monday morning for Apalachin, N. Y., to attend the funeral of J. L. Davison, his oldest sister's husband.

Mrs. G. S. Purdy entertained a days here.

dale Saturday from New York City, where he has been the past few weeks.

Superintendent C. R. Callaway of the Gurney Electric Elevator company returned to-day from a busi-ness trip to Philadelphia and New York. Mrs. T. E. Callaway spent a night after a prolonged illness. Mrs. few days with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hessling is survived by four small Schuller in Upper Montclair, N. J., children, namely, Francis, Joseph,

nesday evening.

-The annual statement of the finances of the poor district of Texas director opposed it. George M. More, treasurer, was instructed to township and Honesdale borough for use the official return of births as 1912 was filed in Prothonotary W. his guide and to forward a bank book J. Barnes' offices Friday afternoon, to the parents. Here the statement of the poor district of Texas difference. The Lackawanna railroad men put aside their working togs, lock-but aside their working togs, lock-due the double-deck dinner pail, double-deck dinner pai

OBITUARY.

DEATH OF PHILANTHROPIST.

William Gaston Hamilton, engineer, manufacturer and philanthro-pist, who for more than half a century had been prominently identified with the social and business life of New York, died Thursday last, at his home in Gramercy Park after an illness of many years which culmi-nated in an attack of pneumonia. He was the last surviving grandson of Alexander Hamilton and the father of William Pierson Hamilton, a son-in-law of J. Plerpont Morgan. 8

Obituary of J. R. Babcock.

The death of John R. Babcock occurred at Cedar Rapids, Iowa. He was born at the old glass factory, Dyberry, 69 years ago. He died Jan. 17, 1913. He was a veteran sold-ier, enlisting in the 67th Regiment, Co. C. Pennsylvania Volunteers. He fever, Thomas Tuttle, who is an amateur birdman and who formerly edited "Fly," an aviation journal, was a caller on Honesdala friends on call Friend of Iowa. His father died at Beachlake in 1852. His grandfath-Miss Elizabeth Burger, who some time ago passed an examination for professional nurse in the State hospi-tal, Scranton, left for that institu-

Passes Away.

The death of Kathryn Brown oc-curred Sunday morning at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Brown, Hoadleys, following a long Mrs. G. S. Furdy entertained a Brown, Hoaneys, following a long number of her friends at dinner at Mrs. Wibliam Briggs' last Saturday She was 21 years of age and for evening in honor of her brother, Judge Mortimor Addoms, of New York City, who is spending a few two sisters, Misses Lillie and Sarah, data berg and one brother, Charles Brown, all Miss Caroline Petersen left on Friday for New York city where she will spend a few days on business. Homer Greene returned to Honeslearn of her demise. The funeral will be held on Wednesday, Rev. Mr. Walker, of White Mills will be the officiating clergyman.

Death of Mrs. Frank Hessling.

Mrs. Frank Hessling died at her home, No. 376 Ridge street Friday Edna and Margaret, also by her hus-Mrs. Emma Hessling was the band. youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stahl and was born in Honesdale, February 12, 1882, and therefore would have been 31 at the Park street armory last Wed-nesday evening. Miss Carrie Peil, who has been employed as a clerk in the Gurney Electric works, has resigned her all of Honesdale, and Mrs. Eugene parked of Planchart Ne is sur-vived by the following brothers and sisters: William, Michael, Christo-pher, Joseph and Mrs. Chris. Huck, all of Honesdale, and Mrs. Eugene > Balta celebrant. Interment in German Catholle cemetery.

ford Advertiser contained the following, which will be of interest to northern Wayne readers: Miss Nina Hotaling, of Starlight, and Frank Buman, of Afton, N. Y.

-There is a growing demand in Honesdale for homes. There are fewer houses for rent now than ever before, nearly every house being occupied. What is needed is a number of houses that will rent from $10 to $12, that is within the reach of the working man.

-The first " Child Welfare " conference of Pennsylvania will be held in Harrisburg, Feb. 4, 5 and 6th in the Pine Street Presbyterian church. The conference will be held under auspices of the Pennsylvania Congress of mothers. A very in-teresting program has been prepar-

-From present indications real estate in Honesdale will be in great demand before the end of 1913. The number of changes may be expectrolled around.

-One of the most interesting races that has ever been held at the rink took place there Friday even-ing under the auspices of the J. P. S. (whatever that means). The race on roller skates was between H. G. Rowland and Robert Dorin, who raced ono mile. The time way Was 6:48. Promptly at nine o'clock the two contestants were lined up

kins, armed with a percussion lock gun, gave the signal, and immedi-ately the race was on. For the first ten laps they followed each other friendly hands separated them. Rowland kept the lead only for a twentieth lap Dorin was thirteen in-ches in the lead when Rowland con-ceived a sudden desire to sit down on the line. Dorin, the winner, however, went around an extra lap just to show them he wasn't tired (?). There were about one hundred and thirty tickets sold. The proceeds of the sale, Messrs. Rowland and week.

The statement was signed by the auditors, Robert J. Murray, J. O. Mumford, and George Schwesinger. The report of the auditors showed the expenditures for the year to have been $7,793.08. The receipts were $10,876.81. There is a balance of $3,083.73 in the hands of treas-urer O. E. Bunnell. The largest amount in the items of expense was that for the patients in insane asylums. It was $2,951,26. The as-sets of the poor district are $4,894.-

duction.

78. The number of inmates at the close of 1912 was ten, five of whom were admitted during the past year. Two were discharged and one died. -W. H. Machell, of New York city, the new proprietor of the Laurel Lake House, Damascus township, is spending a few days at that place. Mr. Machell intends making a num-ber of changes in the present large house, among which will be an addition to that popular house. Mr. Machell is preparing for a large season sale of properties has started in brisk and unusually early. If the present wave of prosperity continues prospective guests he will build anesent wave of prosperity continues number of changes may be expect-before many months will have of the large boarding house on the opposite side of the lake, facing the present building. Preparations are also being made to have a boys' camp nearby, which will be patron-ized by young men from New York city. B. H. Dittrich, of this place, who has a log cabin cottage on land now owned by Mr. Machell, but formerly by Mr. Brown, is unde-cided whether or not he will keep his summer cottage on the shores of this beautiful lake.

-The number of parcel post stamps printed and distributed is 339,500,000. Before January 1, when the service was established, on the starting line and Frank Jen around the course but on the tenth Rowland got the lead after both tem's operations 186 287 545 had a spill and entered into a death grapple, which only terminated when of Engraving and Printing is being forced to print stamps at the rate of 12,000,000 a day. The value of the couple of laps when he was obliged parcel post stamps distributed to gaze at Doran's back. On the $18,011,120. Chicago received 18 $18,011,120. Chicago received 46,-000,000 stamps, valued at $2,673,-000, and leads all other cities. St. Louis was second, with 15,200,000 stamps, valued at $930,000; New Stamps, valued at $350,000; New Jail. Saturday afternoon a commis-York City third, with 15,000,000 sion comprising Dr. P. B. Peterson, stamps, valued at $770,000; Phila-Peter H. Hoff and W. H. Doney was delphia fourth, with 6,000,000 appointed by the court and heard stamps, valued at $379,000, and Dorin say, will be used for a banquet which will be held some time this a value of $4,895,000.

Barnes' offices Friday afternoon. to the parents.

-County auditors W. O. Avery, Leroy Gilpin and W. R. Bodie, who have been going over the books of the county treasurer, have just about completed their task and expect to finish the latter part of this week, when a statement of the couny finances will be made out. far the books show a balance in the treasury of about $22,000 as com-pared with $15,000 last year. The expenses this year were less than the year before by about $8,000. The sheep claims paid during 1911 were $2,462.85 as compared with $1,422 during the past twelve months. There seems to have been a record made for economy in all departments of the county government during the year 1912.

-It is announced that the Golden Seal has been merged with the As-surance League of America, a similar order, and it is stated that the merger received the approval of the State Superintendent of Insurance The Assurance League was organized as the Jewelers' League in 1877 and continued to be known by that name until about four years ago. Its membership is composed largely of men engaged in the jewelry business. Last spring a proposition was made to reinsure the business of the comoany by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company of New York. The Order of the Golden Seal also sub-mitted a proposition and the State Insurance Department took a postal card vote among the members on the proposition. The result of the vote favored the Golden Seal, and as a plans were made for the merging of the two societies.

-Warren Hurd of Wilber's Hill, was arrested Saturday morning by County Detective N. B. Spencer on a by 'Squire R. varrant issued Smith charging him with assault and battery. He was arrested on the in-formation of residents in the neighborhood of Hurd's school, stating that the young man was in the habit of chasing school children, so that both the pupils and teacher were in fear of him. After a hearing before 'Squire Smith he was committed to jail. Saturday afternoon a commis-

Boston fifth, with 3,000,000 stamps, valued at $125,000. These five cit-ies received 85,200,000 stamps, with sane and recommended that he be Rittersville.

Anthracite Thursday night and made the sixth annual banquet of the Gouldsboro Railroad Young Men's Christian Association the biggest event in the history of that town. T. E. Clark, assistant to the president of the Lackawanna, was toastmaster. The committee the In charge comprised Dr. C. E. Eilen-berger, chairman; E. F. Sebring, ecretary; D. E. Foley, Asa English, John P. Aiken and Samuel Warr. The banquet was served by a committee of ladies, among whom were: Mrs. C. E. Ellenberger, Mrs. George Newett, Mrs. S. Benjamin, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Asa English, Mrs. E.

F. Sebring, Mrs. Daniel Fry, Mrs. John Alken, Misses Mildred Sebring, Dorothy O'Boyle, Anna Dowling, Mabel Flower, Anna Flower, Florence Adams, Rose Couriney, Mar-garet Roth, Mollie McAree, Sadie Marshall and Sue Hoffman.

Mrs. Patrick Lynott is in Seran ton.

Dr. P. B. Petersen spent Monday in Scranton. Mrs. H. Z. Russell was a caller in Scranton on Saturday.

Gaston Ames, of Hawley, was business caller in town on Friday.

Wm. H. Hawken attended the au-tomobile show in Scranton Monday. R. F. Warg, editor of the Hawley was a Honesdale caller on Times, Friday.

H. F. Gurney returned to New York last Thursday after a few days' stay in Honesdale.

Mrs. Chester Garratt entertained her Sunday school classmates on Friday evening last.

Warren J. Smith entered the em-ploy of S. E. Morrison as bookkeeper on Monday.

Warren Brown, of Blandin, was taken to the Hahnemann hospital for treatment on Sunday.

William Hawkins returned Scranton Saturday after a few days spent here on business.

ton on Main street.

tor shops.

Mrs. Charles Canfield was called to Scranton on Saturday by the serious illness of her son, Merton, who has typhoid fever in the State Hospital. Miss Mayme Lynott accompan-led Mrs. Canfield to Scranton. They returned Sunday evening and left Merton resting comfortably.

J. E. Richmond went to Scranton this afternoon to hear Capt. Ronald Amundsen, discoverer of the South Pole, and of the first new continent since Columbus, talk on his trip and church here, tell of the actual experiences and St. James Rectory, dangers of the party. Motion pic-tures of actual scenes during the trip will be shown during the lecture.

Bregstein Brothers of this place, have closed a deal whereby they purchased a clothing store located in Kenton, Ohio. The consideration is not given. Gus Bregstein expects to close up his business on the road and leave soon to take charge of the new business in Kenton. Mark Bregstein will remain in Honesdale and conduct the business here. Messrs. Bregstein's many Honesdale friends wish them success in their new venture.

AN OLD-FASHIONED DANCE.

The ladies of East Honesdale gave an old-fashioned dance in Alert Hall last Friday evening that was a very pleasant and successful affair. Old time dances were enjoyed and Henry Rehbein, who knows just how, play-ed and called off for the dancers. Some wore grandmother dresses that were quaint and much admired. Refreshments were served and the pro-ceeds, which amounted to over $60, will be applied to the street lighting fund.

Mrs. R. T. Davies entertained last Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. G. P. Ross, who has been in-disposed of late, is improving. Mrs. William Katz, of Scranton, has leased her beautiful home on Fourteenth street to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Foster and family. Mr. Fos ter expects to occupy the house within a month.

-Suit for $10,000 from Scott township was started last week by spent here on business. William Weston returned to Sus-quehanna Friday after a short visit with his mother, Mrs. W. W. Wes-ton on Mole street was started hat week week A. J. Utter, of Jermyn, for injuries he alleged he received March 10 last at Finch's Corners on the road that leads from Chapman's Lake to Jermyn.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

Silas B. Curtls et ux. of Lake, to Earl M. Curtls, of Lake, land in same township; consideration $1.

LETTER FROM REV. J. P. WARE.

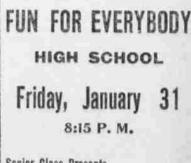

Copy of letter received by Benj. H. Dittrich from Rev. James P. Ware, now located at Drifton, Pa., formerly rector of the Episcopal Drifton, Pa.

Jan, 24, 1913. My Dear Mr. Dittrich:

I had the pleasure, last night, of seeing "Bunty Pully the Strings." It is a clean, wholesome comedy and was well presented. I congratulate you upon bringing such an attraction to Honesdale; it ought to have a full house

Faithfully yours, JAMES P. WARE. "Bunty Pulls the Strings" w will take place at the Lyric on Wednesday evening, Jan. 29.

Senior Class Presents

'Ici on Parle Francais'

Special Music

Admission, 25 and 35c.

Seats may be reserved with-out extra charge at Free Library after Tuesday, Jan. 28, 3 p. m

