This includes five credits for each Sunday and all extra or honor work done. Teachers, please send in names on February 20, 1913.

A divorce was granted Tuesday by the court of Wayne county between Robert Steward, libellant, and Susie Steward, respondent. The couple were married in Scranton in November, 1906, and lived for a time in Troop and later in Lake Ariel where Steward alleges his wife left him in 1910 and had not lived with him since November 7th of that year.

"The Servant in the House," by Charles Rann Kennedy, will be presented by Mrs. Friedewald on Saturday afternoon. This is one of the most interesting dramas before the public; and has occasioned much thought and comment as to its real content. Mrs. Friedewald has proved her wonderful ability in finding out the author's true meaning in other subtle plays and will no doubt be able to do so in this.

J. E. Richmond met with a painful accident Tuesday afternoon while in Scranton which will keep him from doing much work for several weeks. Mr. Richmond had been in the Moses Taylor hospital and when descending the steps in front, slipped and fell down five of the steps striking his forehead. He received a fracture of the two middle fingers and several minor injuries. He arrived home that evening. Dr. Petersen is attending him. Mr. Richmond's many Honesdale friends are gratified to learn that his injuries are not more serious.

Several Scranton men were in Harrisburg Saturday evening looking after the interests of a bill for a license of $1 for all hunters excepting farmers on their own farms. The proceeds of the license are to be used in preparing a bounty fund and in engaging game wardens in addition to the eight now employed by the state. David Pritchard, president of the Sportsmen's organization of Lackawanna county, and H. S. Newton, of Scott township, were there in the interests of the bill.

A citation was directed by Judge Searle to be issued for Samuel Snell and William W. Harrison, overseers of the poor of Hillgrove, Sullivan county, to appear before the court of this county second Monday of March to show cause why order for removal of Henry Reedy and Mrs. Henry Reedy into their custody should not be issued. Henry Reedy was for some time a resident of Salem township and his wife was sent to Hillgrove farm, a hospital for feeble minded, and Salem township incurred the expense. Reedy is now a resident of Sullivan county and the county is supposed to pay for the support of Mrs. Reedy.

Mrs. Marie V. Swartz, aged eighty-seven years, and the last charter member of the Dunmore Presbyterian church, died at her home there late Saturday night. It was in Mrs. Swartz's home that the organization meetings for the church were held years ago. She was the widow of Daniel Swartz, who died in 1884. Mrs. Swartz was born in Bethany, Wayne county, but had resided in the same house in Dunmore for the past fifty-eight years. One son, Frank E. Swartz, survives. Private funeral services were held at the home on Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Interment in the family plot in Dunmore cemetery.

Mrs. Artemus W. Simons, of Hawley, died in the Moses Taylor hospital Saturday, following an operation, performed two weeks ago, for gall stones. She was improving nicely when pleuro-pneumonia developed. The body was taken home on Sunday afternoon. She is survived by her husband and two children, Leland and Nancy. Also by her mother, Mrs. Nancy Kimble of Paupack and four sisters, three residing in Paupack, Mrs. J. G. Kellam, Mrs. Annie Gumble, Mrs. Jos. Slocum, and one in Scranton, Mrs. Edward Bittenbender. Funeral was held Tuesday morning from the house, Rev. D. S. McKellar officiating. Interment in Paupack cemetery.

A motion for a new trial in the case of Horace Dexter against A. O. Blake, which was tried last week, has been filed by Blake's attorneys, Searle & Salmon. In the case last week the jury gave a verdict in favor of the plaintiff. They base their claim for a new trial on the grounds that the verdict was against the evidence and against the charge of the court. A rule was granted as prayed for, returnable next term of court.
