THOUGHT FOR TO-DAY.

It is usually not so much the greatness of our trouble as the littleness of our spirit which makes us complain.—Jeremy Taylor.

HONESDALE'S FREE LIBRARY.

We all believe in public libraries. We frequently discuss the library we are to get "bye and bye." We do not find that it is helping the boys and girls who are growing up in our town now. Will the next generation need it more than this? Will the children of the next generation be dearer to us than the boys and girls that now cheer our firesides? Will they use a library better because their parents have not had such privileges?

We all want a library, for ourselves, for our neighbors, for the good name of our village. Why not get it now and be getting the good out of it?

It is only a question of method. The library when built should benefit all the people, and therefore it should be built by all the people. Give us all a chance to help, and then the library will belong to all of us.

Honesdale and the immediate vicinity has been divided into districts and solicitors have been appointed to make a house to house canvass for the purpose of securing a free will contribution for the benefit of the school library. This is an exceptionally worthy cause and should be given the hearty support of the community at large. Be liberal. We should all work in the interest of this institution. Co-operation is what counts.

A public library is the flower of the modern forms of co-operation, which secures for the individual luxuries which he could not afford otherwise.

Instead of buying so many books and magazines which wear out on the shelves after one reading, let us "pool our issues" and put the multitude of small sums in one fund, buy the best at the lowest prices, and then use the volumes so brought for the good of all. We need spend no more money each year for literature, but we need to save the waste due to unused books, foolish purchases, book agents, commissions, and needless profits—and we can have a public library without other cost.

A good public library in this town will help our neighboring farmers as well as our townspeople. They cannot support public libraries in their small communities. Their small school libraries give the children a taste for reading, but give them nothing to gratify that taste when they leave school. Let us join our forces for mutual advantage and get a better library and a wider community of interests. Again we say, be liberal.

THE INCOME TAX NOW POSSIBLE

The adherence of Wyoming, unexpectedly in advance of that of either New Jersey or New Mexico, makes the income tax amendment a part of the Federal Constitution. Congress at last has the constitutional power to lay a tax upon incomes, from whatever source derived, without apportionment among the States.

The exercise of this power, is with Congress which submitted the resolution to the States on the general theory that it was a power to be used in an emergency, as a last resort, and not in the ordinary business of providing ways and means.

How far the new Democratic dispensation will depart from this original attitude toward the income tax idea, how strong will be the effort to make it the instrument of odious class discrimination and inequality for socialistic or near socialistic purposes wholly apart from the question of revenue, now remains to be seen.—New York Sun.

"PURE SHOES."

A "pure shoe" bill is before the legislature at Harrisburg, fathered by Representative Charles J. Hemminger of Somerset county. The Somerset statesman declares that the people ought to have exact knowledge of the kind of stuff their shoes are made of. He proposes to have a tag placed on every shoe reciting the ingredients of which it is composed. If there are leather scraps, cement or other substances besides pure leather, the tag shall say so.

It is all right to guarantee to the people purity in all the goods they purchase, but this thing of attaching to every article of manufacture a genealogy, an affidavit and a certificate of character is going to add to the complications and the high cost of living. Think of a shoe carrying forward through all the intricacies of manufacture a daily increasing series of labels and tags certifying to the character of the materials and to the honesty of the numberless people who have worked thereon. And think how the whole process would be simplified by an adult dose of common honesty to begin with in all of the people who made the shoe. It is to be doubted whether the world is to be made good by investigation, affidavit and exposure after all.

AGAINST FRAUDULENT ADVERTISING.

Every merchant in Wayne county should write to Hon. H. C. Jackson, a member of the House in the General Assembly, also to Senator Harvey Huffman of the Senate of this district requesting them to support the Alter bill against fraudulent advertising, drafted by Hon. George E. Alter, now speaker of the House. The bill will prohibit untruthful announcements of bargains, prices, values and cures.

It will enable people to believe what they read because the fake will not be allowed to publish lies. It is therefore to the interest of every honest merchant and every consumer to have the bill passed.

Write to Hon. H. Clark Jackson in the Pennsylvania legislature, Harrisburg, and get your friends to write also. Time is short—act now. The following bill has been drafted to the request of the Pittsburgh Publicity Association, an organization composed of 300 advertising men. Other states, New York, Massachusetts and Iowa have such laws. Why should not Pennsylvania get in line also?

We herewith present a suggested letter:

The following may be used as a form in which to address Senators and Representatives:
Hon. H. C. Jackson,
Harrisburg, Pa.

Dear Sir:
I earnestly hope that you will give your active support to, and vote for the bill against fraudulent advertising, drafted by Hon. George E. Alter.

Yours sincerely,

The following is a copy of the bill now pending before the Legislature at Harrisburg:

AN ACT
To prohibit the making or dissemination of false or misleading statements or assertions concerning any merchandise, securities or services, and providing penalties for the violation thereof.

Section 1. Be it enacted, etc., That whoever, in a newspaper, periodical, circular, form letter, or other publications published, distributed or circulated in this Commonwealth, or in any advertisement in this Commonwealth, knowingly makes or disseminates or causes to be made or disseminated any statement or assertion concerning the quantity, the quality, the value, the merit, the use, the present or former price, the cost, the reason for the price, or the motive or purpose of a sale of any merchandise, securities or services, or concerning the method or cost of production or manufacture of such merchandise, or the possession of rewards, prizes, or distinctions conferred on account of such merchandise, or the manner or source of purchase of such merchandise or securities, which is untrue or calculated to mislead, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding sixty days or by both fine and imprisonment.

DIRECT VOTE BILL PASSED HOUSE

Ratifies Popular Election Amendment to Constitution by Overwhelming Majority—Big Change in Sentiment.

Harrisburg, Feb. 4.—By a vote of 193 to 3 the lower house of the Pennsylvania general assembly ratified the popular election amendment to the United States constitution providing that United States senators shall be elected by direct vote of the people of the several states.

The decision of the House followed a debate of two hours, in which J. Baldwin, of Delaware, made a number of speeches against the amendment. E. E. Jones, of Susquehanna, the author of the amendment, in an address to the house said that as a candidate on the Republican and Democratic tickets in his district and as a member of the state grange he felt in duty bound to present the resolution to the house.

In his talk Mr. Jones replied to an argument of Mr. Baldwin to the effect that a constitutional provision good enough for 124 years ago was good enough now, and said that under the present system of electing United States senators the evils of bossism have arisen. An additional reason offered by Mr. Jones for the passage of the amendment is that the election of United States senators by direct vote would divorce the senatorial issue from the candidacy of representatives.

Stand Solidly for Resolution.

All the Northeastern members voted for the resolution. The six Lackawanna members, two Bradford, one Susquehanna, one Wyoming, one Wayne and eight Luzerne members standing solidly for the bill. The 104th vote was cast by John F. Mannion, Democrat, of the Fifth Lackawanna district. The house gave eighty-nine votes more than a majority.

The overwhelming decision of the house this year in favor of the direct vote resolution is all the more significant when it is known that in the session of 1911, two years ago, it was not possible to get the resolution out of committee and bring it to a vote.

Representative John F. Mannion's bill appropriating $150,000 to the state bureau of mines for the purpose of extinguishing the Carbonate mine fire was introduced in the house of representatives. The bill provides that before any of the appropriation shall be expended by the chief of the bureau of mines the county of Lackawanna shall "oblige itself to this commonwealth in such a sum, form and such security as shall be approved by the attorney general of the commonwealth, that if the sum appropriated by this act shall be insufficient for the payment of such expenditures said county will pay such additional amounts as shall be required."

County Must Give Bond.

The act would give the chief of the bureau of mines power to condemn land, to destroy, appropriate or use such material as necessary to carry out the provisions of the act, and the attorney general is authorized to sue for and recover from the property saved from loss or damage by reason of the state's activity, all or as much as may be recovered of the expenditures made under the provisions of the act.

The local option bill endorsed by the Anti-Saloon league and providing for units of counties and municipalities of over 10,000 population was introduced in the house by Mr. Rockwell, Tioga. An election is to be held on petition of a per cent. of the voters according to the bill.

The Democratic "corrupt practice" act was presented by Mr. Matt, Bedford. It limits expenses of candidates $12,500; governor, $10,000; congressmen, $3,500; senators, $1,000 and as follows: United States Senators, representatives $500 and all other candidates not over 50 per cent. of salary for first year. Newspaper advertising and personal letters are permitted and all other expenses are stipulated. Candidates not filing accounts can not have names printed on the official ballot.

Speaker Alter announced that he had received the petition of Thomas D. Shea, Wilkes-Barre, asking for the impeachment of Judge Henry A. Fuller, of the Luzerne county courts, and referred it to the judiciary general committee. Allegations that Judge Fuller had failed to decide cases and committed various acts in office which the petitioner deems improper were made by Mr. Shea.

OBITUARY.

Death of Loring Gale.

Loring Gale, well known in Honesdale and Wayne county, died of pleuro-pneumonia Tuesday morning at 4:30 o'clock at his home in Riverdale-on-the-Hudson after a week's illness. Mr. Gale was one of the best known citizens in this section of the country. Born in New York state the deceased, when 12 yrs. old, came to Wayne county with his parents and settled in Cherry Ridge township at what is now known as Clemo. Here the father, William Gale, was in the employ of Loring A. Robinson in the tanning business. After some years Mr. Gale formed a partnership with Mr. Robinson and the tannery was run under the name of Robinson & Gale until Mr. Gale went to Potter county. The company was then dissolved. Mr. Gale and son Loring going to the western part of the State. They bought extensive tracts of land in eastern Potter county in 1881 and the place, Galeton, now about twice the size of Honesdale, was named for them. Loring Gale remained in that place until about 20 years ago when they sold their interest in the tanning business to the American Hide and Leather company. The Gale family then returned east and Loring Gale went to New York City, where he made careful and profitable investments.

In October, 1902, Loring Gale was united in marriage with Miss Elizabeth Bentley of this place. To them two children have been born, namely, Loring R., Jr., aged 9 years, and Lucile, aged 7 years. He is also survived by his wife. One sister, Mrs. Sarah Osborne, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is a sister of the deceased.

The funeral was held Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock from Mr. Gale's late home, Riverdale-on-the-Hudson. Rev. W. H. Swift, D. D., of the Honesdale Presbyterian church, assisted in the services. Charles T. Bentley and brother, Howard M. Bentley, attended the obsequies. Interment was made in the city.

Death of Mrs. Louise Cornell.

Mrs. Louise Cornell, a former resident of this place, died at the sanitarium in Rittersville last Tuesday evening. As the deceased has no relatives in this section of the state, the remains, in all probability, will be sent to Philadelphia.

Death of Mrs. Henry Bell.

Ruth Lackey, wife of Henry Bell, died Tuesday morning after a short illness at her home in Sikko. Mrs. Bell would have been 72 years of age had she lived until February 26th next. She has always lived in Wayne county. Besides her husband one daughter, Mrs. Lewis Stanton, of Tailmanville, survives. The funeral was held Thursday morning at 11 o'clock in the Sikko chapel, Rev. Charles White officiating. Interment was made in the Bolckcom cemetery.

Death of Fred Horst.

Fred Horst, for nearly a half century a resident of Fortena, died Tuesday morning following a paralytic stroke. Mr. Horst was sick about a week. He was 80 years old last September and was a respected resident of the place. He is survived by the following children: Frank, Fortena; Henry, Bear Swamp; John, Beachlake; Pauline, at home; Mrs. Edward Welch, of Blandin. The funeral was held Thursday afternoon, Rev. C. C. Miller officiating.

TWO COUNTIES TO BE ADDED TO FOURTEENTH.

By Proposed Change in Congressional Apportionment—They Are Tioga and Sullivan—Four More Congressmen for State.

The proposed changes in the congressional apportionment of the state will effect the Fourteenth district among others. Four new congressmen are allotted to Pennsylvania under the present population figures. One of these goes to Philadelphia county, one to Allegheny, the third to a new district formed by parts of Lackawanna and Luzerne, while the fourth is secured by a redivision of the northern and central groups of counties into one more district. To the present fourteenth district, composed of Wayne, Susquehanna, Wyoming and Bradford, is added Tioga and Sullivan; to the balance of the Sixteenth district, Columbia, Montour and Northumberland is added Union and Snyder; Perry county is added to Dauphin and Cumberland, while Lebanon and Lancaster are united, and Franklin becomes part of a district with Adams and York.

Under the census figures, Lackawanna county is entitled to an additional state senator, and so is Allegheny county, but there is a strong likelihood that the senatorial re- apportionment will not be considered, unless the leaders say, "There is a public demand for it."

No change will take place in the representation of Lackawanna and Luzerne counties in the lower house, six remaining as Lackawanna's share and eight as Luzerne's, Bradford county, which now has two representatives, will have only one.

The presumption that the new congressional district would be made up of the upper end or Luzerne and the southern end of Lackawanna, Pittston city, Pittston township, Avoca, Jenkins township, Lackawanna township, Old Forge, Taylor, West Pittston, Wyoming, Exeter township, Hughestown, Duryen and a few small Lackawanna places, would make up the new district, which would probably be Democratic.
