

Down Hawley Way

A Very Quiet Week in the Town of the Three Rivers—Fond Parents Rejoice Over the Birth of a Two Pound Baby—Death of Thomas Howell—Rumors of a New Shoe Factory—The Katz Brothers Not Coming.

TALKING FOR THE CITIZEN.

Know all men, and likewise all women and young folks in general, that J. A. Collum, of Hawley, an old veteran of the Civil War, has started out with his satchel of sample copies of The Citizen, The Wayne Countean, the Tribune Farmer, the Ladies' World and the big and elegant book of "Home Songs" that he is offering in combination—the whole shooting match for only $3.00.

Hawley has been very quiet this week. From a news standpoint there has been "nothing doing." In fact, on Wednesday it was so balmy, so warm and so Springlike that everybody just felt like doing nothing and letting it go at that.

One of the marks of distinction of the town is the big stone smoke-stack on Keyone street right in the rear of "Dick" Murphy's glass-cutting shop. It seems but yesterday since that stack was built, but if one began measuring it by years he would find that it was built either forty or forty-one years ago.

What are you building, John? was a common inquiry shouted from the ground to the workman aloft. The answer varied according to the humor of the builder. Mr. Ames was apt to come back at the questioner, Yankee fashion, by asking them if it didn't look like the Washington monument. Nobody was told exactly what was contemplated until the chimney was completed.

The Katz Brothers Are Not Coming to Hawley. Just where the story started that the Katz Brothers, of Honesdale, had bought two lots on Spring street, and expect to build a branch of their underwear factory in Hawley is a mystery.

Thomas Howell Died on Monday, of This Week. Thomas Howell, who lived on Chestnut street, and who has resided in Hawley for the past twenty years, died on Monday of this week, and the funeral was held on Wednesday.

NEWFOUNDLAND.

Newfoundland, March 13. Mrs. Job Moore, of Gouldsboro, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Heffley.

A very enjoyable party was given at the residence of Alfred Walter on Wednesday evening, March 5th. Those present were: Misses Ruth Gilpin, Winifred Lancaster, Lila Carlton, Eva Dunning, Bessie Dunning, Mr. and Mrs. E. Walter, Iverson Gilpin, Charles Ehrhardt, Lawrence Barnes, A. H. Baughan, Ray Osborn, and Ward Frey.

William Voeste and Elgin Kerr have returned from Gouldsboro, where they were working on the ice. E. E. Bird is sick with the grip.

There are only three weeks left for school at Maple Glen. We are glad to learn that Sam Green is improving.

Geo. Eck left on Wednesday for Pen Yan, N. Y., where he expects to secure employment.

Mrs. W. P. Decker, who has been visiting in Philadelphia, returned home on Saturday.

The Ladies' Aid met Wednesday with Mrs. Tom Brown. Friday last being Miss Bates birthday, she treated her pupils to candy.

Mrs. Herbert Akers had a quilting on Wednesday.

Will Eck has returned from a visit in Wilkes-Barre and Scranton. The funeral of Jacob Shiffler was held Sunday afternoon at Greentown.

Phillip Eck, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Pelham and children Beulah and Virgil took dinner Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Burrus.

Thomas Erghood lost a pile of props by fire recently.

COURT NOTES.

The following motions were presented to court the first of the week: Estate of William S. Compton, deceased. Sale of real estate ordered.

Kreitner Bros. vs. W. G. Blakney. Ordered that balance of judgment of $1500 paid in case of Kreitner Bros. vs. Courtwright & Son.

In re petition of Augusta Meyer, administratrix of George Meyer, deceased, to sell real estate. Ordered.

In re petition to vacate and change public road in Canaan township; appointment of viewers continued until June term.

All tax collectors bonds were approved. Commonwealth vs. Charles C. Brown. On Dec. 20, 1911, the de-

SNAPSHOTS AT STATE NEWS

All Pennsylvania Gleaned for Items of Interest.

REPORTS ABOUT CROPS GOOD

Farmers Busy in Every Locality—Churches Raising Funds for Many Worthy Objects—Items of Business and Pleasure that Interest.

Skating in March was a novelty for Altoona.

Allegheny county's lawyers are out for elective board of education.

Frank Selwell was found dead alongside the Reading tracks in Mahanoy City, killed by a train.

The Pennsylvania Railroad is preparing to build a $10,000 passenger station at Brookville.

Seven police inspectors and six detectives in Pittsburgh will resist removal for lack of city revenues.

At Lancaster, William C. Brobst, a prominent contractor who shot himself a week ago, is dead.

While on duty at the Morrisville station of the Pennsylvania Railroad, George C. Bunting fell dead. He was freight agent for many years.

United Mine Workers have recruited up to 20,236 in the Hazleton district, 64,278 in No. 1, and 49,060 in No. 9.

Michael Burke, of Yatesville, a miner at the Knickerbocker Colliery, was shot in the face and head by a premature blast.

Payment of relief was started by the Garment Workers' Union to idle employes of the Gardhardt shirt factory, Hazleton.

Telegraphers at the Hazleton & Mahanoy division offices of the Lehigh Valley Railroad have been granted increases of from $5 to $10 a month.

Jacob K. Miller succeeds James A. McClure as carrier of mails between Maytown and Marietta. The latter held down the job about 38 years.

John Markie, the Jeddo coal operator, will sail for Europe. He expects to spend the greater part of the season abroad.

Ex-Mayor Confer and D. E. Byles, of Oil City, have departed from an extended trip through the West Indies. They will spend some time at Panama looking over the big ditch.

Meadville merchants will hereafter not permit the placing of advertising cards in their show windows. The merchants, as a rule, advertise in the newspapers, and probably believe that other people should do the same.

At Girardville, John Huffey, his wife, son and daughter, ate heartily of preserved fish for supper and all four were taken violently ill. The physician diagnosed the case as ptomaine poison, and they all are out of danger.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the Woman's Missionary Guild was observed at the regular meeting of the Guild in the Pine Street Presbyterian Church, Williamsport. One of the charter members gave a brief history of the Guild and an account of the work done by the society.

An oil portrait of the late Judge Adam Hoy, recently completed by Philadelphia painters, has been presented to Centre county by Mrs. W. Fred Reynolds and Albert Hoy, and has been hung in the gallery of judges' portraits in Memorial Hall in the courthouse at Bellefonte.

The names of 83 men, intemperate and otherwise, have been posted in the several Waynesboro barrooms as "persons of known intemperate habits," and to these the barkeepers are instructed not to sell alcoholic drinks. Some persons named on this list are indignant over what they call the libelous suggestion, and have raised nearly $200 to carry the matter into the courts.

The Bellefonte fish hatchery is still sending out yearling trout, but the stock is pretty well reduced and will be cleared up entirely before long. All told, about 200,000 yearlings will be put out of the Bellefonte hatchery this year, while few of them are of a size large enough to catch, the most of them will be next year, and the result should be apparent during the trout-fishing season.

Dr. Charles Meins, postmaster of Germania, for more than half a century a practicing physician in Germania, and for 55 years a school director of Abbott, is 82 years young.

Jay Tussey displays at Altoona trophies of his recent Florida hunting expedition, including three skins of deer, one of a fawn, one of a Southern squirrel and three of snakes. The principal exhibit is the tawny skin of a diamond snake, 8 feet in length, 10 inches wide, with 10 rattles at the end.

WILSON'S POLICY

PRESIDENT ISSUES STERN LEGISLATURE TO MEXICO AND OTHER LATIN-AMERICAN COUNTRIES.

WARNS HUERTA AND CASTRO

Washington Has Had Rumors of Revolutionary Plot Involving Many Republics—Theme Before Cabinet, but Document Prepared by President.

Washington, March 12.—There is every reason to think that a statement on the relations of the United States to Latin-America, written by President Wilson and issued by him after a meeting of the Cabinet, has deep and significant bearing on a concerted movement in Central America, fostered by ex-President Castro of Venezuela, ex-President Zelaya of Nicaragua, and other malcontents who were about to start a revolution intended to involve all, or nearly all, the Central American republics.

It is understood that this Government had trustworthy advices that revolutionary plans had been practically formed, and it was felt by the President and his advisers that unless action was taken by the Washington Administration, Central America would soon be in a turmoil that might involve the United States in serious difficulties with foreign nations.

The matter was discussed at a meeting of the Cabinet, and it was decided by the President and his official advisers that a statement should be issued defining the attitude of the Wilson Administration toward Central America. After the meeting President Wilson wrote out the statement and directed that it be given to the press.

The President undoubtedly issued his declaration chiefly for the purpose of disabusing agitators of any notion that the Taft policies for the upholding of good government in those countries would be repudiated.

But the statement has another important significance. It is construed as notice to the Huerta Government in Mexico City that the United States will not recognize it until has itself received the endorsement of the majority of the people in Mexico in a regular election.

Business interests that have participated in relations with Latin-American countries are assured that they will not be disregarded by the present Administration.

Mr. Wilson asserts that one of the aims of his Administration will be to promote trade relations between the United States and Central and South America. While promising that such interest in trade relationships shall not interfere with the rights and liberties of the Latin-American countries, the belief here is that the practical application of the Wilson policy will result in the same support to legitimate commercial enterprise as they have enjoyed under Republican administrations in the last sixteen years.

WOULD RESTRAIN BURLESON

United States Supreme Court Urged to Bar Publicity Law Enforcement, Rendering Settlement.

Washington, March 12.—Announcement by Postmaster-General Burleson that he intends to enforce the new newspaper publicity law resulted in an attempt in the Supreme Court of the United States to restrain enforcement of the law until after the court passes on its validity.

Attorney Robert C. Morris, for the New York Journal of Commerce and Commercial Bulletin, representing the American Newspaper Publishers' Association, applied for an injunction against Postmaster-General Burleson and Attorney-General McReynolds.

The request for an injunction was made in the case now held under advisement by the court to test the constitutionality of the law.

Attorney Morris told the court that former Postmaster-General Hitchcock and former Attorney-General Wickham had agreed not to enforce the publicity law until the Supreme Court's decision was rendered.

DISASTER LAID TO FOREMAN

Thrust Hook into Dynamite, Says Stevedore, Who Was Injured in Baltimore Explosion.

Baltimore, March 12.—Sensational testimony was given by Norris Price, a stevedore, to the coroner's jury which is investigating the blowing up of the dynamite ship Alum Oline with heavy loss of life and injury to scores.

Price, who was made deaf in one ear and received minor injuries, swore that William Bomhardt, assistant foreman, was under the influence of liquor on the morning of the explosion. Becoming angered, Bomhardt said the witness, grabbed a cotton hook from a stevedore and swung it into a box of dynamite.

Now is the time for first spray. What you need:

One of our Pomona sprayers mounted on barrel with 25 ft. hose, nozzles, extension pipe; all ready for business. Price, $19. Or one of our Fruitall sprayers with same outfit at $15. 5c worth of our lime sulphur solution will spray an ordinary tree. 10c worth of labor will do the spraying. Why not spray and double your apple crop? Come in and talk it over.

MURRAY CO.

Everything for the Farm Honesdale, Pa.

ARLINGTON.

The L. A. S. met with Mrs. C. E. Mains on March 4th.

Miss Grace E. Bidwell of Hawley and Homer Bidwell of Scranton, spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Bidwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Peet, of Hamlin spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walker.

Mrs. Karl Knapp made a business trip to New York last week.

Mrs. Chas. Ut, of Lakeville, is visiting in Scranton.

Arthur Dietrich was in Honesdale last week as a grand juror.

Both Mrs. L. M. and Joseph Bittner, of Lakeville, are improving slowly.

Wm. D. Sheeley, of Lakeville, is no better.

The Sunday school reorganized on Sunday last and elected officers for the coming year.

The stockholders of the Arlington Creamery Company met some time ago and elected the following board of directors: President, A. L. Finley; vice-president, George Swingle; secretary, F. C. Carlton; treasurer, U. Chick; manager, J. L. Noble.

The board will meet for their regular meeting Saturday, March 15 at J. L. Noble's. A. D. Dietrich and S. M. Bittner were appointed auditors and will go over the books in the near future.

The Lakeville L. A. S. will hold a supper in the P. O. S. of A. hall on March 19th.

Take the progressive newspaper—The Citizen.

NEW AEROPLANE BALANCER.

At a fete given in honor of President Elect Poincare at the Louis le Grand lycee in Paris recently Rene Quinton, president of the French National Aero League, announced that a secret automatic device for the stability of aeroplanes had been discovered. This, said M. Quinton, was great news.

The inventor, named Moreau, made experiments on an aeroplane in the presence of war office officials and flew with a passenger for forty-five minutes without touching the controlling levers of the aeroplane except for the purpose of rising and descending. On this occasion the wind sometimes blew twenty-five feet a second.

Also Device to Tip Them Over. General Hirschauer of the flying corps has received a communication from the inventor, Dr. Cousin, a scientist, who has recently been experimenting on a device with Jules Verdes, the aviator. He informs General Hirschauer that the apparatus, which is small and simple and can be carried in a soldier's knapsack, by provoking disturbances of the air will cause any type of aeroplane to capsize, even if it has ascended to a height of more than 9,000 feet.

HAMLIN.

Hamlin, March 13. Miss Alice Hamlin has returned from Scranton where she has been for the past two weeks caring for her mother. Mrs. Hamlin went to Scranton some time ago, to visit her son, Dr. B. G. Hamlin, and while there was taken quite seriously ill. She is now much improved and expects soon to be able to return home.

The L. A. S. met on Friday, March 7th, at the home of Mrs. C. M. Loring.

H. C. Felton has been somewhat indisposed for the past few days, but has now resumed teaching.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Nicholson, Mrs. Marion Franc and F. A. Peet drove to Scranton on Thursday last.

The Booklovers' Club met on Wednesday, March 12, at the home of Miss Cora Alt, where they were royally entertained. The meeting was in every way a success.

On Friday, March 7, the remains of Frank Spangenberg, a former resident of Hollisterville, were buried in the Hamlin cemetery.

Miss Martha Goodrich, Hawley, is at Ira Ressegue's helping to care for Mrs. Ressegue.

Salem Grange met on Friday night. A good many were present in spite of the cold.

On Tuesday, March 11, a few friends of Mrs. C. R. Spangenberg gathered at her home to help her celebrate her seventy-second birthday. The affair was an entire surprise to Mrs. Spangenberg, the ladies bringing their refreshments with them. A bountiful dinner was served. Those present were: Mrs. C. M. Loring, Mrs. Amos Oliver, Mrs. Inez Curtis, Mrs. J. P. Stocker and Mrs. Marion Franc.

Dr. O. J. Mullen has just returned from Beachlake where he has been looking after smallpox matters. Sugar making is in progress in this neighborhood.

Rev. O. G. Russell and a number of our townspeople are Honesdale visitors this week.

—It will be a pleasure to you to examine Mennen & Co.'s Spring line of separate coats. 22eol4 by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Eight Room Modern Dwelling For Sale

Located at No. 1223 East Street.

New Steam Heating Plant Recently Installed and Building in First-Condition. Lot 50 x 125 feet. House has all Modern Appointments.

MUST BE SOLD SOON

Consideration only $4,000

Inquire of

Buy-U-A-Home Realty Company

J. R. ROBINSON—E. B. CALLAWAY. P. O. Box 53, Honesdale, Pa., Jadwin Building.