WILL TATTOOED ON HIS BACK.
California Miner Has Testament Placed on Shoulder Blade.
Probably the oddest will ever drawn by man is that of Harry Kohlman, a miner from San Bernardino county, Cal., who has had his last testament tattooed in purple ink on his left shoulder blade.
Kohlman said he was about to take a trip through the troubled regions in Mexico, and he wanted a will that was indestructible and one that would survive robbers or fire. His property is valued at $50,000.
Still inflamed with the tattooer's needle, Kohlman recently exhibited his will to a few friends. There are but fourteen words in the "document," but lawyers say it is perfectly legal. It reads, "All my claims south of Red Hill, San Bernardino county, to J. H. Cart.—H. Kohlman."
RICH ISLANDS IN CANAL ZONE.
Tortola and Tortolita, Possessing Pearl Fisheries, Belong to United States.
An official survey is reported to have established the fact that the Pacific islands of Tortola and Tortolita are a part of the Panama canal zone, being within the three mile canal limit. The finding is regarded here as important, as both of the islands have rich pearl fisheries.
The United States government has just begun the erection of a large wireless plant at the Pacific entrance of the canal.
All records were broken during the month of February, when 108 ships brought 6,237 visitors to the canal. They have taken away so many of the little silver coins of Panama for souvenirs that there is at present an unusual shortage of small change.

GET THESE Money-making Secrets WITH THE Farm Journal
FARM JOURNAL ("cream, not skim milk") is the great little paper published for 36 years in Philadelphia by Wilmer Atkinson. It is taken and read by more families than any other farm paper in the WORLD. Its four million readers (known as "Our Folks") are the most intelligent and prosperous country people that grow, and they always say the Farm Journal helped to make them so.
Do you know Peter Tumbledown, the old fellow who won't take the Farm Journal? By showing how NOT to run a farm, Peter makes many prosperous. Nobody can go on reading the Farm Journal and being a Tumbledown too.
The Farm Journal is bright, brief, "boiled down," practical, full of gumption, cheer and sunshine. It is strong on housekeeping and home-making, a favorite with busy women, full of life and fun for boys and girls. It sparkles with wit, and a happy, sunny spirit. Practical as a plow, readable as a novel. Clean and pure, not a line of fraudulent or nasty advertising. All its advertisers are guaranteed trustworthy.
The Farm Journal gives more for the money and puts it in fewer words than any other farm paper. 32 to 80 pages monthly, illustrated. FIVE years (60 issues) for $1.00 only. Less than 2 cents a month. No one-year, two-year or three-year subscriptions taken at any price.
The Farm Journal Booklets
What Our Folks Say About F. J.
I have had more help, encouragement and enjoyment out of it in one year than I did out of my other papers in ten years," says C. M. Persons.
" It is a queer little paper. I have sometimes read it through and thought I was done with it, then I pick it up again and find something new to interest me," says Alfred Kropp.
" Farm Journal is like a bit of sunshine in our home. It is making a better class of people out of farmers. It was first sent me as a Christmas present, and I think it the choicest present I ever received," says F. K. LeVallay.
" We have read your dear little paper for nearly 40 years. Now we don't live on the farm any more, yet I still have a hankering for the old paper. I feel that I belong to the family, and every page is as dear and familiar as the faces of old friends," says Mrs. B. W. Edwards.
" I fear I neglect my business to read it. I wish it could be in the hands of every farmer in Virginia," says W. S. Cline.
" I live in a town where the yard is only 15 x 18 feet, but I could not do without the Farm Journal," says Miss Sara Carpenter.
" I get lots of books and papers, and put them aside for future reading. The only paper I seem to have in my hands all the time is Farm Journal. I can't finish reading it. Can't you make it less interesting, so I can have a chance at my other papers?" writes John Swail.
" If I am lonesome, down-hearted, or tired, I go to Farm Journal for comfort, next to the Bible," says Mabel Dewitt.
" Farm Journal has a cheerful vein running through it that makes it a splendid cure for the "blues." When coming home tired in mind and body, I sit down and read it, and it seems to give me new inspiration for life," writes G. E. Halderman.
" We have a brother-in-law who loves a joke. We live in Greater New York, and consider ourselves quite civilized, so when he sent us the Farm Journal as a New Year's gift we nearly died laughing. 'How to raise hogs—we who only use bacon in glass jars.' 'How to keep cows clean—when we use condensed milk even for rice pudding!' 'How to plant onions—when we never plant anything more fragrant than slices of the yellow.' I accepted the gift with thanks, for we are too well-bred to look a gift horse in the mouth. Soon my eye was caught by a beautiful poem. I began to read it, then when I wanted the Farm Journal I found my husband deeply interested in an article. 'Then my oldest son began to ask, 'Has the Farm Journal come yet?' He is a jeweler, and hasn't much time for literature; but we find so much interest and uplift in this fine paper that we appreciate our New Year's gift more and more," writes Ella B. Burkan.
" I received 'Corn Secrets' and 'Poultry Secrets,' and consider them worth their weight in gold," says W. G. Newell.
" What your Egg Book tells would take a beginner years to learn," says Roy Chaney.
" Duck Dollars is the best book I ever had on duck-raising," says F. M. Warnock.
" If your other booklets contain as much valuable information as the Egg-Book, I would consider them cheap at double the price," says F. W. Munsfield.
" I think your Egg-Book is a wonder," says C. F. Shiry.
" The Farm Journal beats them all. Every issue has reminders and ideas worth a year's subscription," writes F. H. Potter.
" One year ago I took another agricultural paper, and it took a whole column to tell what Farm Journal tells in one paragraph," says N. M. Gladwin.
" It ought to be in every home where there is a cluck, a child, a cow, a cherry, or a cucumber," says I. D. Bordus.
