clerks in the store acquired the fashion of wearing trim, natty little mustachios. One day an order appeared on the walls requiring that the clerks appear to work without their mustachios before a certain date or be ready to resign.

How Mustachios Disappeared.

There wasn't any strike, and from all accounts the mustachlos disappeared. Mr. Morton in telling the story in after years asserted he hadn't placed the cruel order on the walls, but understood that some of the country customers had complained to one of the managers that they didn't like being waited upon by young men wearing high hats and mustachios. It was the manager who issued the order.

This firm went into bankruptcy during the civil war, and the creditors re- Skier, Joseph ceived 50 cents on the dollar. Years afterward, when Mr. Morton had recouped his fortune, he invited the cred-Itors of the Morton & Grinnell firm to a big dinner. At each man's plate was a check for the balance due him on the old account.

SEA WATER IN RESIDENCES.

Ban Francisco to Have Unique Luxury Soon.

The introduction of the salt water auxiliary fire system, which will be in operation in two months provides an opportunity for giving San Francisco homes a luxury that is enjoyed by dwellers in no other city in the world-an unlimited supply of water from the Pacific.

The system, with its tremendous pressure is for protective purposes in cases of fire, but the water may be carried through the residence district.

As it is now, athletic clubs and sevscal big bathing places have salt waer on tap for the plunge, shower and tub baths, but with the extension every home may enjoy the luxury.

To Search Jungles For Snakes. Allen Samuel Williams, a New York naturalist, left recently on a trip to Brazil and other South American countries in quest of snakes. He will search the jungles for odd specimens to be used in the annual Sportsmen's show in New York.

The Farm Journal Booklets have sold by hundreds of thousands, and have made a sensation by revealing the SECRETS OF MONEY-MAKING in home industry. People all over the country are making money by their methods.

POULTRY SECRETS is a collection of discoveries and methods of successful poultrymen. It gives Felch's famou mating chart, the Curtiss method of getting one-half more pulle than cockerels, Boyer's method of insuring fertility, and prizele secrets of breeding, feeding, how to produce winter eggs, etc. pullets HORSE SECRETS exposes all the methods of "bishoping," "plugging," cocaine and gasoline doping, and other tricks of "gyps" and swindlers, and enables any one to tell an unsound horse. Gives many valuable training secrets.

CORN SECRETS, the great NEW hand-book of Prof. Holden, the "Corn King," shows how to get ten to twenty bushels more per acre of corn, rich in protein and the best stock-teeding elements. Pictures make every process plain.

EGG SECRETS tells how a family of six can make hens turn its table scrape into a daily supply of fresh eggs. If you have a back-yard, get this booklet, learn how to use up every scrap of the kitchen waste, and live better at less cost.

THE "BUTTER BOOK" tells how seven cows were made to produce half a ton of butter each yer year. (140 pounds is the average). An eye-opener. Get it, weed out your poor cows, and turn the good ones into record-breakers.

STRAWBERRY SECRETS is a revelation of the disveries and methods of L. J. Farmer, the famous expert. In owing baselons fall strawberries almost until snow files. How d when to plant, how to fertilize, how to remove the blossooms, w to get three crops in two years, etc.

GARDEN GOLD shows how to make your backyard supply fresh vegetables and froit, how to cut down your grocery bills, keep a better table, and get cash for your surplus. How to plant, cultivate, harvest and market.

DUCK DOLLARS tells how the great Weber duck-farm near Boston makes overy year 50 cents each on 40,000 duck-lings. Tells why ducks pay them better than chickens, and just HOW they do everything.

TURKEY SECRETS discloses fully the methods of Horace Vose, the famous Rhode Island "urkey-man," who aup-plies the White House Thanksgiving turkeys. It tells how to mate, to set eggs, to hatch, to feed and care for the young to pre-vent sickness, to fatten, and how to make a turkey-ranch PAY.

The MILLION EGG-FARM gives the methods by which J. M. Poster made over $18,000 a year, mainly from eggs. All chicken-raisers should learn about the "Rancocas Unit," and how Poster FEEDS hens to produce such quantities of eggs, especially in winter.

DRESSMAKING SELF-TAUGHT shows how any intelligent woman can design and make her own clothes, in the height of fashion. The author has done it since she was a girl. She now has a successful dressmaking establishment and a school of dressmaking Illustrated with diagrams.

SHALL I FARM? is a clear, impartial statement of both advantages and drawbacks of farming, to help three who have to decide this important question. It warms you of dangers, swindles, and mistakes, tells how to start, equipment needed, its cost, chances of success, how to get government aid, etc.

These booklets are 6 a 9 inches, and profusely illustrated.

Farm Journal FOUR full years, both for $1.00 The Booklets are NOT sold separately only with Farm Journal. Be sure to say WHICH booklet you want.

| What Our Folks Say About F. J.

"I have had more help, encouragement and enjoy-ment out of it in one year than I did out of my other papers in ten years," says C. M. Persons,

" It is a queer little paper. I have sometimes read it through and thought I was done with it, then pick it up again and find something new to interest me," says Alired Krogh. it th

"Farm Journal is like a bit of sunshine in our home. It is making a better class of people out of farmers. It was first sent me as a Christmas present, and I think it the choicest present I ever received," says P. R. LeValley.

"We have read your dear little paper for nearly 40 years. Now we don't live on the farm any more, yet 1 still have a hankering for the old paper. I feel that I belong to the family, and every page is as dear and familiar as the faces of old friends," says Mrs. E. W. Edwards.

"I fear I neglect my business to read it. I wish it could be in the hands of every farmer in Virginia," says W. S. Cline.

"I live in a town where the yard is only 15 x 18 feet, says Miss Sara ald not do without the Farm Journal,"

"I get lots of books and papers, and put them aside for future reading. The only paper I seem to have in my handa all the time is Farm Journal. I can't finish reading it. Can't you make it less interesting, so I can have a chance at my other papers?" writes John Swail.

"If I am lonesome, down-hearted, or tired, I go to Farm Journal for comfort, next to the lible,

"Farm Journal has a cheerful vein running through it that makes it a splendid cure for the "blues." When coming home tired in mind and body. I sit down and read it, nr.1 it seems to give me new inspiration for life," writes G. E. Halderman.

"Duck Dollars is the best book I ever had on duck-mising," says F. M. Warneck.

"If your other booklets contain as much valuable information as the Egg-Book, I would consider them cheap at double the price," says P. W. Mansfield.

"I think your Egg-Book is a wonder," says Shirey. C. P

"The Farm Journal beats them all. Every issue has reminders and ideas worth a year's subscription," writes T. H. Potter.

"One year ago I took another agricultural paper, and it took a whole column to tell what Farm Journal tells in one paragraph," says N. M. Gladwin.

"It ought to be in every home where there is a chick, a child, a cow, a cherry, or a cucumber," says L D. Bordus.
