rat the rate of one cent per word for each parate insertion. When sending us adversements to be printed in this column, cash stamps must accompany the order.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE, EGGS-ROSE COMB Brown Leghorn; Columbian Wyandottes, 75c per setting. Al Wyandotte rooster. Arch Also one 30t4.

FOR SALE; A LOT OF YOUNG pigs, part O. I. C., also 3 thoroughbred from registered stock, two sows, and one boar, 'Phone or write Wm. Everly, Lakeville, Pa. 29t4

$10.00. Only two left. Co Closing M.c-

SPRAY YOUR FRUIT TREES NOW with "Pomona Brand" Lime Sulfur solution made by Barium Products Co., Scranton, Pa. Sold by Murray Company, Honesdale, 28t6

MISCELLANEOUS.

WANTED-A GIRL FOR GENER-Court street, Honesdale.

FOR RENT-TO SELECT ants, two new 5-room apartments, modern, sanitary plumbing, gas and electric lights, hot water, large por-Price $16.00 and $18.00. Schoonover Apartment, Corner Court and Eleventh streets.

WANTED-GIRL FOR GENERAL house work. Apply Heumann ho-

DR. B. GOLDEN, OPTOMETRIST and Optician, will be a profession-al caller at the Allen House, Honesdale, on Monday and Tuesday, April 7th and 8th, and at Park View Hotel, Hawley, on Wednesday, April 9th. He will bring along his full equipment and be prepared to properly care for all cases of defective vision.

SKATING RINK FOR RENT FOR balls, parties, bazaars, fairs, etc. See N. B. Spencer, Manager,

FOR RENT-BUILDING SUITABLE for cut glass factory, size 32x57 feet; two stories; water and gasoline power: electric lights; steam heat, all installed, ready to start. & S., and N. Y. R. R. facilities near factory. Will rent cheap. Can have Population of town, 800. Address Charles E. Brand, Ralston,

You will soon need old newspapers to place under your carpets.

Only 5c per bundle, enough for a room.

LOCAL NEWS

The smell of burning rubbish and leaves is in the air. have begun to clean up the park. A marriage license was issued on Tuesday to Fred Coe and Laura Ralston, both of Tyler Hill. -The engagement of Miss Frances Kellam of Paupack, Pike city, and Clinton D. Gilpin, of Newfoundland, Wayne county, has been an-entertain at 500 this afternoon (Thursday) in honor of Mrs. John Gale and Miss Blakeslee Gale, of Binghamton, N. Y.

-Mrs. William Perry, aged 74 day afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. In-terment was made in the Canaan —To-day is known as W. C. T. U. day in Wilkes-Barre at the Billy Sunday tabernacle. This afternoon day in Wilkes-Barre at the Billy Sunday tabernacle. This afternoon members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Bradford, Columbia, Luzerne, Susquehanna, Lackawanna, Wyoming and Wayne counties will attend. Four thousand seats have been set aside for the W. C. T. U. societies.

The funeral of the late August Bartholemus was held from St. John's Lutheran church Wednes-day afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The funeral was largely at ended and the members of Protection Engine Co. No. 3 attended in a body in full uniform. Interment was made in the German Lutheran cemetery. The burial was in charge of the Oslek Tribe of Red Men and was also attended by a large number of Eagles.

-When the electric lights in Lake Como failed to operate the other hight an investigation resulted in the finding of a seven-foot eel which had become wedged in the water shed and could not free itself. The water shed is used to operate the genera-It was necessary to take the wheel apart in order to remove the eel and it was several days before the plant was in running order. Cloy-ton Decker, manager of the Lake Como Electric Light company, was unable at first to locate the difficulty. At the present time the lights are in perfect running order.

National Guard of Pennsylvania. The Nathan Buller, who is in the city, and he and the local gentlemen who are entertaining the guard officers, went to view the old Niagara Saturday afto view the old Niagara Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, using the fish commissioners' boat, Commodore Perry, in which to make the trip. At noon Mayor Stern entertained at a luncheon in the Eric club. Those present were General Logan, Major Miller, Major Farmsworth, Fish Commissioner Buller, Col. Connell, of Gov. Tener's staff; Lieut. Mizener, Joseph A. Stern and H. T. Leasure.

Mrs. Rowland MacClelland and Mrs. Edward Ebelheer, of Brooklyn, N. Y. He is also survived by four sisters, Mrs. Joseph Rickert and Mrs. Jacob Mohr, who live on the old homestead near Cajaw pond; Mrs. Julia Whitefield of Towanda; Mrs. Michael Rickert, of Brooklyn. Interment was made in the German Catholic cemetery.

—Mrs. Henry Salzman, of Cherry street, moved her household goods to Scranton on Wednesday. She is to Scranton on Wednesday. going to live with her daughter who resides there.

William F. Wood, township, accompanied George Do-ney to Rittersville on Wednesday. Wood took Mr. Doney free of charge, thereby saving any expense upon the part of the township.

-Mr. J. L. Hoyt, who was to have given an exhibition of typewriting in the auditorium of the High school Wednesday afternoon, failed to show up and consequently the demonstration had to be indefinately postponed.

-The members of St. John's Gulld and Young People's Society of mobiles and the 49,000 mark was the Lutheran church tendered a repassed last week. The total for 1912 $25.00 VACUUM CLEANER FOR ception to the new members of both societies in the church parlors last

> The recent high water removed automobile licenses. a portion of Park Lake dam. At the special meeting of the borough council last Tuesday evening the board authorized its repair at once. New lumber has been ordered and work of rebuilding will commence soon.

—Thursday and Friday of this week, W. H. Bullock gave an orchard demonstration at S. W. mons' at Greentown. Instruction was given in spraying and pruning. A demonstration will be given in the orchard of B. F. Box, Gravity, on Saturday.

-A new twenty-ton cracked stone bin with double the capacity of the old one has been added to the road equipment of Texas township by su-George Erk, Ray Brown and L. Weidner at a cost of $475. That township now has one of the best road building equipments in this part of the state.

-On Wednesday evening one of the largest forest fires that has occurred in the neighborhood of Callicoon started on the mountain west of that village and the whole country for miles around in every direction was lighted by the blaze. took a large number of men several hours to bring it under control.

-Pennsylvania's season for wild ducks opened yesterday, April 10th, and from reports received at the ofice of the State Game Commission the sport has been excellent largely due to the fact that the mild winter kept the birds in this State a considerable part of the time they ordinarlly spent in the Southern waters.

—At a meeting of Sunday school workers of the Methodist church year: W. W. Baker, superintendent; M. E. Simons, first assistant; Louis celebrated in this manner. Partridge, second assistant; Ray Dibble, secretary; assistant, Sumner Crossley; treasurer, Henry Dexter; librarian, Elwin Butler; assis Clarence Callaway; chorister, assistant Hazen, and Bessie Brown planist.

-The ladies of the Whatsoever Circle of the M. E. church are planing to load a car with newspapers, magazines and old books on April All members and friends of the Mills. No matter how small, every pound counts. A wagon will call and collect if notice is left with Mrs. C. F. Bullock, Mrs. Fred Keen or Mrs. The money realized Frank Varcoe. from the sale will be applied on the church debt.

-Upon orders from the court of Susquehanna county, District Attorney Ferguson has drawn up lists of men of known intemperate habits and these lists have been posted in every saloon and drug store in Susquehanna. Lanesboro and Oakland. London Liverson Parks and many quehanna, Lanesboro and Oakland. There are forty-nine names on the list, and liquor dealers are forbidden to sell to any of the men whose names have been posted. It is stated that similar proceedings will be takyears, died at her home in Pink on saturday. The funeral was held saturday. The funeral was held part of the county in some sections, part of the county in some sections, speakeasies and wagons peddling liq-uor have been doing considerable business, and the strong arm of the law is to be invoked to put them out

-The State Department of Agriculture, State Dairy and Food Divis-ion and the State Grange have joined forces in behalf of the Endsley bill now pending in the Legislature to define a standard of color for oleomargarine, and numerous petitions will be sent to the desk of Governor John K. Tener by the subordinate granges asking that his influence be given as far as consistent to secure the passage of the bill and its approval. A circular letter has been sent out signed by Secretary of Agriculture N. B. Critchfield, Dairy and Food Commissioner James Foust and William T. Creasy, master, and Jerome T. Allman, secretary of the State Grange, asking the officers of each grange to work for the passage of the bill and to petition the Governor and Legis-This sets forth that the department is more or less hampered by lack of present statutes to define clearly the degree of yellow color, the presence of which shall be deemed to bring oleomargarine into re-semblance of yellow butter. The Endsley bill 'is endorsed in strong terms.

-The funeral of the late John Baker, who died at his home in Brooklyn, Sunday, was held from St. Mary Magdalen's church Wednesday morning at ten o'clock. The re-mains arrived in Honesdale Tuesday and were taken to the Hessling un-Nathan R. Buller, fish commis-ner of Pleasant Mount, was in were Lawrence Weniger, John Theo-—Nathan R. Buller, is a commissioner of Pleasant Mount, was in Erie, Pa., recently, says the Erie bald, F. X. Soete, Lawrence Weidner, and Jacob Beck. Mr. Baker was there attended the final inspection of the camp site for the Second Brigade, jaw pond about sixty years ago and jaw pond about sixty years ago and was a son of the late Joseph Baker. Times has the following to say: The Besides his wife, Mary, who was a military men met Fish Commissioner sister of George and John Rickert, of this place, he is survived by two sons and four daughters, Bernard, Frank and Miss Stella, at home; Mrs. Rowland MacClelland and Mrs.

-Mrs. Fred sister, Mrs. Wm. F. Suydam, of Haw-ley, will entertain at cards at the home of the former on Main street Friday afternoon.

-Mrs. Augusta Meyer, of Seely ville, administratrix of the estate of George Meyer, deceased, through her attorneys, Mumford & Mumford, sold the hotel property in Seelyville Honesdale, at Orphans' Court sale at the court house this morning to Herman Myers of Honesdale for $200.

-The coming mild weather has caused a big increase in the number of applications for licensing of autowas 59,365 and it is expected to pass this figure before June 30th Tuesday evening. A very pleasant reached. The income of the depart-social time was had. ment has passed the $550,000 from

> -William Farrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Farrell, died at his home in Tanners Falls on Monday. He died after a short illness at the age of 28 years. He is survived by He is survived by his parents, one brother and two sisters, Margaret and Frank at home and Mrs. Paynter of Tanners Falls. The funeral was held Thursday morning at the Hilltop church and interment was made at that place.

-Menner & Co. have installed two standard electric cluster lamps in front of their store on Main street. The lamps cast a soft white light and add greatly to the appearance of the surroundings. Menner & Co. have the honor of securing the first street lighting standard lamps. Other stores are in line for gas and elec-tric lamps. They are furnished by the Consolidated Light Company.

-At the reception to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Long Ago and their friends at the Presbyterian Chapel next Thursday evening, April 17th, the Boys' Orchestra in costume will render old time music appropriate to the occasion. There will also be to the occasion. songs of Old Lang Syne, Buttermilk, Hasty Pudding and Milk, Doughnuts and coffee will be served. sion 25 cents. A cordial i be served. Admis-A cordial invitation is extended to all,

-At St. John's R. C. church Monday morning, April 7, requiem high mass was celebrated for the happy repose of the soul of Father Doherty a former pastor of St. John's church. A great many of the older members of the parish who knew and loved Father Doherty received holy church munion at that mass. There was a Wednesday night the following of-ficers were elected for the coming will be an annual mass and each year the seventh day of April will be

-The annual business meeting of the Honesdale Baptist church held the land also that produced the exon Monday evening last the follow-pression, "Pike's Peak, or bust!" on Monday evening last the following officers were elected: Trustees, F. H. Trask, J. E. Cook, George Hessler, Walter B. Kimble, George Ross; deacon, Walter B. Kimble; clerk, George P. Ross; treasurer, F H. Trask; organist, Gladys Mantle; secretary, financial Miss The reports of the treasurcircle are asked to contribute to the ers of the various societies show the church to be in a very good financial condition in comparison with former years.

-Miss Mollie A. Parker, of Paterson, N. J., who has been a guest of olution, a Chapter of which has Thursday morning. On April 19 she will sail from New York with her London, Liverpool, Paris and many other foreign cities will be visited before homeward bound, which will be in about two months. zen wishes Miss Parker and her relatives bon voyage.

-O. M. Baker, of Siko, while reevening at about 8 o'clock, met with an accident. He drove off a bank on Smith Road about 20 feet high and landed in the bed of a brook. The horses were fastened under the ton-gue, and the wagon turned bottom side up. A number from Dyberry went to his assistance. It was found that the flesh was torn loose from Mr. Baker's hip bone and there was a deep gash on his forehead. Dr. Corson, of Rileyvile, was called, who sewed up the gash on his forehead. The next morning Mr. Baker was feeling quite sore and lame. The horses, however, were not hurt. the time of the accident there was a calf in the wagon, and it thrown to the bottom of the stream and when picked up it was found that it had received no injuries.

Personal Items

Mildred Varcoe is confined to her home with tonsilitis.

Miss Anna Gilroy of Pittston, is spending a few days in Honesdale. Miss Mary Jones went to Wilkes-Barre Tuesday where she heard "Billy" Sunday preach. H. P. Woodward, editor of the Peckville Journal, was a caller in Honesdale on Tuesday afternoon.

George Kohlman, proprietor of the Kohlman House, of Hawley, was greeting friends on the streets of Honesdale Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Irvin S. White and daughter, Margaret, of Rock Island, Ill., are guests of the former's father, Gilbert White, on East street.

John Hoffern, who is connected with the circulation department of the Scranton Tribune-Republican and Truth, was in town Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Alfast return-preliminary work connected with the proposed state road which will be built through Honesdale.

Personal Pertinent

N. P. Dennis, of Damascus township, was in Honesdale on Wednesday of this week shaking hands with his many friends. Mr. Dennis is a prosperous farmer, and no one who saw him for the first time would ever suspect that he is seventy years old, he looks so much younger than that, raises fine apples on his farm, and has produced specimens of the Wolf River variety that measured a trifle more than fourteen inches in circumference, and that is some apple, even if it is grown right here the best apple section of the Mr. Dennis has a very vivid world. recollection of the big snow storm of 1857. He lived at that time on the Blandin flats, up where the T. B. Clark glass cutting shop is now located. It began to snow on April 19th and continued to snow on that and the following day until beautiful" measured three fe measured three feet in depth. That was the year following the election of James Buchanan, the only President of the United States Pennsylvania has ever furnished. Mr. Dennis recalled the election because he is a Democrat, and quite naturally keeps tab on such infrequent events as the election of Democratic Presidents of the United States. The writer of this remembers the Buchanan election He was about three and a-half years old at the time, and there was Democratic mass meeting in Hones Teams carried loads of people into town from all parts of the coun-There were flags, music, excited men, cheering, and a big ox roast on Honesdale's public square. As the Salem teams drove past our house the writer was perched on a chair with a flag in his hands, and, under instructions he cheered for Buchan-The only regrettable incident is this: Some big-hearted man from Salem wanted the lad to go out to the fence, shake hands and get a new silwas afraid that man had evil designs on him—wanted to put him in big wagon and carry him off.

ed the quarter, and has always regretted it. Mr. and Mrs. Dennis expect to start for Boulder, Colorado, about the 1st of May to make quite an extended visit. They will stop off at Buffalo, where they will visit friends. The Citizen is glad to join joyable visit with their friends out in the land of Rocky Ford melons, Mrs.

There is an old and trite saying that seems to be based on truth. This is it: "Good things come slow." The writer hereof believes the say ing is true, anyway, for none of the "good things" ever came to him on the wings of the morning, or were handed out to him on a courier mounted on a fleet-footed steed. This saying may as well be passed over the new patriotic organization, the Daughters of the American Revrelatives in Honesdale for the past cently been started in Honesdale few months, left for her home on We do hope that the public will stand back of the Daughters lend them every assistance possible. Theirs is a splendid work, and it is too bad that years ago more effort was not made along the lines the Daughters will pursue. It will not be long ere the last person who ever saw one who lived in Revolutionary days will have died. Historical research quite largely ends with the grave. Wayne county had a part in the Revolutionary war. the great war for Independence lived on our hills and in our valleys. Their bodies were committed to the Surely the dust in our cemeteries. Daughters have a patriotic work, a useful work and a work of love before them. Their research will bring to light much that is of interest to Wayne Counteans; and what is thus uncovered will be preserved for the generations that are yet to come, who will appreciate this work which, although slow in coming, will, un-doubtedly, be rich in results. This doubtedly, be rich in results. This paper will be only too glad to open its columns to exploit the work of the Honesdale Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

> It is with much regret, that the writer learns of the quite serious illness of W. L. Ferguson, who, at the ripe age of 94 has been so active in both mind and body. guson has done much good work in this his native county. Especially it is to be hoped that his illness will speedily pass away as the warm days of garden planting draw on. It would seem that the whole nation waking up on the corn question. Wayne County is getting awake, too. and along the line of corn Mr. Ferguson has been in advance of his day and generation, for his experiments have been remarkable in their re-sults. First he began developing a many-rowed corn, but when the cob got so large that it wouldn't go through his corn sheller he quit on that line and reversed his experi-He reasoned that he wanted to raise CORN, not cobs, and has succeeded in producing a long ear, containing eight rows, with kernels large and cob so small that it isn't worth mentioning. Now that a corn contest is on in Old Wayne, Mr. Ferof its most enthusiastic supporters. and a supporter along decidedly intelligent lines, his knowledge having been acquired from practical ex-

CHURCH NOTES.

The special music in the M. E. states. They left last December and started their return trip on Easter Sunday.

State Highway Engineer Riegel of Scranton, was a caller in Honesdale on Wednesday in the interest of the preliminary work connected with the

See the great vaudeville acts at the last of this week.

RUSSELL-CROSTHWAIT

One of the most notable social events of the season occurred at high noon Wednesday, April 9, in Grace Episcopal church, when Marietta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Z. Russell, and Bruce La Teer Crosthwait, of Bloomington, Ill., were united in marriage by Rev. James P. Ware, of Drifton, assisted by Rev. A. L. Whittaker, rector of Grace church.

The bride was attended by her sters, Miss Lucy Russell, and Mrs. Clinton I. Dow, nee Sophia Russell, of Manchester, N. H., as maid and matron of honor, respectively. John E. Espey, of Bloomington, Ill., was best man. The ushers were Zenas H. Russell, Clinton I. Dow, both of Russell and H. R. Menner of Honesdale.

The bride was charmingly attired in a white Princess lace gown draped over white satin, and carried lilies of the valley. wore pink messaline gowns trimmed with white shadow lace and carried pink roses. The wedding marches were play-The wedding marches were play-ed by Miss Mabel Broad, organist of to let," you inquire. "Just Grace church.

Decorations in the church George house were made by R. Clarke, florist, of Scranton. A reception at the Russell house followed the wedding. Mrs. Martin Hochreiter, of Wilkes-Barre, cater-The presents were beautiful and costly and represented exquisite de- place.

Mrs. Crosthwait is universally liked, is gracious in her manners and a favorite among young friends. Those to attend the nuptial event from away were: L. M. Crosthwait, father of the bridegroom, of Bloomington, Ill., (Mrs. Crosthwait, owing to illness, was unable to be present) Mr. and Mrs. Clinton I. Dow. Mrs. Perry Dow, Mr. and Mrs. Zenas ver quarter of a dollar, but the lad Russell and Mrs. Harry E. Parker, was afraid that man had evil de- all of Manchester, N. H.; Mrs. Edmund Bowen, of Rochester, N. Y.; Mrs. John Gale and daughter, Miss something, and he wouldn't go out to Blakeslee Gale, of Binghamton, N. the fence. And in that way he miss-Y.; Miss Frances DeWitt, of Scranton; P. C. Lounsberry, of New York City, former governor of Connecti-cut; John E. Espey, Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. S. S. DeWitt, Scranton; Mrs. Freeling Tufts, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Buffalo, where they will visit friends. The Citizen is glad to join the hosts of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis in wishes for a safe trip, to and from Colorado, and a most enjoyable visit with their friends.

Buffalo, where they will visit Y.; Miss Marion Howarts, Scranton; pecially when the desirable houses in the visit N. Y.; Miss Clara B. Pellett, waverly, Pa.; Rev. and Mrs. James ern improvements command as high poyable visit with their friends. Miss Delphine Murray, Brooklyn, N. P. Ware, Drifton, Pa.; Mrs. Arthur a rent as almost do those with im-Hull, Elizabeth, N. J., and Mr. and provements. Within a year rents in Farrington Suydam, of Hawley, Pa.

Death of William Henry Hull.

On Tuesday night, April 8, occur red the death of William H. Hull, who lived at No. 45 Clark avenue, Carbondale, at the age of 73 y Mr. Hull was born in Hawley 1840, but lived almost all his life in Carbondale. Besides his wife, he is survived by three sons, Charles, William and Winans; one sister, Mrs. Henry Gardner of Scranton, and two brothers, Winans of Montana and Robert of Carbondale.

ONE OF SPRING'S DELIGHTS.

Ever go househunting? If you the delights of married life. Imag-ine yourself walking up and down town, on cross streets and perchance out of town for an available place to live. Just place yourself in front rapping at the door of a property in your imagination see children playing about the premises when—the door opens and you are standing face to face with the head of the house, but instead or man it happens to be a woman. You and your little harmless baby boy or girl is standing close to your side. The child does not say anything, but is care fully taking in the situation in Its Suddenly there innocent way. something said: "What is it mothpeeps the little one, us? Why not moth take us? Why not mother?" other heart appealing and pitiful remarks come from the lips of your child. "No children or dogs can occupy these rooms," came the harsh words. You bite your lips and The maid and matron of honor turning upon your heel go to another er place you have seen advertised for rent. You push the button or for rent. for rent. You push the cocker. The rap the huge brass knocker. The rap the door, "Rooms you inquire. ment, please." The landlord a pears. "You got any children?" The landlord pears. said in a gruff voice. "Y one," you reply. "Can't one," you reply. "Can't allow him around here; he will ruin the house and besides it grates upon my nerves. No, madame, I won't stand for them!"

Again discouraged to try another This time is at an apartsigns in Tiffany's and Gorman's re-productions. ment house. In answer to productions. You make inquiry as to s. "Any children?" "Yes, rooms. one," you timidly reply. "No chil-dren come into this house." "Well," you reply, "there is only one thing to do and that is to kill them off." "My! That will never do," replies the elderly lady, throwing up her hands in horror.

You are half-inclined to try in Honesdale what one lady did. had five children, and after mak-ing several unsuccessful attempts in househunting sent her maid and children to the nearest cemetery, telling them to stay there until she came for them. The women had no trouble to find a house and when the arose question of children promptly answered that she had five, but all were in the cemetery.

Househunting is perplexing, town have advanced several dollars upon the month, making the price almost prohibitive for the laboring man to pay.

CHURCH NOTES.

Grace Episcopal church, Sunday, April 13: Services at 10:30 a. m. and 30 p. m.; Sunday school at 12 M. The Parish Aid society of Grace church will meet with Mrs. O. Rowland at her home on Park street, Friday afternoon.

Rev. A. L. Whittaker will hold service in White Mills Sunday, Apr. 13, at 3:15 p. m.

LYRIC Thursday, Friday & Saturday, April 10, 11, & 12 Matinee, Saturday 2:30.

2 Performances on Saturday Night 2

Jos. Eckl's Presents 5 big all star feature vaudeville acts with four reels of MOTION PICTURES.

WILSON and RICH Honesdale's Favorites. Black Face Comedians, Singers and Dancers.

> THE GREAT ROMAINE World's Master Musician,

ANDY AMANN & FRANCES HARTLEY

In Their Screaming Comedy Sketch "The German Professor.

"SAULPAUGH" America's Greatest Comedy Clown Acrobat. One Big Laugh.

Watch the Tables.

CHAS. KELLY & MARIE ADAMS

Refined Irish Comedy Sketch Artists. Plenty of Singing and Dancing.

Prices: Children 15c; Adults 25c; Matinee 10 and 15c.

It's the Seeds You Sow

You Read Between the Lines You Will See

as each year rolls around, we are gratified by the that merit sometimes wins when in competion

increased demand of our Reliable Garden Seeds

with inferior though extensively advertised

These seeds are so superior, that those Who use them once, want them always.

articles.

HENRY FREUND