LOCAL NEWS

Decorate your respective places of business Wednesday in appreciation of the new Gurney Electric Elevator plant.

The school board for the borough of Honesdale held their regular meeting in the high school building Thursday evening. Routine business was transacted and bills paid. The board is considering taking up agricultural work in the schools but no definite plans have been made.

William A. Brady's production of "Bought and Paid For" by Geo. Broadhurst, will appear at the Lyric tonight. This play was the one big hit in all of last year's crop of new plays in New York, and ran for five hundred performances at William A. Brady's cozy Playhouse in 48th street. At the Lyric tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. John Baird, daughter Miss Abigail and son, Francis of East Honesdale, left Monday afternoon for Suffern, N. Y., to attend the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Baird's son, William J. Baird, to Miss Theresa G. Harrington, which will take place Wednesday afternoon, April 23rd, in the Sacred Heart church of that place.

Mrs. Charles T. Bentley was at home on Saturday afternoon to her neighborhood friends of many years' standing within the radius of a block from their former residence. The new home, "Crest o' t' Hill," with its delightful vistas and architecture; and its artistic finishings, furnishing and coloring was thoroughly inspected by the guests thro' Mrs. Bentley's kindness. Refreshments were served and a charming afternoon spent.

The last will and testament of Charles McVey, late of Preston township, was admitted to probate Thursday afternoon. He left to his wife, Margaret McVey, whole support of farm with part of house for her own use during her natural life. One year after his decease he asked to have paid to his son James, $5, and to his daughter, Ellen, $10. To his daughter Julia, $400; to his daughter, Agnes, all the residue of estate real and personal. The latter to pay to his granddaughter, $20, when she becomes 21 years of age. Mary Agnes was named as executrix.

Mr. and Mrs. Long Ago delightfully entertained Mr. and Mrs. Today and the Misses Today at the chapel of the Presbyterian church Thursday evening of last week. There was a good attendance and a good time was had by all who attended. The costumes of the ladies and gentlemen representing characters and styles of long ago, were exceedingly well done and very becoming. A fine lunch was served. Dorin's Boy Orchestra furnished music and an interesting entertainment was gotten up for the occasion by the ladies of the church. The affair was in charge of the members of the Titus Mission band.

The New York papers of Friday contained an article concerning the will of the late George Henry Hall, an artist, who died in that city in February, and who was one of the oldest artists in the Academy of Design, in New York. Under the will he bequeathed all of his real estate holdings in Honesdale to Miss Jennie A. Browncomb, who is also an artist in New York, and well known in Honesdale where she had lived frequently and done much of her work. Miss Browncomb is a landscape painter of much renown and has a studio on Fifth Avenue, New York city. Concerning the property holdings here, however, there seems to be some doubt, for a record of any property, either in Honesdale or Wayne county, could be found in the name of the dead artist. Register and Recorder W. B. Osher received a communication from New York in regard to the search, but after a thorough search through the records in the suits, he was unable to find it.

Charles T. Bentley moved his family and household effects into his new home on Park street last Thursday.

A marriage license has been issued to Samuel Ferris, of Maplewood, and Miss Golda Jagers, of Varden.

The Five Hundred club met at the home of Miss Amy Corey on Thursday evening. Delightful refreshments were served.

The marriage of Julius A. Moll and Miss Rosella Schilling, both of Honesdale, will take place Wednesday morning at St. Mary Magdalen's church.

E. A. Lindsay has sold his property on East street to George Spettigue. The deal was consummated last Friday and possession will be given Mr. Spettigue May 1st. This property was listed with the Buy-U-A-Home Realty Co.

Kreitner Bros. started remodeling the Riley building on lower Main street, Monday. Kreitner Bros. now have 18 carpenters in their employ in Honesdale. This is a good indication of the town's prosperity.

Charles T. and B. H. Bentley have sold their property on Court street, consisting of a plot of ground and a twelve-room house, to Frank Erk, possession to be given the first of the month. Consideration private.

Jenkins' Boy Band has been engaged to render patriotic music in Narrowsburg, N. Y., on July 4. Narrowsburg is planning on having a big celebration on that day in memory of the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

The entertainment committee of the Honesdale Maennerchor gave a social and dance in Maennerchor Hall on Seventh street Friday evening. A large number of guests besides the members of the Honesdale order were in attendance.

William Grones, one of Sheriff Kimble's regular boarders, was given a hearing Thursday afternoon on the charge of drunkenness before "Squire Ham. He entered a plea of not guilty. A commission will probably be appointed to look into his sanity.

B. City, P. T. Griffin, F. W. Powell, E. W. Burns and L. B. Nielsen. A delightful banquet was served to the guests.

Attorney M. J. Hanlan and Prothonotary W. J. Barnes attended the flag raising at the St. Tammany school, in Damascus township on Friday. Mr. Hanlan was the principal speaker of the day and Mr. Barnes also gave a short talk. Appropriate exercises were held under the direction of the teacher, Miss Sadie Welsh. The scholars presented the teacher with a fine music cabinet.

The Modern Woodmen of America held a social in their rooms in the I. O. O. F. hall Friday evening. Refreshments and an entertainment was the order of the evening. One minute talks were given by several of the members. Solos were rendered by Mrs. James Miller, E. R. Callaway, Robert Lees, and R. Rubin. Miss Walters presided at the piano. An instrumental duet given by Mrs. James Miller and Mrs. N. J. Spencer was well received.

The last will and testament of Helen B. Fortnam, late of Tyler Hill, Damascus township, was admitted to probate in the office of the register of wills for Wayne county Friday. She bequeathed to Nettie W. Saxon of Bristol, Conn., $500; Cora Sears, of Honesdale, $500; Mrs. Ellery Brown, of Binghamton, N. Y., all her jewelry and clothing; to her son, Clarence D. Fortnam, she gave all other property and money in bank. Messrs. H. C. and Will Jackson were named as executors. The will was made immediately prior to Mrs. Fortnam's decease and was witnessed by C. M. Pethick and Ernest T. Oliver.

George Drake, employed in the William Smith steam saw mill at Tyler Hill, had a narrow escape from death one day last week. Drake, who is the foreman, went under the mill to put on a certain belt and his clothing caught in the machinery. He was whirled around the shafting several times and his clothes were stripped from his body and lay in fragments about the man. He was dropped to the ground when his clothes were torn from his body. Only his shoes remained on his feet. He was unconscious when found by a fellow workman and was taken to his home where Dr. McCrea, of Cochection, N. Y., came and took care of him. He sustained two broken ribs and several bad bruises.

There is another big treat in store for the lovers of good, clean vaudeville at the Lyric on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, including a matinee on Saturday, Apr. 24, 25 and 26th. Joe Eckle will return to Honesdale with five new big acts direct from some of the leading vaudeville theatres in New York City. This bill will no doubt excel all the others that Mr. Eckle has so far offered here. Paul Frederic and Mlle. Venita, head the program. They have just closed a long engagement at the Hippodrome, New York. They are marvellous gymnastic equilibrist. Bob Dale, America's leading comedy musical comedian, will make you laugh some. Sheffield & Mitchell, polite colored entertainers, singers and dancers, introduce some very good comedy in their act. Al. Bartell, the renowned ventriloquist, will no doubt captivate all by his very clever work. The extra added attraction will be Nan and Babe Evans, in "The Suffragette and the Child," featuring Babe Evans, the late child star of the Biograph; Kalem and Imp moving picture companies. Evening, 7 to 10 o'clock. Saturday matinee at 2:30.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hiller, a daughter, on Saturday.

Wednesday is designated as boosting day in Honesdale. Unfurl the American flag to the breeze in honor of Honesdale's new industry.

George Spry, aged fifty years, of Beachlake, was badly injured on Thursday afternoon while engaged at work in a saw mill at that place, owned by W. J. Barnes, of Honesdale. Mr. Spry works in the planing department and in attempting to force a piece of lumber over the knives, the board was forced back against his leg, breaking the bone.

William R. Haupt, of 109 Ninth street, Juniata, a brakeman in the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad company, while going east with his train Thursday night about 11 o'clock was standing on the top of a box car passing through Gallitzin, where the wind was blowing a terrific gale. It got under the roof of the car, blowing it off onto the right of way, taking Haupt with it. The train was stopped, and Haupt picked up and taken to the Altoona hospital. It was discovered that he had bruises and his left shoulder was badly wrenched. His condition is not serious.

"We are reliably informed," says the Hawley Times, "that the demand of the committee of the A. F. A. policyholders on the former officers of the organization has been submitted to and accepted by the Commissioner of Insurance and the Attorney General of this state. In addition to the sum of $20,000 with interest, it is demanded that the parties in control of the funds at the time of the transfer to the Columbian Protective Association, shall pay the actual expenses of the suit in equity brought by the policyholders committee through their attorney, P. H. Hoff, which amounts to $250, together with an attorney fee of $500 which is to be paid to P. H. Hoff, Esq. The demands of the policyholders' committee were in the hands of the state authorities for several weeks for consideration before being finally accepted. While this favorable action by the Insurance Department and the Attorney General does not impose upon the former officers of the A. F. A. an enforced obligation to meet the demands made, it does indicate that the case has been thoroughly reviewed by the departments of the commonwealth, and that in the opinion of the officials the demands are justified."

Ed. Seeley is recovering from an attack of appendicitis.

Miss Anna Welsh, of Canaan, spent Saturday and Sunday in town.

Mrs. William Brown, of East Honesdale, was a Sunday caller in Carbondale.

W. M. Cummsky was a business caller in New York the latter part of last week.

A CARD.

To the Public: When it was suggested that I take the management of the North of Bay Counties Exhibit Cars from California, I answered I WOULD ON CERTAIN CONDITIONS; namely, that they furnish the FINEST EXHIBIT CARS ever sent out by any other section before, with its own electric light plant, so we could exhibit evenings as well as in the daytime, and gather their WONDERFUL PRODUCTS from their orchards, vineyards and ranches, put up by experts, so it would be a "WONDER" itself, and secure a Marine Museum and Curiosities from ALL OVER THE WORLD, so the OLD and YOUNG, RICH and POOR, EDUCATED and ILLITERATE could visit and spend hours profitably.

They have done so, and I extend an invitation to all, knowing that we have the most original, new and UP-TO-DATE EXHIBIT ever brought to your city, and a perfect system of convincing the public of the fact that our five counties contain more inducements for the Homeseeker and the Tourist looking for a perfect climate and beautiful scenery. COME AND SEE FOR YOURSELF what we are doing.

We make a small charge of 25 cents for admission, to help defray expenses and enable us to give valuable souvenirs suggestive of California—Something all will keep to remember us by.

Yours very respectfully, M. LEAK, Manager North of Bay Counties Exhibit Cars.

WE DO NOT SELL LAND, but we want to interest you in our section of the Golden State.

Will Exhibit at Honesdale May 5, 6 and 7, 8:30 a. m. to 9:30 p. m. Admission, adults 25c; children, under 15 years, 15 cents.

Miss Rose Rainey, of the Young Women's Christian Temperance Association, Scranton, was a week-end guest of Miss Nellie G. Kimble.

Miss Evelyn Matthews, of Scranton, and Miss Emma Bone, of Dunmore, were guests Saturday and Sunday of the latter's sister, Mrs. E. B. Callaway, on East street.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Ham and District Attorney M. E. Simons attended the meeting of the Indian Orchard Grange Friday evening. A fine entertainment and banquet was enjoyed.

Joseph K. Slocum, of Paupack, was in Honesdale Saturday. Mr. Slocum has purchased a Reo touring car of E. W. Gammell and it is now unnecessary to state that he will be a firm advocate of good roads.

Dr. Alexander H. Dean and wife, of Wilkes-Barre, were in town a few days last week and registered at the Allen House. Dr. Dean is considering Honesdale as his future place of residence and if suitable rooms are secured he will open an office here.

Charles Sandercock, of the Wayne County Herald, was attending to business in Philadelphia and Washington, D. C., Thursday and Friday of last week. While at the capitol he had an interview with A. Mitchell Palmer, of Stroudsburg. He returned Saturday.

Mrs. John D. Weston and Weston Parker bid Miss Mollie Parker bon voyage, the latter with cousins, having sailed Saturday on a two months' tour abroad. Mrs. Weston, while in the city attended two Rubensine concerts, one having been given Saturday and the other to-day.

M. E. Shaughnessy, sewage inspector of the state health department, with headquarters at Harrisburg, was in Honesdale Friday of last week inspecting the method used here in disposing of sewage. He was not impressed with the conditions here and it is likely that the local board of health will receive orders from Harrisburg to act in the matter. A sewage disposal plant for Honesdale would be a fine thing for the town.

BRAMAN HAS GONE WEST

Braman is now in the West again. He went sooner than he calculated on going because he sold out his stock of before he had half satisfied the demands of those who wanted such superior animals.

Indeed, such a quick sale of horses, and such a bulk of horse business, was never done in Wayne County before. It was a whirl-wind sale, a record breaker.

Braman Didn't Have to Talk to sell those horses. The stock was so excellent, just as pretty as a picture printed above. In fact,

The Horses Talked

for themselves, and that is all there was to it.

Now, you were possibly disappointed at not getting one of the lot that went so fast. Don't worry. Be patient. All you have to do is to wait just a little while; and, remember,

It Will Pay You to Wait for the horses that Braman will speedily bring from Iowa will be just as fine a lot as were ever bred, and trained, and sold under a Braman guarantee.

Watch this space for further particulars. But in any and all events,

Wait For Braman!

William H. Swift, Jr., of Baltimore, Md., and Miss Katrina Swift, Baldwin, L. I., N. Y., are home on account of the illness of their father, Rev. W. H. Swift. A message from Dr. Swift's home gave out very encouraging news as to his condition prior to going to press.

Railway Men Insist That Mellen Shall Reopen Negotiations.

Boston, April 21.—The reopening of negotiations by President Mellen of the New Haven railroad alone could avert a strike of railroad telegraphers, it was said. Vice President Pierson of the railroad telegraphers had an appointment with President Mellen. The operators asserted that if this were unsuccessful in reopening the discussion there would be a strike. The organization embraces switchmen, towermen, station agents and telegraphers.

"I am to meet Mr. Mellen again tomorrow at my own selection," said Mr. Pierson. "I wish to say, before going into conference with him again, that the railroad telegraphers are very far from satisfied. The men feel they have not had a square deal. They are discontented from the extreme northern end of the Boston and Maine line clear down to the Grand Central station on the New Haven end."
