WILSON TO SEE O'GORMAN.

Will Consider Port Collectorship and May Consider Senator's Candidacies. Washington, April 28.—Evidence that President Wilson does not intend to ride roughshod over Senator James A. O'Gorman in the appointment of a collector of customs for the port of New York was furnished when it became known that the president and the New York senator are to have a conference tomorrow in regard to this matter.

Secretary McAdoo of the treasury still insists on the appointment of his candidate, Frank Lyon Polk, but the omission of the president to send the nomination of Mr. Polk to the senate has encouraged friends of Mr. O'Gorman to believe that the names of the men mentioned by him to the president as having the requisite standing and ability to fill the office of collector will receive further consideration by President Wilson before he determines definitely on a choice.

SANITY IN EXERCISE.

Exercise is something that is to be enjoyed, not taken as a duty. The business man tired out by a day's work at his desk, carries his weariness to the point of exhaustion by rushing through twenty minutes of gymnasium work, when if he had walked a few blocks to his office instead of having used the trolley car, he would be in much better health. Gymnasium work and setting-up exercises in the morning are in many cases good as stimulants, but they cannot be compared in beneficial results with a brisk walk or a game of golf, or a few minutes swim. There are few exercises that are as good as walking. One, two or three hours on Sundays and holidays spent in this way rest the nervous system and act as a splendid tonic. Walk to and from work. Walk briskly, for a brisk walk means exercise for the heart and lungs as well as for the muscles. The act of going up stairs is a vigorous exercise, especially for the heart, and when done with trunk erect, chest expanded and flexible play of the foot is excellent.

TOWNSHIP ROADS TO BE PROVIDED FOR.

Messrs. Jones and Adams Point Out What the Countrymen Need.

The House appropriations committee has referred to the subcommittee in charge of the framing of the general appropriation act, the Jones bill creating a system for township road improvement under direction of a proposed bureau of township highways, in the Highway Department. This was done for the purpose of having the committee incorporate in the bill an appropriation to care for State aid of township roads. The bill carries $3,000,000, and it is hoped to raise it by certain bills relative to corporate taxation, although just how has not been determined. The measure will be reported to the House affirmatively within a few days.

Edward E. Jones, chairman of the roads committee, of the House, author of the bill, explained its provisions, pointing out that it was modeled on plans in vogue in New York and other States and asked that the committee establish the policy of State aid for township roads in the making up of the items for the Highway Department in the general appropriation.

James L. Adams, of Allegheny, a former Senator and Representative, also spoke in favor of the measure and remarked that if the township roads could be systematically improved under State direction, they would lessen travel and consequent wear and tear on State highways.

THOUGHT FOR TO-DAY.

The ideal home life must be piloted by one with courtesy, consideration and tact ingrained in her character. Like a delicate blossom, it can not stand the withering blast of constant contradiction and argument. The successful home-maker, mother of a family, stands for tenderness, joy and love in the house, not for bickering words and nagging tones.—Scranton Times.

WONDERFUL CAPTURE.

Exciting Time in Monterey Bay—Fast Sailing—Monster Shark Captured.

Yesterday as Captain Emanuel Ferris of the fishing smack Garibaldi was about to tack and sail for port he had an adventure with a monster shark that the crew will long remember. They had turned toward shore when a commotion commenced in the water, and instantly the ropes holding the net tightened and the smack started off at a rapid gait, the waves washing over the deck. The crew were thoroughly frightened and wanted to cut loose, but Captain Ferris kept cool and ordered them to stand ready for whatever it was that had hold of them, and for half an hour no one knew what was going to happen. They could see nothing, but they were going away, and some invisible power had hold of the boat. Then a big black object came suddenly to the top, jumping clear out of the water, trying to loosen himself, then started for the shore, and soon had run into the bar, and the tide left him high and dry, and they could then see what it was that had nearly scared the life out of them, a monster shark measuring 36 feet, the largest anyone on this coast had ever seen.

Thousands have visited it, and tomorrow morning a tug belonging to the American Fishing company, owners of the smack, will tow the monster to San Francisco, intending to have it neutralized and placed on exhibition.—Monterey Herald, April 29, 1905. Now with North Bay Counties Exhibit Cars.

The Exhibit Car will arrive in Honesdale Sunday evening, May 14, and will exhibit at Union station on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, May 3, 6 and 7, from 8:30 a. m. to 9:30 p. m. Admission, adults 25c., children under 15 years, 15 cents.

"THE BOHEMIAN GIRL."

A distinguishing feature of the Aborn Opera Company's production of Balfe's masterpiece, "The Bohemian Girl," which will be offered at the Lyric on Friday, May 2, is its colossal proportions. The American stage has never before seen a production of this opera carried upon such a tremendous scale. It was the Messrs. Aborn's idea to give to American theatregoers, when they prepared this production, the greatest representation of Balfe's splendid opera ever offered, and in realizing this they have spared nothing in the way of expenditure and effect, that it has resulted, so it is reported, that it has enjoyed a most substantial success, even since its initial presentation last season. Of this production it is said that it is an extraordinary combination of the most popular of old English operas, rich with melodies that are known wherever music is known, beautiful choruses and alluring dances, and a great modern stage spectacle. With commendable enterprise the Messrs. Aborn have striven to improve on their last season's production, and have engaged a cast of unusual brilliancy most prominent in which is Helena Morrill, as "Arline," Nella Brown as the Gypsy Queen, George Tallman as "Thaddeus," Wilmot C. Goodwin as Count Arnheim, Detmar H. Poppin as "Devilshoof," and Stephen Stott as "Count Alorstein."

A large and carefully drilled chorus, cores de ballet, special performers, etc., representing a company, which in size and importance, is second to none at present touring, in conjunction with a scenic dress, seldom seen outside of the great producing centres.

A PROCLAMATION.

At the request of the Honesdale Improvement Association, Burgess C. A. McCarty has issued the following proclamation:

The cleanliness of our town has been considered so important to the health and well being of all those residing therein, that a custom has within recent years grown up of designating a week, to be known as "Clean Up Week" during which time every resident is supposed to devote sufficient time to the work of cleaning his own premises, and all others over which he may have control, that nothing may be left undone in the way of cleanliness. This general cleaning should include not only the portions of the town which may be seen by the casual observer but those remote corners and recesses in which disease and death so often lurk. Now, therefore, in accordance with the custom established, I designate and appoint the week commencing on
