ENT-A-WORD COLUMN.

Advertisements and reading notices of all kinds placed in this column will be charged for at the rate of one cent per word for each separate insertion. When sending us advertisements to be printed in this column, cash or stamps must ac-company the order.

FOR SALE.

AUTOMOBILE FOR SALE-Ford Runabout, fine condition, fully equipped—with many extras. bargain, M. F. Sherwood, Main street, Honesdale, Pa.

WANT SINGLE COMB BLACK MINorca Eggs for hatching, Northup strain, that lay lots of big white eggs? $3.50 a 100; 75 cents 15. J. T. Bradley, Damascus, Pa.

MISCELLANEOUS.

WANTED-GIRL FOR GENERAL housework. Apply 1114 Court street, Honesdale. 35eitf

THE DANCE OF THE SEASON OCcurs on May 7 at the armory.
ake no other plans. 35ei2 Make no other plans.

FARM TO RENT OR WORK ON res. Farm implements furnish-Station, % mile from Eric R. R. Volney Skinner, Milanville, Pa. 34ei10t.

RENT- ONE NINE-ROOM lein, of Sterling. house, all modern improvements. Inquire of J. A. Demer, Church street

COMPANY E dance May 7. Bodie's trio will furnish music. Tickets, 35ei2

LOCAL NEWS

-Keep down the weeds and de stroy them. They make breeding places for mosquitoes. -Rev. G. S. Wendell married Nina Smith and John Ashley at the Baptist parsonage, April 26. -A. M. Leine has ordered a large new soda fountain similar to the 7th street store for his uptown drug

-M you are in business in Hones-Advertise and get a little wealth besides.

-Miss Jennie Cortright, who has been suffering from neuritis for the past ten days, is making a good recovery under professional care.

-The Seelyville fire company's hose house is undergoing repairs. Contractor John Bryant is laying a fine new floor and also putting on a

-Friends of Mrs. Jessie W. Searles will be grieved to learn of her illness with pneumonia. A trained nurse is in attendance and Dr. Nielsen is her physician.

-The sale of tickets at the opening of the box office for "The Bo-hemian Girl," Wednesday morning was unusually large. This show promises to be the best of the sea-

-The marriage of Jacob Perry of Hamlin, and Ida E. Black, of Maplewood, was consummated of the concern closed a deal with William Ruppert, of Corning, N. Y., where he became owner of the lat-ter's property on South Main street, near the new Gurney plant. Consid-

—An interesting address on an interesting land will be given at Grace Episcopal church Sunday evening. May 4, 7:30 o'clock, by one well qualified to give it, the Rev. C. E. Snavely of La Gloria, Cuba. The morning service at half-past ten will consist of Holy Correstor. consist of Holy Communion and Ser-mon. Sunday school at 12 M.

-Several weeks ago a hundred trout were placed in the No. 8 reservoir near Farview. This reservoir supplies the water to the dam near the new hospital for the insane and the trout were placed in it for the purpose of keeping the water free from vegetation and small ani-mal life. The trout had outlived their usefulness as game fish but notwithstanding this feet notwithstanding this fact, shortly after the fish were placed there ome poor sportsmen from the valley notice of the fact and as a resuit the fish are now gone from the reservoir. Dr. Fitzsimmons, superntendent of the Farview hospital, was considerably wrought up over this new method of poaching.

-Mrs. Philip Martin died at her home in Wilkes-Barre on Tuesday and the remains were brought to Honesdale that evening. Mrs. Marin was a former resident of Swamp Brook, where her mother, Mrs. Anna temlinger, now resides. The body was taken there and on Friday he funeral services were conducted t St. Mary Magdalen's church in Ionesdale. She was about twenty-our years of agreemy was a potter.

-The golf card club met Thurs day night with Mary Bodie.

-About 15 persons from Honesdale attended the Barnum & Bailey circus in Scranton on Wednesday.

"The "500" card club journeyd to the home of Margaret Cherry Ridge, Thursday for a pleas

The Crystal Cut Glass company. of Fourteenth street, has substituted an electric motor for steam power ed by the Honesdale Business Men's Sunday at 1:30.

Hancock for several years, have filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy, — Following will be the order of service next Sunday in St. John's Lutheran church: 10:30 a. m., "Das Zeugenis Von Christo"; 11:45 a. m., Bible school; 3 p. m., White Mills; 7:30 p. m., "Five Fools," Holy Communion Sunday, May 11th: 10:20 c. munion Sunday, May 11th: 10:30 a. m., preparatory service at 10 o'clock. -On Wednesday afternoon Chas.

WANT TO EXCHANGE A LARGE size combined churn and butter worker for a small size churn, (not of the dash kind). Or will sell churn at reduced price. Mrs. F. P. Woodward, Hoadleys, Pa. young people were attended by the father of the groom, William Fueg-

-Under a new ruling Postmaster General Burleson has ordered that unpaid, misdirected, unmailable and unclaimed postal cards as well post cards deposited for local delivlion postal cards annually, it is -Stovepipe committee talk garding the schedule of the propos-ed spring timetable on the Erie state that the first train now leaving at 8:22 a.m. will probably leave at 7:10 instead of 7:17 as last year. There is some talk of the present morning train being run from Port Jervis to Jersey City as a daily, which would include Sunday.

-Word has been received here of dale you are not evidently in it for your health. Advertise and get a of Honesdale. Her death occurred in Decatur, Illinois, where she had been making her home for many years. She is survived by her husband and four children. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. J. M. Wood, of Spring Lake, N. J., and one brother, H. E. Palmer, of Kansas City, Missouri sas City, Missouri.

-Honesdale enthusiasts in the —Honesdale enthusiasts in the manly art of wrestling will have an filled with fruit, vegetables and occasion to witness one of the best matches ever held in this part of the state when Young Muldoon and Fitch come together for the second time at the Rink tonight. This is their second match, the first having been won by Fitch on a foul, and it will be a wonderful contest. Charlie Simard, champion wrestler of Canada, will referee the match.

layman, all of high standing in this community, turned aside from arduous duty for a moment to help a hours of 8:30 a. m. and 9:30 p. m. step upon a worm."

though under the system by which the two officials have conducted business, there is not much left to finish up. Auditor General-elect A. W. Powell, who will resign from the Senate next Monday night, will take some time in carrying out the reor-

Criminal Insane, at Farview, base ball, standard American game, will be the chief amusement of guards and patients the coming season. A team will be recruited from the ranks of each. One of the finest diamonds in this section of the state is being laid out under the supervission of Charles May. Many of the inmates are said to be base ball stara, one of them having been formerly a pitcher of some note. Intense interest is being manifested in the building of the diamond. About 30 patients are being employed daily.

—Miss Mabel Marvin gave a most

-Miss Mabel Marvin gave a most delightful recital Tuesday evening in Scranton for the benefit of playgrounds, with her mature pupils in the program. Miss Marvin acted as accompanist during the recital, given a public proof of her varietility. accompanist during the recital, giving another proof of her versatility and talent. Miss Marvin is the very able successor of Madame Timberman-Randolph. Lovers of music in Honesdale and vicinity are well ac.

We hope to make these special pleasure in presenting to our lady and other family readers "Our Magazine Page." It is unique in form and just what you have been waiting for. and talent. Miss Marvin is the very able successor of Madame Timber-man-Randolph. Lovers of music in Honesdale and vicinity are well acquainted with her talent. One of the features of the program was a song cycle by Lize Lehmann, in which Miss Ethel Shoemaker, Mrs. James A. Linen, Jr., W. E. Connolly, Gwillyn Jones were soloists, and in which Miss Lillian Weston, Miss Alice Fidler, Wayne Irvine and Mr. Parsons also sung. Another feature of much interest was the singing of Sanderhazi of a group of Hungarian songs, is being rebuilt.

Barrett of Wyoming, Pa., a son. The April 29th. mother was formerly Miss Anna Le-John Strange of Cold Spring, Pa. -A petition has been filed with the clerk of court for the transfer of the bottlers' license from John Roegner to William Lilholt, of Honesdale.

-Born, to Mr. and Mrs. William

nesday, July 23rd. It is picnic day at Lake Lodore and will be conducted by the Honesdale Business Mark 2:30 p. m. Sunday school and the conducted by the Honesdale Business Mark 2:30 p. m. Sunday school and the conducted by the Honesdale Business Mark 2:30 p. m. Sunday school and the conducted by the Honesdale Business Mark 2:30 p. m. Sunday school and the conducted by the Honesdale Business Mark 2:30 p. m. Sunday school and the conducted by the Honesdale Business Mark 2:30 p. m. Sunday school and the conducted by the Honesdale Business Mark 2:30 p. m. Sunday school and the conducted by the Honesdale Business Mark 2:30 p. m. Sunday school and the conducted by the Honesdale Business Mark 2:30 p. m. Sunday school and the conducted by the Honesdale Business Mark 2:30 p. m. Sunday school and the conducted by the Honesdale Business Mark 2:30 p. m. Sunday school and the conducted by the Honesdale Business Mark 2:30 p. m. Sunday school and the conducted by the Honesdale Business Mark 2:30 p. m. Sunday school and the conducted by the Honesdale Business Mark 2:30 p. m. Sunday school and the conducted by the Honesdale Business Mark 2:30 p. m. Sunday school and the conducted by the Honesdale Business Mark 2:30 p. m. Sunday school and the conducted by the

It is hoped that Clean-up Week —Kirkpatrick Bros., who have will be generally observed by the ten in the wholesale business in people of Honesdale and Texas township; not alone in the interests of cleanliness but of health.

of their paper last week. It contained many local illustrations, was finely printed and its contents was the kind of publicity that boosts home interests.-Wayne Independent.

-Every merchant and citizen in Honesdale should be a town booster. Speak a word of praise concerning Honesdale to the stranger and even though he does not sell you a bill of goods he will want to come here again. It will help you more than running down the town.

-On Monday a number of residents of Browntown were in Pro-thonotary W. J. Barnes' office signery be returned to the sender when thonotary W. J. Barnes' office sign-they bear card address. Twelve milquestions toward becoming citizens timated, will be returned under the of the United States. They were all natives of Australia. First papers were taken out by Anton O'Koren, Frank Lans, Louis Jefron, and Jos. Poole. Second papers by John Glicha, Martin Kuiss and Paul Cos.

> -The Pennsylvania Chestnut Tree Blight Commission has instituted an interesting experiment at Mt. Gretna, Lebanon county, Pa., to determine the effects of the chestnut blight upon the quality of chestnut wood products and upon the durability of such products. So far investigations have shown that in majority of cases products taken from blight-killed timber are just as desirable for most purposes those cut from healthy trees.

-North of Bay Counties of California exhibit cars will be here Monday of next week to remain three days. The exhibit will be in two cars and will stop on the spur track countless curiosities. The main feature of the exhibit is a huge, mammoth shark. The mouth is spread wide open and is of such width that a good sized child might stand up in it. The shark when caught was 70 feet long. In the same case are shown the ribs of a whale, each shown the ribs of a whale, each easily five feet in length. The ex-hibit will be worth all it costs and —Who says that the world is not will be a liberal education in itself. humane? Two professionals and a Don't forget the dates, Monday, May will be a liberal education in itself.

—Messrs. Homer Greene and E. C. Mumford, as attorneys for C. A. Cortright & Son, in their action against Kreitner Brothers at the June term of court, have filed exceptions to the allowance of the defendants' bill of costs which was filed with the clerk of courts.

The Gurney Electric Elevator

The Gurney Electric Elevator

The Gurney Electric Elevator

The Gurney Electric Elevator

City and North Honesdale.

City and North Honesdale to visitors as Honesdale itself and the co-operation of the people of these districts means much to the movement. It is not necessary for any one to wait until next week, the State Treasurer on Monday and the Auditor General on Tuesday. This week will be devoted that week an extra effort will be of East Honesdale, Union Hill, Ridge contiguous territories are as much Honesdale to visitors as Honesdale itself and the co-operation of the about it? See 8th page. of ashes, tin cans, etc., but during that week an extra effort will be made to make Honesdale clean, sanitary and wholesome.

-One hardly associated horses, boars, geese, pigs, chickens and mon-keys with grand opera, but still they some time in carrying out the reorganization of the department.

—According to the plan of Dr. Thomas C. Pitzsimmons, superintendent of the State Hospital for Criminal Insane, at Farview, base ball, standard American game, will be the content of the standard American game, will discrete the standard standard position and want to know about things (pardon us if we refer to our women readers) you will be able to learn how to do and make dainty things if you read The Citizen. In our years of age and was a native of wayne county. She is survived y her husband and one daughter, f Wilkes-Barre, also her mother of wamp Brook, and the following rothers and sisters, namely: Anna, serna, and Jennie, Lewis, Francis, and Jennie, Lewis, Francis, and Jennie, Lewis, Francis, her remains were interred in White likes. J. N. Archer, of Honeshal also sung. Another feature of much interest was the singing of Sanderhazi of a group of Hungarian songs, that were given with great charm. Many other numbers were given by pupils. There was a splendid chorus from chaminade's "Duet of the serna, and Jennie, Lewis, Francis, in which most of the soloists and many of the pupils participated. Mrs. J. N. Archer, of Honeshal also sung. Another feature of much interest was the singing of Sanderhazi of a group of Hungarian songs, that were given by pupils. There was a splendid chorus from Chaminade's "Duet of the serna, and Jennie, Lewis, Francis, in which most of the soloists and many of the pupils participated. Mrs. J. N. Archer, of Honeshal also sung. Another feature of much interest was the singing of Sanderhazi of a group of Hungarian songs, that were given by pupils. There was a splendid chorus from Chaminade's "Duet of the serna, and Jennie, Lewis, Francis, in which most of the soloists and many of the pupils participated. Mrs. J. N. Archer, of Honeshal a subscriber to this paper, honest is there to hinder you from sending us your $1.50 for a year's subscription? We will promise to give you in return in news at the ratio of $10 to $1. Isn't that fair? Join the Citizen's army of subscribers. Climb upon its boom band wagon and we'll all have a good. 50 cents.

—The fountain and basin in the —The Bohemian Girl company front yard of Mrs. Robert N. Torrey goes to Port Jervis from Honesdale. -Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Osmer Neilds of Honesdale, a son, Tuesday,

-John Strongman is building a green house at the rear of his magnificent Bethany home.

-W. H. Hankins, of Binghamton was in Honesdale Wednesday in the interests of his father's business.

-Day of Ascension, Thursday of this week, was observed in St. John's Roman Catholic, St. Mary Magdalen's German Catholic and Episcopal churches by special ser-—A little daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sands, of Philadelphia, on April 19. Mrs. Sands delphia, on April 19. Mrs. Sands was formerly Alice Stephens, well known in Honesdale.

-There will be a meeting of the creditors in the bankruptcy case of Leon G. Bidwell, of Hawley, Friday morning at 10 o'clock, to pass upon a petition for the sale of personal property of said Bidwell.

-Two new tuberculosis patients have been added to the local dispen-sary. Miss Alice M. Chubb, nurse in charge, is very much pleased over the encouraging reports received from local patients who are at Mt. Airy for treatment.

-Mrs. P. A. Clark suffered a slight stroke last Sunday morning as she was preparing to go to church. The left arm was affected. We are pleased to state that Mrs. Clark is regaining the use of her fingers, and sincerely hope that it will not be long before she will have entire use of her arm.

-The Narrowsburg fire department are contemplating a big cele-bration on July 4th. They have already engaged Jenkins' Boy Band of thirty pieces, of Honesdale, also Sonner's orchestra of Honesdale. The firemen believe in having good music and lots of it. Jenkins' Boy band is considered as second to none in the of Pennsylvania.-Narrowsburg Democrat.

-Encouraging news was received from Dr. W. H. Swift Thursday afternoon in response to a telephone call from The Citizen. Mrs. Swift told us that Mr. Swift, whom everybody in Honesdale is deeply interest ed in, sat up two hours Thursday morning. Mrs. Swift also stated that the doctor is doing nicely, which is gratifying news to his many, many Honesdale and other friends.

-Mrs. Charles Lord recently picked a lemon that measured 11 inches in circumference from a tree that has been growing in her home. My, but didn't it make delicious ples! The lemon has been ripening for nearly a year and when picked only two seeds were found in it There are several other lemons upon the tree which will be ready for use in a short time.

-The Wayne County Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance company have settled the losses upon two recent fires. The loss on the house of Charles Lord, mention of which was made in a recent issue of The Citizen, was settled for $1,338. burned April 22. It was the property of Fred F. Geuther, of Lake Como, in which two cows and a quantity of grain, hay and farming farming intensils The loss was adwere consumed. justed for $971.

-The Annual White Breakfast of the Rubinstein Club of New York of Maplewood, was consummated last Friday by 'Squire E. B. Hollisterville. The young couple will reside at Hamlin.

—The policy of The Citizen is progressiveness. It is continually presenting Honesdale's advantages before the reading public in an intelligent manner, hoping and believing that it may attract strangers to locate here.

—Messrs. Homer Greene and E. Community, turned aside from arduous duty for a moment to help a small terrior, suffering from a bone ous duty for a moment to help a small terrior, suffering from a bone lodged in throat and mouth, the veterinary being out of town. Kindness to humans is natural and frequent, but when it can extend it self to suffering animals also, it is sure enough the "real thing." That great man, Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes, says: "I would not call that man a friend, who needlessly would step upon a worm."

May 7. Cars open between the hours of 8:30 a. m. and 9:30 p. m.

—The Ladies' Improvement Association of Honesdale, whose good work has much to do with the attractive appearance of our town, have decided upon the week beginning Monday, May 5, as "Clean Up Week." They ask for the co-operation, not only of the people of Honesdale, but also of the societies of the club and will attend the Breakfast, together with their sistent Piver street, Piver street, Cliff will occur on Saturday, May 3rd, at the Waldorf. This is an interesting event in both musical and society circles. Singers of note are decided upon the week beginning Monday, May 5, as "Clean Up Week." They ask for the co-operation, not only of the people of the club and will attend the Breakfast, together with their sistent Piver street, Cliff will occur on Saturday, May 3rd, at the Waldorf. This is an interesting event in both musical and society circles. Singers of note are decided upon the week beginning Monday, May 5, as "Clean Up Week." They ask for the co-operation, not only of the people of the club of New York and the Moustain Piver will occur on Saturday. May 3rd, at the Waldorf. This is an interesting city, will occur on Saturday, May 3rd, at the Waldorf. This is an inter, Mrs. W. Farrington Suydam of

STALKER AND BRAMAN. Stalker and Braman, May 1.

Mrs. Frances Kent and daughter, Helen, of Port Jervis, visited her mother, Mrs. Mary White, last Sat-urday and Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Stalker and

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Stalker and Mrs. John Schnackenburg spent Sun-day with George Kellam's at Look-

Melvin Crawford spent Sunday at Abramsville with his uncle, Jessie

Mrs. Louis Rauner and daughter Alice, visited her daughter at Port Jervis, a part of last week. Matthew Tyler died last week at the home of James Kemp. The fu-neral was held at Union last Thurs-

Mrs. Jacob Kellam is seriously ill vith lung trouble. Mr. Schnackenburg has taken pos-

Mrs. Ora Teeple.

Mrs. D. M. Stalker and daughter,
Edith, were at Callicoon last Friday.

Mr. Manship, our new minister, filled the appointment here Sunday for the first.

EASY TO GET RID OF DYSPEPSIA

A Prescription That is Simply Splen-did For Men and Women.

evening and tendered Mrs. Henry man will make her future Salzman, an almost life resident of with her daughter in Scranton.

-The Ladies' Aid Society of St. Honesdale, a farewell reception. Re-John's Lutheran church met in the freshments were served and a most parlors of that edifice last Tuesday pleasant time was had. Mrs. Salz-

BRAMAN HAS JUST RETURN

It was a quick trip Braman made to the State of Iowa after a stock of Horses for Wayne county farmers. He had agents on the field, and all he had to do was to inspect the stock, pay over the cash, load the stock aboard the cars and then turn his face toward home. He is here; so are the horses, and the big

Sale Begins Monday, May 5

Anybody who wants a good horse will head for the sales stables at the Allen House barn, on Church street, and there he will see a stock that will cause him to exclaim,

Oh, You Farm Mares!"

for Braman makes a specialty not only of Draft Horses but of Brood Mares for farm purposes. ( And now here is a word of caution to a certain class of people who want horses, but think there is plenty of time, and go their way

I'll Think It Over a Little!"

In this case you'll find that "the man who hesitates" has lost his chance to buy a horse, for they will all be snapped up quick! If you see a horse you want, BUY IT, pay something down on it and take it home. Now, don't for-

Wayne County's Largest

horse dealer is undoubtedly Braman. He has been making record-breaking sales, and they have all been made under a Braman guarantee, which entitles him to be called as a horse dealer

Wayne County's Squarest.

HERE IT IS AT LAST Petersen's Gigantic Rummage SALE

10% on All Purchases ALSO A LOT OF SPECIAL BARGAINS

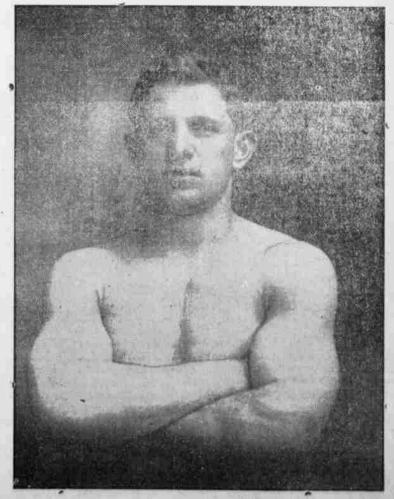

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday: Special sale on cut glass, china, bric-a-brac, Prosch glass, pictures, etc.

Thursday-"Silverware day," Sterling and Plated Silver will be sold at surprisingly low prices. Friday-Bargains in jewelry of all kinds.

Saturday-Liberal discount on watches, clocks and diamo If you need anything in these lines it will pay

Don't forget the Date, May 5-11

TO-NIGHT, THURSDAY

YOUNG MULDOON MILES FITCH At the RINK