John Toole, Mrs. Thomas Croghan, Mrs. James Caulfield, Miss Annie Reilly, Athrynn Finerty, Thos. Finerty, Sr., and Thomas, Jr.

—James F. Monaghan of Honesdale has filed a petition asking the court to appoint a commission to look into the mental condition of his wife, Alice H. Monaghan. A commission composed of Attorney W. H. Se, Frank X. Soete and Dr. W. T. McConville was appointed by Judge Earle.

—The funeral of John Ryan, late of Canaan, was held from the home of his sister, Mrs. Margaret Burke at Canaan, Monday morning. It was attended by a throng of people, many of whom were from Carbondale and Honesdale. At 10:30 o'clock a high mass of requiem was conducted over the remains in St. Patrick's church, Canaan, Rev. Edward Burke, of Honesdale, officiating, after which interment was made in the Canaan Catholic cemetery. The following nephews of the deceased acted as pall-bearers: Frank McDermott, of New York City; Thomas, William and Peter Burke, of Carbondale; William Ryan of Honesdale, Joseph Ryan of Carbondale.

—Read Katz Bros. ad of Monday specials which contains interesting Memorial Day news.

—A marriage license has been granted to Fred Euke and Miss Ludwig Wufke, both of Hawley.

—The situation at Paterson, N. J., remains about the same, although one mill started on Monday. Several of the strike pickets have been arrested and placed in jail.

—Mrs. W. D. Bell, of Port Jervis, visited her mother, Mrs. Lena Kelley at Ariel, Pa., over Sunday, and Miss Ruth Kelley, of the latter place, is spending a few weeks at the home of Mrs. Bell.

—"Ramapo" and "Tuxedo," the two Pullman cars running daily on the Erie between Honesdale and New York City, are in the repair shops at Buffalo. They will be repainted and placed in first-class condition.

—The Wayne County Medical society will hold their annual meeting and election of officers at the State hospital for the Criminal Insane at Fairview this (Thursday) afternoon. Dr. T. C. Fitzsimmons, superintendent of the institution, will entertain the members of the society today.

—The home of E. P. Heberling, in Pike county, but whose property is located near the Wayne county line, was damaged by fire a few days ago. A spark from the chimney fell upon the roof, setting fire to same. The loss has been paid by the Wayne County Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance company, in which company the owner held a policy.

—The remains of Mrs. Emily Hagaman were interred in the Lutheran cemetery Tuesday afternoon and services were conducted at the grave by Rev. Geo. S. Wendell. Mrs. Hagaman lived in Honesdale about five years ago and died in a Philadelphia hospital. Her home was in Catskills, N. Y. Her sons, Eugene and William Hagaman, of that place, accompanied the body here.

—The new catalogue of Ursinus College at Collegeville shows that there are now 293 students pursuing liberal art courses in that institution. These come from Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York, Connecticut, Massachusetts and Delaware. One young man is enrolled from Bombay, India. The following student is in attendance from Wayne county: Hubert Sanford Gleason, Gravitv.

—Persons receiving The Citizen are requested by the management to telephone or to write news items for this paper. The Citizen wants to tell its readers all the news and by the co-operation of its friends in this manner it can do so. If you know of anybody going away, coming, a wedding, death, sale of property or accident, telephone the item to this paper. We will greatly appreciate it and you will enjoy reading about it.

—The noted baritone singer, Karl Jorn, who recently purchased the Welter property at Braman, has entered into many extensive improvements to the property since he became the owner a year ago. He employs about thirty people in the saw mill and brush factory. New buildings are being erected and a boarding house will be conducted this summer which will attract many city guests to Braman. The purchase of this property by Mr. Jorn has already proved a big advantage to Braman and vicinity.

—The most remarkable display of courage and devotion of duty that has come to the notice of the Easton Fire Department was discovered on Monday morning when the men reached a power house of the Easton Pennsylvania Power company. There they found Howard Strobe, the engineer, nearly dead from burns, but conscious and giving directions to his assistants how to operate the plant. Strobe's clothes caught fire while he was in the oil house. He ran to the city fire alarm box, a couple of blocks away and sent in the alarm.

—A detail of State police has been working in the interest of the fish laws for several days in the Cumberland valley and the first victim was George Fields, Mercersburg, who was using a set net in a trout stream, which cost him $20. The neighborhood of Duncannon is a favorite spot for violators of the law and the detail is taking an active interest in trying to put a stop to the illegal fishing. Monday the policemen had George W. Brown, of Duncannon, before Alderman George A. Hoyerter, Brown having been caught in the act of taking game fish out of season, was fined $20 and costs.

—The annual convention of the C. T. A. U. societies of the Scranton diocese, opened Wednesday morning in St. Mary's High school, Wilkes-Barre, with a high mass in St. Mary's church at 9 o'clock. The sessions were held Wednesday and Thursday. A trolley ride to numerous points of interest was enjoyed by the delegates. The several temperance societies of Pittston, which have for years refused to become affiliated with the Scranton Diocesan union, were admitted into the union. The officers of the union are: Rev. Dennis J. Kane, Hazleton, president; A. J. Brannigan, Jeddo, secretary-treasurer.

—The funeral services over the body of Rev. J. J. Griffin, late pastor of St. Aloysius church, Lee Park, former chancellor of the Scranton diocese, and well known in Honesdale where he many years ago had charge of St. John's church were held in St. Aloysius church, Scranton, Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. The ceremony took place a day earlier than it would ordinarily for the reason that Thursday is the feast of Corpus Christi, a day on which masses for the dead are not celebrated. Rt. Rev. Bishop M. J. Hobann celebrated the mass, and the officiators were: Arch priest, Rev. M. J. McManus, Wilkes-Barre; deacons of honor, Rev. M. E. Lynott, of Kingston, and Rev. Joseph Coroner, of Pittston; deacon of the mass, Rev. J. J. McCabe, Wilkes-Barre township; sub-deacon, Rev. Michael O'Rourke, Athens; master of ceremonies, Dr. A. J. Brennan. Previous to the pontifical mass the office was recited by Rt. Rev. Monsignor T. F. Coffey, of Carbondale. Burial was made in Mt. Carmel cemetery, Dunmore. The services were largely attended by relatives and friends.

—W. B. Leshner, register and recorder, has purchased a new Ford car of the E. W. Gammell agency.

—Miss Elizabeth Campbell will give a talk in the Methodist church Sunday on "India's Land of Sorrows."

—There will be a meeting of the Spanish war veterans at the Armory on Thursday evening of this week. Matters pertaining to Memorial Day will be discussed. It is hoped that a large number of the members will be in attendance.

—Just to show that universal suffrage does not enter strongly into the minds of Honesdale school girls, Professor H. A. Oday took a vote of the entire school Thursday morning. There were only about a dozen, and mostly boys at that who wanted votes for women. The girls as a whole did not want it.

—By a vote of 159 to 6 the House passed the Senate bill to give juries in murder trials the right to determine whether a person convicted of murder in the first degree should suffer death or life imprisonment. J. B. K. Scott stated that it was desired to get the bill to the Governor that he might consider it along with the electrocution bill.

—The case of Daniel Giles vs. Ruel Wilcox was presented for settlement on Tuesday morning to a board of arbitrators composed of T. Y. Boyd, F. H. Crago and Attorney R. M. Stocker. The case is a suit in ejectment from land located near Mt. Pleasant village. The evidence was heard but a decision will be postponed until next week when it is hoped that a satisfactory settlement will be reached.

—An encampment of artillery will open in the Pocono mountains this summer not far from the borders of Wayne county. Major C. P. Summerall will be in charge of the encampment which will open on June 15 and continue until October 1. The purpose of it is to teach maneuvers and rifle practice. The camp will cover a tract of land of 40,000 acres about half a mile from Tobyhanna, Monroe county.

—The farm house, occupied by Felix Heinle and sons, Jacob and John, on the new Cochection turnpike, at Fosterdale, caught fire from the chimney at about breakfast time last Sunday morning and was burned with nearly all its contents. The fire, when discovered, had such a start that fighting it was useless. The property was insured in the Callicoon Mutual for $700 or $800. The Heinle's, who are staying with neighbors, will rebuild.

—W. E. Avery informs The Citizen that his strawberry crop has been badly affected by the frost. He says that ten bushels will probably be the extent of the crop, whereas in former years it has run into hundreds of bushels. All fruit will be scarce, he says, except trees located upon high ground. He thinks apples will be few this fall. Mr. Avery's father expects to harvest 400 to 500 bushels of peaches the coming season, whereas in other years 4,000 to 5,000 bushels have been gathered.

—On the authority of a well-known Democrat of Honesdale, the Wayne county Democrats will have a candidate in the field for State Senator this year in the person of Wm. J. Forber. The Monroe politicians will have something to think about if they figure on the Senatorship for another year as Mr. Forber is no novice in politics and knows how to play the game. We also understand that Samuel Saunders of Berlin and Judson Tiffany of Pleasant Mount, may enter the race for Representative.

—On Thursday The Citizen office had a very pleasant call from W. B. Ankarstran, inspector for the Mergenthaler Linotype Co. of New York City. Mr. Ankarstran gave The Citizen's linotype a most careful inspection, declaring it to be in splendid condition. As one of these up-to-date machines represents as much value as a good-sized Wayne county farm, say about $2,000 in round figures, it naturally makes Mr. Thompson, our man in charge, feel like patting himself on the back to have such an O. K. passed over his credit.

—The 63d annual commencement of Bucknell University will occur June 18. It is expected that on that date will be completed the series of efforts to raise $600,000 for the institution. The sum of $540,000 has been secured in cash or legally binding subscriptions, and there is confidence that the remaining $60,000 will be secured by Commencement Day. Mr. David Porter Leas, of Philadelphia, will be the guest of honor, it being the fiftieth anniversary of his graduation and the thirty-second of his services as treasurer.

—A Bradford county man killed two foxes, took the pelts to a justice who cut off the ears and burned the certificates for $2 each, which the hunter presented to the county commissioners, who declined to pay the noxious animal bounty because the State appropriation had long ago been exhausted. The hunter was obstinate and appealed the case to court. The court sustained the commissioners. The hunter, not satisfied, carried the case to the Superior Court, which has just handed down a decision that the counties must pay valid claims on demand and trust to State legislation to make good.
