DAMASCUS. Damascus, May 24. This is a busy time with all. Geo. Seipp recently lost a farm horse. Although an animal of 30 years of age it did good service and did a fair day's work the day it died. C. M. Pethiek is bailing his old hay to make room for the coming new crop. But unless there be a change in the weather soon the coming hay crop will be light. A warm May and a wet June for hay. Dr. Geo. L. Cade, V. S., has disposed of all his stock of horse flesh, trotter and all, and has invested in an auto. The doctor has a large and increasing practice and he finds that a horse keeps him too long on the road. Many think our new preacher, Rev. Mr. Renville, has a facial resemblance of President Woodrow Wilson. So far he has made a good impression on the people. The act of Myron Lord, Cecil Abraham and Harry Smith, who saved Oscar Smithers from a watery grave in Tyler's old reservoir last December, was placed before the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission for recognition for their bravery and heroism. Mrs. Irving Atkins, of Windsor, Canada, sent a newspaper clipping to Mr. Carnegie and referred him to J. T. Bradley of this place to furnish necessary information in the matter. After a prolonged correspondence in the matter a special agent of the Commission was sent here to see all concerned in the matter. The agent offered the hero boys a college course which was declined by them all. Because of their youthfulness they didn't fully understand its full meaning and importance of such an offer, hence their declination of this liberal offer. After the return of the agent, Mr. F. M. Wilmot, manager of the Commission, sent the following letter to Mr. Bradley: Pittsburg, Pa., May 9, 1913. Mr. J. T. Bradley, Damascus, Pa. Dear Sir: In acknowledgement of your courtesy in reporting to the Commission upon the cases of Myron M. Lord, Harry J. Smith and Cecil B. Abraham, I beg to enclose you herewith copies of my letters of event date, addressed to the above-named, relative to the action taken upon their cases. Yours very truly, F. M. WILMOT, Manager. Following is a copy of the letter to the boys, of which each received a similar copy: "Through the courtesy of Mrs. Irving Atkins, of Windsor, Canada, the attention of the Commission was called to an act performed by you, and through the courtesy of Mr. J. T. Bradley, of Damascus, Pa., we were furnished with a report thereon. The Carnegie Hero Fund applies to acts in which conclusive evidence may be obtained showing that the person performing the act voluntarily risked his own life in saving, or attempting to save, the life of a fellow-being. Your case has been personally investigated by one of our special agents, and I am in receipt of a report from him. After giving the facts due consideration, it has been decided, I regret to say, that your case does not come within the scope of the fund."

We take the following item from the State Journal, published in Lansing, Mich.: Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Eldred Yerks, May 9, a girl baby, Mrs. Yerks is a niece of H. B. Lord, of this place. This makes six daughters now in the Yerks family.

PLAN TO RE-ORGANIZE TELEPHONE COMPANY. Consolidated Companies of Penna. to be Put on Solid Footing. A complete plan for the reorganization of the Consolidated Telephone Companies of Pennsylvania has been prepared by a Bondholders' Committee, composed of John Graham, chairman; A. J. Brumbach, C. A. Mans, A. P. Trautwein, Murray Gibson, E. T. Clymer, Leonard Peckitt, Jerome N. Thompson and Edward A. Soleliac, whose counsel are C. M. Clement of Sunbury and Frank R. Suttuck, of Philadelphia. The underlying companies are the Lackawanna Telephone Co., of Scranton, the People's Telephone Co., of Wilkes-Barre, the Lehigh Telephone Co., of Allentown, the Honesdale Telephone Co. and the Berwick Co.

The committee has been, for many months, engaged in working out a plan of reorganization of the Consolidated Company, which will require foreclosure proceedings under the mortgage. The committee, on behalf of security holders having their bonds on deposit with them, joined in the purchase with W. B. Green, of New York of $993,000 of Consolidated bonds that were sold at public sale by the Receivers of the American Union Telephone Company, and there are now on deposit with the committee and with Mr. Green, bonds of the Consolidated Company, having a par value of, approximately, $2,000,000. There are in round figures $2,825,000 Consolidated bonds outstanding, and it is, therefore, only necessary to have $1,450,000 of bonds on deposit, to successfully foreclose under the mortgage securing them. In addition to the $2,000,000 of bonds, there are about $300,000 bonds that are tied up in various matters and cannot; at this time, be deposited, but the owners have signified their readiness to deposit them and will deposit them, as soon as they come into their physical possession. There are, therefore, only about $500,000 of these bonds not on deposit with the committee.

A brief summary of the affairs of the Consolidated Company is as follows: There are bonds outstanding of underlying companies, and of the Consolidated Company, as follows: Lackawanna Telephone Co. $415,000 People's Telephone Co. 243,000 Lehigh Telephone Co. 170,000 Honesdale Telephone Co. 40,000 Berwick Telephone Co. 50,000 Consolidated Companies 2,742,000 Total $3,660,000

"INDIA LAND OF SORROWS" SAYS MISSIONARY

(Continued from Page One.) which kills her. This, however, is not practiced as much as it was years past. Miss Campbell told of an instance how an American doll sent to India was the means of Christianizing a whole town. She said that there are not enough toys and dolls sent to India. Every Christmas box should contain all such articles that it possibly could. Miss Campbell's address was very interesting. She held the undivided attention of her audience from start to finish. She pronounced the benediction in Hindoo, which was sung to "Glori." Afterwards Miss Campbell dressed Miss Elizabeth Bullock in native costume. Curious from that foreign field were also displayed at the close of the address. A huge python skin, a native snake, was also shown. Special music was rendered during the service. Miss Campbell has a pleasant personality and is a very entertaining speaker. Upon request of Pastor Will H. Hiller, Miss Campbell accepted the invitation to remain in Honesdale over Sunday and speak in the Methodist church, having come here on Thursday last to address the sub-district missionary rally. Miss Campbell donated her time Sunday morning to speak on India, but before leaving she was presented with a snug purse as a token of remembrance from the members of the congregation for her services.

FIRST SUB-DISTRICT ORGANIZED

Missionary Meeting Held in Honesdale on Thursday Last a Great Success—Officers Appointed. The Citizen gave a partial report of the missionary meeting held in the Methodist church last Thursday, but on account of its going to press before the afternoon session closed, it was unable to give a complete account of the proceedings.

Mrs. C. B. Henry, of Sayre, a part of whose address was given in Friday's Citizen, on the subject, "America for Christ," told a number of interesting experiences under that head. One of the first things we must learn is how the other half lives. She talked very interestingly along the line of Development of Womanhood. Its efficiency, giving in the homes, where the money goes for the support of the many schools, hospitals and homes maintained by the Home Missionary organization in the United States.

Schools in United States. Mrs. Henry stated the Home Missionary Society provides for the support of the following schools and homes in America: 18 colored, 18 white, 10 Spanish, 6 Indian, 2 Chinese, 5 Japanese and Korean, 3 Alaska, 5 immigrant stations, 6 city work, 4 orphanages.

Tithing God's Plan. Tithing was another thought presented by the speaker under her subject, "America for Christ." Tithing is God's plan for raising money. It is a Divine privilege or partnership. The Lord always provides for tithers. Mrs. Henry gave a number of personal experiences of a friend of hers which bore this out to the letter.

sung by Reba Harloe, while the latter and Edith Stevenson rendered a duet entitled "Little Missionaries." They did very nicely.

Other Papers Read. Miss Mary Gilchrist, of Bethany, read a paper upon "Mormonism," which was very interesting. Mrs. James Stevenson, of Hawley, gave a complete and concise report of the society of her home town, in which were told the many things accomplished by that organization.

Organization. The first sub-district of the Home Missionary Society of the Methodist church of the Scranton district was organized Thursday afternoon by electing Mrs. Charles S. Seward, Honesdale, president; Mrs. James Johns, of Bethany, vice-president; Mrs. J. H. Boyce, of Carley Brook, secretary; Miss Martha Compton, of East Cherry Ridge, treasurer.

Foreign Sub-District Officers. Although not elected at Thursday's meeting, the officers of the Foreign sub-district Missionary Society are as follows: President, Mrs. J. Bush; vice-president, Mrs. E. H. Clark; corresponding secretary, Mrs. C. F. Bullock; recording secretary, Mrs. D. B. Long; treasurer, Mrs. F. May Hiller, all of Honesdale.

Profitable Meeting. The session as a whole was a very profitable and instructive rally. The papers were well received and showed considerable thought in preparation. This is the first sub-district organized but others will follow within a short time. The district heretofore has been so large that it was impossible to get all the societies together at one time. In this manner it is hoped that the organizations will hold meetings oftener and realize more good from their privileges.

Mrs. John T. Price, who has been slightly ill with an attack of appendicitis, is able to be around again.

Miss Kathrine Sheely spent Monday last with Carbondale friends.

Death of Mrs. Mary Ball. Mary H. Miller, widow of the late James E. Ball, died at her late home in Allentown Friday morning at the age of seventy-three years. Mrs. Ball was born in Litchfield, Mass., and for a time lived in Hawley. The greater part of her life, however, was passed in Honesdale where she had many fast friends. She had made her home in Allentown for the past four years.

She is survived by two sons, namely: Mortimore, of Allentown; Harry, of Cuba; also two sisters, Mrs. C. C. Smith, of Boston, Mass., and Mrs. Nathan Jacobs, of Honesdale; one brother, George Miller of Honesdale. She is also survived by several grandchildren.

The remains arrived in Honesdale on the 3:15 D. & H. train Monday afternoon. Services were held at the Glen Dyberry cemetery where interment was made. Rev. George S. Wendell, of the Baptist church officiated.
