

JURY FAVORS LIBELLANT IN DIVORCE CASE

P. J. McDONNELL WINS DIVORCE SUIT AGAINST HIS WIFE, THERESA.

Jury Out One Hour and Twenty Minutes—Verdict Was Not Looked For by Those Who Heard the Evidence.

The first case on the civil list at this term of court was held Tuesday afternoon. Patrick J. McDonnell, through his attorneys, Mumford & Mumford, of Honesdale, and Harry Mumford, of Scranton, brought suit for divorce from his wife, Theresa McDonnell. She was represented by Attorneys Chas. A. McCarty, of Honesdale, and Joseph E. Brennan, of Carbondale. The following list of jurors was chosen to try the case: Clarence Bodie, Cherry Ridge; F. C. Dillmuth, Dyberry; H. Goodnough, Lebanon; A. C. Gilpin, Dreher; Geo. Hoffman, Hawley; Otis Highhouse, Oregon; Ernest Ludwig, Hawley; Enos Marsh, Honesdale; Jos. North, Damascus; Frank Scudder, Lebanon; C. Schweighofer, Damascus; G. West, Berlin.

The jury in the case of Patrick J. McDonnell, libellant, vs. Theresa McDonnell, for divorce, reported to the court Wednesday afternoon after being out about an hour and twenty minutes. They found a verdict for the libellant. The case closed shortly after the noon hour Wednesday when Judge A. T. Searle made his charge to the jury.

Attorneys McCarty and Brennan, for Theresa McDonnell, will probably ask for a new trial.

Patrick J. McDonnell, libellant in the case, was the first witness called. He stated that they were married in the fall of 1908 and lived at the home of his mother-in-law about 17 months after their marriage. In November, 1910, he rented a house on Terrace street, Carbondale, and lived there from eight to ten months until April, 1911. On April 3, I left Carbondale and we made an agreement. I was going to Pittston to work and she was to store the furniture and go to live with my mother. I went to Pittston and came back on Friday of the same week. She was at her mother's and would not come back with me. She told me that her mother and brother would not let me come there and that she would not live with me. I had no work before I went to Pittston. I turned over to her $300 and all the household furniture. I always provided for her but sometimes I did not get my pay. I bought all the furniture and paid for it. I went to Mayfield and there I wrote to her to come and live with me. She did not answer. I went from there to work in the washery of the Wayne Coal company near Pink where I boarded. I wrote again but she did not answer. I wanted her to come and live with me. The last letter I wrote was sent by registered mail and I kept a copy of all the letters. (The letter was offered in evidence.) I spoke to several people near Pink for a place to live. I have not seen her recently up to today in court. I tried to speak to her but she would not let me even speak to my boy. I would take her back to live with me now if she would come.

On cross-examination by Mr. Brennan he said that he could not remember the exact date of marriage other than it was in the fall of 1908. On being prompted he acknowledged that it was on August 26, 1908. He married Theresa Collins and resided at Carbondale with his mother-in-law, Mrs. Collins, on Scott street. He said that they had had one child but he could not remember when it was born. After the child was born Mrs. Collins told me to get out. That was two days after the birth of the boy. Then I went to my home in Mayfield. I spent some time in Oneonta, N. Y. I don't think I was there over two months. I wrote to her from there. When I came back went to see her. Met her on the street and she would not let me come to the house. When I wrote to her from Pink and Mayfield I was advised to keep a copy of the letter. It was on the advice of counsel. I am living at Gravitv now. Am boarding with Mrs. Sheats near there.

W. C. Molton sworn: He said that he was in business in Scranton and that he had visited the home of the McDonnells at Carbondale and testified to the state of the home there. He said that McDonnell seemed to be fond of his wife and boy. McDonnell had worked for him he said from October, 1911, to June, 1912.

Mrs. Frank Sheats sworn: She said that McDonnell had boarded at her home and that he had always let her see his letters. She had seen the letters he had written to his wife while there and also the copy of the letters that was produced in court. Earl Rockwell, of Lake Ariel, testified that he had known McDonnell since September, 1911, when he had been working for the Wayne Coal company at Pink. McDonnell had been looking for a house to live in and I found one for him. I told him about it and he said that his letter had not been answered and he thought that he would not need the house just then.

P. J. McDonnell was recalled and testified that his wife would not leave Carbondale and live with him. I could have worked in Carbondale but I received more pay in the place in Wayne county. I got $80 there. The libellant rested.

Mrs. Theresa McDonnell, respondent in the case, was the first witness called. She stated that she had been married to P. J. McDonnell in Carbondale on Aug. 26, 1908, and afterwards we went to live with my mother. Our child was born on November 19, 1909, while living there and two days later my husband left me after telling me that he was going to do so. The doctor sent him for medicine at 1:30 and he did not come back until ten that night. He remained until the next day and then went to Mayfield. That was on Nov. 22. He remained there awhile and then went to Buffalo, N. Y. He wrote from Buffalo saying that he was in a hospital there. When he came back he did not call to see me or send me any money to provide for us. We made up later and went to housekeeping. That was on May 1, 1910. We engaged four rooms. He furnished three. We lived there until April 3, 1911, when he said that he had work in Pittston and left. I went to live with my mother. I paid all the rent and he gave me barely enough to live on. He always went to a restaurant to eat and did not provide for us. He got $7.00 insurance and he spent all of this except $300. He stayed out at night until three or four o'clock in the morning. We finally made an agreement in which he promised to turn over to me the $300 in the bank and put the household furniture in my name and he was to quit drinking and gambling. This agreement was made February, 1911. (Agreement offered in evidence.) He spent $202 for furniture.

Up to the time my husband left for Pittston he had not given me a cent and he always told me that he had not received his pay. I had not received any money from him since Christmas. I never received any letters from him while he was in Mayfield or when he was in Wayne county. I had never heard of the place until I received the registered letter after the suit had been filed. I met him once in Scranton when I had him arrested for non-support. He went off without speaking to me or the child. I did not see him until some time later when in Carbondale. He asked me for $10. Said he had got into some trouble. I did not have the money to give him.

The first time I learned where my husband was, was when I went to Lake Lodore and saw his picture there. Then I learned he was at Gravitv. On cross-examination she stated that she would be willing to live with him if he had treated her right. She would have lived anywhere with him. He was in the habit of running around with other women and I could not trust him. Peter Noon, deputy clerk of Lackawanna county, testified to some court records. These records were permitted as evidence. Court adjourned until 10 o'clock Wednesday morning.

When court convened Wednesday morning, the court record was read to the jury. It stated that in the case of the Commonwealth against P. J. McDonnell, in the court of quarter sessions of Lackawanna county. Charge non-support. Mrs. Theresa McDonnell, prosecutor. A hearing of the case was held on Sept. 28, 1912, and the sentence of the court was that P. J. McDonnell pay to his wife $15 per month and give bond in sum of $300 for the faithful compliance with that order. Mrs. McDonnell was recalled and stated that she was willing to go and live with her husband if he would make a home for her and the child. He had never made any proposition of the kind to her during the two years he had been away. She said that she would live wherever his work took him.

E. J. Neary, constable of Carbondale was called as a witness. He said that he had known P. J. McDonnell about twelve years and had talked to him in September of last year at Gravitv. McDonnell said, "What the h— does she want now? I intend to get a divorce. Don't want to live with her."

He was cross-examined by Attorney Mumford. Neary said that McDonnell had told him that his wife had been bothering him for support for some time and that when the two years were up he (McDonnell) would apply for a divorce.

A check for $463.51 was offered in evidence. It was made payable to Theresa McDonnell and signed by P. J. McDonnell. The case went to the jury about 11 o'clock and the arguments of the attorneys took up the rest of the morning.

JUDGE SENTENCES TO 6 YEARS, 6 MONTHS

MAN WHO HAS CAUSED MUCH TROUBLE IN COUNTY WILL SERVE LONG TERM.

18 Months For Breaking Jail and $10 Fine; Not Less Than 5 Years for Breaking into the Coal Offices at Hawley.

August Stouquert, commonly known as "Frenchy," who has been a guest in the county jail for several months, who was caught after a long chase near Hoadleys by Sheriff Kimble and Detective Spencer on the charge of breaking and entering, was sentenced in open court Monday afternoon by President Judge A. T. Searle to serve a term of six years and six months in the Eastern Penitentiary at Philadelphia and was fined $110. He was also directed to pay all costs of prosecution, but it is likely that Frenchy will escape this last burden.

The sentence for attempting to escape from the county jail at the time Peter Polt made his sensational dash for liberty, was fixed at not less than eighteen months or more than two years and a fine of $10 and the costs of prosecution.

For breaking and entering the offices of the Hawley Coal Company at Hawley the sentence was fixed at not less than five years or more than ten years to begin at the expiration of the first. The fine was for $100. On the charge of breaking and entering that Stouquert confessed to, sentence was suspended on the condition that if he ever returned to Wayne county at the expiration of the sentence imposed, and if there should be any complaint made, the court would impose sentence on that charge at that time for a period of not less than ten years.

Frenchy will probably make the trip to Philadelphia in a few weeks.

IMPORTANT CHANGES IN SUMMER SCHEDULE.

The Delaware & Hudson Co. advises that effective June 22nd, many important changes will be made in its schedule. Chiefly among them will be trains leaving Scranton at 6:40, 7:40, 8:00, 10:00 a. m., 3:55 and 4:15 p. m. northbound; and 6:25 p. m. southbound. Neither of these trains stop between Wilkes-Barre and Scranton, making run in thirty minutes. These trains will connect for Albany and points north. Trains at 8:50 a. m. and 4:45 p. m. will be discontinued.

Particular attention is called to changes in Honesdale Branch trains. Train now leaving Honesdale at 4:40 p. m. week days has been changed to leave at 4:50 p. m. and the Sunday train from Carbondale at 5:40 p. m. will now leave at 5:00, making a much better connection from Wilkes-Barre and Scranton. CLASS NIGHT EXERCISES WAS BRIGHT AFFAIR

HELD ON LAWN OF HIGH SCHOOL TUESDAY EVENING—UNIQUE AND PLEASING.

Program Short and Interesting—School Song Written by Honesdale Young Man—Class Comprises 23 Members.

The class night exercises of the Honesdale High school which were held on the school campus, was an innovation which was heartily received by the public at large. The occasion was unique to say the least. A stage had been erected in front of Church street entrance to the school. It was artistically decorated with daisies, buttercups and ferns. The trimming was in charge of the sophomore class. A flag formed decoration for the background. The program opened with a concert by Jenkins' boy band, after which the classes of the High school marched headed by members of '13. The seniors took their respective places on the platform, while the juniors, sophomores and freshmen stood in front of the stage. While standing, the school sang "Far Beneath Historic Irving," which was written by Fred Menner, of this place. We reproduce the words of the song, which follows:

Far beneath historic Irving With its rocky crest, Stands our noble Alma Mater In its sheltering nest, Down amid the busy humming Of the bustling town, It has gained through years of toiling Honor and renown.

CHORUS: Raise the chorus, speed it onward Loud its praises ring, May recalling Honesdale High School Thoughts most pleasant bring.

Here the clanging of the school bell, Many years its rung, Startling stories it could tell You with its metal tongue, Here the thrilling news of gladness As it rings each morn, Ever joyful as we all are That this school was born.

The program was very pleasing and interesting, all members rendering their respective numbers in a most creditable manner. The jokes about class members were witty and to the point. Misses Florence Brown and Mary Menner were in charge of the literary part. The singing, under the leadership of Miss Harriet Arnold, music teacher of the school, showed considerable practice and was rendered in a manner that reflected much credit upon teacher and pupils. Jenkins' Boy Band, in the rendition of their several selections, won laurels which a senior musical organization would be proud of. There were 27 pieces out. At the close of the exercises Earl Transue presented Janitor Hull with a $5 gold piece as a token of remembrance.

During the exercises excellent pictures of the people assembled to attend the program were taken by Bodie and Romane, photographers.

The members of class '13 banqueted at Mrs. William Briggs' after the program and the following excellent menu was served:

- Bouillon
Olives
Saltines
Shrimp Patties
Bread and Butter Sandwiches
Chicken Maryland Style
Creamed Potatoes
French Peas
Jellies
Fruit Salad
Strawberry Ice
Bisque Cream
Fancy Cakes
Coffee

A most pleasant time was enjoyed. Outside of the class, Prof. and Mrs. H. A. Oday were invited guests.

SCULPTOR LANGE'S MODEL ACCEPTED.

The many Honesdale friends of Mrs. Arthur Lange, formerly Miss Marion Lane, of this place, will be pleased to learn that her husband recently won in a national contest for a statue of Martin Luther. The government of Coburg, Germany, offered five prizes for a memorial to Martin Luther and made it a national affair. Sculptor Lange's subject for the memorial was "Faith is the Light of My Life." The model was not only accepted but a prize of $500 was also given. Mr. and Mrs. Lange, whose home is in Dresden, are spending the summer in Rome. Luther lived in Coburg three months in 1530 and it was there that he did considerable writing. On an eminence overlooking the town is the ancient castle or fortress, from which extensive views are obtained. It is now converted into a museum, with extensive collections of various kinds, including relics and writings of Luther.
