—Appraisers appointed for the Herald Press Association have finished their work. Trustee W. W. Wood has received a number of applications for the plant, some of which are from out-of-town parties.

—The marriage of Miss Anna Petibick and Mr. Henry Krigler, both of Honesdale, was solemnized in St. Mary Magdalen's church on Monday afternoon, June 30, at 5 o'clock. Dr. J. W. Balta performed the ceremony.

—The mysterious supper given by members of the Methodist church last Friday evening was an unique affair. The menu was of conundrum style and was very amusing and entertaining. A neat sum was realized.

—Miss Mildred Stephens and Willis Hector, both of White Mills, were united in marriage at the home of the bride at White Mills on Thursday, June 26. Rev. Walter Walker of that place performed the ceremony.

—Miss Florence Barnes, of Philadelphia, a granddaughter of Mrs. Peter Barnes, of this place, and Frederick Clause, of the same place, were united in marriage last Thursday, June 26th, at Philadelphia. The couple arrived here Saturday to spend part of their honeymoon with relatives and friends. The bride is well known in Honesdale, where she has been a frequent visitor.

—Sheriff F. C. Kimble accompanied August Stoquert to Philadelphia on Thursday, where the latter will begin his term in the Eastern Penitentiary. It will be some time before "Frenchy's" Wayne county friends see him again as he has now entered upon his six and one-half year sentence. With his going, Frenchy leaves the Wayne county jail empty. There are no other prisoners there.

—July 1st is the last day for paying mercantile tax.

—WHAT BENEFITS THE TOWN BENEFITS EVERYBODY LIVING IN IT. VOTE FOR PAVE.

—Among the passengers Monday morning to leave for Gettysburg was A. J. Mitchell of Damascus.

—Miss Olive Rockwell entertained a number of friends at her home on Thursday evening in honor of Miss Rehbein, of Brooklyn.

—The Durland-Weston Shoe company closed down on Saturday noon for its annual repair to equipment. The employees will therefore enjoy a week's vacation.

—The Honesdale base ball team have rented the White Mills ball ground for the season of 1913 and games will be played there during the summer on Sundays. The first game will take place there next Sunday.

—Mrs. Caroline Oliver and F. G. Oliver, of Haines, visited Sunday at the home of the former's daughter, Mrs. Thomas Burrows. Mr. Burrows accompanied them home where he will spend a few days.—Forest City News.

—The hour of Rev. Dr. Murdoch's meeting at Carley Brook for July 6 is changed from 10:30 a. m. to 2:30 p. m. There will be no preaching at Girland that day, but there will be service at West Damascus in the evening as usual.

—"Custer's Last Fight" was the moving picture leader at the Lyric on Thursday and it was appropriate on account of the fact that Wednesday, June 25, was the thirty-seventh anniversary of the battle that annihilated Custer's small army. The three reel picture was well received by the large audience.

—Easton, Pa., can claim a school superintendent whose term of service rivals anything here or abroad, so far as is known. Sixty years in one profession is in itself remarkable enough, but when it is added that Superintendent William W. Cottingham's record is of 60 years in the same position, his case appears to be unparalleled.

—The advance detail of Company E, which will leave on Tuesday afternoon at the 4:30, for camp at Selingsgrove, is composed of the following boys: William Maloney, Michael Stahl, James Austin, Chas. Austin, Edward Jones, Joe McDermott, Walter Hartman, Howard Ashby, John Barnes, Edward Weist, Albert Thomas.

—There is more traffic on Main street than any thoroughfare in Honesdale. A paved street would lighten the repair problem by about $2,500 per year. Are you in favor of paying this large amount out annually, when a similar sum in the course of a few years would go a long ways toward paying off a $14,000 indebtedness?

—Much interest has been aroused in Unalodale by the announcement that W. I. Morgan with Acollon 2:25 1/2, and J. N. Corey with Billy S. C., 2:21 1/2 and other horses of note track on July 4. The announcement has not been made public, but it is a sure enough go. All are training and somebody is going to win and lose.

—When but three years old, Samuel Dandrow of Malvern, N. Y., now 36, lost the sight of his right eye by the penetration of a knitting needle. Last summer while enjoying a day's outing on the Little Ausable river he went to the rescue of a wounded crane and as he reached for the bird it jabbed him in the right eye with its long bill destroying the sight of that eye. Both eyes were operated on and he is now able to read with properly adjusted glasses.

—At the Lyric, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, July 3, 4 and 5, Jos. Eckl will present another big five-act vaudeville show with four reels of new motion pictures. The program will be made up of Lillian Loretto, child impersonator, singer and dancer; Sam and Ida Murphy, burlesque travesty artists; De Foreste, European Novelty Sensation; Barney Toy, comedy musical act and the Four Brilliants in their comedy playlet "The Uptown Flat." A matinee will be given on Saturday afternoon at 2:30.

—Governor Edward F. Dunne signed the equal suffrage bill Thursday last. By dipping pen in ink and signing his name, the Illinois governor enfranchised one million, six hundred thousand Illinois women, more than doubling the number of women entitled to vote in the United States. Grouped about the Governor were women of the suffrage lobby, which has been called "the best lobby in the United States." With them stood Senator H. S. Magill, father of the bill; Mrs. Dunne, representing the women of Illinois; Lieutenant-Governor O'Hara and Speaker William McKinley.

—Miss Kate McKenna is now occupying her new millinery and furnishing store on Main street, having moved her stock of goods in the latter part of last week. Her new quarters are located in the remodeled Fowler building. The interior of the store is of white and taken as a whole it is one of the most up-to-date millinery stores in this part of the State. The display windows are finished in mission style and are separated from the main room by glass partitions. Miss McKenna has been in business in Honesdale for twenty-six years and in order to be abreast with the times has added a full line of ladies' furnishings and children's apparel in addition to her regular line of up-to-date millinery.

MATERIAL ORDERED FOR TROLLEY ROAD.

Engineers Engaged—Work to Begin July 15—New Directors Elected.

With 30,000 ties ordered and rails sufficient to lay a track between Honesdale and Hawley, laborers and a chief engineer engaged, things begin to look as though the Wayne Railway company would soon begin business. In fact they will about July 15th. Mr. E. F. Draper, contractor of the new trolley road, spent the greater part of last week in Honesdale in the interest of the project. An order for 10,000 chestnut and oak ties was placed with Henry Von Frank, of Hawley, on Thursday last. The rails have been ordered and the first shipment is expected here in a few days. Jay E. Ross, who of late has been associated with the Scranton Traction Railway company, has accepted a position with the Wayne Railway company and will assume his new duties on July 7. Mr. Ross' assistants will consist of Honesdale boys, among the number being, Ray and Ralph Brown and Julius Freund.

At a meeting of the directors of the organization, held at 10 o'clock in the Allen House, three new directors were elected on the board, namely, J. S. Brown, Honesdale, R. W. Murphy, of Hawley, and Edward F. Draper, of New York City. Other board members are M. B. Allen, E. B. Hardenbergh, G. William Sell, H. T. Menner, Sigmund Katz, Chas. Dorfing, W. F. Riefler.

AUTO FRIGHTENS HORSE AND HONESDALE MAN INJURED.

While driving in Dyberry township on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Jones, of Honesdale, met with quite a serious accident. They were on a branch road between Tracey Corner and the Baptist church, near the home of Harry Palmer. There was a short turn in the road and suddenly an auto was sighted. Mr. Jones raised his hand for the driver of the approaching car to stop, which was done. The driver was Leslie Douglass, of Cold Spring. Mr. Jones jumped out and grabbed the horse. He was followed by Mrs. Jones. Mr. Douglass stopped, but started again. The horse sprang into a barbed wire fence, tearing its flesh quite badly. It then freed itself and jumped over another fence. Its shoulder was injured quite badly and it is feared that perhaps the bone may be fractured. Dr. Lidstone was called. Mr. Jones received a few scratches upon his person. Mrs. Jones escaped injury. The horse is a valuable one and is owned by M. L. Braman.

HONESDALE FOOTWEAR COMPANY GETS $36,500.

Eleven drafts, amounting to $36,500, has been received by W. H. Krantz, trustee for the Honesdale Footwear company. The money was received last week. The total insurance amounted to $39,000, but to effect a settlement the above amount was agreed upon.
