SLIT SKIRT "DISORDERLY."

Louisville Police Chief Orders Arrests. Undergarment Exceptions.

Louisville, June 30.-Chief of Police Lindsey issued a blanket order for the arrest of wearers of slit skirts which are minus protecting undergarments.

"A number of women have been ap pearing upon the streets of Louisville in dresses which the laws of decency forbid, and I believe this is a disorderly act," says the chief's order. "I refer to skirts which are split up the ride, exposing the limb. As long as an andergarments is worn beneath the slit dress it is all right, but where a flagrant exposure is made it is the duty of the police to make arrests."

Chief Lindsey says that women who have the "nerve" to appear on the streets in slit dresses will not mind "a little thing like a police court trial."

LOBBY CHARGES STIR CAPITAL

Mulhall's Statement Adds to Work of Probing Committee.

Washington, June 20 .- Washington eems to be headed now straight toward a lobby investigation which will ay bare all the workings of the underground system at the national capitol for the last ten years and which will turn the light of publicity upon many men who have long since ceased to be members of congress and some of whom are in their graves.

The publication by a New York paper of the confessions of a former vashington lobbyist, with details as to names and incidents, has added fuel o the fires that have been started by the inquiry already under way as the esult of President Wilson's charges.

Colonel Martin D. Mulhall's sworn statement, following closely on the leels of the Lovett exposure of the Wall street holdup and the activities of the beet sugar people; has aroused. Washington on this subject as it has never beer aroused before, and immediate steps will be taken to probe the entire lobby system. Senator Overman, chairman of the committee which is already making in inquiry into the activity of lobbyir" in regard to the tariff bill and the Lovett charges, announced that his committee will take up all accusations made by Colonel Mulhall, the former lobbyist for the National Association of Manufacturers: Senator Overman already has subpoenaed Colonel Mul-

SEAL EVIDENCE

Won't Make Public "White Slave" Letters.

DRYAN DEFENDS M'REYNOLDS.

Attorney General Gives to House Judiciary Committee All Information In California Cases-Subcommittee Will Sort Out the Evidence.

Washington, June 30 .- Fearing that If all the correspondence in the Caminetti-Diggs "white slave" case was made public it would embarrass the prosecution of the California young men. Representative Henry D. Clayton, chairman of the house judiciary committee, announced that only such matter as the committee deemed advisable to submit would be given to the house this week when a report is made.

This decision was arrived at after a conference with James C. McReynolds, attorney general, who turned over to the committee every scrap of information in the possession of the department of lustice.

Secretary Bryan came to the defense of Attorney General McReynolds in a statement answering demands that Mr. McReynolds resign from the cabinet on account of his part in the postpone ment of the California tridis of Camfnetti and Diggs, charged with violation of the white slave law, and of Smith and Bruce, charged with frauds against the customs revenues Secretary Bryan thinks there is no occasion for Mr. McReynolds to resign. He says also that "neither can Secretary Wilson be fairly blamed" for requesting the attorney general to postpone the trial of young Caminetti. As for Immigration Commissioner General Caminetti, Mr. Bryan holds that it is "both unjust and ungenerous" to demand his retirement on account of his son's conduct.

In accordance with the custom, the judiciary committee referred the resolution of inquiry introduced by Repre sentative Julius Kahn of California to the attorney general before acting upon them, and it was this act which caused Mr. McReynolds to send all the papers to the committee in order that the members might judge for themselves what was best to do in the Clayton's Statement,

Mr. Chyton in his statement said: The judiciary committee had under con sideration the resolution relating to the postponement of the trial of the case against the Western Fuel company di-rectors and J. C. Wilson and also the resolution relating to the postponement of the trial of the cases against Diggs and Caminetti The stairman called the attention of the attorney general, as had been customary in such cases, to these resolutions and invited from him any sug-gestions that he might deem proper to maite. In response to the suggestion of the chairman the attorney general trans-mitted all the papers on file in his office relating in any way to these two cases.

The attorney general in his note to the chairman of the committee said that a few days ago he wrote the president a full statement in regard to the continuance of the Diggs-Cammetti case and sent the papers to the president with re-quest that he give them careful consideraquest that he give them careful consideration; that they had been returned to him and that he sends them to the committee.
He also stated that he sent the complete files of the papers in his department relating to the prosecution of the WesternFuel company directors.
The committee examined these papers and reached the conclusion that some of them related solely to the merits of the prosecutions themselves and in no wise related to the matter of their continuance or either of them, the continuance of trees cases being the matters inquired about in the resolutions. A subcommittee consisting of Mr. Clayton, Mr. Webb. Mr. Carlin, Mr. McCoy, Mr. Velstead, Mr. doing Morgan and Mr. Chandler was appointed and directed to examise carefully all the papers and to report back to the commitsee those touching the particular master or matters referred to in the resolutions and also to determine which of the pa-pers in the two files which the attorney general has submitted to the committee should not be sublished, because it would be detrimental to the public interests in-volved in the prosecution of the cases in the courts:

WILL HOTEL INJURE LAKE ARIEL?

Negotiations Are in Progress for the Purchase of the Hotel Pines at Lake Ariel from Mrs. Schadt.

The sale to one or the other of the syndicates will be put through before

July 17, it is understood. There is a large Scranton colony at Ariel and that resort has rather an exclusive one for the last ten years or more. The Pines is lo-cated on the East Side of the lake, almost in the center of the cottages owned by the local men. It is a large structure, and back in the days when Ariel was the Mecca for excur-sionists from all parts of Northeast-ern Pennsylvania the hotel was regarded as one of the finest of any of the nearby lake resorts.

The New York parties have their eye on the hotel with a view of again opening it up for business, and this is just what the Scranton parties do not desire, fearing that it will spoil the privacy of their Summer homes During the week it is said that the parties interested have held a num-ber of conferences with Mrs. Chas. Schadt and also conferred with Attorney Homer Greene, of Honesdale, who holds a mortgage on the prop-
