Snake Stories are Ripe. Fildale Gratsanger, of Hoadleys, Kills a Rattlesnake that Escaped, and Entertains a Blacksnake in His Home for a Time.

On Friday last Fildale Gratsanger, a resident of the Cobb's Mills section of Hoadleys, killed a rattlesnake that was of the regulation make and carried 8 rattles.

Another rattler, probably the mate of the one that was killed, was seen previously by Fildale; but as he was carrying an infant child in his arms at the time, the "varmint" got away.

But that isn't all. On the day Fildale killed the rattler a big blacksnake was discovered in his house, which soon was made sorry that it was trying to work its way back towards the land and ways of the first garden of the world.
