Inability of the commonwealth to make out a case strong enough to hold the defendant for the grand jury, caused Judge Fuller Wednesday to discharge from custody Herbert Johns, who has been confined in the county jail for nine days, charged with the murder of Alice Crispell, whose body was found in Harvey's Lake on the morning of July 7. When released from jail Wednesday Johns said: "I have no idea how Alice Crispell came to her death. I would like to know. But there is no more booze for me. No more gay parties or bright lights. I have had enough of the gay life now. I am going to join the church and do the right thing in the future. I am sorry for Alice, but I do not know how she came to get in the lake."

I met Ben Killam, a former Scranton attorney, on the street yesterday looking the picture of health. Mr. Killam, who at one time resided at Green Ridge, has for several years past been engaged in farming at Paupack, where he has large real estate interests. He states that the trout fishing in the Paupack this year has been better than usual. The California brown trout which have been introduced in the streams of Wayne and Pike, have thrived wonderfully within the past five years. Mr. Killam says, and he considers them equal to the native speckled beauties both in flavor and as game fish. Mr. Killam still retains affection for the Electric City, the scene of his business and legal successes, but admits that the green fields and limpid streams of Wayne have more attractions for him.—Stroller's Notes in Scranton Tribune-Republican.

SELLING LIQUOR TO MINORS.

Two nights this week boys very much under 21 years of age annoyed the residents of East street and East street extension by what was evidently a drunken revel. The boys were on the river in a boat and were so intoxicated that they capsize the boat and it required the help of one another to bring the boys to shore. They continued this nuisance until long past midnight, keeping the neighbors in that community awake during that time.

As the State law prohibits the sale of intoxicants to minors it would be interesting to know where the boys received their supply of liquor. We understand that the authorities are now investigating the matter with the view of punishing the parties who had anything to do with the sale of the liquor.

TALKING PICTURES PLEASED CAPACITY HOUSE.

Only words of praise were heard at the close of the Edison talking pictures performance on Monday evening at the Lyric theatre. The invention of Wizard Edison was demonstrated to the entire satisfaction of one of the largest houses that ever assembled in the theatre, as being a marvelous feat. The pictures were clear and some of the best shown in Honesdale. The talking of the characters represented in the pictures was true to life and truly demonstrated greater possibilities in the talking moving pictures.

Manager B. H. Dittrich is to be congratulated in securing the Edison talking pictures for the entertainment of Honesdale people. Owing to the capacity house the management of the Edison company has placed Honesdale on the list of towns that will be favored with other similar performances in the future.

AMERICA REPLIES TO JAPAN.

Bryan and Chinda Decline to Discuss the Answer.

Washington, July 17.—Secretary Bryan banded to Viscount Chinda this afternoon the answer of the United States to the last notes received from the Government of Japan in its protest against the California alien land law. The Secretary and the Ambassador were in conference for about half an hour at the State Department.

Mr. Bryan and the Ambassador both refused to discuss the note and its contents. Mr. Bryan was unwilling to say whether or not the reply of the United States, which is the second of the series of exchanges, would afford a basis for the settlement of the controversy. It is understood that the Governments are really no nearer a settlement of the matter than at the outset. The discussions between them are merely in the legal and argumentative stage.

NO SKIRT LIMIT IN PITTSBURG.

Women Will Wear What They Want Anyhow, Says Director.

Pittsburg.—So far as Public Safety Director Dailey is concerned Pittsburg women can wear "side slit" skirts or "slit knee" skirts and wear a flimsy gown without petticoat under it. When asked if he would follow the edicts in adjoining boroughs and ban certain garments he said: "No women will be arrested for wearing the new fashioned gowns. I think women are dressing all right. Women will wear what they like no matter what the ministers and their neighbors think. I never saw anything shocking in the new fashioned gowns."
