A subpoena has been awarded in both cases.

BASE BALL SATURDAY.

The Crescents from Scranton will play on the local grounds next Saturday afternoon. This will be the second appearance of the Crescents in Honesdale as the last time they were here it took the Honesdale team just twelve innings to defeat them by score of 3 to 2. That was one of the best games of the season, too, and next Saturday the game is expected to be just as good as the boys will be completely over their groggi-ness by that time and will put up the best fight they know how, practice for the game with Hawley one week from that date. Close up shop Saturday afternoon and come out and see a good ball game. It will do you good.

ENROLLMENT BLANKS

BEING SENT OUT.

The commissioners' office was a busy one on Friday, sending out enrollment blanks and instructions to the register assessors in the boroughs and townships of the county as provided for in the new party enroll-ment law. The register assessors are being notified that they must make an enrollment of the voters in their districts on the necessary blanks which are being furnished by the commissioners. Returns must not be made later than September 5. ter, Elizabeth, returned on Saturday In Honesdale the voters on making from a week's visit with friends in application for registration will announce their party affiliations and the signature of some person must be secured as a witness.

UNION METHODIST PICNIC.

Sunday Schools Representing Hones dale, Waymart and Prompton, Enjoy Outing on Friday.

A union Sabbath school basket picnic, which consisted of the pupils of the Honesdale Central Methodist Episcopal church, the Waymart and Prompton churches of the same denomination, assembled at the beautiful glen along the Lackawaxen river and near the site of the historic Gravity Delaware and Hudson railroad. theatre for several people, while others were seated on the grounds. Boys had climbed up the trees that spread out over the Lackawaxen and as a whole it made a beautiful

The glen is located at a short distance north of the thriving village of Prompton and on one of the his-torical spots of Wayne county. The old raceway lies on the western side of the glen. It was built in 1829 by the Delaware and Hudson Canal company to convey water from the Lackawaxen river to propel a water wheel that was used to furnish pow-Mrs. George Thomas and daughter or to haul empty gravity coal cars up Dorothy left on Saturday for their an inclined plane. This method was home in Brooklyn after a pleasant changed in years afterwards by installing stationary steam engines at the head of all planes on the road. The raceway and bank is very pretty, The bank, which is wide enough to drive a team or automobile upon, is bordered on either side with trees that form an archway that appeals to the heart of every lover of Nature. The masonry of the dam is still in good condition and reflects the work of an artisan.

The Prompton church and Sunday school is in a prosperous condition. The church is free from debt and has money in its treasury. Rev. Will H. Hiller, pastor of the Hones-dale Methodist church, preaches every other Sunday at Prompton and the congregation is fast increasing in membership under his spiritual guidance. While in conversation with some of its members they say they are perfectly satisfied without changing charges; that it is no trouble to raise money and that all contributions are free-will offerings. The Prompton people are hustlers and that thriving village fully dem-onstrates this statement.

The people of Prompton are very proud of their new Delaware and Hudson station, which was recently opened to the public and filled a longfelt want in the village. It is neat, cosy and modern throughout. The traveling public truly appreciates the new station.

Prompton has also a new industry in the form of a cut glass establishin the form of a cut glass establishment. It is located on the site of the old furniture factory opposite the Pentecost home. The company is known as the Penn Cut Glass company. The management will open the building to the public on August 15. Heumann's three-piece orchestra of Hopesdale will furnish music for the occasion. Business is booming in Primpton. It is a hospitable town to spend your vacation. Death of Mott Keen.

turns in the box for Honesdale. Several autos were necessary to take the players to Milford and the journey there was made in good time.

Coming back the party left Mil-ford about ten o'clock and should have reached home some time around twelve o'clock. W. B. Lesher and his party came in on schedule time. The others were not so for-tunate. One car came in at four Friday morning. Another at eight and finally along in the afternoon the last of the players reached Hones-dale after having lost their way in the dense fog which hovered over the route. The last car took the wrong road after leaving Milford and went within a few miles of Delaware

One other party lost the road in the fog after coming in the vicinity and circled back to Milford before the mistake was discovered. One of the occupants got out of the car to read a sign over a building. It read, "Milford Milling Company." Then they started back again, reaching Honesdale about eight o'clock.

FISHERMEN MAY

HAVE BEEN BURNED.

Barn Mysteriously Burned at Scott Friday Night—Men Seen in the Building by Francis C. Ledyard.

A large barn belonging to Francis C. Ledyard, who lives in Scott town-ship near Hancock, was burned last Friday night and possibly consumed two men. The cause is not known. The building caught fire about 1 o'clock Friday morning.

Suspicion, however, rests on the fact that when Mr. Ledyard came home about 9 o'clock in the evening he discovered two men lying in the barn. He spoke to them and they claimed that they were fishermen and that they had lost their way. Mr. Ledyard left the barn and about 1 o'clock he was awakened by the odor of smoke. Looking out he discovered his barn was in flames. Nothing was saved.

Efforts have been made to locate the men but without results. supposed that the men may have lighted matches and caused the fire. As no trace can be found of the men it is also presumed that the men may have perished in the flames.
