Hot Times.

There's Mexico quarreling.
With factions full of fight,
And several revolutions
Of diverse kinds in sight.
There's Portugal with crisis
Already most acute
And China, just established,
Prepared to follow suit.

There are the restless Balkans
In turmoil all the time,
With Turkey getting ready
For new career in crime.
There's England torn to pieces
With threatening civil war
O'er home rule's fate in Ireland
And suffragettes' big jar.

There's congress with the tariff
And Mulhall with his tale;
There's strikes of all descriptions
And riots right in jail.
No wonder that the prophets
Their aim, they mislead it not.
In saying that this summer
Was apt to be some hot.

WHEAT OUTLOOK PROMISING.

Yield Probably Will Be Greater Than Big Harvest of 1912.

Prosperity is indicated by the wheat crop prospect. The present outlook for the total yield of spring and winter grain is that the nation will produce as much as it did last year, when the aggregate was estimated at 730,000,000 bushels.

Winter wheat, according to the latest government report, indicates a total of 483,000,000 bushels compared with 400,000,000 bushels last year. Iowa is sending flattering reports of the winter wheat yield. Thrashing machine returns in many instances are from forty to fifty bushels an acre. The average yield for that state, it is now estimated by the state weekly crop bulletin, is about thirty bushels an acre.

Comparisons on the government report issued some time ago show that the spring wheat yield probably will be 248,000,000 bushels instead of 218,000,000 bushels, as was suggested immediately after the report became public. If these later estimates be correct the total production of wheat in the country will be slightly more than that of 1912, or approximately 731,000,000 bushels.

MADERO'S WIDOW MAY TELL STORY

Hoped She Will Testify Before Senate Committee.

FIRST HAND INFORMATION.

Relict of Slain Mexican President Could Give Many Facts to Administration Which Would Aid It in Dealing With Present Situation—Woman of Great Moral Strength.

As a possible means of aiding the administration in dealing with the Mexican situation, Mrs. Madero, widow of the slain president of the warring republic, may testify before the senate committee on foreign relations at Washington.

Friends of the Maderos hope that Mrs. Madero will appear before the committee. They say she has a great amount of first hand information concerning the betrayal of her husband and the participation of the former American ambassador in events leading up to the resignation of Madero. These friends say she will make an excellent witness, that she speaks English fluently and is dramatic.

She is beloved by all of the little band of revolutionists in the United States. They regard her as an extraordinary woman. One enthusiast said recently that the physical and moral strength of Mrs. Madero is wonderful. During the turbulent scenes in the City of Mexico on Feb. 18 Mrs. Madero never once lost her poise nor a full comprehension of her position, her admirers say.

Huerta Clouds Situation.

Washington officials read with interest the recent declaration of Aureliano Urrutia, the Mexican minister of the interior, that President Huerta would not resign and, moreover, would brook no interference on the part of foreigners in his administration.

While no plan that the American government has had under serious consideration involved any direct interference in Mexican affairs, the admitted attitude of the administration is one of unalterable opposition to the recognition of the Huerta regime.

Without the recognition of the United States, leading Mexicans have declared that Mexico would not be able to extricate itself from its financial difficulties. On this account it had been believed in Washington that pressure would be brought to bear to persuade Huerta to resign.

The announcement that he has determined not to do so has beclouded the situation somewhat and has spurred the Constitutionalists to further activity to obtain the repeal of the embargo on arms. They claim that if they do not get arms the revolution will be a protracted struggle. With munitions of war they say they can quickly bring matters to a crisis.

Mediation Not Abandoned.

Despite these conditions, the administration has not altogether abandoned the hope that mediation may prevail.

It is believed that, in view of the depleted condition of the Mexican treasury and the long and hard campaign which is bound to result if the present status is maintained, Huerta may be influenced to suspend hostilities and hold an election. Carranza, it is thought, could be induced to suspend fighting if Huerta would eliminate himself from the elections and abide by the vote. Carranza will not agree to anything which includes the participation of Huerta. He has said so directly and through his junta in Washington. Members of the latter have declared that, while they did not believe there would be any mediation, Carranza would agree to anything reasonable. These members added that Carranza does not seek the presidency; that all he desires is the punishment of Huerta for his treachery to Madero.

ANOTHER PARCEL POST USE.

C. O. D. Plan Aids Merchant to Collect From Unwary Debtors.

A Kansas merchant has found a new use for the parcel post. When the C. O. D. feature went into effect on July 1 he hit upon an idea to collect a number of small accounts which he had been carrying for some time and which had caused considerable loss during a period of several years.

A number of small boxes were obtained and filled with waste paper and on the top was placed a receipted bill for the proper amount. A five cent stamp was required for each box, and the C. O. D. fee was 10 cents for each package. The next day the returns began to come in, and in nearly every case the debtor paid the amount, supposing that the package contained something of value, but, of course, not being permitted to confirm this suspicion before opening it.

Snake Half Cooked in Oven.

When Mrs. Guy Keene of Valencia, Kan., started to make cookies one day recently she got the portable oven for her gasoline stove off the back porch and placed it on the stove without opening the door. A few minutes later, as the oven grew hotter, she heard a ratchet on the stove. She waited until the noise ceased. Then she opened the door and found a half baked rattlesnake three feet long.

William C. Green, winner of the Charles Oldham prize at Oxford university for an essay on "The Sea Power in the Greek Poets," is an American, a native of Massachusetts. He is a Rhodes scholar, and last year won the Newdigate prize.

William Roscoe Thayer, on whom Harvard recently conferred the honorary degree of Litt. D., is a writer whose work on Italian history led to the King of Italy knighting him. Since 1892 he has been editor of the Harvard Graduates' Magazine.

Herman Scheffauer, whose first play, "The New Shylock," has been accepted for production in Germany, is a Californian now residing in London. He is said to be the first American dramatist who has had the distinction of having a play accepted in a foreign land, in a foreign tongue, before its production in his own country. The play has an American theme.
