THE SANITY OF HARRY K. THAW

The escape to freedom of Harry K. Thaw early on Sunday morning not only throws the name of that individual on the front page of the newspapers once more, but it brings up a question afresh as to his sanity.

In a sense Thaw is insane, as all intensely jealous minded people are actually say that the quality of The insane. In another sense he was perfectly sane, for he knew exactly the Independent, and some even are what he was doing all the time, and sure that it is a little better. he carried out his plans with the accuracy that comes of sane, and

COMPETITIVE JOURNALISM

According to the Independent that is the only newspaper in Wayne county. It has no competitors. Others who may be trying to do a little publishing are lost in the shuffle. It certainly is too bad!

Each week The Citizen prints and circulates never less than 96 columns of local news, county correspondence, editorial, general news, stories and miscellaneous matter, including business news from Honesdale merchants. The Independent generally prints 84 columns, or 12 columns less than The Citizen, and the columns are the same length in both papers. There are people who Citizen is fully as good as that of
