Lieutenant Governor Glynn Seems to Be Gaining Ground In His Claim That He Is State Executive, but Meanwhile a Sulzer National Defense Is Forming.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 18. - Judge D-Cady Herrick, Judge Lynn J. Arnold and Governor Sulzer joined in a conference last night at the executive mansion, which continued until an early hour this morning.

It was understood that the matter of discussion was the question of how best to arrange the Sulzer defense forces in view of the offer of Thomas W. Lawson of Boston to finance the fight against Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany leader.

The Sulzer forces were also greatly perturbed by threats against prominent members of their camp, which it was learned had been resorted to. Details on those threats were withheld, but it is known that anonymous to Pleasant Mount the latter part of threats were made over the telephone week and spent Saturday and to the more prominent Sulzer men.

> Lining Up For Fight, Albany, N. Y., Aug. 18.-The conflict of authority between "Governor" Sulzer and "Governor" Glynn remains in statu quo, while each has begun to man's wife ran out of the house, upline up his forces for the real fight. On the Glynn side of the fence li developed that Attorney General Carmody was prepared to give his official opinion Glynn was acting governor.

On the Sulzer side financial interest represented by such men as Thomas W. Lawson, Lynn J. Arnold, Stephen C. Clark and Edward Clark, came to the impeached executive's support with a plan for forming a national committee of defense for the governor. Glynn Seems to Gain.

Glynn seems to have rained weight with his letter whereby he put upon Sulzer the burden of proof. Glynn has been gaining steadily, though slowly by every little development in the official business of the state.

D-Cady Herrick, Sulzer's personal counsel, conferred with the governor for a long time, after which a Sulzer answer to the Glynn letter was issued from the executive chamber explaining that the Sulzer proposition of going to court was advanced for the sole purpose of avoiding future litigation over what Sulzer called "your acts and mine" pending the sitting of the impeachment court.

The trustees of public buildings, an organization which consists of the governor, the lieutenant governor and the speaker of the assembly, is scheduled to hold a meeting to open bids for the $300,000 marble work to repair the burned part of the capitol. In the plans for this meeting Glynn gained headway.

According to law the trustees of pub-Itc buildings must meet in the executive chamber, but they have the power and duty of designating the rooms in the capitol and other state buildings which are to be occupied by the differ ent officials of the state

Glynn will not sit in the capacity of lieutenant governor with Sulzer as governor at this meeting, and Speaker Smith will stand with Glynn. As Senator Robert F. Wagner, president pro tem. of the senate. has according to the Tammany point of view, become acting lieutenant governor since Glynn became acting governor, the meeting of the trustees of public buildings will be a meeting at which Glynn, Smith and Wagner will sit.

The first business they will attend to will be to designate the large room now occupied by John H. Delaney, head of the department of efficiency and economy, as the executive chamber. They will then proceed to call their meeting to order in that chamber to open bids on the marble work.

GIRL DIES AFTER ASSAULT.

wburg Police Seek Young Man Miss ing Since Crime.

Newburg, N. Y., Aug. 18.-One of the most brutal assaults ever committed in Orange county was brought to light when Bertha A. George, a thirteenyear-old girl, died in St. Luke's hospital. Bertha and two little companions were fishing in a creek near Moybrook, fifteen miles from here, when a man approached and induced the older girl to go with him to a place where the fishing was better.

The girl said nothing of the attack to her mother, and it was only on Monday, when the child's condition became serious, that the mother learned the facts and summoned a physician. The police knew nothing of the case until the dying girl was taken to the hospital.

The district attorney and county officlais will offer a reward for the arrest of the assailant, who is presumed to be a summer boarder at Maybrook, about nineteen years of age, and who has disappeared.

WHAT HAPPENED

TO A TIGHTWAD. We once knew a man who was too stingy to take the newspaper in his home town and always went over to borrow his neighbor's paper.

One evening he sent his son over to borrow the paper, and while the son was on his way he ran into a large hive of bees and in a few minutes his face looked like a summer squash.

Hearing the agonizing cries of the son, the father ran to his assistance and in doing so ran into a barbed wire fence, cutting a handful of flesh from his anatomy and ruining a $4 pair of trousers. The old cow took advantage of the
