

Smith, Jones & Co.
 We endeavored to reach you on the telephone several times yesterday. You were busy every time and we were, therefore, compelled to give a rush order elsewhere. We disliked to do this, but every much, as we have always

Here's the Answer—
 An Auxiliary Bell Line

Do you recall how you tried to get Jones, found his line busy and gave Smith the order?
 Do your customers, when they telephone, ever fail to get you and give their business to others for the same reason?
 It's as important to have enough telephone entrances to your business as clerks to handle your goods. An Auxiliary Line costs little. Call the Business Office to-day.

"Practice the Telephone Smile."

WEST PRESTON.
West Preston, Nov. 8.—	Harry Neal, of Thompson, is sojourning here.
	Daniel Carpenter and family motored here Saturday evening to visit their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Corey. Mrs. Corey returned to Scranton with them Sunday afternoon.
	Robert Stanton, of Carbondale, called on relatives and friends here Sunday.
	Mrs. Delia Wall returned home Saturday, having spent the week with her sister, Mrs. Carl Youngs, who is very ill.
	While playing with other children and a dog in the yard near his grandparents' home on Sunday afternoon, little Robert Lee sustained a broken leg. Dr. Bennett, of Starrucca, was called to reduce the fracture.
	The many friends of W. F. Lodge, who underwent an operation in Dr. Burns hospital, Scranton, Wednesday of last week, are glad to hear he is improving.
	Master Wells Wallace is ill at this writing.
	Mrs. Daniel Stanton, of Carbondale, is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Horace Lee.
	Mrs. Arthur Rainey and daughter, of Poyntelle, spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. John Stevens.
	Little Miss Viola Lee is on the sick list.

AIM IS TO MATE
 BEST OF SEXES

Nation Wide Contest Started to Find Perfect Pair.

TO TEST EUGENIC THEORY.

Committee of Medical Review of Reviews Will Grade Applicants According to Physical and Mental Standard—Couple Will Be Offered Inducements to Wed.

A eugenic marriage—the matching and mating of a man and a woman as near to physical, mental and moral perfection as is possible—is planned by Frederic H. Robinson of New York city, president of the sociological fund committee of the Medical Review of Reviews.

As far as Mr. Robinson is aware, the prospective bride and bridegroom have never met nor heard of each other. Mr. Robinson himself knows neither of them. They will be selected by a jury of doctors, men and women. Any one can apply. Once the selections are made the two examples of robust humanity will be presented to each other.

Then may follow the only hitch in the plan. Either may decide the other impossible, and the match may therefore fail. But, taking it for granted that two persons, each judged by the laws of eugenics fit to become the parents of children, may be matched congenially, they will face the plan broached by Mr. Robinson.

Hopes to Test Theories.

"This is not original, except in the fact that we will carry it through if possible," said Mr. Robinson in a recent interview. "It has been mulled over by theorists. Now for a material experiment."

"It is suggested to me that a fund of $1,000 be raised to further the idea. One-half of it will go to the bride and the bridegroom when they are married. The other $500 will be theirs when the first child is born. To start the ball rolling, I can personally guarantee that the sociological fund of the Medical Review of Reviews will post $500."

"Now, it is for some person or organization interested to guarantee the other $500."

"The lists are open to anybody who chooses to enter the competition. We bar no man nor woman who is willing to be examined physically and mentally and to open the way for us to search his or her ancestry for physical or mental blemishes. The applicants shall be examined by physicians of their own sex."

Applicants Will Be Graded.

"We shall examine as many applicants as may apply. They will be graded on a percentage basis, and when we are satisfied that we have found one man and one woman who indicate their abilities to be the parents of healthy, clean and normal children we shall make an effort to have them marry."

"Social class will not be considered. We are examining the human animal, not searching for a Lochinvar. All applications may be sent to me at the offices of the Medical Review of Reviews."

Mr. Robinson's offices are located at 208 Broadway, New York city. On the sociological fund committee with him are Norman Hapgood, chairman; Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, Eugene Brieux, Mrs. Charlotte Perkins Gilman, Dr. Abraham Jacobi, Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, Sr., Ella Wheeler Wilcox and Dr. Ira S. Wile.

Applicants, men and women, should write at once to Mr. Robinson. Some degree of pulchritude is a necessary adjunct to physical wholesomeness.
