

THE CITIZEN

Semi-Weekly Founded 19 08; Weekly Founded 1844.

Published Tuesdays and Fridays by the Citizen Publishing Company.

E. B. HARDENBERGH, PRESIDENT; M. C. VAN ALSTYNE and E. B. CALLAWAY, MANAGING EDITORS; FRANK P. WOODWARD, ADVERTISING MANAGER AND FEATURE WRITER.

Directors: L. J. DOEFLINGER, M. B. ALLEN, E. B. HARDENBERGH, W. W. WOOD

TERMS: ONE YEAR $1.50-THREE MONTHS .75c; SIX MONTHS .75-ONE MONTH .13c

Remit by Express Money Order, Draft, Postoffice Order or Registered letter. Address all communications to The Citizen, No. 803 Main street, Honesdale, Pa.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1913.

THOUGHT FOR TO-DAY.

It does not take a great man to be a Christian, but it takes all there is in him.—The Evangel.

The establishment of penny postage between the United States and Great Britain has been amply justified by results obtained.

WELCOME TO TEACHERS OF DEAR OLD WAYNE.

Teachers of Wayne county, the people of Honesdale bid you welcome. During your stay among us the coming week the town and its residents sincerely hope that you will enjoy the many privileges that will be afforded and that when the forty-sixth annual session will have closed that you will be stronger intellectually and sociologically for having come in our midst.

Before leaving this historical town, where the first locomotive, the Stourbridge Lion, turned a wheel on the American continent, you are invited to visit The Citizen office, where is installed a Mergenthaler linotype, a type setting machine, which is one of the modern inventions of the age.

A HARD WORKING SUPERINTENDENT.

Over two hundred Wayne county teachers are in Honesdale this week to attend the forty-sixth annual institute, which is being held in the High school auditorium.

To Superintendent Koehler great credit is due for the method of teaching spelling in Wayne county. Spelling until Superintendent Koehler's system was adopted, was considered as a neglected branch in the school's curriculum.

THE CARBONDALE RIOT.

It would be weak as well as unwise for any local newspaper to ignore the riot sensation that occurred at Carbondale on Friday night.

The Scranton Times deals with the subject fairly and bravely, according to facts as thus brought to the surface. The Times says:

There can be defense for the riot and disorder which occurred at Carbondale last night, attending the speech of Robert Wilson in the Berean Baptist church.

The Times further takes up the other side of the case, and says that while the above is true—

It does not lessen in the slightest degree the heavy responsibility of Detective Robert Wilson and the people who were responsible for last night's meeting.

As to the speech complained of, The Times says it has reason to believe that it is unprintable, unspoken, almost unthinkable. It is a vile attack upon the Catholic clergy, the Catholic sisterhoods, Catholic organizations and Catholic laity.

The Times further voices its sentiments and concludes as follows: "We are strong believers in the constitutional right of 'freedom of speech.'"

"This is a polyglot nation in which people of all nations and all creeds are thrown together in a melting pot to produce the American of the future.

To sum up the matter, it would seem that Mr. Wilson was unwise in making such addresses; that those who engaged in the act of wrecking a church building are guilty of a great breach of the peace;

As to the right to explain one's view or belief before a private audience, opinions may differ.

"The riot of Friday night was a disgrace to us in the eyes of the state and the nation. It is something to cause every citizen to think profoundly.

Others may differ with Mr. Lee on this subject, but the view he takes seems to be sound and in the true spirit of the nation in which we live.

DESTROY TAMMANY.

"Tammamy must be destroyed," is the daily theme of the New York World. It has an historical precedent for this declaration in Roman history, when, as every school boy probably doesn't know, Cato used to close his speeches in the Senate with the remark, "Et delanda est Carthago."

FORTY-THREE YEARS IN SERVICE OF THE ERIE.

Conductor Charles Lord of the Honesdale Erie passenger train, celebrated his forty-third year in the service of the Erie company on Sunday.

During the forty-three years that Conductor Lord has been in the Erie's service he has never missed the pay car any month.

SOME CITIZEN COMMENT

Robinson Crusoe experiences in this age are so rare that they attract universal notice. The last to claim attention is that of a party of Esquimaux numbering, it is said, ten persons, who were rescued from an island in the mouth of Hudson's Bay, upon which they had been marooned for a period of ten years.

Woman Suffrage, or, more properly speaking, the Woman Suffrage subject, has now been put up to the Pope by a large number of leading prelates of the Catholic church for a definite expression of the church's attitude on the question of woman's suffrage.

Mrs. D. D. Jones, widow of D. D. Jones, the well-known undertaker who died five years ago, died at her home, 1731 North Main avenue, Friday morning at half-past ten o'clock from pneumonia, being ill only a few days.

TEACHERS, WHILE IN HONESDALE, THERE IS THE FARMERS BANK.

Wayne county school teachers will find Institute week a splendid time to get acquainted at the Farmers & Mechanics bank, and in "getting acquainted" they can find no better means of introduction than by opening a savings account.

Wayne County Teachers have possession of Honesdale this week, and they are surely as attractive a lot of Wayne Counteans as possibly could be found in many a day's journey.

Allen was the County Superintendent, and Earl Sherwood was Secretary. At that Institute Secretary Sherwood made an impromptu address that brought down universal applause.

"Red Shadow," the real story of the Wyoming Valley, written by Hon. John E. Barrett, has been published in book form by the Colonial Press, of Scranton.

Hon. John E. Barrett, has been published in book form by the Colonial Press, of Scranton. It is a handsome book, well printed and substantially bound.

STARRUCCA BOROUGH NOT SATISFIED WITH VERDICT.

Attorneys Mumford and Greene Move for New Trial on Grounds That Amount of Verdict Was Excessive.

The rule was granted to have the evidence and the charge of the Court transcribed.

They gave as their reasons for asking for a new trial the following: That the evidence of witnesses familiar with the bridge, that in their opinion it was unsafe for ordinary travel, should have been admitted.

That the verdict was against the weight of the evidence.

That the amount of the verdict was grossly in excess of any amount of damages shown to have been suffered by the plaintiffs.

The defendants reserve the right to file additional reasons within twenty days.

Death of Mrs. D. D. Jones.

Mrs. D. D. Jones, widow of D. D. Jones, the well-known undertaker who died five years ago, died at her home, 1731 North Main avenue, Friday morning at half-past ten o'clock from pneumonia, being ill only a few days.

THE CARBONDALE RIOT.

It would be weak as well as unwise for any local newspaper to ignore the riot sensation that occurred at Carbondale on Friday night.

KEPHART VICTOR OVER GRIM FOR SUPERIOR COURT.

Claims Plurality of 20,000 on Returns—$50,000,000 Road Loan Defeated 167,195 to 174,054.

Returns from sixty-one out of the sixty-seven counties in the State, including Philadelphia and Allegheny, indicate the election of John W. Kephart, of Cambria county, for Superior Court judge over Webster Grim, Bucks county, by a plurality of 13,131.

Mr. Kephart at his home at Ebensburg claimed his election by more than 20,000 plurality over Grim.

John W. Kephart, of Crawford county, received the highest vote of any of the four candidates for the Superior Court Judgeship, his margin over Kephart on the face of returns at hand being 14,958, while Grim leads Alcorn by 35,755 votes.

The total vote for the sixty-one counties was: John J. Henderson, Crawford county, 199,153.

Webster Grim, Bucks county, 171,054.

Returns from more than two-thirds of the counties in the State show that the proposed $50,000,000 bond issue to be used in road improvement, has been defeated by a substantial plurality.

N. B. Spencer was a business caller in Carbondale on Friday.

Evening Entertainments of County Teachers' Institute At the Honesdale High School Auditorium.

Monday, Nov. 10th, at 8:15. Wayne County High School Literary Contest. Admission, 25c. Reserved seats, 10c extra.

Tuesday, Nov. 11th, at 8:15. Character Studies from Life, by John B. Ratto, impersonator and humorist. Admission, 35c; reserved seats, 40c and 50c.

Wednesday, Nov. 12, at 8:15. Instrumental and Vocal Music and Readings, by The Maurer Sisters' Quartet. Admission, 35c; reserved seats, 40c and 50c.

Thursday, Nov. 13, at 8:15. "A Sample Case of Humor," by Strickland W. Gillilan, America's Foremost Humorist. Admission, 25c. No reserved seats.

Diagram open at Chambers' Drug Store every morning at 8 o'clock.

DEER SEASON OPENED MONDAY.

The deer season, which opened on Monday, November 10, promises to be as successful one in this region. Already hunters from eastern cities are commencing to arrive and establish their camps in the Poconos and Pike county.

The New Jersey season is already in progress, and across the river from Shawnee, Belvidere hunters got a fine two-year-old buck on Wednesday.

REPORT OF THE CONDITION OF THE WAYNE COUNTY SAVINGS BANK

HONESDALE, WAYNE CO., PA., at the close of business, Nov. 1, 1913.

RESOURCES

Table with 2 columns: Resource Name and Amount. Includes Reserve fund, Cash, specie and notes, Due from approved reserve agents, Legal securities at par, etc.

LIABILITIES

Table with 2 columns: Liability Name and Amount. Includes Capital Stock, paid in, Surplus Fund, Undivided Profits, less expenses and taxes paid, Individual deposits subject to check, etc.

State of Pennsylvania, County of Wayne, ss. I, H. Scott Salmon, Cashier of the above named Company, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true, to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 7th day of Nov. 1913. (Signed) ROBERT A. SMITH, N. P. (Notarial Seal.)

COMING LYRIC THEATRE Friday and Saturday Evenings, Nov. 14--15 The Gorgeous Musical Fantasia "THE ISLE OF NOD" 300 PEOPLE ON THE STAGE Auspices Honesdale Improvement Society Admission: 25-35-50-75 Board opens for both performances at Lyric Theatre Wed. morning Nov. 12, at 10

SCRANTON NOW HAS AN EATING PLACE THAT'S "DIFFERENT" Different because the cooking is different, different because the service is different, different because the surroundings are different, and last but not least, different because it's clean THE DELAWAN 511 Lackawanna Avenue