Say, Hawley People, This is About Rosenberg!

It may interest the readers of this department to get another word about that sleek salesman who collected money from Lakeville and Hoadleys people under the name of Rose, while he got his eats and sleeps in Hawley under the name of Berg, and who confessed when he was "pinched" by detective Spencer that his name was Rosenberg.

Plenty of Hawley People Are Now Eating Rabbit.

Rabbit potpie and rabbit ragout are now popular dishes down Hawley way. Ever since Saturday of last week there has been a smell of powder smoke in the air, the report of firearms has been heard from daylight to dark, hounds have been baying, and rabbits have been playing peek-a-boo!

As a matter of fact, all summer long rabbits were very plentiful. On an early morning drive from Hoadleys to Honesdale as many as a half dozen, at least, were seen nearly every morning.

The "Blues" Cleared the Sum Of Eighty-Six Round Dollars.

That social of the "Blues" was a big success. It was held in Watts's hall, which was tastefully trimmed for the occasion.

TOWN COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

Proceed with facts and figures, at which time it is expected some definite plan will be decided upon.

Penwarden Speaks Up in Meeting.

Councilman G. W. Penwarden, who always has the interest of Honesdale at heart, spoke up in meeting, stating that he did not see any reason for publishing borough ordinances or making new ones if the old ones were not lived up to.

President Caulfield and other members of the board were of the same opinion. An effort to enforce the borough ordinances will be made.

Riding on Sidewalks. The riding on sidewalks by bicyclists and owners of motorcycles is strictly prohibited. Parties so doing are liable to a fine if caught by the police.

State Law Neglected.

The state law prohibiting automobiles to stand in the street at night without being lighted is being violated in Honesdale every evening.

Place Service Pipes in Now.

The council desires to call attention to patrons of the water company to replace their service pipes before paving will have commenced, as after Main street has been paved permits to open the street will have to be obtained from the council.
