Geatano Macro, an Italian, had one of his countrymen, Giustino Colasando, arrested last week for assault and battery. The case was settled.

A strawberry, ice cream and cake festival will be held in the G. A. R. Hall on Wednesday evening of next week by the ladies of the Guiding Star lodge.

The manager of the DuBois opera house has become disgusted with sparing matches and will not allow any more in his place of amusement.

John W. Warnick, of the firm of McKee & Warnick, will represent the Jr. O. U. A. M. of Reynoldsville at the State Council, which meets at Easton, Pa.

The Grand Castle of the Knights of Golden Eagle met at Chambersburg the first of last week. Edwin Hoare was a delegate from the Reynoldsville Castle.

Villia, a little daughter of Andy Denny, is not expected to live. Whooping cough and consumption of the bowels is the trouble with the little girl.

A. I. Broadhead has in his possession a five dollar bill that was issued in 1833, almost sixty years ago. It is not as large as the five dollar bill of to-day. The currency shows its antiquity.

The pay car made its monthly trip over the A. V. R'y last week distributing nearly $200,000 to the company's employees. Fifty-five thousand of the above amount was paid out on the Low Grade.

Jack Long, who lives near Sabula, killed a bear in that section last week. Longs are noted as hunters. Jas. E. Long, of Brookville, cousin of the bear slayers, is now on the trail of the Assembly plume.

Walter Spry, the assessor, on account of illness, resigned the spring assessment on Monday and A. I. Broadhead was appointed to perform that work, and is now at it. The returns should be made before the 23rd inst.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian church will convene at Portland, Oregon, to-morrow, 19th. Inst. J. S. Elder, D. D., of Clarion, and John H. Moore, of Brookville, are the delegates from the Clarion Presbytery.

The Rev. George Rodgers, General Missionary of the Episcopal diocese of Pittsburg, will be assisted by the Rev. M. S. Hemenway, of DuBois, in conducting service in the Rathmel M. E. church next Sunday afternoon.

M. J. Farrell, the gentlemanly ticket agent, was a trifle disfigured a few days the past week by his right cheek being puffed out skin-tight. Neuralgia forces making an attack on one of his teeth was the cause of the swollen cheek.

Last Friday being Mrs. Thos. Mahoney's thirty-second birthday, some of her lady friends got up a surprise party and visited her home in the evening. Refreshments were served. About twenty-five ladies were present.

Last Sunday being the third anniversary of the Epworth League in the Methodist Episcopal denomination, the evening services in the church at this place were in charge of the League. An appropriate and interesting program was rendered.

Prof. G. M. Jaquay, of Butler, has commenced a musical convention in this place which will continue for three weeks, meeting on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Friday evenings. The Professor comes highly recommended as a musical instructor.

The large candle in Bell Bros. show window, that was placed there some time ago with an offer of a ten dollar suit to the one who could guess the nearest length of time it would take to burn the candle out, was lighted at 2.30 P. M. on the 16th, inst.

Viola McGaw, little daughter of E. T. McGaw, Esq., is now able to hobble around after being unable to walk for several weeks because of a sprained ankle which mishap she met with by a swing breaking and she falling only a distance of 18 or 20 inches.

A special car of the A. V. R'y, and also one from the P. R. R., with David McCargo, Gen. Supt. A. V. R'y, S. B. Rumsey, Supt. Low Grade Division and Vice President Greene and other officials of the P. R. R., passed over the Low Grade yesterday morning on their way to Pittsburg.

Dr. Neale, Alex. Riston and John C. Conser, who were at Kansas, on Bear Run, in Elk county, fishing last week, fished about seven hours and caught 171 "speckled beauties." They camped out and Alex. Riston "kicked" because their bed-room was open on three sides. Some people in this world are hard to satisfy.

Michael Brennan, the man who gives the A. V. Railway boys their supplies, has gone to Pittsburg to consult some of the eminent physicians of that city concerning a sore on his lower lip, which made its appearance several weeks ago. Mr. Brennan is an inveterate smoker and it is thought he has what is called "smokers cancer."

The Utopia Circle met at S. T. Daugherty's Monday evening. The evening was pleasantly spent. The ladies of this circle invite their husbands to attend their meetings every six weeks and then spread before them ham sandwiches, pickles and coffee at the eleventh hour, thus laying a foundation for dyspeptic "cranks" as household fixtures.

On Friday morning, after an illness of one week, Ottis Elwood Barton, little son of Harry E. Barton, of Rathmel, succumb to the terror of infancy—pneumonia. The remains were taken to Benetette, the home of the mother, Saturday afternoon for interment. John Smith and wife, and Mrs. E. Q. McHenry, of Rathmel, and Rev. H. G. Furbay, of this place, accompanied the bereaved parents to place of burial. Rev. Furbay conducting the funeral services.

Jas. G. Mitchell, of Perry Township, candidate for State Senate, was in Reynoldsville Monday. Mr. Mitchell is not idly waiting for the primary election in June, but, on the contrary, is getting acquainted with the people. At a meeting of the farmers' and miners' organizations held at this place last March, Mr. Mitchell received their endorsement. He is confident that Indiana will support him if he gets the nomination in Jefferson county. Mr. Mitchell has the ability to represent the people if elected.

On the 8th of April a Loyal Temperance Legion was organized at this place. It has a membership of fifty boys and girls with Mrs. H. S. Murray as superintendent, and Mrs. J. M. Hays, Misses Eleanor Reed, Eveline Sechrist, Mildred Sechrist and Olive Jones as teachers, Julia Kirk, organist, and Mary Harris, secretary. The object of the organization is to teach the young people to be temperate in all things and to abstain from the use of intoxicating liquor as a beverage. The Legion is undenominational and meets every Friday afternoon at 4.00 o'clock in the M. E. church. A cordial and earnest invitation is extended by the superintendent to all the boys and girls of Reynoldsville to attend these meetings.

On the editorial page of THE STAR will be found the announcement of Jas. E. Long, of Brookville, for Assembly. Mr. Long was born and reared in Jefferson county, the early years of his life were spent in tilling the soil. He engaged in the mercantile and lumber business, becoming an extensive lumber dealer. He was the first lumberman of Jefferson county to adopt the monthly pay system. Has always been a staunch Republican; served the country in the time of her need. In 1880 he was elected as a member of the Assembly for Jefferson county. While in the Legislature he voted for the monthly pay and anti-store order bill which was afterwards declared unconstitutional. He also voted for the amendment of "an act to limit the hours of labor constituting a day's work in this Commonwealth to eight hours."

Two Story Brick. A real estate deal was consummated last Monday afternoon the object of which we are pleased to note. Burgess J. M. Hays purchased from C. C. Gibson the property on Main street where Esq. McGaw has his office. Consideration $2,650.00. Mr. Hays is to get possession on the first of June when he will immediately commence tearing down the old frame structure now standing and will build a two story brick. What the new building will be used for is to be found out in the future, as Mr. Hays is loath to tell. While we are unable to inform our readers as to all the facts in the case, yet we rejoice that the old frame structure will be razed to the ground to give place to a brick building. May the day hasten when many more such transformations shall take place in Reynoldsville.

LATER.—H. Alex. Stoke, the druggist, is the gentleman for whom Mr. Hays purchased the property. Mr. Stoke will use the proposed new store room for his drug business. Alex. has succeeded in business through being energetic and enterprising.

A Weighty Body. Reynoldsville has a body of councilmen that mean business, and will not be trifled with. The Burgess and police are not slow in enforcing the law. If the present state of affairs continue we, as citizens of this borough, will have to be law abiding and as strict as the Pharisee. After while a young man will not even be allowed to burn a love letter on the street, and as for the housewife, she will not be permitted to empty the contents of the family coffee pot out of the kitchen window. It is barely possible that there will be a "let up" before such strictness shall prevail, although the law now forbids the burning of paper on the streets. It is useless to rebel, for if 1,164 pounds, avoidrupis, come down upon a man he will certainly be crushed. The average weight of the council is 194 pounds. The heaviest 240 and the lightest 164.

Not in it. The rumor that the tannery at this place is to be shut down for sixty days, is without the sanction of Hall, Vaughn & Co., proprietors. They did not enter into the agreement made by leather dealers at New York recently to close their tanneries for sixty days which is done to clear the market of an overstock, although over one hundred tanneries entered into such an agreement. The proprietors of this tannery prefer to be at liberty to run their business when it suits them to do so. Although the tannery may shut down for a short time, yet there have been no such indications manifested on the part of the proprietors.

Sample Copies. We are sending out sample copies of THE STAR hoping it may find favor with you and that you will send a substantial request for its appearance in your home for a year at least. We have endeavored to serve all with sample copies as far as possible, having no intention of slighting any who may desire to read the paper with a view of becoming a subscriber. In making up the mailing list last week a number of names were omitted unintentionally.

Read His Platform. This week we published the announcement of Dr. W. J. McKnight, of Brookville, for State Senator. The Doctor served in the Senate from 1880 until 1884. He now seeks a re-nomination. He is well known in Jefferson and Indiana counties and anything we might say would be superfluous. His platform is published in connection with his announcement. Read it.

Funeral Thursday. The funeral services over the remains of John Bone, whose tragic death was noted in THE STAR last week, will be held in the M. E. church Thursday afternoon at 2.30, Rev. W. P. Murray will preach the sermon. The funeral will be in charge of the I. O. O. F. of Reynoldsville. The remains will be interred in the new cemetery south of town.

A Business Change. Mrs. Elijah Trudgen has purchased E. Neff's grocery store. The new store will be run under the name of Lizzie D. Trudgen. Esq. Neff will devote his time hereafter in performing the duties of his office, Justice of the Peace, and will deal in real estate. His office will be in the room now occupied by C. J. Kerr after the first of June.

Both Convalescing. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Spry, who have both been seriously ill for the past month are now on a fair way to their usual health. Mr. Spry had pneumonia, while his wife was suffering with bronchitis and la grippe.

The ladies of Reynoldsville and vicinity are invited to call and see the large and stylish line of millinery goods and notions at Flo. Best's millinery store.

Walter Spry will, in connection with his insurance business, deal in real estate.

Go to McKee & Warnick's for your green goods Saturday.

Advertise in THE STAR.

Thrown From a Pony. Amelia Morrow, 11 year old daughter of Jos. S. Morrow, the merchant, narrowly escaped death or serious injury Monday afternoon. A few scratches about the face and badly bruised knees were the extent of injury. Mr. Morrow has a gentle little pony and was giving his daughter and Lydia Mellinger lessons Monday forenoon in horseback riding. At noon Amelia had come to the conclusion that she was an expert rider and told her papa that in the afternoon she would make Lucie—the pony—believe that she was Mertie Peek No. 2. Soon after the noon hour Mertie No. 2 mounted her little mustang and forgetting, just a trifle, her papa's instructions to wait until he was ready, the young rider rode up Third street and near Thos. Shields' house a newspaper that was lying in the street, was caught up in the brisk breeze and frightened the pony. The animal quickly turned to go the other way. Amelia lost her Mertie Peek grit, let go the reins, screamed and grabbed the horns of the saddle and the pony made a hasty return trip down the hill. Those who witnessed the scene expected to see the young miss dashed to the ground. Caesar Ferris ran in front of the pony at the Commercial hotel and stopped it. Amelia let go her death-like grip and fell to the ground uninjured with the exception of a few bruises and badly shaken up. The ambition that was at its zenith at noontide to become an expert rider went down behind the hill of disappointment long before the sun disappeared behind the western hills.

One New School Building Sure. The school directors have decided to build one new school building at least and will give the citizens, by special election, an opportunity to vote as to whether two new buildings, one in each end of town, shall be erected in place of one. As to the location of the new house, if only one, we are unable to state. The board, as mentioned last week, looked around for sites and have in view a lot near the Sankey property on Jackson street, for the east end building, and a lot near C. C. Gibson's property on Hill street, for west end. The board meets either this or to-morrow evening and will then come to some definite conclusion. They will do what they consider the best for all concerned, but if they were to listen to the many suggestions offered as to how this question should be settled, they would have a conglomeration of ideas that would be sufficient to confound a steam engine. THE STAR will not advise these gentlemen, who have been elected to their position by the people, what they should do—as we think it would be useless. It is an important question and should be viewed only in the light of the future benefit of our thriving town, and not in the interest of one man or one end of town. Whatever action the board may take in the matter they will be censured by some people. There are always people who see things their way and no other.

Prohibition Meeting. The Prohibitionists of this place held a meeting in Centennial hall Saturday evening. Notwithstanding the inclement weather the hall was packed. The meeting opened with a song by Lilly Runals, of New York, entitled "The Ninety and Nine." H. D. Patton, of Lancaster, State Chairman of the Prohibition party, talked an hour and thirty minutes on the claims the Prohibition party had upon American people, especially upon the professed christian people of the land. Miss Runal recited "The Kitchen Clock." A collection was asked for. "The Cows are in the Corn" was sung by Miss Runals. Mr. Patton explained the Baker Law and the meeting closed with a recitation by Miss Runals entitled "Rock of Ages." Miss Runals is a good singer, but evidently likes to have the people show their appreciation of her talent by encore. She was prepared for such an outburst, but silence predominated and the people missed what was in store for them and the singer's feelings were as thoroughly dampened as were the streets of Reynoldsville.

A Timber Deal. [Brookwayville Record.] E. C. Stuart, the Sugar Hill lumberman, has made another timber deal, this time out in Warsaw township, near Richardsville. He has secured 126 acres of land on which are 3,000,000 feet of pine and hemlock timber. The land was sold at sheriff's sale a short time ago, and Mr. Stuart bought it from the purchaser for the remarkably low sum of $800.

Mrs. A. E. Hetherington, the new millinery, carries a first-class line of goods. Everything of the latest styles. She handles fancy goods, gloves, corsets, &c. Located in the Broadhead building, Main street.—if.

Next Saturday you can get new cabbage, onions, cucumbers, lettuce, pine apples, radishes and other goods too numerous to mention at McKee & Warnick's, corner 5th and Main streets.

Mrs. Kate Smeltzer, the Jackson street millinery, has an elegant line of goods. Everything first-class. Give her a call.

Go to McKee & Warnick's for your green goods Saturday.

Erb's New Sensational Shows. Glaring bills were posted in this vicinity about the 7th inst. announcing that Erb's New Sensational shows would give one of their superb exhibitions in Reynoldsville on Saturday, May 14. Saturday morning four wagons drawn by fiery steeds that looked as if they had been fed on promises and groomed with corn-cobs, passed down Main street and across the bridge to vacant lot near the Moore House. It was discovered that the lot was not in a fit condition for such an excellent show to exhibit upon, and therefore, another place was looked for and found on the flat below Jackson street. The wagons were hauled to the place selected, which had been rented from a lady, for five dollars, who had no claim upon the land nor was she authorized to rent it, but did so as an act of accommodation to Thomas McCraight, the owner. Mr. McCraight was informed by his son that the show was occupying his ground. He appeared on the scene and in a gentlemanly way, as is Mr. McCraight's way of doing business, he inquired of them what right they had there and who gave them permission to occupy the ground. Mr. McCraight asked ten dollars for the privilege of remaining. One of the showmen, in a snappish, snarling manner, gave Mr. McCraight an invitation to take a trip to hades. The property owner immediately started for a "Squires office to have the trespassers arrested. Seeing they had a man to deal with who was not to be trifled with, they followed him and became very polite and talked pleasantly. The price of the ground was raised to $15.00. After considerable pleading on the part of the public entertainers a compromise was secured and they paid $10.00. On account of having trouble in getting a place to show, there was no performance on the ground in the afternoon excepting the exhibition of the illiterate, uncouth and profane gang traveling with the prodigious representation of what it was not. Some of the stars are DuBois boys. The rain prevented the African from taking a trip in his baloon. The band played and the show went on in the evening, however, if the clouds did empty their watery contents upon the canvas, and, not strange to say, they had a large crowd, but it is hard to find any one who was there.

Ninety Miles on Foot. Several weeks ago a young Miss of fourteen summers, who resided with her parents in Venango county, became weary of the monotonous routine of every day life under the parental roof and restraint, and decided to take a trip into Jefferson county and visit relatives near Reynoldsville. She packed her little "grip" and, with seventy-five cents in her purse, sallied forth to travel a distance of ninety miles on foot. She left home without bidding the other members of the family an affectionate farewell, in fact without even announcing her proposed journey to her parents. The father of Nellie Micough after missing his daughter started in pursuit of the girl but passed her in some way and arrived in Reynoldsville without catching her. He left a written description of the girl with the authorities here with instructions to arrest her. The maiden left home on Tuesday and on Thursday of the following week was intercepted on Jackson street by Policeman Mincer and taken before Squire McGaw. The girl at first gave a fictitious name. She said she walked because she would rather travel that way than ride on the cars. How she lived on her pleasure trip, was not revealed to the authorities. The father was telegraphed of her arrival. He answered to give her in charge of the relatives to whom she was on her way to visit. Now she is enjoying a visit on a farm near this place.

County Convention. The Prohibitionists held a County Convention in the Lutheran church at Brookville Monday afternoon, commencing at 2 P. M. Six delegates were elected to send to the State Convention to be held at Scranton, Pa., on the first of June, and one delegate to attend the National Convention at Cincinnati in June. S. P. Sprankle, of Grange, Pa., was nominated for Assembly; Solomon Shaffer elected County Chairman, and J. Van Reed, Secretary and Treasurer. A financial plan was adopted to raise money for campaign work. A mass meeting was held in the Court House in the evening which was largely attended. State Chairman Patton and Miss Lilly Runals were present and were highly appreciated by the large audience.

Go Spooning. Tea spoons, Table spoons, Berry spoons, Sugar spoons, Orange spoons, Ice cream spoons. At Hoffman's, the Reynoldsville jeweler.

Don't forget the festival in the G. A. R. Hall on Wednesday evening, May 25th, by the ladies of the Guiding Star lodge, No. 27.

Go to McKee & Warnick's for your green goods Saturday.

Miss Carrie Fink, who had been housed up for several weeks with erysipelas, is able to be out again. Mrs. Caesar Ferris went to Sunbury Monday as a delegate to the Daughters of Rebekah Convention. Mrs. W. F. Klugh, of Hill street, is convalescing from an attack of lung fever following the measles. Dr. A. H. Bowser and wife are enjoying a trip to Pittsburgh, Washington, D. C., and Baltimore this week. Mike Montgomery, an engineer on the A. V. R'y, went to work Tuesday morning after a 10 days' sickness. Andrew Cant, of Buffalo, N. Y., senior member of the firm of Cant Bros. & Co., was in town several days last week. W. K. Squires, of Falls Creek, one of the superintendents of Proctor's large tannery at that place, was in town Monday. A. C. Quigley, formerly an employee of Hopkins' big mill, is now sealing logs on the Degnan & McDonald job at Falls Creek. Dr. B. E. Hoover, Rev. E. T. Derr, C. C. Gibson, R. E. McKee and Solomon Shaffer were at the county seat Monday afternoon. Henry Bone, of Roslyn, Washington, accompanied the body of John Bone, which arrived here Tuesday on the one o'clock train. Miles Welsh and Henry Roden have purchased a livery stable at Punxsutawney and went over last Saturday to take charge of the same. J. A. Welsh, who went to Pittsburgh the first of last week to be treated for rheumatism, returned the latter part of the week feeling much better. Dr. W. J. McKnight, of Brookville, candidate for State Senate, was in Reynoldsville last week looking after his political interests in this section. Esq. E. Neff and wife were at Hazen, Pa., last Friday and Saturday. Mr. Neff went there for the purpose of organizing a G. A. R. Post. The organization was not perfected, but will be in the near future. Mrs. Samuel Skivington, Past Mistress of the Reynoldsville Guiding Star lodge, No. 27, went to Philadelphia Friday as a delegate to the Grand Lodge, A. P. L. A., of Pennsylvania, which convened in that city yesterday. L. M. Dennison, of Greene county, Ohio, C. W. Dennison and W. C. Price, of Warren, O., D. G. Dennison and A. K. Price, of Hubbard, O., members of the Hamilton Coal Company, that operated in this section a few years ago, were in Reynoldsville this week. John Kane, an employee of Hotel Belnap, left Reynoldsville Monday afternoon for a few days' visit to Pittsburgh, so said he. Tuesday morning Mr. Kane's Sunday girl left for a weeks' visit at her home in Oil City. Some of the people of a suspicious nature in town insinuate that there is to be a wedding in the vicinity of Oil City this week.
