The concert in the Opera House last night by DuBois talent was very good, but poorly patronized.

The Republican primaries will be held at the Burns House Saturday afternoon from 3:00 to 7:00 o'clock.

Fines imposed will be the outcome if boys in the east end are not more careful in selecting a place to go in bathing.

Gypsies have been camping near Reynoldsville of late, and fortune telling in consequence has been freely dispensed.

The scythe will soon be applied to the meadow lands and the scent of the new morn hay will be wafted on the evening breeze.

The K. of P. have had a new carpet put down in their hall, which makes an improvement in the appearance of the room.

The Knights of the Golden Eagle will hold a picnic at Beechtree on Friday, June 17th. Preparations are being made for a big day.

Mrs. E. Shaner expresses her thanks, through the columns of this paper, to all who were so kind to her during the illness and death of her son.

Men are at work tearing down the rink. They will only remove half of the building now. The lumber will be used for the erection of the new borough edifice.

Children's Day exercises will be held in the Lutheran church at 10:30 Sunday morning. An address by the pastor, Rev. E. Cressman, in German and English.

The people of Rathmel are making preparations for the Fourth. A dance in the K. of P. Hall, amusements of different kinds, &c., will be on the day's program.

Mrs. Erdice's music class, composed of 26 scholars, had their pictures taken in a group last Thursday at Corwin's. The scholars speak very highly of their instructor.

Drs. Neale and McHenry removed a tumor from Charles Lyle's chin Sunday. The young man lives at Rathmel. The operation was performed at Dr. Neale's office at this place.

In mentioning the floral contributions at Gerald Evans funeral, we were mistaken about the anchor. It was the three day crews, and not the night crew, that bought the anchor.

Punxsutawney hires eleven teachers for a term of nine months and pay the following salaries per month: Principal, $100; assistant principal, $75, and $50 to each of the other teachers.

The subscription list of THE STAR is increasing daily. The advertisers will make note of the fact that this paper is the advertising medium for them to use to get the value for their money.

Sam Whittaker, the horse jockey, furnished some sport on the street Saturday trying to persuade a "kicker" to work single in a buggy. Sam says the nag will work alright with another horse.

The fire company, of which F. J. Black is foreman, that is four or five members out of thirty-five, washed the hose, put new washers in and cleaned up the hose cart on Monday. It is a splendid plan to have everything in good working order.

Children's Day services will be held in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning, and in the evening appropriate services will be held to celebrate Rev. H. G. Furby's first anniversary as pastor of the church.

A beautiful monument to mark the tomb of Joseph and Susanna Cathers, was erected in Beulah last Friday. Joseph and Scott Cathers, two sons, purchased the marble from Aaron Rodgers, the marble cutter.

Brookville has really awakened sufficiently to establish a large furniture factory within her limits. We are unable to give our readers the actual cause of this enterprising streak that has seized the county seat.

Negotiation are being made for 5,000 acres of coal land in proximity to Reynoldsville that if consummated will dump a half million dollars into the coffers of this vicinity, and there is some hopes of the deal being a sure thing.

We mentioned last week that a damsel of this place was soon to be entangled in the nuptial knot. "Airs" many a "Snider" knot tied than this on the matrimonial sea, even through it be under the jurisdiction of a fur bay.

Reynoldsville is the place to spend the Fourth. Elaborate preparations are being made for a big time here. Here's your invitation to be sure and come to the largest town in Jefferson county to celebrate the Glorious Fourth.

Mrs. John Quinlin, nee Lillian Coax, daughter of Esq. J. T. Coax, of this place, died at her home in Omaha, Neb., Wednesday, June 8th. Mrs. Quinlin was well known in Reynoldsville. She leaves two little girls to mourn the loss of a mother.

Bolger Bros., the clothiers, have moved into the room formerly occupied by C. H. Gordon. They have had a large sign put up in front of their new place of business. This firm will be able to do business with more comfort now than in their former place.

Next Saturday will be the fourth anniversary of the great fire at DuBois. The brick buildings of the town stand as witnesses that the fire was a blessing in disguise for that place. Often times it is necessary to make a sacrifice that good results may follow.

The Big Run Echo wants the cemetery at that town to be a delightful place, so enticing that thither the citizens shall joyously meander and the visitors to the town gladly embrace the opportunity granted them of a stroll through the graveyard to get away from the quietness of the town.

DuBois has another daily paper. On Monday evening the Express issued their first daily edition. It is to be an evening paper. The Courier has the advantage by far, as it leaves DuBois on morning trains East, West, North and South, while the Express will have but two evening trains.

About four members of the P. O. S. of A. lodges of Rathmel and Reynoldsville went to Falls Creek on Friday evening on a special train over the R. & F. C. R. R. to assist to institute a lodge at that place. One hundred Patriotic Sons of America paraded the streets of Falls Creek, headed by the band of that place. The new lodge is No. 654.

Verna, little daughter of Ross Clawson, who tarried in that home circle 10 months and 2 days, departed this life at 7:00 A. M. Saturday, June 11th, 1892. The funeral services were held at the house Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. W. P. Murray, and the little remains were interred in Beulah beside a sister who died several years ago.

Lock Haven is threatened with a boom, caused by the large quantity of fire clay deposited in that neighborhood. If the Evening Express is a criterion of the life of the town it is certainly going to get there. The Express is an excellent evening paper. Its latest improvement is the Associated Press news. Its new pages bespeak for it a successful journalistic career.

Rev. Messiah Mesropian delivered a very interesting lecture to a fair-sized audience in the Baptist church last Wednesday evening. His lecture was on the character, habits, government and religion of the quaint, oppressed, barbaric Turks. The lecturer was a native of Armenia, but is now a naturalized citizen of the United States. He is preparing himself for Missionary work.

Sunday next, June 19, will be observed by the Methodist Episcopal church as Children's Day. There will be at 11 A. M. a children's concert service prepared by the pastor entitled, "A crown of life." Its theme is, "Our years God's gift." A birthday missionary collection will be taken. In the evening the pastor will deliver an address to the young people and children on Epworth League, Sr. and Jr. branches.

The remains of Harry Shaner, who died Tuesday night, were buried in Beulah cemetery Friday afternoon. The services were held at the house, conducted by Revs. W. P. Murray and J. H. Jelbert. The I. O. O. F. and O. U. A. M. turned out, he being a member of both lodges. The floral contributions from the O. U. A. M. and employees of the tannery were very pretty. The funeral was largely attended. Harry was 27 years old and unmarried.

Tumor Removed.

Drs. King, Neale and Sharp removed a non-malignant tumor from Mrs. David Brumbaugh's left breast the other day.

Razed to the Ground.

The old building on the lot purchased by H. Alex. Stoke from Gibson, has been torn down, and the work of digging a cellar 30x30 feet will be commenced at once. The erection of a two-story brick building on the lot will be pushed along as rapidly as possible.

With a Sickle.

Agnes Bolger, daughter of Patrick Bolger, had the toes of her left foot badly hacked with a sickle yesterday. Her sister, Maggie, was cutting grass and accidentally cut her toes. It was not serious, yet Agnes will not get around for several weeks.

Knocked Silly.

T. J. Davis, foreman at the coke ovens, met with a mishap Monday afternoon that knocked him silly for awhile. He was dropping a car down when the brake chain broke, throwing him on the side of the car, which struck him under the chin, effecting his mind. He is rapidly regaining his wonted sensible faculties.

"Phosphorus and Water."

Rev. Harvey Graeme Furby, the eloquent and talented pastor of the Presbyterian church, will deliver a lecture in the Opera House, Friday evening, June 17th. Subject: "Phosphorus and Water." Proceeds of the lecture are for the benefit of the Y. P. S. of C. E., to send a delegate to the International Convention to be held at New York City next month.

Minus Part of a Finger.

Chas. Benson, who has been working at the tannery for sometime, commenced work as a brakeman on the R. & F. C. R. R. on Monday last week and on Saturday morning laid off for a few weeks to allow the stub of a finger on the right hand to heal up. Dr. Bowser trimmed up the ragged end of the finger. Making a coupling was the cause of the accident.

At the Baptist Church.

Children's Day exercises were held in the Baptist church Sunday evening. The church was crowded and the program, consisting of songs, recitations, &c., was very interesting. The church was neatly and beautifully prepared for the occasion with potted flowers and spruce. The flowers were built up 10 feet high behind the pulpit and a wreath of evergreen was put up in front of the altar. The collection amounted to $12.21.

An Outcast.

F. P. Adelsperger, the Humane agent in this place, has in his charge a girl about sixteen years old that will be given to any one who will keep her. The father will furnish the necessary clothing for the young miss. The chief-of-police took charge of her Sunday morning. The girl's father dressed one of her eyes in mourning and turned her out of his home. This is a good opportunity for some one to perform a charitable act by providing a home for the outcast.

Death from an Explosion.

Barney Lindenmuth, who was almost instantly blown into eternity at the fire clay bank at Iowa Mills, on the 4th inst., died from the effects of his injuries on Sunday night, June 12th. He was employed in mining fire clay and a blast having failed to ignite, he was in the act of again setting fire to the fuse, when the blast went off. The force of the explosion threw him a distance of about 25 or 30 feet, his body being badly lacerated and bruised. He suffered terribly for eight days.

One for Parley.

Rev. P. P. Womer, of Carrington, North Dakota, son of D. R. P. Womer, of Reynoldsville, delivered the Memorial address for the G. A. R. Post at Carrington. The Foster County Independent in speaking of the occasion said: "The address of the day was delivered by Rev. P. P. Womer, subject 'Our Country's Heroes.' The address proved to be one of the most scholarly and eloquent speeches ever heard in Carrington, and it is doubtful if a better speech was ever made in South Dakota. During the speech and at its close the audience heartily applauded Rev. Womer's able effort."

A $50 Thief.

A tramp who gave his name as Brownie, but who had alias attached two or three times, came into this section recently and really pretended that he wanted to go to work, and hired out with Degnan and McDonald, but his health failed him before the hour arrived; for him to commence working. After lingering around the camp several days he left and went over into the Paradise Settlement and hired out in McMinn's camp. Here, to, he became ill before working time and laid around several days. On Wednesday morning of last week he left this job to look for another one. Before leaving, however, he rifled Alexander Dickey's pockets, relieving that gentleman of $50 of hard earned money. Brownie, alias, alias, got on the afternoon train at this place and has gone to a more healthy section, perhaps to hire out with other log jobbers.

A Wagon Wheel Did It.

An accident, caused by a wagon wheel, occurred Monday afternoon that will cost some one a half hundred dollars. Several small boys got a heavy wagon wheel on the hill near Ed. Seeley's and started it down the steep grade towards Fifth street. With every revolution the wheel increased in velocity and when Fifth street was reached the boys' plaything was spinning around rapidly. James Cochran lives on the lower side of the street. Mrs. Cochran was sitting near the window and her little son was standing looking out of the window. She heard a noise and looked out as the wheel was crossing the street. She grabbed her boy and jumped just as the iron-handed demon crushed through the window, smashing the side of the house below the window sill and bound on into the house and broke some dishes. Mrs. Cochran did not get out of the way quite quick enough and one of her ankles was bruised some. Had she not heard the noise made by the wheel striking a log on the opposite side of the street, we would, doubtless, have to chronicle the death of the boy and perhaps the mother also. The boys that gave the inanimate wheel the start will not likely engage in any such sport soon again.

Do Likewise.

On Saturday, June 25th, there will be an election held in the borough of Reynoldsville for the purpose of ascertaining whether the people of this place are in favor of increasing the indebtedness of the borough, the money accruing therefrom to be used in building a new school house. The little village of New Bethlehem voted on a $10,000 school building. We clip the following from the Brookville Democrat in regard to the election.

"Recently the electors of New Bethlehem voted on the question of whether they would have a new school building, to cost over $10,000. The election was held under the provisions of the Baker ballot law. Representative Cribbs, who lives in New Bethlehem, writing of the election says: 'We opened our polls at 1 P. M. and closed at 7 P. M. 129 votes were cast, 118 for the new building, 9 against it, and 2 deficient ballots. Our people are much pleased with the new system of voting, and pronounce it a decided improvement over the old one. In twenty minutes after the last ballot was cast we had a full return of the result. The election board was pleased with the system.'"

Oust Them.

A number of Punxsutawneyites formed themselves into a ousting committee one day last week to wait upon some tramps who had been loitering in that neighborhood for a few days. The vagabonds must have got an inkling of the intended visit for they "skipped" for new shelter. If those worthless, cumbersome individuals received the genuine homespun evidence of their obnoxiousness to the thrifty and industrious citizens of Reynoldsville and other places by a free ride upon a rail or some other persuasive treatment of no gentle nature, it would be a splendid disinfective, and their class would not be so well represented. There is one obstacle in the way of ridding this country of the tramp, that is the generous hearted women of the land. As a general thing they feed every dirty rascal that comes along.

Relief Committee.

The Oil City and Titusville disaster has touched the hearts and pocket books of other towns. An effort will be made to raise money here for the sufferers. The following committees have been appointed by their respective churches. Rev. Father Brady expects to have a request for help from the Catholic church, and, hence, has not yet appointed a committee. J. T. Guthrie, Reece Williams and Daniel Strouse, from Presbyterian; J. J. Sutter and F. M. Brown, the M. E.; Geo. McKnight and D. W. Atwater from the Baptist; Fred Weiss, of Rathmel, and John Benson, of this place, from the Lutheran.

An Excursion.

On Sunday, June 19th, the new addition to the Catholic church at Lindsey will be solemnly dedicated. For the benefit of those who are anxious to witness the ceremonies, and others who may be glad of an opportunity to visit Punxsutawney on the above occasion, the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh R'y will run a special train, leaving Reynoldsville at 7:45 A. M., Johnsonburg at 6:15 A. M., passing Falls Creek at 8:15 A. M., arriving at Punxsutawney at 9:30 A. M. Returning, leave Lindsey at 3:30 P. M. and Punxsutawney at 3:40 P. M. Rates as follows: Reynoldsville, $1.00; Falls Creek, 85 cents; DuBois, 75 cents.

Only a Rumor.

The rumor that Chas. L. Dunlap, of Punxsutawney, and Alberta E. Cochran, of Reynoldsville, were to be married in the M. E. Church Sunday morning at the regular services hour, was freely talked about on Saturday, especially by the young people. Such a thing has rarely, if ever, occurred in this town, and would naturally arouse curiosity. But the report of Dame Rumor was the product of some fertile imaginary mind. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents on Hill street at 10 o'clock Sunday morning.

HURRAH, FOR THE FOURTH!

If You Want a Good Time, Come to Reynoldsville.

Two weeks from next Monday the day we celebrate will come in on the wheels of time. The American Eagle, now being tenderly cared for at this place, will spread its broad wings all over this vicinity and utter the loudest and most far-reaching screams ever heard in Reynoldsville. The people far and near will lay aside their everyday duties and hasten to this place to enjoy one of the best demonstrations they have ever witnessed. A complete program of amusements for the day has not been arranged yet, but sufficient to assure you a glorious time if you will come. Fantastic and industrial parade, fire works, ball games, &c., &c., for you to enjoy while your patriotic spirit will be keyed up to a high pitch by the delightful music furnished by the brass bands engaged for the day. Oh, yes, we will have the crowd. Those who are not tired enough when Old Sol hides behind the hills and desire to do so, can trip the light fantastic in the Opera House until the morning hours.

The Jr. O. U. A. M. lodge will invite about 35 lodges to be here and participate in the parade and festivities of the day.

The various committees appointed to see that the affair is a complete success are:

On advertising, Frank J. Black, Alex. Riston, R. E. McKee.

On amusements: W. J. Weaver, Geo. McKnight, Barney Martin, H. A. Stoke, Dan. Hetrick, Geo. Mellinger, Prof. W. H. Stamey, Clarence Flick.

On soliciting: H. S. Belnap, D. F. Robinson, Dr. J. S. McCreight, C. F. Hoffman, J. D. Woodring, P. A. Hardman.

On music: A. M. Woodward, J. W. Warnick, H. A. Stoke.

Over eight hundred dollars has already been subscribed to meet the expense. We will give more particulars next week. This will be the only celebration worthy of your attention. Don't fail to be here. Come early.

Vote of Thanks.

Perhaps it will seem rather late for this, but as our first meeting since Memorial Day was held Friday night, an entire expression could not be obtained sooner. To be sure a special meeting could have been called for this purpose, but the members of the Corps were so exhausted after giving a free dinner to over three hundred people, that it was too much to ask of them to meet so soon again. Right here is a good place to correct a circulating report that our Corps is "about dying." The truth of the matter is, it never was in a more flourishing condition in many respects, its membership now being larger than ever before. But if it ever does die, the truthful verdict rendered will be "It came to its death by overwork."

VOTE OF THANKS.

On Friday evening, June 10, a unanimous vote of thanks was given to the following by the John C. Conser W. R. C., No. 75: To Prof. Jaquay, who, although a stranger in our midst, took more interest in our town that appropriate music be rendered than did those whose interests are identified with the place. To him is especial thanks given and to all those who assisted him on the 29th and 30th of May in the beautiful and appropriate melodies that were so highly appreciated by all who heard. To the bands who so generously responded to the call for music. To Conser & Green for loan of horses and driver, and Thos. Tapper for hack, to each and all who assisted in commemorating our Nation's funeral day, was this vote of thanks given, and to all we are indeed deeply grateful.

MARGARET R. GORSLINE, MELISSA D. SCOTT, Pres. W. R. C. Secretary.

A Birthday Surprise Party.

On June 11th the many friends of Mrs. Hannah Lyons met at her home, about one mile east of Prospect Hill, to celebrate her sixty-eight birthday. It was a surprise to her, as she knew nothing of it until the carriages arrived with the people who had with them well filled baskets and presents. The day being one of nature's brightest, the tables were set in the orchard and loaded with everything that was good. After the guests gathered around the table, Mr. John Mulholland asked God's blessing for all. When the edibles were disposed of then followed the good wishes of the friends and giving of the presents, which consisted of money, dresses, aprons, towels, dishes, and other things too numerous to mention. Last, but not least, we wished Aunt Hannah Lyons and her worthy husband, Uncle Clark, many returns of their birthdays, and hope we can meet with them many more times in the future. There were seventy-six friends, old and young, that enjoyed the occasion.

Changed Hands.

Dr. S. Reynolds has sold his drug store to Dr. W. B. Alexander and H. C. Deible. The new firm has taken charge of the store. Dr. Reynolds will rent a room on Main street and continue his large practice. He will be found at his residence on Main street until he secures a suitable room for an office.
