

Subscription $1.50 per year, in advance.

An independent local paper, published every Wednesday at Reynoldsville, Jefferson Co., Pa., devoted to the interests of Reynoldsville and Jefferson county. Non-political, will treat all with fairness, and will be especially friendly towards the laboring class.

Subscription price $1.50 per year, in advance. Communications intended for publication must be accompanied by the writer's name, not for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith. Interesting news items solicited.

Advertising rates made known on application at the office in Reynoldsville, Pa. Lengthy communications and change of advertisements should reach this office by Monday noon.

Address all communications to C. A. Stephenson, Reynoldsville, Pa.

Entered at the postoffice at Reynoldsville, Pa., as second class mail matter.

C. A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1892.

The Pittsburg Post celebrated its fiftieth birthday Saturday.

Thursday, September 22nd, is the day that ushers in the Hebrew New Year this year.

James G. Mitchell, of Perry township, received the nomination as Republican candidate for State Senator.

Forty men who were born in foreign lands and have been in the United States for five years, received naturalization papers at Brookville last week.

The question in the minds of the Young Americans to-day is, whether 'tis nobler to aspire for the presidency of these United States or to practice for a pugilistic bull-dog?

America's Quaker poet, John Greenleaf Whittier, died at Hampton Falls, New Hampshire, last Wednesday morning. He was eighty-five years old.

The Republican Congressional conference of the twenty-first district, after taking four hundred and thirty-one ballots, succeeded in making a nomination at Saltsburg last Friday which was accomplished by Jefferson, Indiana and Armstrong county conferees combining. D. B. Helmer, of Kittanning, who has served two terms as district attorney, was the nominee.

A young lady was inquiring of her old nurse, the widow of a pensioner, how she got on.

"Badly enough, darlint, only the Government intends to do something for us."

"And what's Government, Nora?"

"Is it joking yo are, Miss? Sure every child knows what's Government. Its a half a dozen gentlemen and such as they, may be, that meets and thinks what's best for themselves, and then they say that's best for us--and that's Government."

There is nothing which so narrows the heart, shuts up the fountains of sympathy, quenches aspiration toward virtue and nobleness, and shrivels all that is lovely in character as the vain endeavor to live for one's self. The economies of this world are so contrived that he who truly lives for others reaps the richest rewards of life for himself; and he who lives for himself alone receives the most niggardly pittance given any one from his own revenues. Unhappy the man, wretched the woman, who has no object upon which to lavish affection, for which to make sacrifices. For them life loses its significance; for them death is oblivion indeed.

The only effective remedy for lawlessness is law, and whoever undertakes to remedy the defects of the established system of law and its administration by taking the law into its own hands and killing men who are in the hands of the courts and the officers of the law, simply makes a bad matter worse, and defeats the very ends which he professes to desire to have accomplished. The noonday butcher is no less foreign to American civilization than the midnight assassin, and the sober "under-current of feeling" of American citizens of all nationalities will be found deprecating all attempts, by whomsoever made, to correct any wrong by the perpetration of a much greater one. There is an innate sense of justice in all civilized men which sooner or later will come to the front, and the civilization of the many can always be depended upon to ultimately overcome the barbarism and lawlessness of the few.

Tired fathers, weary mothers, when is your happy day coming? Long since you expected it to dawn. It is not here yet, nor will it ever be so long as you do not determine that it shall be to-day. This failure to take comfort as you pass along life's pathway, but ever looking forward for all enjoyment, of good, is throwing away the real sweets of life. You may as well attempt to store up summer sunshine to warm in winter, or bottle moonshine for cloudy nights. The real and only true way is to find in the present all the good God gives us. Our whole lives may be filled with joy if we are willing to learn that in all good work there is profit, in all sorrow are some rays of sunshine, and in all care some compensation. Make the most of to-day, and your future will grow brighter and brighter as you step into it. Let the old saying that "Man never is, but always to be, blessed" be proven false by your finding in the present all the fullness of blessing it really possesses.

Jane Coombs at the Opera House

The management of the opera house takes pleasure in announcing to its patrons that it has secured for next Saturday evening one of the greatest attractions of the day, that of Miss Jane Coombs, in her favorite characters of "Lady Dedlock" and "Hortense" in Charles Dickens' "Bleak House." The Brooklyn Citizen in speaking of this performance says:

The presentation by the same person of two entirely dissimilar and diverse characters during the same performance is the greatest test of genuine artistic ability, and for that reason the public has always manifested an extraordinary interest in such exhibitions. This interest was apparent last night, and Miss Coombs stood the test without a falter. The excellence of Miss Coombs' conception of "Lady Dedlock" and "Hortense," two characters directly opposed to each other is only equalled by the remarkable naturalness of the portrayal. Naturally beautiful and stately in appearance, regal in bearing, and combining those other qualities of character and disposition which tend to make a gentle and amiable woman, Miss Coombs gives us an ideal "Lady Dedlock." In the careful guarding of her secret she displays her wonderful artistic powers, particularly in the scene where the shrewd "Tulkinghorn" subjects her to a cross-examination to extort a confession. Her forced composure while in the lawyer's presence (all the while making her audience feel her true condition) and her assumed cool indifference to his most direct allusions, while her real agony of soul battles with her nerve will, are specimens of true emotional excellence. As "Hortense," the French maid servant, she is afforded the opportunity to vent her terrible passion, and when in the very heat of exasperation she seems to attain her greatest strength. Every word she utters throughout the entire performance is marked by a careful modulation, and her enunciation where she defies "Tulkinghorn," is simply grand, and the power of her voice is simply phenomenal. It would be difficult to say in which role she excels, doing both with equal merit.

Advertise in THE STAR.

To rise in the morning with a bad taste in the mouth and no appetite, indicates that the stomach needs strengthening. For this purpose, there is nothing better than an occasional dose of Ayer's Pills taken at bed time.

Rathmel.

Mrs. David Price is ill. Thomas Lord moved to DuBois on Monday.

Rev. McIntire preached in the M. E. church Sunday night.

Rev. Hemenway preached in the M. E. church Sunday afternoon.

There will be several new houses erected in our town in the near future.

M. Kalfelts lost a "V" on the Sullivan-Corbett fight and Ed. Moore found it.

Mrs. Wm. Walker and Mr. and Mrs. John Wylam were witnesses at court at Brookville all last week.

Quite a number of K. G. E.'s from this place participated in the parade in Reynoldsville on Tuesday.

A certain man in town ate one half of a large water-melon and four ears of corn on Saturday. They claimed a legal excuse for his being absent at church on Sunday morning.

The Presbyterians of this place organized a congregation on Thursday night. Rev. Furbay and Rev. Bell, of DuBois, were the committee appointed by the Clarion Presbytery to perfect the organization. The congregation starts with about fifty members. The Elders elected were John Smith, Dr. E. Q. McHenry and Gavin Young.

On Columbus Day, October 21st, the P. O. S. of A. camp at this place will plant an emblem of Liberty on each of our school houses at this place, and arrangements are being made to make the occasion one of the grandest that Rathmel has ever had.

Good speakers will be secured and a good dinner will be served. Not only members of the order but every loyal American should take an interest in having the stars and stripes floating over our public and free schools.

In all that goes to strengthen and build up the system weakened by disease and pain, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the superior medicine. It neutralizes the poisons left in the system after diphtheria and scarlet fever, and restores the debilitated patient to perfect health and vigor.

Men's Good Year welt shoes $2.50 at Robinson's.

List of Letters.

The following letters remain uncalled for at the postoffice in Reynoldsville, Pa., Sept. 10th, 1892:

August Pattauf, N. G. L. Shilitto, Leroy Soult, James Bennett, William Carrol, W. G. Brown, Thomas Beer, James Dayton, M. L. Conclae, C. W. Gibson, Rev. A. A. DeLarme, William Parker, FORTKIN.

Josel Jotkiwico, Andrea Caterino, Yurko Muba.

When calling for the above letters please say they were advertised.

J. W. FOUST, P. M.

Strayed or Stolen.

About the 25th of July, a roan cow, with large horns, strayed or was stolen from our premises. A liberal reward will be paid for return.

GREEN & CONSER.

For Sale.

Celebrated Caledonia sand. No sifting required. Tom McKernan, Drayman.

FOR SALE CHEAP—A leather top "Columbus" buggy in excellent condition. Enquire at Methodist parsonage.

FOR RENT—Two store rooms 20x80 feet opposite Hotel Bolnap. Enquire of J. H. Corbett.

FOR SALE—One car No. 1 18-inch Washington red cedar shingles.

S. SHAFPER.

Boys all solid shoes at Robinson's only $1.00.

Drifting with the Cabs.

TANGREN—EKLUUD—On Friday, Sept. 9th, 1892, at the home of the bride's parents in Prescottville, by Rev. E. Crossman, assisted by Rev. J. Telleen, James Tangren and Mary Eklund.

DISSOLUTION NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that the partnership existing between Bell Bros. and Geo. W. Stoke, Jr. of Reynoldsville, Pa., under the name of Bell Bros. & Co., was on the 5th day of Sept. 1892 dissolved by mutual consent. All debts owing to the said partnership are to be received by Bell Bros. and all demands on the said partnership are to be presented to them for payment.

Geo. W. Stoke, Jr., BELL BROTHERS.

Grocery Boomers

BUY WHERE YOU CAN GET ANYTHING YOU WANT. FLOUR, Salt Meats, Smoked Meats, CANNED GOODS, TEAS, COFFEES AND ALL KINDS OF Country Produce FRUITS, CONFECTIONERY, TOBACCO, AND CIGARS, Everything in the line of Fresh Groceries, Feed, Etc. Goods delivered free any place in town. Call on us and get prices. W. C. Schutz & Son.

KNOW ME BY MY WORKS

I have removed 30 tape worms in the last 40 months, and can show more cures of Catarrh, Cancer, Scrofula, Eczema and all blood diseases than all others. I treat through the blood with Nature's remedies, roots and herbs. System Renovator, the Wonder of the World, for sale at all drug stores. Use it. It is making the patent medicine men look sick and the grave yards green. Send stamp for circulars and information. Office open from 8 A. M. until 9 P. M. DR. J. A. BURGOON, 47 Ohio Street, ALLEGHENY, PA. H. ALEX. STOKER, the Druggist.

City Meat Market

I buy the best of cattle and keep the choicest kinds of meats, such as

MUTTON, PORK, VEAL, AND BEEF, SAUSAGE.

Everything kept neat and clean, Your patronage solicited.

E. J. Schultze, Prop'r.

MONEY made easy Manufacturing Rubber Stamps. Send for Price List of Outfits, to J. F. W. Dorman & Co., 217 East German Street, Baltimore, Md., U. S. A.

MONEY IN YOUR POCKET!

Twenty-Four of the largest manufacturers of Wall Paper in the United States, representing a capital of $26,000,000, have formed a combined, or trust, as you please, and it means higher prices to the consumer next year. Now, then, if your house needs papering and you "guess you will leave it go until spring," its money in your pocket to do it now. Again, before the Wall Paper season of 1893 begins I expect to be in my new building and if possible I do not want to move a single roll of paper and to save this trouble, I will make you prices that will induce you to do the "moving" and put MORE money in your pocket. Nothing reserved. The entire stock at wonderfully reduced prices.

THE OUR LINE, WALL PAPER, DRUGS, PAINTS, BOOKS, STATIONERY. THE LEADER IN LEADER IN

Always away up front in the grand mercantile procession. Keeping step with the rank and file in Low Prices and Good Value. H. ALEX. STOKER, REYNOLDSVILLE, PA.