Trains Nos. 1, 2, 5 and 6 have been hauling an extra coach between Brookville and DuBois the past week to accommodate the passenger traffic during the session of court at Brookville.

There is a young lady within the borough limits who pines for the opportunity to become some nice young man's helpmate in steaming the turbulent waters of the matrimonial sea.

The correspondent from here to the DuBois Express says: "Alex. Riston has a force of carpenters and brick-layers at work and will push his new building to a rapid completion." Where and what is he building?

A. L. Lehman, of Lock Haven, who was elected by the school board as teacher of room No. 2, accepted the position of principalship of the Penfield schools. The board had to look for another teacher.

A number of Reynoldsville nimrods have been hunting the frisky grey and black squirrels since the season opened, Sept. 1st. Henry Deible brought in eleven squirrels one day last week, which is the largest string for one day's hunting in this section.

Rev. H. G. Furbay, of the Presbyterian church, and Rev. E. T. Derr, of the Baptist, conducted the funeral services for Rev. Murray's little baby last Thursday morning. The remains were interred in Beulah cemetery.

The DuBois Courier issued almost three thousand papers last Thursday morning. The Courier is getting there as a morning paper. It furnishes late news five hours ahead of any other daily coming to Reynoldsville.

Carmine Jarussi, an Italian umbrella mender and scissor grinder, was in Reynoldsville last Friday and gave E. Neff $343.00 to send to Mrs. Domenico Jarussi Di Pietro in Italy. Jarussi gets here annually and sends money to Italy.

John W. Phillippi, the Granger, Democratic candidate for Assembly, farm machine agent, and a generally very busy man, was in Brookville this week looking after his interests at the county seat while many of the citizens of the rural districts are attending court.

This term of court has the largest number of Commonwealth cases ever presented at the tribunal of Jefferson county at one session. Ninety-seven was the highest ever reached before, this time one hundred and one cases were the number requiring investigation by law.

John H. Murray, of Horatio, who was principal of the West Reynoldsville schools several years ago, was in town several days this week. Mr. Murray expects to practice medicine and will go to Philadelphia the latter part of this month to attend the Midco Chirurgical of that city.

Rev. T. Telleen, of Rock Island, Ill., preached in the Lutheran church, in the English and Swedish languages, last Friday evening, to a good sized audience. His subject was, "The Suffering Ones and the Suffering One." The discourse was a very interesting one and would, no doubt, be of lasting benefit to those who heard it.

The K. G. E. celebration caused lots of excitement, but it was only for a day. The arrival of the large line of new goods being received by C. F. Hoffman is causing a sensation that will be of long duration, for every one that calls and sees his new and attractive goods tell their friends how grand they are, and so the ball is kept rolling.

The best map of this state ever made, in seven colors, on bond paper, in strong cover. It is handsomer, handier, than any map yet published, and better because corrected every three months. All counties, rivers, railroads, post-offices. Any man can sell them and make money fast; send 15 cents for sample copy and agency, to The axton.

The Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church held a moonlight social at Samuel Sutter's, West Reynoldsville, last Thursday evening. About sixty young people were present. In addition to the light of the silvery moon, Chinese lanterns and torches were used. Ice cream and cake were served. It was a pleasant social and lasted until after the midnight hour.

We received a short item on Monday that was neatly gotten up with a type writer on linen paper, but the author neglected to sign his or her name to the article. All communications must have the writers name signed, not for publication, but as a guarantee that the article is O. K. The item in question was about a stylish young lady of Lock Haven visiting friends in a small village twenty-five miles from Reynoldsville.

A Fair Affair.

If the weather is fair the Brookville fair will be the grandest affair ever held on the fair grounds at that place. The railroad fare will be greatly reduced and thus you will be enabled to attend a county fair that fairs with any fair in this fair land. The managers are fair men and, consequently, you will be used fair.

False Rumor.

It has been rumored about town that the Reynoldsville & Falls Creek R'y would build a depot on their road at Fourth street. It is a mistake. There is nothing definite yet about a depot for that road, but in all probability it will be built either at the Main street crossing or near the company store, that is if they build one at all.

Lost Two Hundred Dollars.

George W. Harding, of Ocala, Florida, who is visiting friends in Reynoldsville, lost nine twenty and two ten dollar bills last Saturday afternoon. John Cottle and Alfred Wickett found the money on the side walk near Sutter's blacksmith shop. Mr. Harding got his filthy lucre Monday morning. Fortunately for him the money was found by honest men.

As Pleasant as Ever.

Wm. C. Bond, of Brookwayville, Republican candidate of Jefferson county for Congressman in the 21st Congressional district, but who failed to get the support of the conference, and esteeming part interests above his own, yielded to another man, was in Reynoldsville Monday. He looked just as happy and was as pleasant as when around looking for votes before the primaries.

A Mistake.

The DuBois Courier was mistaken in its statement last Thursday morning when it said that John Geisler had gone to Hamburg, Germany. He went to Innsbruck, Tyrol, Austria-Hungary. Hamburg is in the northern part of Germany and Tyrol is in the western part of Austria-Hungary, near Switzerland, therefore the young man did not rush recklessly into the midst of the cholera infected district.

A New Church at Rathmel.

On Thursday evening of last week Rev. J. V. Bell, of DuBois, Rev. H. G. Furbay, of Reynoldsville, and John Cochran, an elder of Brookwayville, as a committee of the Clarion Presbytery, organized a Presbyterian church of forty-nine members at Rathmel. John Smith, Dr. E. Q. McHenry and Garvin Young were elected, ordained and installed as elders of the new church. There is some talk of building a brick church at Rathmel for the new organization to worship in.

Going to be a Ridgwayite.

Robt. J. Thomas, the hirsute executioner who, with his brother Emanuel, have been running a first-class tomorial establishment in Reynoldsville for a number of years, was at Ridgway Monday negotiating for a barber shop at that place. He will sell his interest in the parlors at this place to his brother and will go to the capital of Elk county to-day or to-morrow. "Bobby" is not only a good barber but is also a gentleman, and will soon get a large number of customers in his new shop. Success to you "Bobby."

A Few Appointments.

A few of the appointments for Clarion District are as follows: Big Run, J. R. Miller; Brookwayville, W. W. Dale; Brookville, J. W. Blaisdell; Clarion, J. C. Jillette; DuBois, Cearing Peters; DuBois circuit, W. H. Robinson; East Brady, D. G. McEntire; Emerickville, J. H. Jelbart; Falls Creek, Thomas Polard; Punxsutawney, J. C. McDonald; Reynoldsville, P. J. Slatterly; Rolfe, F. D. Platt; Summerville, F. S. Neigh; Beechtree, D. A. Platt; Washington, J. K. Adams.

Death from Poison.

Henry Kroh, of Winslow township, who took a dose of poison in mistake on Sunday, September 4th, died a few minutes after twelve o'clock Monday night, September 12th. His remains will be buried at 2 P. M. to-day in the Lutheran cemetery near Emerickville. Mr. Kroh was well known in this section of the country. He was born and reared in Jefferson county. He was an extensive lumberman at one time, but of late years he has devoted most of his time looking after his farm. Henry has a large number of friends in Reynoldsville who heard the news of his death with sorrow.

Railroaded Several Hours.

R. F. Mercer, a young man of Fuller Station, Pa., was fascinated with railroading and, although his father protested against it, he got a position as brakeman on a local freight on the A. V. R'y and took his run at Fullers Monday morning and railroaded seven miles—to Brookville—where in jumping from one car to the another he fell between them and had his right leg cut off below the knee. He will now lament the remainder of his life that he did not take his father's advice. The young man's railroad experience was short and sad.

Will Go West.

Rev. W. P. Murray, the talented clergyman who has been pastor of the Reynoldsville M. E. church the past year, has received a certificate of transfer to the North Nebraska conference. He will be appointed to the church which a few weeks ago extended him a call, the Hanscom Park M. E. church of Omaha, which easily ranks second among the sixteen Methodist churches of the city. This church is nearer than any other church of any denomination to the finest park of the city and the new church now being built and already enclosed will be an elegant one, and its audience room will seat one thousand persons. No church in Omaha has a more promising future, its membership being influential, its situation the best, its growth already phenomenal and its present condition flourishing.

Rev. Murray is a very able preacher and the divines of the west will have to look well to their laurels if he does not stand at the head of the list before many years as the best pulpit man of the western country. The year at Reynoldsville has been one laden with affliction for Rev. Murray and family. His environments were such that he was not able to do his work with as much ease as his predecessors, yet his sermons were fraught with power and have told for good on many of his congregation. Mrs. Murray is a genial lady and has won many friends here, and it is with regret Reynoldsville church part with Mr. and Mrs. Murray.

Is Your Girl a Gadder?

Some people take offence when mention is made about girls "gadding" the streets, and yet the results of such indulgence frequently speak in unmistakable terms of the baseness which it leads to. The girl or girls who are found on the streets every evening smiling at the boys and making "mashes" generally bring disgrace to their parents and gain for themselves the reputation of being disreputable characters. If the practice is commenced in tender years and followed up disrepute is almost inevitable. When a girl has once lost her reputation by such practice, even though her virtue be untainted, yet she will ever after be ostracized from good society. After a girl has had her own way for a few years and become noted as a gadder, parental restraint or even the law is of no avail. The time to check such performance is in the beginning. There are a few girls in Reynoldsville who are very young yet that are trifling with the dangerous practice referred to and perhaps are now beyond the hauling line. See to it, parents, that your girls are not upon the streets in the eventide, or else you may sorrowfully regret it in after years. We need not go outside the borough of Reynoldsville to find a case that occurred so recently that it is fresh in the minds of the citizens of this town, where a character has been soiled that had been talked about for sometime as a street walker.

Sudden Death.

Mrs. Nancy Harrison Cox, wife of Peter Cox, of near Sandy Valley, came to Reynoldsville Tuesday forenoon, ate dinner at the Ross House, went into the A. V. R'y station, bought a ticket for Sandy Valley, sat down near the ticket window and died. A young man who was in the station at the time noticed the old lady was sick and he held her silvery covered head while her spirit left its earthly habitation. Heart trouble was the cause of her sudden demise. She was seventy-one years old, the mother of fourteen children and was very active for one of her age. Mrs. Cox was well and favorably known in this section of the county where she had lived so long. Undertaker Hays took the body to the home she had left only a few hours before, in apparently good health, to prepare it for burial. The funeral services will be held at Sandy Valley at 2:00 P. M., Friday, and her remains will be interred in the cemetery at that place.

Failed to Materialize.

[Ridgway Democrat.] The ball game advertised to take place at Recreation Park Tuesday afternoon between Reynoldsville and Ridgway did not materialize, and the crowd that went over to see the contest were terribly disappointed, as it was to be the last game of the season, the game with the Bradford Browns having been cancelled. The Reynoldsville club contracted to play, but did not put in an appearance nor sent any word why they failed to do so.

Gone to Another Church.

Rev. M. S. Hemenway, of DuBois, who has been acting as rector for the Episcopal congregation at Reynoldsville for a time, left his field of labor in this section and has gone to Butler, Pa., to take charge of the Episcopal church at that place. His new church and rectory are valued at $9,000. Rev. Hemenway and wife made many friends here who are sorry to see them depart. They passed through this place on the Pittsburgh accommodation Monday morning.

Wanted.

Everybody to buy $10.00 worth of goods and get the Good Farm Magazine for a year free as it is full of useful reading matter on many subjects of interest to the old and young. Call and see a copy. J. C. KING & CO.

FIVE HUNDRED IN THE PARADE.

Third Reunion of the Northwestern Association Held Tuesday.

Great preparations were made to make the third reunion of the Northwestern Association of the K. G. E. lodge held here Tuesday surpass any parade ever witnessed in Reynoldsville, and had the inclement weather not put a damper on it, there is no doubt but what it would have been a grand "send off" for the Eagles. Notwithstanding the disagreeable weather five hundred fine looking men were in line. The entire town did not don festive attire, but considerable decorating was done from Dr. McCreight's office to the Arnold block. The arch across Main street near Hotel Belpap, was the prettiest decoration ever seen on Reynoldsville streets.

The early morning hours of Tuesday indicated that the Eagles would have a bad day to spread themselves, yet the rain fall did not amount to much until about the noon hour when the rain came down the near way and continued to fall "upon the just and unjust" the remainder of the afternoon. Buggies, carriages, wagons, &c., kept coming into town nearly all forenoon and about 11:30 A. M. a special train of four coaches came in over the R. & F. C. R'y. The crowd in town was large, but not what it would have been had nature given the Eagles one of her beautiful days. The parade was to have taken place at 2:00 P. M., but was postponed until 3:00 o'clock in hopes that the rain would cease. They paraded between Arnold's block and the Sandy Lick creek in the following order:

Four Sir Knights, Thos. H. Spears, Ralph Reed, D. R. Yates and John Butson, in full uniform.

FIRST DIVISION.
Punxsutawney brass band, Commander and Aids, Punxsutawney Castle, Trade City Castle, Smicksburg Castle, Reynoldsville Cornet band, Jefferson Castle, Industry Castle.
SECOND DIVISION.
DuBois Martial band, Commander and Aids, Mountain Queen Castle, Eleanor brass band, Gustaf Adolph Castle, Sabina Castle, Fairmount Martin band, Red Bank Castle, Prescotville Cornet band, Mountain Cliff Castle.

Even though the rain poured down incessantly upon them, yet they made a splendid appearance.

After the parade a convention was held in the I. O. O. F. hall and the following business transacted: The beautiful silk banner was awarded to the Gustaf Adolph Castle, No. 446, of DuBois, for having the largest percent of members in the parade. DuBois was selected for the reunion in 1893, and it is to be held on the second Tuesday in August. Wm. McClosky was elected District Grand Chief, John Simpson, secretary, and C. A. Reed, treasurer. Three prizes are to be given next year as follows: First prize, $50 banner; second, $25 flag; third, a ten dollar sword. It is to be hoped the K. G. E. will have a better day in 1893 than they had here yesterday. The special train left at 7:00 P. M. carrying an orderly crowd of Eagles.

We must say that the K. G. E. acted like gentlemen while in Reynoldsville, and although their name might indicate noise, yet there was very little screaming done. Come again, Knights of the Golden Eagle.

The various committees appointed to look after the preparations for the occasion, discharged their duties faithfully, and are deserving of great credit. They were as follows:

General committee:—W. E. Reid, president, E. Hore, secretary, E. Neff, treasurer, J. G. Messer, Reynolds Johns, J. G. Thompson, George Roberts.

On Decoration:—E. Neff, J. G. Messer, Robert Sayers.

On Dinner:—John Williams, George Roberts, Capt. John Davis, John McGinnis, James Bowser.

On Ball:—Chas. Ritzke, Ishmel Jones, J. G. Thompson.

On Trains:—Richard Jennings, Reynolds Johns.

On Soliciting:—James Binney, Amos Tyson, Wm. Booker.

On Ice Cream:—Reynolds Johns, John Enewine, Wm. Redecliff, Wm. Gricks.

A Big Success.

John F. Stowe's Colossal Railroad Shows, gave the best performances to an immense crowd in this city last Monday night. Although the weather was very unfavorable yet the people turned out to give the company a hearty endorsement and they are glad they did so for it proved to be an excellent show. The performance was in most part new and the entire entertainment was of a high order and well worth the patronage of any people. The conveniently arranged large canvas was a subject of praise.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

The above shows will exhibit afternoon and night at Reynoldsville, Tuesday September 20th.
