WEDNESDAY, APRIL 5, 1893

This isn't a new of Alabama have been in bloom and nipped by the frost already this year.

The justice for a camel to turn a hand-amping through the eye of a needle, than it is for a man to get rich by minding his neighbor's business.

A Kansas postmaster who has a daughter that weighs four hundred and seventy-two pounds, has written to Assistant Postmaster General Hazen asking that the Government give her a position of selling postage stamps at the Chicago Exposition. She is twenty-four years old.

The great Brooklyn bridge is proving inadequate to accommodate the travel between the cities of New York and Brooklyn, and the federal and municipal consent to the enterprise having been obtained, two other structures similar in their general design to the existing one will soon be begun, only further up.

Dr. Talmage and his congregation at Brooklyn are appealing to the public for aid to pay off a heavy mortgage that hangs over the spacious Tabernacle at Brooklyn. The statement is now made that for the past three years he has received $800 for his work, the balance of his salary having been turned back to the church.

Although there are many applicants for the good positions in the world, yet there is always room for men who are industrious, honest and able. Vacancies occur every year into which step those who are qualified. This fact ought to be an inspiration and an incentive to the young fellows who are on the threshold of active life.

During 1892 there were 39,525 applications for patents filed. During the same year 23,478 were issued. By the above there appears to be no diminution in the inventive genius of the American people. America leads all the countries of the world in the number of patents issued. We have a genius in Reynoldsville who has an application in for a patent, he is hard at work on other model which he expects to get a patent on.

The bill creating Jefferson county a separate judicial district will not be reached in the House for several weeks yet unless a special order can be secured for it. Mr. Cossna, chairman of the committee on Judicial apportionment, will ask for a special order for all the separate judicial bills in order to ascertain definitely what action the Governor will take in regard to them. He is said to have declared his hostility to any special apportionment bills when there was a general apportionment bill pending. Should this prove to be the case the general bill could still be passed, and, if vetoed, perhaps a two-thirds majority obtained to pass it over the Governor's head.—Punkstunway Spirit.

The St. Marys Gazette insinuated that Bro. Elliott, of the Volunteer, made a desperate attempt to get to the train to see the prize fighter who passed through our town, and failed, but was fortunate enough to meet a man who had shaken hands with, and talked to, the bruiser, adding sarcastically, he hoped the editor would not get a swelled head on account of the distinction accorded him. In last week's issue the editor of the Gazette acknowledged the receipt of a keg of beer and owned up to his love for it and, to let him self down easy, implicated the entire fraternity. He knows what it is to have a "swelled head," no doubt. If a prize fighter was to pass through St. Marys the Gazette editor would be at the train to see him, or break his neck in the attempt, because beer drinking and prize fighting are first cousins.

F. A. Weaver, editor of the Brookville Republican, who has been at Washington, D. C., occupying a position in the Department of the Interior, has returned to Brookville and resumed his duties as editor of the above named paper. The change in the administration was the persuasive power that induced Mr. Weaver to take up his duties as country editor. He says the letters "G. O. P." stand for, "Get off and Push." No doubt in the next four years he will occasionally think of the "Good Old Pay" he "raked in" while at Washington. As Mr. Weaver has been in the newspaper business for many years he is not a stranger to the duties that devolve upon him in the editorial chair. It makes little difference to Uncle Sam what kind of disposition a man has who works for him, but it takes a patient, kind-hearted, loving, tender, fair-to-please-everybody kind of a man to run a newspaper, and as Mr. Weaver fills the bill, he is at home in the sanctum sanctorum.

Rathmel.

Gen. Dyke is improving very slowly. The building boom has begun in our town.

The postoffice is at the old stand yet. Maxwell, where's yer ax?

C. L. G. and family moved to Catfish, Armstrong county.

J. A. London smiles and is just as happy as if it had been a boy.

Willie Mohney, who has been suffering with rheumatism, is improving.

Geo. L. Henry, who had one of his feet crushed in the mine, is getting better.

Philip Schreenghost will move his family to Armstrong county at an early day.

Patrick McCloskey's two children, who have had diphtheria, are getting better.

Master Arthur B. veradage has about recovered from a two week's sickness with scarlet fever.

Ed. L. Moore and L. A. Hays will be called upon to enter bail to keep the peace and be of good behavior.

The drinking saloon in our town is doing a booming business. Our board of trade meets there regularly.

We understand that there are several of our young bloods preparing for a sail on the sea matrimonial as soon as the clouds roll by.

We are pleased to see a goodly stock of groceries and provisions for sale in the house where rot gut whiskey and sour beer was intended.

On Friday last one of the Sprague mine drivers and stable boss Freeman had an unpleasant dispute which had to be settled by the master of ceremonies.

Swab Bros., of Reynoldsville, have commenced the erection of a store building in our town. It is to be hoped that they will meet with success in their trade here.

Annie, a daughter of J. Milliron, has been dangerously ill during the past week. We understand she will be taken to the West Penn hospital, in Pittsburgh, for treatment.

"Beauty" may be "only skin deep," but the secret of a beautiful skin is pure blood. Those coarse, rough, pimply complexions may, in most cases, be rendered soft, smooth and fair by the preserving and systematic use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Mark this: You don't have to be disagreeable to be good.

Fear to die until you have done some good that will always live.

The strongest man in the world is the one who can best control himself.

There is nothing easier to believe than a pleasing lie about ourselves.

Perhaps there would be more power in our praying if there were more cheer in our giving.

If all public prayers were heard and answered, angels would soon want to come down and live among us.

There is a great difference between getting a bunch of grapes now and then and owning a farm in the promised land.

Much trouble is caused because we forget that many men do not have the same kind of religion in a horse trade that they have in church.

Special Notice.

Try my buggies, they are as good as the best, and low in price. You will pay middle men a big price and get no better.

The Central Pennsylvania Telephone and Supply company have authorized the extension of their metallic circuit lines from Clearfield to DuBois and Ridgway, and the construction will be commenced early in April and should be finished by the first of June. This will give that region direct communication with all the lines of long distance company, proving of great value to the rapidly developing territory comprehended in this large lumber, mineral and gas region.—Williamsport Times.

The school boy that delighteth in playing truant and tryeth to deceive his teacher will find out when he gets out into the world that he played the part of a fool and deceived no one but himself.—Big Run Echo.

Marries Three.

(Lock Haven Express.)

If you think of marrying a woman remember you marry three creatures, a young one, a middle-aged one and an old one. Unless one or two die before their time you marry a wife, a mother and a grandmother. In her you marry a lot of people you do not know. You don't marry for to-day, or to-morrow, but for all sorts of situations. If she is gentle, and wise, and true, you have a bride, but not only for the wedding day, but for sickness, and for old age. If she is only handsome she will some day grow ugly, but if she is good and true she will stand wear. Try to know her before you take her.

Mrs. Longish. "Tired! Oh, so tired all the time!" Mrs. Smart. "Well, so I used to be until I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla as a spring medicine, and now I don't know what it is to have that tired feeling. Try it, my dear; only be sure you get Ayer's."
