The Allegheny Valley R'y handled 135,135 passengers during the month of March.

John Quinn, a teamster for Ed. C. Burns, had a partial stroke of paralysis one day last week.

Henry A. Reed chanced off a music box last week. Alex. Whitehill held the lucky number.

Winslow township furnishes fourteen jurors for the next term of court, and Reynoldsville seven.

Rev. Ed. Platt, of Johnsonburg, will preach in the Reynoldsville M. E. church next Sunday.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. will meet at Rev. E. T. Derr's at two o'clock next Monday afternoon.

Rev. J. V. Bell commenced his tenth year last Sunday as pastor of the Presbyterian church at DuBois.

Why is it that when a woman gets badly frightened at night about the first thing she screams is murder! murder?

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Jos. M. Cathers and Miss Carrie Fink on Wednesday, April 26th.

"Old Hickory Farm" will be played at Reynolds opera house in the near future. Proceeds for benefit of the juvenile brass band.

Trailing Arbutus, the beautiful, sweet smelling flower that clings so closely to mother earth is now being plucked for bouquets.

Did you observe Arbor Day by planting a tree? Saturday, April 29th, is another day designated by the Governor as Arbor Day.

The I. O. O. F. of Reynoldsville will be well represented at the 74th anniversary to be held in Ridgway on the 29th of this month.

A new will-be-member of the Jr. O. U. A. M. will "ride the goat" to-night. This fills that lodge out to one hundred members in Reynoldsville.

Philip Loos, clerk for N. Hanau, has had a very sore hand the past week. He first had his hand injured on a nail and afterwards caught cold in it.

A number of the members of the Reynoldsville Relief Corps will go to Brockwayville on Thursday of next week to visit the Corps at that place.

Ladies clean your kid gloves with Mousquetaire glove cleaner, for sale only by J. B. Arnold, the leading house in town, for dressed and undressed kid glove in all the most desirable shades.

There is no scarcity of "chuck" holes on Main street now. The streets in their present condition speak more explicitly of the necessity of paved streets than any words we can find in the English language.

As soon as the roads get in condition to be traveled with some degree of comfort about fifty candidates for the various county offices will present their smiling countenances and cards to the voters of the county.

Prof. W. H. Stamey, principal of the borough schools, whom we announced last week as a candidate for county superintendent, is receiving great encouragement and enters into the fight with good hopes of winning.

J. H. Gillespie, at one time a resident of this place, a cousin of the Walsh boys, was in the late disastrous fire at Bradford. He jumped from a third story window of the Higgins House and had his left ankle badly injured.

The Adams Express company have recently adopted the money order system in opposition to Uncle Sam. The rates are the same as by mail. Any sum between five and ten dollars will cost five cents for its safe delivery.

A seven thousand dollar property for forty-five hundred, three lots and dwelling. House alone is worth the price asked. Corner Fourth and Jackson Sts., Reynoldsville, one square from best part of town. Address owner, C. H. Gordon, No. 208, 11th street, S. E., Washington, D. C.

Robert Stevenson, a farmer living near Sandy Valley, is the owner of a lamb that weighed 114 pounds when born and when three weeks old weighed 32 pounds. That is none of your scrub mutttons.

J. A. Edder, of Horatia, is now at Prescotville getting familiar with the roller process at T. & S. McCright's mill. He will take charge of the mill the 2nd of May when A. G. Brown, the present miller, goes to Saltsburg.

There will be a festival at the Sandy Valley church Saturday, April 22nd. The festival will consist of a box supper and ice cream. The ladies are requested to come and bring a box and the gentlemen to buy them.

Less than ten weeks until the Fourth of July. The question now is, will we have a celebration in Reynoldsville? If we do, and why not? It is time to commence to make arrangements. Do not wait until all the neighboring towns have decided to get up a celebration.

It would be worth while for the ladies to bear in mind that if they take a gentle course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla in the spring, they will have no trouble with "prickly heat," "hives," "netles," "boils," or "black heads," when summer comes. Prevention is better than cure.

A new company, with a capital stock of $30,000, was organized at Punksutawney recently to manufacture the Kellogg Mowing Machine Knife Grinder for the state of Minnesota, this company having purchased the right to manufacture and sell this machine in that state.

A one-legged man was in town this week who plays a mouth organ and banjo at the same time. He makes good music and gathers up many a dime and nickel, which makes the sweetest music for him as they drop into the banjo which he converts into a collection box.

This week we announce the name of John S. Barr, of Brookville, as a candidate for prothonotary, subject to the action of the Republicans at the primaries in June. Mr. Barr is well known in Jefferson county, as he was elected to the office of sheriff twenty years ago.

A performance not previously advertised occurred in the upper end of town last Thursday. Considerable beer, angry words, a fist let loose, a skinned nose, two men brought before Burgess Hays, who paid three dollars apiece for a disregard for the laws of this borough, and the curtain dropped.

The Daughters of St. George will give an entertainment and supper in the G. A. R. hall on Saturday evening, April 22nd. The entertainment, which will consist of songs, recitations and select reading, will commence at 7:30. Admission 10 cents. A good supper will be served about nine o'clock for the small sum of 25 cents.

M. F. Woods, one of our present commissioners, is willing to fill that office for another term, if satisfactory to the voters of Jefferson county. His name will be found among the announcements in this issue of the STAR for the nomination, subject to the actions of the Democrats at the primary on the 24th of June, 1893. Mr. Woods makes a good commissioner.

W. E. Snyder, who lost the index finger of his left hand a few months ago on the R. & F. C. R'y, who has since been working at Big Soldier mine, had the index finger of his right hand badly lacerated one day last week on a pulley at the mine. He was to have gone out on the R. & F. C. R'y again the following day from the one on which he was injured, as a brakeman.

John Johnston, who is well known in Reynoldsville, now editing the Echo, a newsy sheet at Emporium, gave space to the following in his paper of last week which shows that the expense of the editor has been increased: "A new printer has been added to the Echo force, but we don't expect he will set much type for several years yet, although he weighs eight pound."

The new St. Peters Evangelical Lutheran church at Paradise, near Reynoldsville, will be dedicated on Sunday, April 30th. Rev. J. W. Poffinberger, of Leechburg, Armstrong county, will preach the dedicatory sermon. A cordial invitation to neighboring ministers and the public in general is extended by the congregational and pastor, Rev. W. Selner.

A. W. Mulholland, of Winslow township, at present one of the commissioners of Jefferson county, is again a candidate for the nomination for the same office, subject to the action of the democrats at primary election on the 24th of June, 1893. Mr. Mulholland is well known in this vicinity. He has filled the office creditably so far this term. His announcement will be found in this issue of the STAR.

For the accommodation of persons desiring to attend the I. O. O. F. Anniversary to be held at Ridgway April 26th, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has arranged for the sale of Excursion tickets from Corry, DuBois, Renovo and intermediate points, to Ridgway and return at greatly reduced rates. Tickets to be sold April 25th and 26th, good to return until April 27th, 1893, inclusive.

Free Lecture.

Rev. J. J. Kerr, of Brookville, will deliver a temperance lecture in Contention hall on Monday evening, April 24, at eight o'clock. Admission free. Rev. Kerr is a good talker.

Bound Over to Court.

The case of Archie Huntingdon, who was arrested by M. C. Coleman last week for aggravated assault, will come up at the May term of Court. Only one witness was heard before Esquire E. Noff last Thursday forenoon. Archie was bound over to Court in the sum of three hundred dollars.

Cupid's Pranks.

Chas. Burns, proprietor of the Burns House, and Mrs. Philadelphia Frazier, were married in the Episcopal church at DuBois last Thursday morning, by Rev. N. W. Stephens. The happy couple took a short wedding trip to Ridgway, Johnsonburg and St. Marys, returning on the late train Friday evening. The callithumpians paid their respects to Mr. Burns and bride about midnight and on Saturday evening the Reynoldsville Cornet band serenaded them.

A Rotten Awning.

The K. S. Club have their rooms over Bing & Co.'s store in the Nolan block. Last week the wooden awning in front of the building was torn down and it was almost entirely a mass of rotten lumber. Last winter when the Club held dances in their rooms the young people would walk out on the awning. Some of them almost tumbled last week when they saw what a mass of rottenness they had been risking life and limb on. How the awning held the weight of snow that fell upon it the past winter is somewhat of a mystery.

License Granted.

A real nice young man of Big Run and one of Ponceast's brightest young ladies accidentally met at Reynoldsville last Thursday afternoon and took a trip to Brookville on the cars. While at the county seat they called on Prothonotary Neale. On the way home from Brookville we asked the young man what such suspicious actions meant and as we were let into the secret, and were requested not to mention names, can only say that Father Brady will perform a marriage ceremony this afternoon and that a former young man of Rathmel and a Ponceast young lady are the contracting parties.

Only a Family "Jar."

Family "jars" are not infrequent events in matrimonial circles and are not always loud enough for neighbors to hear the jingle thereof. Although not always resulting in the entire alienation of affection, yet they weaken the affiance avowed at the marriage shrine. Last Thursday night about ten o'clock an uncommonly boisterous family disagreement occurred in town which resulted in the breaking of window glass, fracturing the stillness of the night time, arousing the neighbors, and also necessitated the calling of the police. The storm soon subsided and quietness hovered over the home again.

New Coal Works.

The Central Land and Mining Co. have just closed a lease with W. K. Wick, of Youngstown, Ohio, for about 800 acres of coal land north of Sandy Valley on the line of the Allegheny Valley R'y. Mr. Wick has been in the coal business in this section before, he having opened a mine at Falls Creek several years ago which was sold to Bell, Lewis & Yates C. M. Co. The new works will be opened as soon as the weather will permit. The output at this new opening will be on an extensive scale and will be of some benefit to Reynoldsville as the employees will find this the best and nearest place to buy goods.

Eighty-six Confirmed.

Every three years the confirmation ceremony is performed in the Catholic church at this place, and the ages of those confirmed generally range from eleven to thirteen years. Bishop Mullen, of Erie, who is now over eighty-one years old, assisted by Father McGivney, of DuBois, and Father Brady, of this place, confirmed eighty-six in the Reynoldsville Catholic church last Saturday morning. The girls were all nicely dressed in white, with white wreaths on their heads and long white veil hanging down their backs. All the boys, (there were over forty) with the exception of two, signed the temperance pledge after the confirmation ceremony.

Shadows Sold at a Good Price.

The entertainment and "shadow social" in the G. A. R. hall Thursday evening was a pleasant and profitable affair. The entertainment consisted of songs, recitations and select reading and was enjoyed not only because it was free, but on account of its merit. Only sixteen ladies had prepared baskets, therefore there were just that number of shadows sold at a good price. More could have been sold without trouble. Some shadows sold for more than others. The sixteen tumbled into the W. R. C. exchequer $19.60. These socials are immensely enjoyed by the comrades and the comradeses, especially the former. Such socials are harmless indulgences unless the lunch at a late hour will superinduce nightmare or result in sowing dyspeptic seeds.

Deaths Doings.

MRS. MARGARET HUTCHISON, wife of H. J. Hutchison, nee Waite, died at her home on Sunday morning, April 16th, 1893, after a long illness. The funeral services were held at her late home at 1:00 p. m. Monday, conducted by Rev. Geo. Hill, and her remains were buried in the Beechwoods cemetery. The funeral was largely attended. The deceased was a daughter of Robert Waite and was united in marriage to Hannibal Hutchison nine years ago. The husband, a six-year-old daughter and many friends have been saddened by her death. She has been a member of the Presbyterian church for over fourteen years and when her health permitted was a worker in the church. Soon after she was married her health failed and she has since been a patient sufferer. She was 32 years, 9 months and 2 days old when her spirit took its flight to join the great multitude who have "washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb."

MRS. MARGARET CATHERS, mother of Allen Cathers who lives on a farm about three miles from Reynoldsville, died suddenly last Sunday evening. Over one year ago she had a paralytic stroke and on Sunday evening she had another one and died in two hours afterwards. Fifty years ago she was left a young widow with two children who now survive her, Allen Cathers and Mrs. David Hillis. At three o'clock yesterday afternoon, Tuesday, April 18th, her remains were buried beside those of her husband on a plot of ground on the farm of her son. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Selner, a Lutheran preacher of Luthersburg. Another arm chair has been vacated and an old and highly respected lady has gone to try the realities of the great beyond.

It Would be a Good Investment.

As a pointer to the Board of Trade of Reynoldsville we mention the fact that fire clay, equal to any in the country for making paving brick, has been discovered in paying quantity in the Standard mine. There are several other excellent clays in this section. Why not organize a company at home and build a fire clay plant here. If it is not done outside capitalists will come in and invest their money and get large returns and carry the surplus to other towns or cities. Those of our citizens who have money who want to invest in something that is sure to pay them large interest, here is your opportunity. Good fire clay is not found in every front yard. Don't wait until foreign capitalists come in and make a nice thing out of it and then wish you had of had courage enough to embrace the opportunity.

Died at a Hospital.

John Cameron, son of Robert Cameron, of Rathmel, died at the St. Anthony hospital in New York on the 12th inst. Robert Cameron jr., brother of the deceased, went to New York Friday afternoon and returned with the corpse Monday afternoon. The funeral services will be held this afternoon at the home of the parents at two o'clock and the remains will be buried in Beulah cemetery. John Cameron was forty-one years old and unmarried. He has been on the sick list for four years. About nine months ago he went to South Carolina for the benefit of his health. He knew that his life's race was almost run and started for home where he might die surrounded by loved ones, but he was unable to get farther than New York where he died four days after his arrival. Asthma and heart trouble were the cause of his death.

Two Presbyterians.

Two of the candidates for county superintendent are members of the Presbyterian church. Prof. W. H. Stamey, principal of the Reynoldsville schools, belongs to the First Presbyterian church of this place, and Prof. Hughes, present incumbent of the office of county superintendent, is a member of the First Presbyterian church at Brookville. He is an Elder in that church. We do not know what church Prof. J. B. Steward, the third candidate for county superintendent, belongs to.

He is a Candidate.

Rev. Allan Kirchbaum, of Van Port, Pa., will preach in the Presbyterian church next Sabbath morning and evening as a candidate. Rev. Kirchbaum assisted Rev. Farbay with gospel meetings held a year ago last February and will be remembered by many who heard him preach at that time. A full attendance of the members of the congregation is desired.

Largest Amount Ever Sold.

The Reynoldsville Building and Loan Association held its regular monthly meeting in the Flynn hall Monday evening and sold the largest amount of money ever sold in one evening by the Association since it was organized. Thirty-five shares, representing $7,000, were sold at an average of twenty-four cents per share.

A New Store.

Miss H. J. Nickle has opened a variety store in the Woodward building. The list of articles for sale are too numerous to mention. Call and see them.

THE MEMORIAL HOME.

The Management is Alright. A Flaw in the Title.

About the first Sunday of last February a correspondent from Brookville to the Williamsport Grit condemned the management of the Memorial Home at Brookville. A committee of the Woman's Relief Corps, Department of Pennsylvania, was elected at a convention held at Lebanon in February, soon after the Grit's attack on the management of the Home, for the purpose of inquiring into the charges made and also into the title to the Memorial Home. The committee consisted of five ladies, Mrs. Anna Wilbur, of Warren; Mrs. Mary A. Wallace, of Pittsburg; Mrs. Martha Sherman, of Bradford; Mrs. Sarah J. Messimer, of Renovo, and Mrs. N. G. Pinney, of Brookville. The committee met at Brookville last Wednesday. From an interview with Mrs. Sarah J. Messimer, of Renovo, we learned that there is a flaw in the title to the Home, the facts of which are not yet ready for publication. In regard to the management of the Home, the committee found it perfectly satisfactory and all that could be expected. The Grit correspondent was snubbed a little for some of the freedom he tried to take at the Home and to get even he condemned the management of the institution.

There are now fifty-two children at the Home and twenty old people, making a family of seventy-two. The tables are well supplied with food, and when visitors go there they get the same bill of fare served to the inmates. The children have a pretty lawn to play on and all look hearty and are apparently happy.

Accommodations for World's Fair.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company announces that arrangements have been perfected whereby passengers intending to go to Chicago may reserve their Pullman car accommodations in advance. Passengers taking a train at New York may reserve the requisite Pullman space one month in advance of departure, those from other points on the system two weeks in advance. This arrangement may be made upon application to ticket agents of the Pennsylvania Railroad, who, after securing the space, will deliver the reservation slip to the passenger. Passengers thus reserving space in advance will be required to purchase their tickets seven days before the date of departure, otherwise the reservation will be considered as forfeited.

Accommodations in Pullman cars for the return trip may also be secured upon application to ticket agents of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

This arrangement will prove a great benefit to visitors to the World's Fair.

Jurors for May Term.

Following are the jurors drawn from Reynoldsville borough and Winslow township for the May term of court, commencing Monday, May 8th:

GRAND JURORS.
Reynoldsville—C. H. Altman, Hood Knox, Winslow township—Samuel Brillhart, James Beverage sr., W. M. Redecker.

SMALL JURORS.

Reynoldsville—J. C. Benson, Thos. E. Evans, Thos. Reed, Winslow township—W. L. Berry, R. D. Beer, Charles Frank, D. B. London, Thos. McCright, Frank Shaner.

TRAVELING JURORS.
Reynoldsville—George Engle, Jerry Myers, Winslow township—Uriah Beck, W. H. Cox, Daniel Morningstar, James McGee, George W. Sechrist.

Sure to Kill a Town.

A gentleman who knows, said the other day as he passed a manufacturing establishment in this place: "They have hardly enough work there to keep them going, and an establishment of the same kind at New Bethlehem is over crowded with work. Reynoldsville people buy there and have it shipped to this town." That is one of the very best ways to make a town an unsought for and undesirable place for live men.

Can't Spring it.

An effort has been made to organize a base ball club in Reynoldsville for this season, but, strange as it may seem, the hitherto ballists of our town have lost conceit and have concluded they cannot play ball, hence a ball team is not easily gotten up and, perhaps, will not be attached to the amusements of Reynoldsville. With Alex. Whitehill as pitcher a nine could be gotten up here that need not take a back seat for any of our neighboring towns.

G. A. R. Post Inspected.

Captain Craig, of Brookville, ex-Congressman of this district, inspected the John C. Conser Post, No. 192, at this place last evening.

Many rise in the morning with headache and no inclination for breakfast. This is due to torpidity of the liver and a deranged condition of the stomach. To restore healthy action to these organs, nothing is so efficacious as an occasional dose of Ayer's Pills.

Fancy white middlings $21 per ton at Swartz's.

Children's patent tip shoes 65 and 75 cents a Robinson's.

PERSONALS.

W. C. Schultze is in Johnstown this week.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Boardinger spent Sunday in DuBois.

Chas. P. Whitmore has gone to Buffalo, N. Y., to work.

Frank Rodgers, the cigar maker, was at Brockwayville Monday.

Miss Lou Foust, the genial postoffice assistant, was in Punksutawney yesterday.

E. C. Sencer is visiting the home of his parents at Unionville, Center county, this week.

Miss Hannah Knox, of Covado, Pa., is visiting her brother, Hood Knox, at this place.

Chas. Gearhart, a lawyer of Danville, Pa., visited W. H. McCright during the past week.

Chas. Watson, who has been at Clarion for a time, returned to his home at this place Saturday.

Mrs. S. S. Reitz, of Brookville, visited Mrs. Lizzie Mumford in West Reynoldsville last week.

Wesley Motter, who is working at New Bethlehem, Pa., spent Sunday with his family at this place.

Misses Maud Milliren and Taocy Wagner, of Falls Creek, visited Miss Cora Milliren at this place last week.

C. Stovel Armagost, who has charge of the A. V. engine house at Driftwood, spent Saturday with his family here.

Miss Jennie Lewis, of Frostburg, Pa., has been visiting her father, C. N. Lewis, at this place during the past week.

Mrs. Anna S. Gibson, who has been visiting friends at Curwensville for a few weeks, returned to Reynoldsville last Friday.

Samuel Lauck, one of the genial and accommodating passenger conductors on the A. V. R'y, was the guest of Geo. Mollinger Saturday.

R. W. Dinsmore, revenue collector, Esp. John St. Clair and Henry W. Munderf, all of Punksutawney, registered at Hotel McConnell last Thursday.

Chas. Kischartz, of Tionesta, married in Reynoldsville a few hours last Thursday on business and also visited his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Riston.

Dr. A. F. Balmer, one of Brookville's bright physicians, becoming weary of the dullness at the county seat, came up to Reynoldsville Thursday afternoon to see what a live town looked like.

Dr. Davenport, a young and promising physician of Brookwayville, is now at Rathmel looking after Dr. E. Q. McHenry's practice while that gentleman is enjoying a month's jaunt in Kansas.

Mrs. T. L. Ogden, of Strattonville, came to Reynoldsville six weeks ago to visit her sister, Mrs. D. W. Stiles, and while here her little girl became ill, consequently the visit was longer than intended.

W. B. Alexander and "Bobby" Swartz, drove to Hillman, Indiana county, on Monday, where Seely, Alexander & Co. have some lumber interests. "Bobby" will remain there for sometime to look after the above named firm's interests.

Harry L. Schlabig, of Buffalo, N. Y., who has been unable to work for several months on account of rheumatism, and who spent a few weeks with his parents at this place, but returned to Buffalo week before last to resume work, is at home again limping around with the same dread disease.

James E. Long, who has been in California for some months, passed through this place on his way home at DuBois last Thursday evening. His completion indicated that he had been exposed to Old Sol's warm rays. He had a monogerie with him in a cigar box. It was a horned toad.

Jim C. Ford, brother of Wallace and Wm. H. Ford of this place, visited his brothers during the past week. He has been in Illinois for sometime and has had poor health, and is now looking for a place where he can regain the great boon to mortals given—health. He left here Monday for the Hot Springs.

Harry King, son of Dr. J. C. King, who has been attending the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia for the past six months, returned home last week on a vacation. Harry will be rather a handsome looking physician to call in when he reaches maturity and graduation. He is not a great admirer of the Quaker City.

John A. Doyle, local editor and business manager of the Clarion Republican-Gazette, was here this week visiting his father-in-law, J. S. Watson. Mr. Doyle is a first-class newspaper man and can fill an editorial chair or run a composing room successfully. He was an erstwhile editor of Reynoldsville. That was in the days before the iron horse traveled these hills and valleys.

Mrs. John S. Smith, of this place, who has been under the care of a hospital at Buffalo, N. Y., for treatment of her eyes for many months, was discharged from that institution week before last having her eye sight, which was almost gone, restored. She left Reynoldsville last Saturday for Oakdale Station, Allegheny county, where her husband has been for sometime and where she expects to spend the Summer.
