WEDNESDAY, MAY 10, 1893.

There's nothing like discipline, but it don't do a boy any good to make him hoe potatoes in a back gardon while a brass band is passing the house.

The biggest newspapers ever printed was the 100-page Sunday New York World. It was the tenth anniversary of Joseph Politzer's ownership. During that ten years the disbursment of the World has been $17,680,442,07 for operating expenses alone. Of this great sum nearly $5,500,000 was for white paper.

A bill has been passed requiring foreigners to pay for their naturalization papers out of their own pockets. The Pitsburg Chronicle Telegraph says: -"The Pennsylvania Legislature has done a good thing in passing a bill prohibiting political parties from paying for the naturalizations of aliens. This was an abuse which needed reforming out of existence, and that is what should have been done long ago. If aliens are not sufficiently impressed with the desirability of American eitizenship to apply for themselves, and cheerfully pockets the very small costs of the legal proceedings, tivy should be permitted to remain without the right of suffrage. It depreciates sadly the value of the citizens' privilege to coax men to accept them, and the scramble for new voters about election time is one of the most undignified features of campaigns, to say the least, if indeed it is not a species of bribery. The new law ought to be welcomed by all political organizations, for it will do away with a species of competition at once expensive to their treasury and injurious to the public welfare."

If I were asked by a young man or a young woman how to be guided in the choice of a life mate, I should, in the exercise of a judgement based on wide and studious observation, say: Choose that person who, after a reasonable period of association, proves to be most companionable, writes John Lambert Payne in a pertinent article on "The Secret of Happy Marriages." This broad law comprehends nearly all others that can be suggested. It were infinitely better to be single through life than one who would not answer to this condition. Speaking somewhat unrowly wal addish, contentment is the most that can be got out of life, and when a contented couple is found it will also be discovered that they exhibit manifestly opposite characteristic of temperament, habit, taste and physique. It is upon this fixed foundation that happy affinities are formed. It is an important doctrine in medical jurispruance "like cures like"-which is only another way for saying that like kills like -- and it is equally true in the social realm that companionship is not felt batween young men and young women who are closely similar in general appearances or disposition. On the contrary, it arises, and leads to happy union between persons who are often widely dissimilar. From the Shoe and Leather Reporter we glean the following concerning the Unitintes Leather Co.: This corporaon was finally organized on Monday. Nus Lieble (t was incorporated in New mey. The capital stock is $120,000,-000, viz.; preferred. 80,000,000; common, $60,000,000. The holders of the preferred stock are entitled to receive 8 per cent. interest per annum, provided re are sufficient earnings to admit of the payment of that amount to them. The dividends, moreover are cumulalive. The holders of the common stock are entitled to receive such dividends as the directors may be able to declare after paying the 8 per cent. to the preherred stockholders. The Company are issued $6,000,000 of debenture ide, 39 years to run, interest 6 per ant, po annum, principal and interest payable in gold. These bonds are ed for sale at 103"and accrued inorest from May 1, 1893. Of course, they will be readily taken, as they are good a security as any money lender can get. The officers of the company e: President, Thos. E. Proctor, of Boston: Vice-presidents, Mark Hoyt, of law York, and James Horton, of Buffalo; Treasurer, James R. Plum, of New York; Secretary, Josiah T. Tubby, of lew York. There are to be twentyve directors, only two have been en yet. H. B. Vaughan, of Hall & ughan, has been spoken of as likely be invited to accept a seat in the rd. There are twenty-nine firms entitled with the organization among in is Hall & Vaughan.

Rails Connected.

At last DuBois and Clearfield have been connected by rail. The following was gleaned from a long article published in the Courier last Friday: "In the bleak valley of Anderson Creek, one mile west of Curwensville the last rail was dropped on the ties at 1.30 yesterday afternoon, measured and cut and the east and west ends of the Clearfield and Mahoning road met at 2.00 o'clock. The completion of the laying of the rails on a road which will, in all probability, become the most important in the county was not marked by any demonstration, yet all will rejoice that the road is now so nearly ready for operation. The building of the line in the remarkable short time of eight months is a matter of surprise and when passenger trains are put on and people begin to travel over the route they will be still more puzzled to know how it was possible to do the work in the short time in which it was done. The road from DuBois to Sheeser Summit has a grade about fifty feet per mile and passes many prosperous farms. From Sheeser Summit to Curwensville it follows Anderson Creek and branch and goes down the valleys at a grade of tifty-three feet per mile. No farms are in sight between the Summit and Cur-wensville, but forests and rock-covered hills loom up on both sides.

Daily Remarks.

The Reynoldsville STAR, with this veek's issue, rounds out its first year. and as one star differeth from another in glory, so this STAR exceeds in admirable qualities many another publication rejeleing in the same name.-Pittsburg Daily Times.

The Reynoldsville STAR completed its first year with the issue of this week. The editor says that it was doubtful when The STAR was started whether the town would support two papers, but the first year expenses have been paid by hard work and economy. As the paper grows older it grows better and if the field is not a fault the second year should bring much better returns than the first -DuBois Daily Courier.

One year ago the Reynoldsville STAR was born and it has continued to shine weekly ever since, growing brighter and better with almost every issue. The editor and publisher, C. A. Stephenson, is cut out from the right cloth for a necessful newspaper man and his first venture is destined to bring him fame and we trust a liberal recompense. It is one of our favorite exchanges .- Lock Haven Daily Express.

Prohibition County Convention.

The Prohibitionists of Jefferson county will hold their County Convention in Centennial hall, Reynoldsville, Pa., on Thursday, May 18, beginning at 10 o'clock, A. M. Business session will commence at 2 o'clock in the afternoon for the purpose of nominating delegates to the State Convention to be held in Harrisburg, June 7th, also to nominate a county ticket and to consider such other business as may properly come before the convention. All the Committeemen and Prohibitionists of the county are earnestly requested to be present, and all persons desiring the welfare of our citizens are cordially invited to come and aid us in this great reform. We expect the State Chairmon with us. A mass meeting will be held in same hall in the evening at 7.30 to be addressed by Van Bennett, of Kansas, a speaker of National reputation. Come all who can and hear a

The McEwen Engine Works.

The new engine works of J. H. McEwen Manufacturing Company, in this place, will be put into operation in two or three weeks. This immense factory is located in the Eagle Valley addition, between the P. & E. tracks and the clarion River, and will be connected with the B., R. & P. Railway by a bridge and switch. The main struc ture is built of iron and will be prac tically fire-proof. The pattern shops are of wood and located some distance up the river. The offices will be built of Shawmut brick, and located below the factory. Work has been commenced on the foundation of the office. When the new works are put into operation the Advocate will give a full description of the buildings and a history of the growth of this great enterprise. The factory will employ from 200 to 300 men at the start, and may be increased in a year or two to give work to 600 men. Ridgway Advocate.

Who is in Error?

The Breeze and Bradford Era were the only papers seen in Johnsonburg which had the name of the late Harry Hutheson spelt properly. The carcless-ness of many newspapers regarding the spelling of names is inexclusable.—John-conduct Bases sonburg Breeze.

We will not gainsay the statement about the carelessness of some papers in spelling names. Down this way where the father and relatives of the deceased live the name is spelled Hutchison.

Sealed Proposals.

A Comedy-Drama.

"Joshua Simpkins" was presented at the Academy of Music last night by a strong company and was thoroughly appreciated by the audience. It is a comedy-drama of the rural kind and possesses strong points seldom seen in similar plays. It combines the funny incidents seen in "The Country Fair with the pathetic ones in "Blue Jeans." The plot has already been detailed in these columns. The play was up to expectations and was admirably performed. The company are up to the mark and the play promises to have a successful run all the week .- Toronto (Ontario) World, Oct. 18, '92. At Reynolds Opera House, May 10th. Tickets on sale at H. Alex. Stoke's drug store.
