The employees of the Bell & Lewis' store at this place will go to DuBois Decoration Day and play ball with the employees of the same firm's store at DuBois.

A number of small boys loitered around the A. V. R.'s depot from early in the morning until after eleven o'clock Sunday to see Walter Main's circus pass through town.

James Binney, a miner, who was working in the Big Soldier, was injured Monday by having about six hundred pounds of coal fall upon him. He will not work for a time.

A Ridgway boy, who was stealing a ride on the step of a bus of that town, was badly injured by falling off. Some of the Reynoldsville boys who indulge in the same practice had better take warning before they are injured in the same way.

Three Italians with a harp and two violins made some delightful music on our streets last Wednesday. These fellows, apparently, make considerable money by peddling music around on the streets. A hat with an Italian behind it follows the first piece played.

The large swan that was killed in the Sandy Lick creek near the Ross House a few weeks ago, has been in the hands of a taxidermist and is now on exhibition at Hotel Dillman. A stuffed fox is in the same window. The taxidermist made a poor job of the swan's neck.

In all cases where a mild but effective aperient is needed, Ayers pills are the best. They improve the appetite, restore healthy action, promote digestion and regulate every function. No pill is in greater demand, or more highly recommended by the profession.

Middaugh's Musical comedy Co. showed at the opera house last Thursday evening. The company was not greeted with a packed house, but according to statements made by those who attended the show the crowd was larger than they had shown them again if they return soon to Reynoldsville.

Samuel Steele has been appointed postmaster at Sandy Valley, W. T. Cox having resigned. Mr. Steele will take charge of the office as soon as he gets his bond in shape, which will be most any day now. He will be the leading business man of Sandy Valley, postmaster, ticket agent and dealer in general merchandise.

Our contemporary, the Volunteer, entered into its seventeenth year last week, although not under its present name—Volunteer—or management. The publication has had five or six names and as many editors in the sixteen years. Bro. Elliott purchased the plant four years ago and changed the make-up of the paper and gave it a new name. The Volunteer is a good paper.

Since publishing the editorial in last week's STAR about the frisky slipper maiden, we have heard of a number of people who let no opportunity pass by for a "pick up." There are several persons in this neck o' woods who are considered kleptomaniacs. Perhaps an unsugar-coated dose of law just before returning home after being caught appropriating something that belongs to another, would have a tendency to cure the disease.

Brockwayville, a town about half the size of Reynoldsville, is going to expend $2,400 in paving the main street of that town. There is no reason why the Main street of our town should not be paved, while at it, from the iron bridge to Presbyterian church, and next year paved to the eastern terminus of the street. Once it is done the people would not return to the muddy, unsightly, almost impassible streets we now have three or four months in the year for double the cost of paving.

The firm of Bell Bros., clothiers, doing business at DuBois and Reynoldsville, will be dissolved. The store at DuBois will be sold and W. H. Bell will continue the business at this place under his own name. The reason assigned for this dissolution is that L. S. Bell's health requires a retirement from business cares for a time. These two brothers have been successful in business and by care and generous use of printers' ink have built up a large trade and made some money out of their stores.

W. A. Neale, present prothonotary, &c., of Jefferson county, who had announced himself in the Brookville Republican as a candidate for the nomination for second term, has withdrawn from the field. His withdrawal was published in the above named paper last week. Mr. Neale has made a good officer and would likely have received the nomination from his party for a second term. However, there are four Republicans yet in the field and two Democrats. Both parties have good men to select from for prothonotary.

Two expensive wrecks occurred on the B. R. & P. R.'s last Wednesday. One was caused by a freight train getting beyond control of the train men on Mt. Jewett hill, the result of wet and slippery rails, which ran into a work train. Three or four men were killed, two engines and three or four cars smashed up. The other wreck was caused by two freight trains going in opposite direction trying to pass on the same track near Carman. The latter was the result of the Brockwayville operator neglecting his duty.

One thousand dollars per month is the modest sum asked by the authorities of Williamsport for a license for a transient business establishment to open up in that town. This seems like an enormous taxation for the privilege of doing business for one month, but the authorities are looking out for the best interests of that town, not only protecting the business men, but also that class of people who buy everything cheap that is offered for sale by transient men, and after they discover they have been cheated console themselves from the fact that others have been caught in the same trap.

Gus Coons, a clothing merchant of DuBois, whose store was closed by the sheriff on Thursday of last week, tried to snuff out his light of life by taking a dose of laudanum on Monday afternoon. His wife entered the room soon after he had taken it and discovering what he had done, hastily sent for three physicians who administered emetic which soon emptied his stomach of the poison he had taken. Mr. Coons took enough laudanum to kill about three men. The physicians and a number of the discouraged merchant's friends worked hard to restore him to the bosom of his family. They succeeded in pulling him through.

Reynoldsville and Brookville base ball nines will play at the latter place next Friday afternoon. Game to commence at 2:30. Following are the players: Reynoldsville, Alex. Whitehill, pitcher; Harry Brewer, catcher; A. A. Wingert, short stop; Will F. Schultze, 1st base; H. Gregg, 2nd base; J. Maloney, 3rd base; Geo. W. Stoke Jr. left field; Harry King, middle field; H. Smith, right field. Brookville, T. M. Starzell, pitcher; G. G. Gorley, catcher; supported by F. Smith, T. M. Carroll, M. C. Whitehill, Bruce Whitehill, S. Hunter, Grant Lucas, Will Hodgkinson. Alex. Whitehill informs us that the Reynoldsville team will return home with Brookville's scalp.

Injured in the Woods.

Jim Snyder, a young man of the Snyder settlement, was badly injured about the head last Thursday by a tree falling upon him.

Shot Two Fingers Off.

John Timmerberg, a little lad of Rathmel, son of Robert Timmerberg, who accidentally killed himself with a revolver several years ago, had the thumb and index fingers of the left hand shot off by a dynamite cartridge last Saturday.

An Increase.

Walter Spry, who has been registering the voters of the borough, made his returns Monday. His previous return showed 666 voters in Reynoldsville and the last count shows 693, making a small increase of 27 voters in six months.

The Star, of Course.

The Polander who was killed Monday had a great many names. The STAR, Volunteer and writer all had different names for him. The question is, who had the correct name, if any?—Reynoldsville correspondent to DuBois Courier. As usual the STAR was nearest the mark. His name was John Zytowiecki.

Good Singers.

James G. Daily, of Brockwayville, and Rev. J. C. McDonald, of Punxsutawney, furnished some very delightful singing in Centennial Hall last Thursday evening. Prof. Daily has gained a deserved reputation as a singer and takes well in Reynoldsville. Rev. McDonald is a good singer and the twain were loudly encored.

Fifty-Eight Hundred Sold.

The regular monthly meeting of the Reynoldsville Building and Loan Association was held in Flynn's hall Monday evening and 29 shares, or $5,800, were sold at an average premium of a fraction over 28 cents on the dollar, as follows: Five shares at 25, four at 26, four at 26 1/2, two at 29, four at 29 1/2, four at 30, one at 30 1/2, two at 31, three at 32.

Postponed.

It was announced last week that the Clearfield and Mahoning railroad would put on a passenger train between Reynoldsville and Clearfield on Monday, May 29th, but owing to the fact that the road will not be in a good condition to run passenger trains over it, the train will not be put on until Monday, June 6th. The regular passenger train will leave here at 7:10 A. M.

Band Concert.

The gentlemen of the Keystone band of this place, who have been gaining quite a reputation the past year for good music and a fine appearance, gave an open air concert on the balcony of Hotel Dillman last Friday evening. The music was excellent and was listened to by a large crowd of people who congregated along the sidewalks. The music had a tendency to liven people up. One young lady, a member of a non-dancing church, was so enraptured with the music that she forgot all else and took a little waltz on the sidewalk without a partner. Make the welkin ring soon again, gentlemen, with your delightful music. What has become of the Prescottville band? Let them give an open air concert. The boys of that band also know how to "toot out" good music.

New Lodge.

As previously stated by the STAR that it would be, a new lodge was instituted in the I. O. O. F. hall at this place on Monday evening by District Grand Chief, O. M. Armstrong. It is composed of ladies, is a branch of the Golden Eagle, and will be known as Pleasant Valley Temple, No. 25. The following officers were elected: Noble Templar, Mrs. Robert Sayers; Vice Templar, Mrs. Joseph Reed; Priestess, Mrs. Frank McGinnis; Prophetess, Mrs. J. Lydiek; Guardian of Records, Mrs. Jas. Tyson; Guardian of Exchequer, Mrs. C. S. Armagost; Guardian of Inside Portal, Mrs. Chas. Ritzke; Guardian of Outside Portal, Miss Hannah Reed; Trustees, Mrs. J. Lydiek, Miss Hannah Reed, Miss Jeannette Watson. The following ladies from Echo Temple, No. 19, of Brockwayville, were present: Mrs. Maggie Snyder, Mrs. Minnie Seabold, Mrs. Eleanor Rudolph, Mrs. Mary Buck and Mrs. Sarah Myers.

Reunion at Punxsutawney.

The first reunion of the Jr. O. U. A. M. Reunion Association composed of Councils in the counties of Jefferson, Armstrong, Indiana, Elk, Cambria, Clearfield, Clarion and Blair, was held at Punxsutawney last Wednesday, this being the occasion of the fortieth anniversary of the order. Great preparations were made for a grand time and a big demonstration, but man proposes and the Lord disposes. The disagreeable weather several days previous and on the day set for the reunion, was a damper on the ardor of many who expected to attend the "blow out." Our town was well represented. The Keystone band was there and received praise for their excellent playing. This band is becoming noted abroad for their fine music. The Falls Creek Council won the first prize, a flag, for having the best per cent of membership in line; the second, a Past Councilor's collar, lies between Trade City and Mahaffey Councils; Reynoldsville won the third, a Commander's sword and belt. The Council from this place made the best appearance in the parade.

Free Text Record.

Prof. W. J. Weaver, foreseeing that in the event of the Free Text Book bill becoming a law, a record for the use of teachers would be an absolute necessity, set his wits to work to devise some plan by which the work of keeping the record of the books used, &c., could be done with the least possible labor, and at the same time be uniform throughout and easily understood, and as a result of his efforts in this direction he has secured a copyright on his "Handy Free Text Book Record." It has been examined by a number of our prominent citizens who unhesitatingly pronounce it the simplest, yet the most complete work of the kind extant, and a labor-saving device to teachers and school officers, as every detail can be seen at a glance. The Prof. being himself a practical teacher knew just what was necessary, and in his Record has omitted nothing pertaining to the completeness of the same. The manufacture and introduction of the Record will be pushed rapidly forward, and we predict for it a large sale and a hearty welcome by all those interested in the Free Text Books and public school matters in general.

The New Brick.

J. V. Young, of this place, has taken the contract to build the two story brick on the corner of Main and Fourth streets, an addition to the Nolan block. Work of removing the old frame building off the site was commenced Monday. The building is to be 80 feet long and 21 feet 6 inches wide. An addition of 22 feet will be built onto the room now occupied by C. F. Hoffman's jewelry store, making it 80 feet deep, and enough will be cut off the two rooms to make a store room with entrance on Fourth street. The first floor of the new building is for the First National Bank. The entrance to the bank will be on Main street, corner next to Fourth street. It is to be finished with brick cornices. The vault is to have a 13 inch wall, four inch space and then a 9 inch wall. Flour and ceiling to be made of railroad iron, brick and cement. Vault to be 8x8 feet inside. Building to be completed in September.

Both Hustlers.

Amos Burson, general manager of the Kellogg Mowing Machine Knife Grinder for United States and Dominion of Canada, who has his headquarters at Punxsutawney, and John W. Phillippi, general agent for the same establishment, formerly a resident of Winslow township, now of Punxsutawney, were in Reynoldsville Monday. Mr. Burson is a gentlemanly fellow and lacks not the business vim necessary for the position he holds. It is well known in this neck o' woods that Mr. Phillippi makes an excellent agent. The Mowing Machine Knife Grinder, which is manufactured for this state at Lindsey, Pa., is almost an indispensable article for the farmer and is a rapid seller. This Company has a good thing and they know it. The "Grinder" is sold at a reasonable price, thus putting it within the reach of all farmers and thereby disposing of the tedious grindstone way which is almost enough to drive a farmer's boy away from home.

Only One Cow.

A story went the rounds last week that a number of town cows had gone down along the railroad and eaten hay that had been thrown out which had broken glass in it and that three of the bovines died soon after eating the hay. An investigation proved the fact that C. G. Matson's cow had died near where the hay was. Harry O'Bryan, Matson's bartender, says he opened the cow and could not tell what killed her, but from reports he had heard, rendered a verdict that the cow died from eating hay with broken glass in it. A half dozen or more people, according to statements made, had seen the three dead cows, but when asked about it, they were told by some one else who had seen them. When all the "I was told so," was shaken out of the story the facts were as above stated.

Struck by Lightning.

During the storm last Saturday, while the lightnings flashed athwart the heavens, a portion of the atmospheric electricity toyed with a board pile at Hopkins mill near a shed where some men and a mule were working. The men and mule were all on their knees in a jiffy—knocked down from the effects of the lightning. There was no one injured, but all badly frightened. The lightning ran along the track in the lumber yard and the men working some distance from where it struck, felt the effects of it. One man who was standing on the track had the heel of one shoe torn off. A black streak where the lightning struck the board pile and some nervous men were the only traces left of the destructive visitor. It was a narrow escape.

Black's Attraction.

One of the windows in the billiard room at Hotel McConnell has been closed in with wire fencing and the little monkey brought here by Dr. Phillippi was turned loose in it Saturday. A limb of a tree has been fastened in the cage and the monkey performs some funny antics for the amusement of small boys and full grown men. It is the most attractive window in town at present.

PROHIBITION CONVENTION.

County Ticket Nominated—A Big Day for Prohib.

Last Thursday the Prohibitionists of Jefferson county held a convention in Centennial hall at this place which was well attended. The convention convened at 2:00 P. M. with the County Chairman, Solomon Shaffer, in the chair. W. H. Robinson, of Sugar Hill, was elected secretary for the convention. The Bellview quartette sang a piece, Rev. Jas. H. Jelbart led in prayer, minutes of last convention read and approved. Then the following committees were announced by the chair: On organization, D. A. Platt, E. T. Dorr and Jas. H. Jelbart; resolutions, P. J. Slatery, L. Wick and R. M. Hunsicker; nominations, A. D. Deemer, J. C. Sprankle, Jas. G. Kearney and Archie McCullough.

M. B. Van Bennett, of Kansas, was introduced and spoke enthusiastically on the Prohibition cause for twenty minutes. The chairman then asked for money to carry on the work of the campaign. One hundred and forty-nine dollars was quickly pledged. The Bellview quartette sang again, after which Rev. J. C. McDonald, of Punxsutawney, addressed the convention and then Jas. G. Daily and Rev. McDonald sang an appropriate song.

The committee on organization reported as follows: Solomon Shaffer, county chairman; J. Van Reed, secretary and treasurer; county executive committee, S. Shaffer, chairman, J. Van Reed, A. D. Deemer, J. G. Kearney and J. S. Bair. The report was adopted. The committee on nomination reported and the following gentlemen were nominated for the county ticket: Prothonotary, &c., J. B. Bair, of Punxsutawney; sheriff, R. F. Millen, of Falls Creek; treasurer, J. C. Sprankle, of Grange; commissioners, R. L. Miles, Marshall McLaughlin; auditors, Abraham Snyder, F. A. Elch. The following gentlemen were elected as delegates to the State Convention to be held at Harrisburg on June 7th: S. Shaffer, A. D. Deemer, J. G. Daily, W. W. Clawson, A. E. Dunn and J. Van Reed. Alternates, J. C. Sprankle and R. L. Miles.

A large crowd attended the evening meeting, which was opened with prayer by Rev. D. A. Platt. Mr. Bennett delivered an excellent and telling address. Several times in the address he spoke of incidents he had heard of where there was singing and he would stop long enough to let the choir sing softly a verse or two. The people, generally, were better pleased with the meeting than any other one the Prohibitionists have ever held in the town. With Van Bennett as a speaker and Prof. Daily and Rev. McDonald as singers, the party have a trio that will win for them.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. gave a dinner and supper in the G. A. R. hall which was well patronized. The meals were good ones for the price asked for them—twenty-five cents.

The Prohibitionists were well pleased with the proceedings of the convention, and no doubt many of them went home more enthused than ever in their party.

Fully Appreciated.

It is generally the custom with newspapers to publish the complimentary notices given by their exchanges, but as we have not been in the newspaper business long and are yet modest about publishing what others say of the STAR, especially when the notices are exceedingly flattering, we refrain from it, and hereby return thanks to the following publications for the kind mention made in their papers on the expiration of the STAR's first year on the journalistic sea. We fully appreciate the kind words said. Accept our thanks brother editors of Big Run Echo, Brookville Democrat, Falls Creek Herald, Clearfield Raftsmen's Journal, Kittanning Globe, Driftwood Gazette, DuBois Courier, Ridgway Advocate, Pittsburg Times, Clarion Republican, Lock Haven Express and Reynoldsville Volunteer.

What Become of Them?

J. W. Johnston, proprietor of the West Reynoldsville feed store, started home one day recently with a basket of potatoes. He had crossed the railroad on his way home when he met a gentleman who wanted something out of the store and the feed man set his potatoes down and went back with him, but when he returned the potatoes were gone and Mr. Johnston has been unable to find where they went to. It was an appropriation which Mr. Johnston provided for.
