

HOW TO SEE THE FAIR.

USEFUL HINTS TO ECONOMIZE TIME AND TROUBLE.

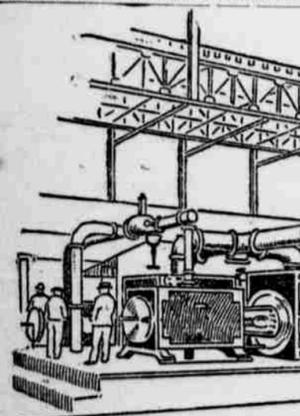

Exhibits That Are Ready and Those That Are Not—A Trip Through the Grounds and the Buildings—A Glance at the Various Buildings and Objects of Interest.

After all complaints have been made and raised... What things are good to spend a long time over... The first thing necessary for a visitor to do is to get the general effect of the architecture and the grounds.

COLONEL GEORGE B. DAVIS, Director-General of the World's Columbian Exposition.

The visitor having taken this in the general effect of the World's Fair, has seen what will probably in years to come be regarded as its strongest attraction. He may now turn his attention to the individual groups of buildings and the exhibits.

THE GREAT ATLAS ENGINE IN MACHINERY HALL.

ing himself finally in Iowa's pavilion, on the lake. If he will then turn to the right, he can walk by the lake and see the French, German, Spanish, and several other foreign buildings.

For Cleaning Marble. Common dry salt is said to be one of the best agents for cleaning marble, such as washbasins, sink fixtures and the like.

he will find the Transportation Building the nearest large one when he enters, and may look at it first. Outside it is exceedingly ornamental.

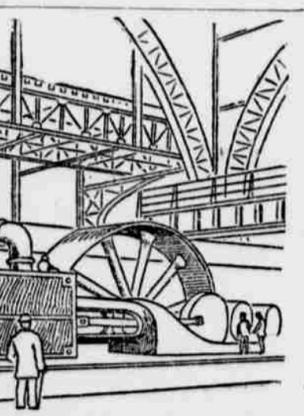

THE GERMAN VILLAGE, MIDWAY PLAISANCE.

ing, especially to any one who has never been abroad, are the English locomotives and railway carriages. These are the finest used, and the first, second, and third class sections are thrown open so as to admit of the minutest inspection.

Having seen this building, you may come by the main entrance and turning to the right proceed about a rod, and then turn to the left and keep by the edge of the lagoon until you reach the bridge immediately in front of the Electricity Building.

The Electricity Building, which is on the side of the Mining Building, may also be passed by. The outside is the best part of it. Inside there is now little to interest one, unless he desires to make a study of the process of installation.

THE TURKISH VILLAGE, MIDWAY PLAISANCE.

the display of the Smithsonian Institution and National Museum. This is being perfected by day, but to all appearances is almost perfect now. The track is that the Government Building is by far the most complete in its exhibits in the grounds.

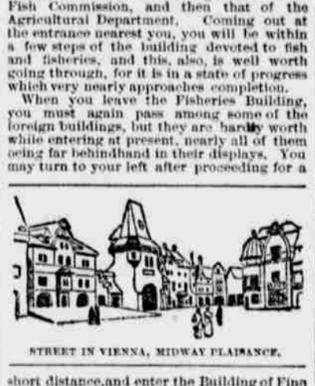

Want the Gates Barred on Sunday. The General Synod of the Lutheran church, in session at Canton, O., passed resolutions condemning the opening of the World's Fair on Sunday and advising all members of the church not to visit the Fair if the gates are unbarred on the Sabbath.

curiosity, an exhibit that excites a great deal of curiosity from visitors, but which really illustrates nothing in particular.

THE FISH MARKET, MIDWAY PLAISANCE.

ing, and it contains the most valuable collection of autographs and State papers in the grounds. Opposite this is the small exhibit of the Department of Justice.

STREET IN VIENNA, MIDWAY PLAISANCE.

short distance, and enter the Building of Fine Arts. No other structure approaches this one. It is the best built, being fireproof; it is well lighted, and it is a triumph of art outside and inside.

From the south side of the Woman's Building you may pass in Horticultural Hall, which also warrants a visit, and from there pass by Choral Hall, which is not fully completed.

EATING CHILDREN.

Horrors of the Famine in the Interior of China. A dispatch from Shanghai, China says: Reports of widespread famine in the distant province of Shanghai continue to come slowly in, and the state of affairs revealed surpasses in horror anything heard in recent years about Chinese famines.

Three Boys Drowned. A sad drowning accident happened in the East river near the navy-yard, New York. Three little Brooklyn boys were drowned. Four others were rescued in an exhausted condition.

COLUMBIAN FAIR NEWS ITEMS

IT WAS OPEN ON SUNDAY.

EIGHTEEN STATE BUILDINGS OPEN AND FOURTEEN CLOSED.

The World's Columbian Exposition was open to the people on Sunday last and Jackson Park was filled. It was estimated that over 200,000 people visited the fair on that day.

In view of the fact that it was Sunday only a part of the State buildings were open. The State buildings which were open were those of Illinois, California, Wisconsin, Colorado, Michigan, Maine, Iowa, Idaho, Montana, Kansas, Nebraska, Washington, Minnesota, Florida, Arizona, New Mexico, Ohio and Wyoming.

The receipts of the Fair have gradually increased until now they are daily $110,000. The receipts for the last seven days are $770,000, says the National World's Fair Commission.

After hearing arguments all of Friday in the Circuit Court, Judge Stein took the matter under advisement until Monday morning.

Reports received at the treasury department indicate a larger registration of Chinese than anticipated. Reports from 49 out of 63 internal revenue districts show that 11,273 have registered.

OUR WEEKLY TRADE REVIEW.

Better Weather Stimulates Retail Trade and Livened Up Other Lines. R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says:

In two ways there has been quite a general improvement during the past week. Better weather throughout most of the country has stimulated retail trade, and the large distribution of goods has made jobbing trade more active.

THE BUSINESS BAROMETER.

Bank clearings totals for the week ending May 23, as telegraphed to Trade, are as follows: New York, $576,912,249 D 14.9; Chicago, $1,167,827 D 6.7; Boston, $6,449,567 D 7.3; Philadelphia, $2,315,163 D 9.3; St. Louis, $2,235,371 D 11.2; Pittsburgh, $3,821,114 D 11.2; San Francisco, $3,025,885 D 24.7; Baltimore, $3,672,816 D 2.9; Cincinnati, $3,255,590 D 4.4; Cleveland, $5,577,380 D 1.3.

Base Ball Record.

The following table shows the standing of the different base ball clubs up to date: W. L. P. C. Pittsburgh, 15 6 652 Baltimore, 13 11 520 Cleveland, 11 6 647 Cincinnati, 12 14 492 Brooklyn, 13 10 563 Washington, 11 14 440 St. Louis, 13 11 542 New York, 11 14 440 Philadelphia, 12 11 522 Chicago, 9 14 391 Boston, 13 12 520 Louisville, 4 11 297.

LATER NEWS WAIFS.

FINANCIAL.

At Melbourne, Australia, the Mercantile Financial Trustees and Agency Company has suspended payment. The nominal capital of the concern exceeds $20,000,000, and the British deposits in the institution amount to $1,500,000.

At Fostoria, O., Ex-Secretary of the Treasury Charles Foster made an assignment of his large and diversified business interests for the benefit of his creditors.

"Business is largely done with borrowed money. Confidence in the maintenance of sound financial conditions is essential to legitimate lending. That public confidence has for some time been shaken in the ability of the government to maintain gold payments is evident.

CRIMES AND PENALTIES.

Henry Ramsey, negro, was hanged in Richmond county, Ga., jail yard for the murder last October of Robert Y. Harris, marshal of Somerville.

Robert Alexander, Louis and Howard Pugh, negro boys were hanged at Tucker, Ala., for a criminal assault on Mrs. Cox, a farmer's wife.

At Camden, N. J., Geo. Morris, the colored veteran who murdered his housekeeper, Ella Ford, in a fit of jealousy, was sentenced to 20 years in the Trenton, N. J., penitentiary by Judge Sanson.

WASHINGTON.

Reports received at the treasury department indicate a larger registration of Chinese than anticipated.

CAPITAL AND LABOR.

The Miners' International Conference has agreed upon the necessity of a better inspection of mines and has also voted in favor of the equality of men employed on the surface and those employed under ground.

FOREIGN.

Advices from Roumania say that floods have destroyed over 500,000 acres of crops, and that the damage is nearly $1,000,000.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The remains of Jefferson Davis, after reposing in Louisiana for nearly four years, have been transferred to their final resting place in Hollywood Cemetery at Richmond, Va., the scene of the most momentous occurrences of his life.

A SCENE OF SPLENDOR.

The Hall in Honor of the Infants the Most Select Event New York Has Known. Magnificent Decorations.

On Friday the Infanta Eulalie made an informal trip up the Hudson as far as Yonkers on the dispatch boat Dolphin. The ball in her honor in the evening at Madison Square Garden, New York City, was carried out according to the elaborate plan arranged and was a great success in every respect.

The front stage presented a beautiful sight. Nine private boxes were arranged there, behind which there appeared a conservatory effect that was delusive in its naturalness. It was created by an ingenious grouping of lofty palms, foliage plants and jardiniere of long-stemmed American beauty roses and lilac plants in full bloom.

LATE TELEGRAPHIC JOTTINGS

BOTH FROM HOME AND ABROAD.

What is Going On the World Over. Important Events Briefly Chronicled.

At Winton, Va., Hanes & Company's mammoth plug and twine factory, the second largest house of its kind in the South and other valuable property were burned.

At Belding, Mich., fire broke out in Robinson & Hudson's grocery store. Fanned by a strong wind, it spread rapidly from store to store, destroying a large number of buildings.

At Rocklin, Cal., twenty five houses, loss $75,000; insurance, two-thirds. Alice Irish, a chambermaid, was burned to death.

CRIME AND PENALTIES.

William Sullivan the Leech murderer, was lynched at Corona, Mich.

At Lamar, Mo., Amos Avery was hanged. His crime was the murder of James A. Miles, a traveling photographer, to secure the latter's team and outfit.

At Arcola, Ill., ex-mayor A. B. Dimond was shot and almost instantly killed by his partner, David Miller. The men quarreled over a business matter and both drew revolvers and began firing.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Over 5,000 Chinese Registered.—Reports from 44 of the 63 internal revenue districts show that 5,413 Chinese have registered.

Owing to the small amount of gold bullion deposited and heavy expense, Secretary Carlisle has directed the suspension of the mint at Carson City, Nev.

CRIMES AND PENALTIES.

William E. Quinby, editor and chief proprietor of the Detroit "Free Press" was appointed Minister to the Netherlands.

CRIMINAL LABOR AND INDUSTRIAL.

The four hundred trammers in Calumet and Hecla, Mich., copper mines have refused to go under ground unless Sunday night work is stopped, and they get the same wages as before, $63 per month.

RELIGIOUS.

In the General Synod of the Lutheran church in session at Canton, O., officers were elected as follows: President, Dr. C. Pabiero, Baltimore; Secretary, W. S. Freese, York, Pa.; Treasurer, Louis Maus, Cincinnati.

LEGISLATIVE.

The Michigan legislature has adjourned. The house passed the compulsory transportation bill, which provides that railroads be required to issue free transportation to all state officers.

BEYOND OUR BORDERS.

A landslide has occurred at Vaerdalen, Norway. Fifty farms were destroyed and over 100 persons are missing.

The wedding of the Duke of York and Princess May of Teck has been fixed for July 6.

A dispatch from Groestrelitz says that a terrible fire occurred at Kruppamuehle, where an explosion destroyed a large establishment.

THE CROP PROSPECTS.

The Present Outlook in Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Ohio. The monthly crop report issued at Washington contains the following:

Pennsylvania—Floods and cool weather damaged and retarded crops in northwestern portion, but conditions have been improved by the recent warmth.

West Virginia—Wheat has made fine growth; oats and grass are growing nicely; corn and garden vegetables are seriously affected by excessive rains; fruit prospects are promising; stock is doing well.

Ohio—Corn is half planted, with some coming up; wheat, oats, grass, rye, barley, potatoes and tobacco plants are growing finely; cherries, plums and pears are falling off badly; strawberries will yield a large crop.

Ten Laborers Blown to Pieces. A powder mill at St. Ingbert, Germany, exploded and the building was entirely wrecked. Ten laborers were killed outright and a large number wounded. A dynamite factory near Oppeln was destroyed by an explosion with a loss of 1,000,000 marks.